ures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

General McClellan and his wife and daughter, Miss May, are at Richfield Springs, New Hampshire.

Mr. Schumaker, an Ohio Prohibition candidate, employs no one in his mills who uses liquor or tobacco.

Editor Waterson pronounces the story of the reconciliation between Tilden and Kelly "the worst sort of booth."

Queen Victoria has just asked Tennyson to write a poem on John Brown, her deceased servant, and Sir William Lightton to paint his portrait.

Rev. Father P. J. Riordan, of Chicago, has received official papers from Rome appointing him coadjutor to the Catholic bishop of California.

In Amsterdam the Dutch are fascinated with American mixed drinks.
Cocktails lead. Sherry cobbler is popular. The prices are from four to ten cents.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer, after a survey of the political situation in Ohio, reports "that there is no Democratic dissatisfaction anywhere. There is no dissension."

Senator Chandler's widow has given $1,000 to establish a scholarship in the Chicago Woman's Medical College for the benefit of women who intend to become missionaries.

An American who has seen Miss Chamberlain in London says that although she may pass for a handsome woman in England, where pretty women are scarce, she would not create much excitement in her own country.

Victor Hugo told an American visitor recently that he regarded Edgar A. Poe as the "prince of American poets." He thinks that Mr. Whittier is a "womanly versifier," Mr. Lowell a "smart chatterer," and Oliver Wendell Holmes "afflictively laughable."

James Lick, a California millionaire, died seven years ago, leaving a vast amount of property for public trust.
So far not one dollar has reached the designated object. The trustees, who receive $1,000 a year each, have just been censured by the California pioneers.

At a church in the Southern suburb of London, a few Sundays ago, according to the Echo, of that city, the preacher took for his text: "A hundred and fifty and three;" and accomplished the feat of repeating it a hundred and fifty and three times in the course of his sermon.

The Cologne Gazette is publishing a long communication from Dr. Mohnike, a physician who practiced twenty five years in Java, and has had great experience of the cholera. He endeavors to show that it is not a contagious disease.
He has never met with a case which he could ascribe to contagion. He attributes its ravages in general to dietary faults, and in Egypt at present to the same cause.

A friend has favored us with a copy of the Columbus (O.) Dispatch, of the 25th ult., containing a pretty full report of the second day of the grand reunion at that place of ex-Confederate and Federal veterans. There was a great deal of honey mixed with a not by any means imperceptible taste of vinegar.

The 54th Virginia Regiment, who were present, were welcomed very cordially, but yet in that very address of welcome made to them they were spoken of as "of the army of the late Confederate States of America, so-called." There were a great many ex-Confederates present and there was a good deal of talk about the "touch of the elbow," and the "touch of kinship" but yet that did not prevent the erection of an allegorical painting (so-called) with the inscription "In memory of the 38,000 comrades who perished in Southern military prisons. We can forgive, but never forget." To offset this there was something said, however, of the visiting Virginians, as follows:

Gentlemen of the Third, twenty years ago you were the blue and they the gray; you were then prisoners and they gave you kindly greeting; you were hungry and they fed you; you were despondent and they comforted you. In short they possessed the instincts of the true knight, who, when he puts off his armor, lays down his enmities.

And so forth and so on.

It is to be hoped that the ex-Confederates who were present enjoyed the reunion (so-called) notwithstanding the peculiar reception accorded them.

VOL. VII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1883.

NO. 213

Frank James, the outlaw, on trial at Gallatin, has been acquitted.

Mississippi looks for three-fourths of a crop of cotton and hopes to do a little better on corn.

Li. Gov. Robinson has issued a proclamation of election for the vacancy in the First Congressional District. The date has been changed and it is to take place on the 20th of November.

Buttermilk is the favorite beverage among the temperance men of Philadelphia. "Ice cold buttermilk" signs are seen over many barrooms in that city. Ginger ale and Apollinaris are not so popular as they were. Buttermilk is recommended by physicians as being good for dyspepsia and the kidneys.

And now the rice planters are talking about short crops.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 135 bales.

Col. H. B. Short, of Columbus county, was in the city to-day.

About daylight this morning nearly everybody reached out for "more kiver."

Scuppernon grapes were selling this morning at from 25 to 40 cents a peck.

Capt. A. L. DeRosset, of this city, is now in Boston, whither he has been called on business.

There was a painful dullness for reporters at the City Court room this morning.

The Summer absentees are returning pretty rapidly. It is too cold up in the mountains now.

Rice birds are getting fatter. Some nice looking ones were offering to-day at 35 cents a dozen.

Mr. Premper's barber shop is to be removed in a few days to South Front Street, near Market.

Excursion tickets to Louisville, good for thirty days, are now on sale here at $25.50 for the round trip.

The saw and hammer make music in the land now the carpenters and brick masons are all as busy as bees.

Hon. W. L. Smith, Ex-Mayor of the city, has gone to the Boston Exhibition and will be away probably two weeks.

The juveniles are already grieving at the near approach of the school days, so, perhaps, are some of their seniors.

The new money order lobby at the Postoffice in this city is to be neatly furnished for the comfort of those who may have business there.

This has been the coldest day yet.
At 12 o'clock to-day the thermometer in this office registered 78 degrees, which is but two degrees above Summer heat.

We are glad to learn that Mr. New-kirk's little girl, who fell from the piazza of the latter's residence a few days since, has so far recovered from the effects of the fall as to be pronounced out of danger.

The Clinton & Warsaw Telegraph line is not yet in operation. It was to have been opened about the 1st inst., but some unforeseen delays have occured and it will be a few days yet before the wires are all strung and the first dispatch is flashed over the line.

Mr. C. P. Reusen, who has been absent from the city since January last, has returned and is looking much improved in health. He proposes to reengage in business here and if favorable arrangements can be made he will probably settle permanently in Wilmington.

A Very Sudden Death.

At about 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, a couple of colored men were engaged in weighing cotton at Messrs. Woody & Currie's warehouse, when one of them, named Ben Delamar, in pulling down the steelyards suddenly fell and died in a few moments.— Dr. Potter was summoned who said that the cause of death was heart disease. The deceased was about 45 years of age, and lived on Fifth, between Brunswick and Bladen streets. His family consisted of two children, his wife having died about three months ago.

In Difficulty.

Mr. Wheeler, the advance agent for the "Only a Farmers' Daughter Co.," which is to play here on the 18th inst., while in the city yesterday caused quite a number of jockey caps, in red, white and blue colors, to be distributed among some of the boys on the street. The distribution was made at Dyer's, and this morning his door was crowded with urchins in quest of caps, so that he was perplexed and his patience exhausted by their importunities.

The Lecture Last Night.

In accordance with previous announcement, Rev. T. Page Ricard delivered a lecture on "Temperance," at the Fifth Street M. E. Church, last night. There was a large audience in attendance, and all were deeply interested in the subject as discussed by the eloquent and fervid speaker. The lecture occupied about an hour and a quarter in its delivery, and from its commencement to its close the speaker held the undivided attention of his hearers.

White Crows.

Mr. John H. Savage, Superintendent of the County Poor House, was in the city to-day and, although he did not come protected by a rattlesnake, he says that early this morning he saw a couple of birds flying towards the North which were perfectly white, but that their actions were those of crows and the noise they made was precisely like that made by crows. In fact he believes that they were white crows. From the direction in which they were going we are led to conclude that they were rare North Carolina productions bound to the Boston Exposition.

The Mexican Veterans.

We notice in a recent issue of the Fayetteville, which is published in Washington City in the interest of the veterans of the Mexican war, a note from Mr. H. H. Bloom, of this city, who was in Capt. Brandt Seguin's Company of Louisiana Volunteers in Mexico. Mr.
Bloom speaks of a member of his company, now in Ohio, who was wounded at Tampico and crippled for life, all for the sake of an ungrateful country.

What a shame and disgrace it is that the services of the Mexican veterans, the men who fought and won the war whereby so much of wealth and territory was added to the country should be so long allowed to remain unrecognized and to go unrewarded!

Front Street M. E. Church.

The alterations, improvements and repairs which have been in progress in the interior of this edifice for several weeks, are now nearly completed. Upholsterers were busy to-day in putting down the carpets, after which there will nothing remain to be done except to cushion the pews and altar.
The principal changes consist in enlarging the centre aisle, changing the side aisles so that they are now next to the walls, wainscoting the body of the audience room all around, and raising the galleries 9 inches and setting them back 6 feet. The plastering overhead has been replaced by a ceiling of native pine, and the galleries and pulpit are of the same material. The walls and pews have all been repainted, and two of Frink's patent reflectors have been suspended over the centre aisle at points equidistant from each other, and where they will be most effective in diffusing light over the room. The pulpit is entirely new and very neat.
The inscription on the arch immediately over the pulpit, "Thine house shall be called an house of Prayer for all people," has been re-lettered and is an excellent piece of workmanship, due to the skill and taste of Mr. C. C. Parker, of this city. The carpet is a good one, very neat and modest in design, and was purchased from Capt. R. M.
McIntire, of this city. The church will be occupied for the regular religious services on Sunday next which will be appropriate to the occasion.

WINSTON, FORSYTH CO., N. C.

GENTS—I desire to express to you my thanks for your wonderful Hop Bitters. I was troubled with dyspepsia for five years previous to commencing the use of your Hop Bitters some six months ago. My cure has been wonderful. I am pastor of the First Methodist Church of this place, and my whole congregation can testify to the great virtues of your bitters.
Very respectfully,
REV. H. FEREBEE.

A Big Scoop.

As an evidence of the world-wide reputation, and the unprecedented popularity,—founded upon intrinsic merit —of the renowned conqueror of pain, St. Jacobs Oil, it may be cited, as a wonder in trade, that one order, recently received by its enterprising proprietors, THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Baltimore, Md., from Australia, was for 500 gross.

Railroad!

Capt. R. P. Paddison, who was in the city yesterday, was in better spirits than we have yet seen him, over the prospects of a completion of the Clinton & Point Caswell R. R. and that is saying a great deal. He was up in Sampson a few days ago and he tells us that the grading is progressing in a very satisfactory manner, about nine miles of dirt have thus far been thrown and the week is going on ahead steadily and surely.

The New Notes.

There is one thing about the new postal notes that is already causing complaint. Why the amount was not limited to $5 even instead of $4.99 is hard to understand. A party who wants to send $5 can get $4.99, it is true, but $4.99 is not $5. We got the third order issued in Clinton. It was for $4.99 and therefore a penny was enclosed in the letter to make up the difference. If the order could be issued for $5 the conflict between that and money orders for a like amount would be so slight as to be insignificant.

It Will Pay.

All who desire to dress well on a limited purse to buy their Clothing of A. & J. SHIRER. They buy only for Cash and allow their patrons to share in the benefits of all advantages thus gained.

Smith vs. Smith.

Quite early on Wednesday morning last, Mr. G. W. Smith, of Onslow county, called upon Mr. J. L. Croom, at his place of business on Water street in this city, and presented an order from Mr. John Smith, of Burgaw, for $50, as part payment for a mule and cart which Smith (G. W.) had sold to Smith (John). He got the money and left at once. On Thursday a Mr. Foy, of Onslow, called on Smith (John) for the property, claiming it as his own which he had hired to Smith (G. W.) that the latter might be enabled to peddle fish and oysters therewith. Foy established his claims to the property and now Smith (John) is looking earnestly, but thus far in vain, for Smith (G. W.) is proper to state that the two Smiths are in no way related, but are of a different nationality.

Mr. A. J. Swinson, of Swinson's Cut, on the C. C. R. R., who was so badly injured last week in an attempt to murder him, has recovered and is again attending to his duties.

The Masquerade Ball at the Seaside Park Hotel Pavilion last night was a very enjoyable affair, the company being pleasant, agreeable and just large enough to be entirely satisfactory to all concerned.

A Success Every Time.

Mr. Chas. W. Lear, 2,460 Germantown avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., writes:
"I suffered with very badly frosted feet.
I tried St. Jacobs Oil, and it is the best thing I ever had in the house; half a bottle cured my feet."
