HAVE FAITH.

A swallow in the Spring Came to our granary and 'neath the eaves Essayed to make a nest, and there did

Wet mud and straw and leaves.

Day after day she toiled With patient art; but ere her work was crowned Some sad mishap the tiny fabric spoiled And dashed it to the ground.

She found the ruin wrought; not cast down, forth from the place she flew, with her mate fresh earth and grasses brought

. And built her nest anew. But scarcely had she placed The last feather on its ample floor When wicked hand or chance again laid

And wrought the ruin o'er.

But still her heart she kept And toiled again-and last night, hearing calls, I looked and lo! three little swallows

Within its earth-made walls.

What truth is here, O man! Hath hope been smitten in its early dawn?
