THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1883. NO. 204

Miss Ellen Terry will have $1,500 a week during her tour of the United States.

Ex-Senator Conkling wears a grayish coat and waistcoat and black pantaloons, light gloves and gaiters, a simple bow tie and a soft black hat.

Governor Jarvis will attend the Manufacturers' and Mechanics' Institute, in Boston, on September 5th, and will respond for the South to Governor Butler's welcome.

James Lick, of California, left his millions to trustees, who receive $1,000 per annum. They draw their salaries and do not fulfil the testator's wishes.

Mrs. Stowe would have been glad to get $50 for the M. S. of Uncle Tom's Cabin. She luckily fell into the hands of an honest publisher and made more than $20,000.

Senator Allison, of Iowa, is almost crushed with grief at the tragic death of his wife, and of course has abandoned all active political work, but it is believed that his friends will the more earnestly work for his re-election.

Ex-Governor Hubbard, of Connecticut, seems to be unfortunate. A few years ago his coachman carried off his lovely daughter. And now, it is said, Wall street sharpers have carried off his entire fortune.

We judge from official reports that most of the tea that reaches this country, if not adulterated in China and Japan, is mixed with gypsum soapstone and Prussian blue in New York. Prussian blue is poisonous.

Thirty years ago Bismarck suppressed all public gaming tables in Germany; but, according to recent reports, there is now more deep play in that country than ever, and Berlin is the centre of the gambling interest.

New York World: How many of many of the voters themselves, would consent to purchase a bona fide interest in one-tenth of the rubbish they are daily trying to sell to the innocent public?

The late Rev. Greenbury W. Ridgely, of Denton, Md., was once a law partner of Henry Clay, the statesman. The partnership began in 1820, but after practicing for a few years in Lexington, Ky., Mr. Ridgely studied for the ministry.

Mr. John R. French, ex-sergeant at arms of the United States Senate, is delivering throughout the country a lecture entitled "Ten Years About the Senate." It contains a series of interesting and clear-cut sketches of the leading Senators during the period between 1869 and 1879.

The late Judge Black is said to have received the largest fee ever paid to a lawyer for success in a suit. He defended the New Almaden Quicksilver Company of California in a suit in the United States Supreme Court, the opposing counsel being Reverdy Johnson, Charles O'Connor and Judah P. Benjamin. His fee was said at the time to have been $250,000.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. YATES—School Books. HEINSBERGER'S—New Goods. F. C. MILLER—Florida Water, &c. W. H. GREEN—New Crop Turnip Seed.

The farmers are happier since the late rains.

September mullets are in order now and they are good eating. Oysters will soon be fashionable. September is the first month with an "r" in it.

The atmosphere has been fully ten degrees cooler this week than it was last Friday and Saturday.

John Holland, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning, charged with disorderly conduct, and was fined $1 for the offense.

There was a meeting of the Commissioners of Pender county held at Burgaw yesterday, but we learn that no business of importance was transacted.

The deep moaning of the ocean could be distinctly heard last night which indicates that its waters have been troubled by heavy storms within the past few days.

The celebrated 'Fish Brand' Gills Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S HARDWARE DEPOT.

The new storehouse of Mr. F. A. Newbury, on Mulberry, between Front and Water streets, is rapidly approaching completion, and will soon be ready for occupancy.

It is the general impression that the backbone of the hot weather has been broken, and that we shall have no more sweltering nights in which to toss and tumble in a vain endeavor to sleep.

The Passport took another excursion of colored people down the river this morning. The time for such frolics is drawing to a close and it is best to make good use of the few remaining weeks.

"I hope it will be fair to-morrow," is the oft repeated expression of many who wish to join in the excursion which will take place then on the Passport. We guess it will be good weather, although the wind was Easterly this morning.

The street hands are at work improving the drain and culvert on the South side of Mulberry, between Front and Water streets, and across the latter street to the dock. The work was much needed and the methods now adopted appear to be substantial and bid fair to be effectual.

Poultry Thieves.

William Moseley, colored, (Colonel Moseley, the messenger at the City Hall) who lives on Seventh, between Walnut and Red Cross streets, had his hen coop raided by thieves last night and eight fine fowls stolen therefrom. Not satisfied with the theft of the poultry the scamps also stole the lock to the coop.

To Save Time.

The Wilmington & Weldon, Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta and all the other railroads embraced within the same management, are making arrangements to have tanks at the several water stations on both sides of the track so that water and wood can be taken while passengers are getting on and off the train. This plan will effect a great saving of time, which has become an all present day.

Camping Out.

A party of ladies and gentlemen and children, numbering in all 22 persons, are now encamped under tents at Sloop Point, when they expect to remain a week or ten days raticating in the enjoyment of fish, fowl and the invigorating breezes of the ocean. The party is from Magnolia, Duplin county, and consists of Dr. W. D. McMillan, wife and children, Mr. N. McMillan, wife and child, Mrs. J. M. Hartzell and two children, Miss Belle Southerland, Mr. D. M. Ezzell, with two of Mr. H. E. Newbury's children, which together with the nurses and attendants make up the number. They went by private conveyance and carried their rations cooking utensils and camp equipage with them.

How to Foretell the Weather.

We find in an exchange the following rules for foretelling the weather at all seasons of the year. They are said to be very good, as a general thing:

1. When the temperature falls suddenly there is a storm forming South of you.
2. When the temperature rises suddenly there is a storm forming North of you.
3. The wind always blows from a region where a storm is forming.
4. Cirrus clouds always move from a region where a storm is forming to a region of fair weather.
5. Cumulus clouds always move from a region where a storm is forming.
6. When cirrus clouds are moving rapidly from the north or northeast there will be rain inside of twenty hours, no matter how cold it is.
7. When cirrus clouds are moving rapidly from the south or southeast there will be a cold rain storm on the morrow, if it be in summer, and if it be in winter, there will be a snow storm.
8. Wind always blows in a circle around a storm, and when it blows from the north, the heaviest rain is east of you; if it blows from the south, the heaviest rain is west of you; if it blows from the east, the heaviest rain is south; if it blows from the west, the heaviest rain is north of you.
9. The wind never blows unless rain or snow is falling within 1,000 miles of you.
10. Whenever heavy, white frost occurs, a storm is forming within 1,000 miles north or northwest of you.

The State Treasurer of Kentucky, Hon. Richard Tate, on a late occasion was severely burned about the hands and face by an explosion of gas in his office. He used St. Jacobs Oil with the happiest effect.

It Will Pay

All who desire to dress well on a limited purse to buy their clothing of A. & I. SHIER. They buy only for Cash and allow their patrons to share in the benefits of all advantages thus gained.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 10 bales.

The market for crude turpentine to-day has been excited and unsettled.

Jim Telfair, colored, was the lucky man yesterday to bag and bring to market the first rice birds of the season.

Jesse J. Cassidey, Esq., formerly of this city, is now one of the editors of the Daily Milland Drover, published at St. Louis.

There is an unmailable postal card with no address, in the Postoffice in this city beginning "My dear daughter," and signed "your ma."

Mr. S. G. Worth, of the Fish Commission, is in the city. He informs us that he will attend the Boston Exposition, which will open on the 5th of September.

A report has been current along the line of the W & W. R. R. that the time on that road for the fast mail trains is to be reduced to three hours between Wilmington and Weldon and that one stop is to be made, at Goldsboro. Bosh!

Our almanac says, "fair weather and gentle breezes for to-morrow." The prediction is gotten up expressly for those who would like to enjoy the excursion to Smithville and the Forts, given by the ladies of Fifth Street M. E. church, who know so well how to make such occasions enjoyable.

Our Little Ones

For September is at hand. It is as handsome and bright and interesting as ever, replete as it is with information and illustrations just suited to the very tender mind. It is published at 36 Brown street, Boston, by the Russell Publishing Company, and is worthy of a place in every nursery in the land.

Not Improving.

Mary Bell, the infant daughter of Mr. W. B. Newkirk, who fell from the piazza of her parents' residence on the same condition that she was in last night. The injury is serious and fears are entertained that she may not recover.
