Fayetteville Observer's Raleigh Letter. State Industrial Books.

. . . Others of your readers may care more for public interests, and may in a few days the second of a series of INDUSTRIAL BOOKS, great resources, and to make known abroad what the State can do for sensible men with strong arms and willing hearts who may seek to find homes in it. The big volumnes issued by Professor Emmons and Professor Kerr have been very valuable, but I doubt if all of them have brought into North Carolina more ready money than has come to it from the little book known as "The Woods and Timbers of North Carolina." You see, even if those valuable big books could be had, few people have time enough to hunt through them for the special informa tion they wish on some one particular subject. This next little book, which will be uniform with "Woods and Timbers," is about the.

COAL AND IRON COUNTIES . of North Carolina. It will contain a l in regard to the immense coal and iron deposits that is essential or of general interest in the out-of-print Emmons, the out-of-print Kerr, and the out-of-print Wilkes and Laidley Reports to the United States Government. To these will be added a thorough description of all that is of interest to the public, emigrants or investors, in each county referred to in those valuable documents. The range of the book is shown by the list of counties viz: Alexander, Ashe, Alleghany, Anson, Buncombe, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Catawba, Chatham, Cherokee, Clay, Cleveland, Cumberland, Davidson, Davie, Durham, Forsyth, Franklin, Gaston, Graham, Granville, Guilford, Halifax, Harnett, Haywood, Henderson, Iredell, Jackson, Johnston, Lincoln, McDowell, Macon, Madison, Mecklenburg, Mitchell, Mont- Observer, June 24. gomery, Moore, Nash, Orange, Pers Randolph, Richmond, Rockingham, Rowan, Stokes, Surry, Swain, Transylvania, Vance, Wake, Watauga, Wilkes, Wilson, Yadkin and Yancey. The names of the contributors of county sketches, all men of character and without axes to grind, guarantee the book's accuracy. Have you Carolina brains, information and character as this? viz: K P Battle, R T Bunn, R K Bryan, Rev R W Barber. Jno D Cameron, J P Caldwell, W B Council, Jno W Cunningham, Jos J Davis, A M Ecwin, Jona Evans, W W Fuller, J H Greene, Jas D Glenn, E T Hats. B Glenn, R B Haywood, Jas P Hodges, Chas R Jones, W W Jones, Wm Johnston, W W Lenoir, M V Moore, cheap are almost gone. PB; Means. McIver & Black, L S Overman, M H Pinnix, M S Robbins, W L Steele, Lyndon Swaim, H F Schenck, J W Todd, S McD Tate. E L Vaughan, M Q Waddell, A II A Williams, J E Woodard, C B Watsen J R Young To these county sketches are added an admirable sketch by Prof. Kerr of that great range of coal and iron country traversed and to be trayersed by the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, and a sketch of Pied. mont and Mountain North Carolina by an accomplished New England Editor who has three times, on foct and in the saddle, explored the country-one of the most remarkable pieces of "paper writing" it has ever been my fortune to read. All that the census tells of North Carolina and a good map of the State will make up the book. P. M. H.

News and Observer: As we go to press we hear with great regret of the death of Mrs. John W. Graham, at Hillsboro. —Mr. L. Bledsoe, a promising youth, only 16 years of age, the son of Mr. M. L. Bledsoe, of Barton's Creek township, went out in the woods squirrel hunting yesterday. By some nocldent he shot himself in the neck, dying in a short time from the effects of the wound. The event causes much sadness in the community. --- Sunday night an old man, all the way from the edge of Harnett, came here to see the hanging, bringing with him his two 16 Musle Box, I tune, crank, fine...... sons, aged 12 and 14. He hore his disappointment bravely, drank a pint of whiskey, ate the larger portion of four watermelons, and so managed to get through the day fairly well. In the afternoon he said he only hated missing the hanging for the boys' sake. As for himself, he had seen plenty of men swung off, but it was hard for the boys to come thirty miles on Sunday and Gold Violin, Guitar and Banjo Strings, e nothing when they got here. Yesterday evening about 7 o'clock Mr Silver Violin, Gultar and Banjo Strings, W H Crow and three of his children, Steel Violin, Guitar and Banjo Strings, were returning to the city after a drive. Gut, Russian, German or Italian, best accompanied by Miss Nannie Burwell, When near the crossing of the Raleigh & Gaston Road, at Pigeon House branch hill, the horse took fright at a bush and dashed off at a furious pace. Mr Crow, who was driving, seeing the danger of crossing the bridge just ahead, reined the horse into the ditch, throwing him down. At the same time Mr Crow and Miss Burwell were the same of the road.
