

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $1.00, Six months, $2.00, Three months, $1.00; One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

London seamstresses get three pence for making boys' suits.

Fifty thousand dollars have been subscribed for a crematory in New York.

Massachusetts has 80,000 voters who usually stay at home election time. A great effort will be made to bring them out this year, and if they go it will be good-bye to Butler, undoubtedly.

Since the Kentucky elections Republican newspapers have not had much to say about Republican gains in that Commonwealth, as Proctor Knott's majority is larger than any since the Presidential election of 1876.

Mrs. Katharine McDowell, the Southern author, who has just died at Holly Springs, Miss., was better known as "Sherwood Bonner." She was a prolific writer for many newspapers and magazines.

Bradstreet reports 174 failures in the United States during the past week, 8 more than the preceding week, 26 more than the corresponding week of 1882, and 100 more than the same week of 1881.

The last English postal report says that the average number of letters written per head is, in England and Wales, 10; Scotland, 30; Ireland, 16; United States, 21; France, 15; Germany 13, and Italy 6.

Governor Hendricks has got into so much trouble lately by talking freely with the newspaper men that when one of them asks him now if he will accept the second place on the ticket with Tilden, "he says nothing, but smiles and winks."

William H. Vanderbilt did a graceful and generous thing in handing his check for $3,000 to the proprietor of a hotel in the White Mountains to be distributed among the thirty college boys who are acting as waiters there.

Professor C. H. F. Peters, of Clinton, N. Y., has announced to the Harvard College Observatory the discovery by him on the night of the 19th inst. of a new planet. It is unusually bright for an asteroid, being of the ninth magnitude.

A Galveston special, speaking of the water famine in that city, says:

The water famine has gone so far that drinking water can scarcely be had, and water for other purposes is not to be thought of. Many are dependent on their neighbors for enough to drink. The gardens are burned, and the wooden houses are as dry as tinder.

The New York World says: Having baffled the doctors by living, the Count of Chambord will probably now baffle them by dying. It does not seem at all probable that he can recover from this present collapse. He is a flabby being physically as well as mentally, and his death at any moment will not surprise any one.

The Philadelphia Press (Rep.) says that Secretary Chandler is now a retired "boss," and the sooner he takes himself to the rear in company with Conkling, Blaine and the other statesmen who have found it impossible to keep up with the progressive and patriotic element of the Republican party, the better it is likely to be for him.

Relative to the new postal telegraph company a dispatch from New York says:

John W. Mackay was formally made the trustee of $12,000,000 of the $21,000,000 of capital stock of the Postal Telegraph Company. This gives him complete control of the company. He will not talk about his plans in regard to the system, but is every day at the Nevada Bank, in this city, maturing them. It is said that one of the features of the system will be a uniform rate of one cent per word to all parts of the country, and that the system will be made as nearly like that of the government postoffice as possible.

Yesterday's News and Observer contains the following:

RALEIGH, August 18, 1883. I adopt this method of stating that I am no longer a member of the Republican party, neither do I belong to the Liberal Republican party. I may give my reasons hereafter for this course. W. W. HOLDEN.

We'll not bother Mr. Holden to give his reasons; we'll give them for him, here and now. He wants his disabilities removed by the Legislature, so that he can enter the political field once more, and that means on the Republican side. In no case should the Democrats touch him or his disabilities. Let him rot and stink in the grave he has dug for himself.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, AUGUST 20, 1883.

NO. 198

Congressman Kelly, of Philadelphia, writes from Brighton, England, that his health is greatly improving, and that he can walk with ease, without being wearied, walk two miles on a stretch.

Salmi Morse Thursday made an assignment to George D. Roberts and Albert G. Eaves, of the lease of the theatre built by him in New York for the production of the Passion Play. The lease is for five years at $15,000 a year, with privilege of renewal.

One of the warmest days of the season.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 16 bales.

The Passport was crowded with colored excursionists this morning.

At 3 o'clock to-day the thermometer in this office registered 92 degrees.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Nor brig Hera, Christensen, from this port, arrived at Havre on the 17th inst.

Ger. brig Oberon, Westphal, arrived at Stettin, on the 16th inst., from this port.

There was some very good Sampson county beet brought into market this morning.

A flagstaff was placed on the City Hall this morning to project over the sidewalk on Third street.

Rev. R. W. Sanders preached at the First Baptist Church yesterday, morning and evening, and created a very favorable impression among his hearers.

Steamboatmen report that there is plenty of water in the Cape Fear for boating purposes, but that it is slowly falling off. The recent rise was about 10 feet.

Mr. James W. Conoley, one of the most experienced druggists in this city, has accepted a position in the new drug house spoken of by us a few issues since.

The committee on pulp supply of the First Baptist Church have received no reply yet from Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard to the call to the pastorate of that church recently extended him.

We understand that a number of young gentlemen in this city have chartered the Minnehaha, for a moonlight excursion to the Rocks, with a fish supper at Mayo's, on next Friday night.

The Blackfish excursion on the Passport, which was projected for last week but which was postponed on account of the heavy weather, will take place to-morrow. It is likely to be the last of the season.

A letter has been received in this city stating that Gov. Jarvis will not be able to be present at the Fair, as was expected, in consequence of which the Wilmington Light Infantry will not parade, as they intended to do, for escort duty.

It is probable, says the News and Observer, that quite a party of Raleigh people will go to Wilmington next week to see the fruit fair. Tickets will be sold at greatly reduced rates. Visitors can go to Wrightsville or Smithville and get some sea air, if they like.

What is possibly the last excursion of the season under the auspices of the ladies of the Front Street M. E. Church, will take place on the steamer Passport on Thursday next. The ladies will prepare one of their elegant dinners, which will be served on board.

Piano for Sale.
A second-hand piano for sale cheap at the residence 217 South Front st. If

Knights of Honor.
Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired.

Personal.

Mr. Isaac Levi, who for the past five years has been a salesman in the clothing house of Messrs. A. & I. Shirier, has accepted a position in the clothing house of Mr. J. D. Bucky, of Jacksonville, Fla., and left for that place on last night's train. Mr. Levi is a young gentleman whose departure we regret, and we wish for him in his new sphere of action all the success his genuine merits demand.

Regatta at Wrightsville.

A regatta, under the auspices of the Carolina Yacht Club, will take place at Wrightsville on Friday next, by which time the Banks House may be occupied although it will not be completed. Five or six yachts are already spoken of as certain to enter for the race and it is probable that others will come to the front. Further particulars will be made known in a few days.

Drowned.

Yesterday afternoon three colored boys were running about on some logs at Hilton ferry when by some accident they all fell into the water. Two of them were rescued by a colored man, who ran to their assistance, but the third, named John Johnson, a son of the colored outlaw, Tom Johnson, was drowned before assistance could be given him. He was about seven years of age, and at last accounts his body had not been recovered.

The New Postal Rule.

The new postal rule seems not to be generally understood. It is intended to secure a more general delivery of letters that were formerly sent to the dead letter office. As heretofore, three cents will be sufficient to forward a letter according to its address. When less than three cents is put on a letter the sender is notified, if his name is on the envelope, that the letter cannot be forwarded. If the sender's name is not on the envelope, the person to whom it is addressed is notified so that he can remit the balance of postage and have the letter forwarded to him. Under the rule, if a letter is mailed without a stamp, or with less than three cents, the addressee has the opportunity to get it. Under its operation fewer letters will be sent to the dead letter office than formerly.

A Pleasant Farewell.

At the residence of Mr. V. Ballard, corner Person and Polk streets, Thursday evening, a pleasant party assembled to extend Mr. Sydney Alderman a farewell. This young gentleman during his stay in our city won a host of friends, and none who more appreciated his high character and unselfish Christian labors than the pastor and members of Person street Methodist church and Sunday school. During the evening Mr. Bumpass, on behalf of Mrs. V. Ballard and Miss Minnie Redford, presented Mr. Alderman with a handsome pocket Bible, and Mr. N. B. Brighton, for little Minnie Bryant, brought a gold pencil watch-chain. Mr. Alderman bears with him the best wishes of our people, who regret his leaving us. Wilmington gains a Christian gentleman and an artist seldom equaled among photographers.—News and Observer.

The Fair.

As the time approaches for the opening of the Fruit Growers' Fair, the people are becoming more wide awake regarding the importance of the exhibition. That it will be a grand success, entirely worthy the city, is a fact already established in the minds of those who have watched its progress from the start until the present. We are informed by Mayor Hall that one gentleman from Greensboro wishes for 25 feet of space, and the prospect is now that all available room will be taken. Richard Bradley, Esq., of Wrightsville Sound, will make an imposing display of fruits, a sample of which we saw at the bookstore of Mr. P. Heinsberger this morning, in the shape of a lot of rich and luscious-looking pears, a present from Mr. Bradley to a lady of this city. Many of our own citizens, who take an interest in the cultivation and propagation of floricultural, horticultural and pomological products will make large, interesting displays. It is impossible, at present, to tell who will be the principal exhibitors, nor the extent of their exhibits, but enough is known to show that it will be a grand display. It now only remains for the people of the State to come and see what we can do when we fairly get started and make our minds up. The display will be grand, and the hospitality of our people will be large enough to meet the requirements of all the visitors who may honor the Fair by their presence.

Running at Large.

Complaint is made that some of those who own horses and mules that are worked during the week, allow them to run at large on Sunday, much to the annoyance of citizens and to the peril of children. Especially is this the case on the North side of the railroad, where, we learn, two children came near being trampled upon yesterday by a mule that was capering about the streets.

Brutal Treatment.

Willis Drake, the colored shoemaker of the "Hollow," came to police headquarters this morning with one of his children, a little boy 3 or 4 years of age, who had been whipped in a most cruel and shocking manner. It seems that some colored people living in the Eastern suburbs of the city had the child to care for, and for some offence they whipped him yesterday evening and then turned the little thing out of doors where he remained all night. He was found by a colored man who was coming to market this morning, who took him in his cart and brought him to his father. We saw the child and its sides and back were raw from the brutal beating he had received and where the skin was not taken off there were ridges as large as one's finger.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Lippincott's for September has an attractive table of contents, including several articles of special interest. An Italian watering-place, "Viareggio," is the subject of an illustrated paper. Under the title of "An Episode of John Brown's Raid," Col. A. K. McClure gives an account of the singular adventures of Capt. Cook, whose counsel he was, brings to light many interesting particulars in connection with the ill-starred expedition, and the state of public feeling in the border country. "In Suspense" is an anonymous production. "Five Graves in Montana," traces the history of a notorious gang of "road agents." "Our Summer Court in Schenaric," is a very pleasant rural sketch, marked by a vein of humor; and "The Metropolis of the Farm" calls up all the associations connected with barns. "The Jewel in the Lotos," which is illustrated with a beautiful frontispiece, maintains its interest; and the short stories, "Delia Grimmett," "The Worst Man in the Troop," and "The Discipline of Paper Dolls," are varied and entertaining. There are, as usual, several good things in the "Monthly Gossip." Lippincott's is always emphatically readable.

The Grand Ball on the Occasion of the Fruit Fair.

We are gratified to see so much interest taken by our citizens in all the preparations necessary to the enjoyment of visitors to the Fair of the Fruit Growers' Association. Not least among these preparations are those for the Grand Ball. It promises to be the most brilliant and recherche of its kind that has been in Wilmington in many years. Everything has been done on a liberal and elegant scale. The enclosure of the City Hall Park, the magnificent dancing hall, made by throwing open the entire first floor of the Opera House, its lobbies and its dress circles, the whole to be lighted with gas and Chinese lanterns, will make a social display rarely if ever, equalled in the history of the city. This will come off on the evening of Wednesday, the 22nd inst. On the following evening there will be a Grand Ball at the Seaside Park Hotel, in the splendid pavilion under the spreading oaks and within the hearing and murmur of the rolling waves of the old Atlantic.

We learn from Mr. H. McL. Green, Chairman of the Ball Committee, that Mr. John H. Daniels has been appointed Floor Manager with the following assistants: A. R. Campbell, John F. Pugh, J. M. Cronly, A. G. Conoley, Pembroke Jones, J. B. Hanks, George Harriss, W. L. DeRosset, Jr., M. H. Quince, W. C. Jones, and W. R. French.

The following gentlemen have been named as honorary managers: Hons. W. J. Green, T. M. Holt, D. H. McLean, H. B. Short, George Davis, O. P. Meares and W. T. Dortch. The Reception Committee of the Ball is composed of the following named gentleman: Messrs D. J. Worth, Jos. Waters, G. J. Bohey, John Maffitt, Geo. W. Kidder, R. W. Hicks, Dr. G. G. Thomas, John Corbett, Louis J. Otterbourg and Charlie Fennell.

Hon. T. R. Jernigan, Norfolk, Va., says of Dr. Worthington's Cholera and Diarrhoea Medicine, the wonderful cure for Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels: "I freely and sincerely endorse it." Twenty-five cents a bottle.

News and Observer: "This week all eyes will turn to Rosinopolis to see the handsome way in which she'll manage her fruit fair. That savoir faire peculiar to her in other things will not fail her in this matter of displaying as fine fruit as the world can show, to the best advantage, and in taking care of those who may go to see the show.
