THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $4.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00; One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest home file circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Senator Sherman seems confident of Hendly's defeat in Ohio.

Senator Warner Miller, of New York, thinks Mr. Blaine is the coming man.

John Morley has retired permanently from the editorship of the Fall Mall Gazette.

Ex-Speaker Keifer announces Gen. Sherman as his choice for the Presidency.

Ex-Governor Leland Stanford of California, has an income of about $3,000,000 a year.

Dr. Banks, an eminent Dublin physician, has declined the distinction of knighthood.

The basic principle of Russia leather is the same as that of Worcestershire sauce—arsenic.

Revolutions are suppressed in Paris by a governmental regulation of the price of bread and its weight.

Mr. Hayes, of Presidential notoriety, has given $5,000 to a new Methodist Episcopal Church at Fremont, Ohio.

During the reign of Queen Victoria 37,000,000 Hindoos have died of famine, consequent upon the British policy in India.

Gen. Early says his ancestors came from Donegal and were originally called McGuichie, which signifies "early rising."

The Austrian railway administration has recently decided in favor of the employment of women as road guards on the same terms as the males.

An American lady, well known in society in Paris, made a sensation by appearing at the ball of a foreign count in a costume of white kid, fitting like a glove.

The glass manufacturers of the West met in Chicago on Wednesday, to take definite action in regard to ordering a general reduction of the wages of their employees.

The Richmond Dispatch says the Democrats of Virginia might just as well look right into the face of the fact that fully 100,000 of the 125,000 negro voters in the State will support the Mahone ticket this Fall.

Charles Buettner, of Burlington, Iowa, has gathered with his own hands the most complete private ornithological collection in the West. His collection of insects is large also, containing more than forty thousand specimens.

A correspondent of the Boston Herald says: "If ever man hoped for, if ever a candidate looked for, the Presidential nomination, in my judgment, Mr. James G. Blaine is hoping for and looking for a Presidential nomination today."

The report of the inspection of the prisons of Alleghany county, Pa., by the women's auxiliary committee of the State Board of Charities, characterizes the cells in the Pittsburg jail as "chambers of horrors." The jail is condemned as an outrage on the community.

Judge Baxter, of the United States court at Nashville, Tenn., has issued an interlocutory order restraining the state comptroller from collecting back taxes amounting to $85,000 from the Louisville and Nashville and the Decatur railroads, preliminary to argument on a motion for an injunction.

Freeholder John J. Hall, of New Brunswick, N. J., is reported missing. He was the section official of the Pennsylvania railroad. He took with him, it is said, $12,000 borrowed money. It is charged that forged notes aggregating between $30,000 and $30,000 have been discovered.

Franklin Simmons, the sculptor, who receives $2,500 for a statue of Oliver P. Morton, is to deliver the statue in Indianapolis not later than October 1. The figure has already been shipped from Munich, where it was cast in bronze, and the Indianapolis committee are raising $3,000 to pay for a granite pedestal.

It Will Pay All who desire to dress well on a limited purse to buy their clothing of A. & I. SHRIER. They buy only for Cash and allow their patrons to share in the benefits of all advantages thus gained.

The great volcanic eruption in Java was probably the most terrible disaster which has occurred in centuries. It is said that 75,000 lives were lost. We condense from a report in the New York Sun:

When daylight came it was seen that an enormous tract of land had disappeared, extending from Point Capucin on the South to Negery Pafsoering on the North, and West to Low Point, covering an extent of territory about fifty miles square. In this were situated the villages of Negery and Negery Babawing. None of the people inhabiting these places, or of the natives scattered sparsely through the forests and on the plains, escaped death. This section of the island was not so densely populated as the other portions, and the loss of life was comparatively small, although it must have aggregated fully 15,000 souls. The entire Kandang range of mountains extending along the coast in a semicircle for about 65 miles had gone out of sight. The waters of Welome Bay, the Sunda Straits, and Pepper Bay on the East of the Indian Ocean on the South had rushed in and formed a sea of turbulent waters.

The town of Tanerang, within twenty five miles of the city of Batavia, was swept away by the lava stream, and fully half the population, mostly Javanese, numbering about 1,800, perished. At Speelwyk, near Point Salcis, the red hot rocks set fire to the houses and swept away all the thickly settled portion of the town. About ten bazaars belonging to Europeans were destroyed. The loss of property is very large, but no lives are known to have been lost. Figeleknig was almost totally destroyed, and a large number of lives were lost there.

The island of Onius, five miles off the mouth of the Targerang River and twenty miles east of Batavia, was completely annihilated, and the floating docks there was totally destroyed. Castaye, Claps, and Tronwer's islands, off the portion of Java which disappeared, are out of sight and not a vestige of them is left. Baby and Cheribo islands, off the north coast, lost the few houses and inhabitants upon them.

In Batavia the loss has been largely increased since the former reports. The town of Faggal was severely shaken, and few buildings were left standing. A violent shock was felt in the island of Sumatra on Monday afternoon, and it was feared that other disturbances might follow. Midah Island, ten miles off the Javanese coast, and half way between the extreme points of Java and Sumatra, was almost wholly engulfed by the sea. The small island of Singkel, probably originally only a cone blown up by an eruption, entirely disappeared. It was uninhabited.

The aggregate loss of life must be fully 75,000, but the number of those who perished can never of course be accurately known.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. YATES—School Books. J. R. MELTON—Stall Fed. MISS E. KARRER—Just Received. F. MILLER—Florida Water, &c. W. H. GREEN—New Crop Turnip Seed. HENSBERGER—Todd's Business Pencil. MCDUGALL & BOWDEN—Try the Cook.

New moon to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Thos. H. Sutton, Esq. of Fayetteville, was in the city yesterday.

Steamboatmen report the Cape Fear as very low and still falling.

Some very fine September mulets are being brought to market now.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

It was miserably dull at the City Hall and in Magistrate's Row this morning.

Wood continues to come in quite freely and is selling at reasonable prices.

At 3 o'clock to-day the thermometer in this office registered but 79 degrees.

Dr. J. H. Durham will leave to-night for Hickory and will be absent from the city about a week.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day total up 93 bales, 7 of which were of this year's crop.

This is the last day of the last Summer month, and with its dying gasp expires two-thirds of A. D., 1883.

It is expected that the improvements in Front Street M. E. Church will be all completed sometime next week.

Last night was the coolest of the cool spell, and fires were comfortable, if not absolutely necessary, this morning.

Mr. Thomas C. Craft had out yesterday for the first time a new and stylish furniture wagon, one of the handsomest trucks in the city.

Mrs. K. Karrer left on last night's train for Hickory where she will pass two or three weeks in the enjoyment of the invigorating breezes of the Piedmont section.

Mr. Jess Hewlett and his crew landed on Masonboro beach to-day 150 barrels of mulets, the biggest catch of the season, thus far, and the largest that has been made there in several seasons.

"A Bouncing Boy; or, Where's the Paragoric?" is a drama now in rehearsal under the direction of the Manager of the Opera House, in this city, who is also its author. Shake, George?

Mr. John Munson, after an absence of several weeks, during which he has visited Asheville, Warm Springs and other points of interest in the Western part of the State, arrived home this morning.

We learn from a very reliable, practical farmer, that the crops along the line of the W. & W. Railroad, between Warsaw and Goldsboro, are excellent, and promise to furnish as good a harvest as those of last year.

The New Postage Stamps.

The postoffice department has selected as the color for the new four cent or double rate stamp a shade of green somewhat darker than that in which the present three cent stamp is printed. As the three cent stamp will be retired from circulation no errors are likely to arise from the similarity of color. The new stamp bears a profile likeness of Andrew Jackson and is quite handsome in design. The distribution to postmasters of the new two cent stamps will begin on September 1, and it is believed that everything will be in readiness for the change of letter postage on October 1.

Taylor's Bazaar.

We were pleased to receive a call this afternoon from Mr. John Taylor, of New York, who will open here, on or about the 15th proximo, in Hahn's old stand, on Market street, a branch of a New York house, which will be called Taylor's Bazaar. Mr. Taylor tells us he will display a carefully selected stock of Fall and Winter millinery and fancy goods and that it will be his constant endeavor to keep up with the latest styles, presenting everything at low prices. He has secured the services of a number of lady trimmers of hats and bonnets who have all had years of experience. Due notice of the exact day of opening will be made through the advertising columns of the REVIEW.

Fine Horses.

A span of horses arrived here last night, consigned to Capt. T. J. Southland and intended for the use of Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1, which for beauty, symmetry and proportion could hardly be excelled. They are of a dark dapple gray and so near alike in color that it would be almost impossible to distinguish one from the other. They weigh respectively 1,250 and 1,370 pounds, are beautiful in form, and perfectly and gentle do cile although there is nothing sluggish or lazy in their disposition. One of them is 6 and the other 7 years old, and both appear to be entirely sound and free from blemish of any sort. They were raised in West Virginia, and are certainly as pretty pieces of horse flesh as we have seen in many years.

Street Lines.

There seems to be much ignorance on the part of citizens who are erecting buildings, fences and the like in the city, of the ordinance requiring a survey before they commence such erections. Some of the streets have been so much encroached upon in the past that the beauty of regular lines and squares have been greatly injured or destroyed. This was, a few years ago, carried on to such an extent that the Board of Aldermen found it necessary to enact several stringent ordinances upon the subject of "street obstructions."

For the information of our people who are about to build, or have commenced to build, we copy the following city law which speaks for itself. (See pages 181 to 188, City Laws and Ordinances.)

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Chief of Police to notify all persons about to erect any building, wall or fence, not to encroach on any street or alley; and inform them that the law requires that the City Surveyor shall designate the limits of their respective lots before they erect such building, wall or fence. And every person encroaching upon any street or alley, whether so notified or not, shall forfeit and pay fifty dollars for each and every day that said encroachment shall be permitted to stand after being notified of the encroachment.

The City Attorney decided that every new structure requires a new survey, and the Chief of Police has no discretion in the matter, as the word shall makes it his duty to see that the ordinance is enforced in all cases.

Let the street lines be kept from encroachment and remain straight and beautiful, as designed in laying them out, at right angles to each other.

Lucky Escape.

An accident occurred this forenoon in the yard in the rear of Mr. C. W. Yates' book store which came near being serious in its consequences, but which was rather ludicrous, as it terminated. A colored man was pouring water into a cask of lime, in order to make mortar, when it exploded and scattered the white liquid mass all over his head and shoulders, burning his face and head quite severely in some places. The explosion frightened a colored boy in the employ of Mr. Yates, who turned a complete summersault through an open window, in his haste to get out of harm's way, and went rushing through the store as if the Ku Klux were after him.

Too Late.

Mr. George N. Ennett, of Cedar Point, Carteret county, shipped a barrel of very fine apples of what is known as "Rue's Reliance" variety, intending them for exhibition at the recent fruit fair in this city. Unfortunately, however, they did not reach here until after the fair had closed, and they were sold to defray the freight expenses. This is to be regretted, as these apples are said to be of a fine quality and flavor, and especially adapted to our soil and climate. The trees are of vigorous growth and are prolific bearers, and the fruit is of the Summer or early Autumn variety, although when handled with care in harvesting, they have been kept until Christmas.

Democrats Duped.

Sometime ago a colored individual by the name of Mebane visited Wilmington in behalf of a Republican paper published by him in Raleigh, entitled, we think, the Banner-Enterprise. He secured about 150 subscribers here, nearly all of whom were white men and Democrats, who paid in advance. For five or six weeks the paper came regularly enough but at the end of that time Mebane found it convenient to suspend publication and no more copies have been received. It is thought that the amount he carried away from here was between $200 and $300. Probably we ought to be sorry for those who have been duped but somehow we are not.

The Clinton Wires.

September 1st, to-morrow, is the day on which the Clinton & Warsaw Telegraph Line is expected to be open for business and from what we can learn it will push that date very close. The poles are all up and the wire is being strung now. A young lady, Miss Maria Shaw, will be in charge of the office at Clinton.

About the 1st of October is the regular old-fashioned moving period, but many of our business men are taking time by the forelock by taking up new quarters already. We hear of some who have moved, several who are moving and quite a number who will move in the course of one or two weeks.

We understand that work on the Clinton & Point Caswell R. R. is being very vigorously prosecuted now. About ten miles in all have been graded, six leading out from Clinton and four from Point Caswell.

The burning out of a foul chimney in the First Ward this morning caused an alarm of fire, and the Fire Department on the North side of the railroad turned out, but the trouble was all over before they could reach the scene.

We learn from one who was present, that the Dime Party at the parsonage of the Fifth Street M. E. Church, last night, was a complete success and a very pleasant affair.

The Weidon News comes to us this week showing unmistakable evidences of prosperity. It is enlarged and greatly improved and we congratulate our brethren on these significant signs.

In answer to several enquiries, from the country as well as the city, we will state that so far as we are aware, no return tickets to the Boston Exposition have yet been placed on sale here.

Watermelons begin to have a chilly appearance, though they will be palatable to some for two or three weeks longer.

It is about time for the advertising car which precedes Seli's Circus to put in an appearance, but we learn that it has not yet entered the State.

George W. Walling, Esq., Supt. New York Police, endorses the action of St. Jacobs Oil.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOB'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.
