The Massachusetts State Democratic Convention will meet at Springfield on September 26. Heretofore the Republican Convention has always met last, but, it is said that, under advice from Butler, the Democrats have concluded it is best to await the action of the Republican Convention before announcing their policy and selecting their candidates.

Ex-Congressman Dezendorf, the leader of the Straightout Republicans in Virginia, says that they are going to crush out Mahone and his crowd. "We will nominate," he says, "straightout candidates in nearly all the Legislative districts next fall, and in many of them we will be successful. I think we will hold the balance of power in the next Legislature."

Senator Pendleton was defeated at every point in the Hamilton County, Ohio, Democratic Convention on Saturday. The defeat was brought about by John R. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, who made up the slate and, it is said, used his own and Bookwalter's money freely. Pendleton and his friends are said to believe that the entire Democratic county ticket will be defeated.

It is seriously announced by a corres spondent of the New York Times that Mr. Tilden will undoubtedly be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President, and that his recent purchase of a team of fast horses from Kentucky is accepted by the Democratic politician at Saratoga as a final settlement of the question whether he intends to "run" night to the successful author. tor the Presidency next year. On the other hand, the Louisville Courier-Journal soberly avers that Mr. Tilden is not a candidate, and will not be a candidate under any circumstances, his residuary legatee.
