PLEASE NOTICE.

We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Eight million acres of Government land in Dakota have been disposed of to private persons within a year.

Captain James B. Eads has received from the government $4,800,000 for his work at the mouth of the Mississippi.

John Wannamaker, the Philadelphia dry goods king, paid two hundred thousand dollars for advertising last year and made a million.

The Union Theological Seminary, New York, now has property worth $1,730,000, which is an increase of nearly one million of dollars within ten years.

The leather trade seems likely to be thoroughly sifted by the shock of the heavy failures, and the shaking will cause most of the insolvent firms to drop out.

The Conard Company is building two steamers of 8,000 tons burden and 11,000 horse-power, to cost $3,000,000, with a speed to enable them to cross the Atlantic in six days.

It is claimed that the first street letter-boxes ever used in this country were put up in Boston in 1858, the first collection being made on the 2d of August of that year at noon.

The Cherokees have had a close election, and if the count leaves a doubt as to who are elected, the number of scalps in the tribe may be considerably reduced before the dispute is ended.

Sullivan, the bruiser, stands more than an even chance of being effectually "knocked out." He has opened a $20,000 gin mill in Boston, and that will be pretty certain to get the better of him.

The breach of court etiquette which permitted a fair American belle who had not been presented to be present at the last state ball has stirred a tumult in London's high circles. The Queen is angry.

Judge William S. Holman, Congressman from one of the Indiana districts, has served nearly twenty years in the House. He is prominently named as a democratic candidate for the Presidency.

There is an Oxford graduate in the poor house at Newburyport, Mass., and he gives what is called "a very eloquent and critical lecture on English poetry, making judicious selections and showing wonderful knowledge."

Charles H. Bryan, a Nevada lawyer, in 1864, made a speech of two or three hours' length, in a mining case. He was paid a fee of $100,000. He went East, bought a race horse and became a pauper--all in a few months.

It has been stated that Mrs. Langtry was enthusiastically received by the Prince of Wales, but we are not informed as to the reception she received by Mr. Langtry, who would be supposed to have some interest in the matter.

A thief was arrested in Louisville on the day before the opening of the exposition. He offered $1,000 for a parole until after the show, as he had confidently expected to pick a large number of rich pockets and disliked to have his plans frustrated.

We learn from one of our subscribers that Mrs. Mary Bourdeau died at her residence, in Caintuck township, Pender county, July 17th, at the advanced age of 80 years, 4 months and 13 days. She was born in Columbus county on the 4th of March, 1803.

Miss Fuller is a school teacher in Grand Marais, Northern Michigan. She is also an admirable shot with the rifle, and, after-school hours, goes hunting in the neighboring woods. The family with whom she boards are kept well supplied with game, large and small. She is the admiration of the country, and all the young men are in love with her.

A London weekly tells us that the secretary of Mrs. Woodhull, "candidate for the Presidency of the United States for 1884," has circulated a printed call "from free England, supported by English capitalists." She is "ready with all her wonted devotion to her country and to the cause of humanity to take this work upon herself, and gives unreservedly all her strength, enthusiasm, and all the wealth she has accumulated in England to the result of this election."

Grape growing in California pays about as well as any form of agricultural industry, even without discounting

A well-known florist says that flowers will keep better wrapped in a wet newspaper than in any other way. This is another argument in favor of subscribing.

Some one in speaking of female suffrage, has said that it would be an unwomanly feat for woman to go to the polls and vote. We agree with the sentiment and believe that only unwomanly feet will travel that road for some time to come.

A Good Work. We have received the North Carolina Teacher for August. It is a valuable work for both student and teacher, and we hope for it that abundant success which its merits deserve. The articles are all of great importance and the typography and press work are excellent. It is published monthly at a subscription price of $1 per annum, by Alfred Williams & Co., Raleigh, N. C.

Personal. Mr. Edward D. Johnston, an old Wilmington boy, is on a visit to his relatives in this city. He is now a bird of passage being employed in the civil service under the U. S. Engineers on the river and harbor improvements throughout the country. For the past two years he has been Superintending the improvements of the rivers of Florida and is now en route for New York city, where he is assigned to work on the harbor improvements in that port.

Jumped From the Train. Last night just after the passenger train left Charlotte a young white man was caught stealing a ride on the rear platform of the sleeper. The conductor told him he would have to get off and stepped inside the door to pull the bell cord. The fellow evidently thinking that the conductor was going for help to arrest him plunged off the train, which was going at the rate of about 20 miles an hour. The train was stopped and a search instituted for the fellow, who still thinking he would be arrested took to the woods. It is not known whether he was seriously hurt, but the supposition is that he got off light. His actions to say the least were foolhardy and suspicious.

State Pharmaceutical Association. SECOND DAY--NIGHT SESSION. Yesterday the members of the Pharmaceutical Association spent the day down the river, and only met at night. The meeting was called to order at 8.30, o'clock. The committee on Exhibits made their report and recommended the use of the articles exhibited.

The President appointed as delegates to the Convention to the American Pharmaceutical Association, which will convene in Washington City on the 11th of September, the following named gentlemen, Messrs Wm Simpson, E V Zoeller, E H Meadows, A P Thorp and H S Furman.

On motion of Mr E M Nadal a vote of thanks was tendered the druggists of this city for courtesies shown.

Mr J G M Cordon read a paper in answer to query: To what extent if any are Pharmacists justified in manufacturing or indorsing proprietary preparations, the composition of which are kept secret. Referred to the Executive Committee to publish.

An election of officers was held, with the following result: President--W H Green, Wilmington. 1st Vice President--J H Hill, Goldsboro. 2nd Vice President--V G Thompson, Winston. 3rd Vice President--T C Smith, Charlotte. Secretary--J C Munds, Wilmington. Local Secretary--J R Wriston, Charlotte.

Treasurer--A S Lee, Raleigh. Executive Committee--E F Hatch, Chairman, Goldsboro; W W Hargrave, Wilson; E V Zoeller, Tarboro; S R W Martin, Winston; F W Hancock, Newbern; Jno Tull, Morganton. The President then made the following appointments: Committee on Business--J H Hill, I R Wriston, A P Thorp. Committee on Paper and Queries--E V Zoeller, John Tull, J G M Cordon. Committee on Education--W H Green, Chairman ex officio, V O Thompson, J H Hill, J R Williams, E M Nadal.

Upon motion of Mr Wm Simpson, a vote of thanks was tendered the press of the city for courtesies, also to Germania Lodge, K of P for the use of their hall.

The meeting adjourned to meet on the second Monday in August next in Charlotte.

Prof. Washington Catlett, of this city, furnishes an interesting and instructive article to the August number of the North Carolina Teacher, on "The Explanation of mathematical problems" to pupils.

Mr. Jas. C. Smith who left this city two years ago to make his home in the up country, is in the city on a visit. We learn that it is his intention to remove his family to Wilmington in the fall. An other evidence of the magnetic properties of the Rock Spring water.

To-day is the 126th anniversary of what is known in history as the Massacre of Fort William Henry, which occurred on the 10th of August, 1757, during the old French and Indian War, and what is made the ground work of James Fenimore Cooper's celebrated novel of "The last of the Mohicans."

Yes, young man, we think it is perfectly proper for you to treat your lady love to an iced cream occasionally. She furnished the fire and lights and kept you out of bad company during the long evenings of last Winter, and you ought to be willing to return the kindness.

For cleaning mirrors, dust-cloths, floor-cloths and dish-cloths are good things, and so is a glass-cloth, when its use is confined to table-ware, but she who tries to clean a mirror with cloth is foolish and wasteful of time. Soft paper and ammonia are the proper things, and when they are used the mirror is left speckless and bright in a very short time.

We notice daily a young artist--a Wilmington boy--in this city, who faithfully devotes his spare time to the pleasant task of making a crayon portrait of the best friend he has on earth. Even from the distance say of about 100 feet, from which we see him at work, we can easily discern the resemblance to the original. He is untutored in the art of crayon drawing, but is evidently endowed with a gift.

The display of Lundberg's perfumes and Rheinish Cologne before the Pharmaceutical Association deserve more than a passing notice. Druggist generally recognize the excellent quality of the odors and were also struck with the old design in bottles and other vessels which contained them. Mr. James B. Weaver who had the display in charge faithfully represented his employees and was ever willing to show and test the merits of his goods.

Mosquitoes. It is said that a room may be rid of mosquitoes by taking a piece of gum camphor about one third the size of a hen's egg, and evaporate it by placing it in a tin vessel, holding it over a lamp or candle, taking care that it does not ignite. The smoke will soon fill the room and expel the mosquitoes.

Criminal Court. The attention of the Court was consumed up to 4 o'clock to-day in the disposition of the following cases: State vs. Robert Moore, larceny; defendant submits. State vs. George Williams, larceny; settled. State vs. James Roderick, carrying concealed weapon. Settled. State vs. Mary Beatty; settled. State vs. E. J. Wright. Dismissed. State vs. Mary Ann Giles. Dismissed. State vs. Adam Greene; larceny. Defendant submitted. State vs. Monroe Johnson; larceny. Judgment nisi. State vs. Mary Anderson; disorderly house. Continued. State Lou Grogen and Fanny Mallett; disorderly house. Continued.

Delivery of Newspapers. The special order of the Postmaster General requiring the prompt delivery of newspapers as well as letters is what has been needed for some time. Persons outside of the newspaper business can scarcely realize the amount of inconvenience publishers and subscribers have been subjected to for years by the neglect on the part of postmasters in country towns, and occasionally in cities, failing to recognize the importance of newspaper delivery. Instances are not infrequent where a newspaper has been read by the postmaster and his entire family, even "lent" to the neighbors before it reached the hands of the person to whom it was directed. The order includes among other important matters, an express prohibition of such detention of newspaper packages. There is no reason why a contract for carrying a newspaper should not be as carefully filled by the government as a contract for letter carrying. It is a pleasure to note the recent very acceptable action of the department.

Great Closing Out Sale. Goods will be slaughtered within the next 60 days in order to make room for one of the largest and finest Stocks of Fall and Winter clothing and gents furnishing goods ever brought to Wilmington. A. I. SHRIER, Reliable Clothiers, 114 Market St.
