THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1883. NO. 218

The late Edward Ridley, of Gravesend L. I., left an estate worth upward of $1,000,000.

The Philadelphia Mint pays 86 1/2 cents specie for trade dollars, which is the value of the silver in them.

New England farmers are worse off than Southern planters. They have not only been ruined by drouth, but desolated by forest fires.

Henry Villard's real name is Heinrich Hilgrade. He is a German, from the Rheinisch Provinces, and one of the most remarkable of men.

M. Damala, Bernhard's husband, is disgusted with his soldier life in Tunis and has taken his discharge. He will return to the stage, but not with Sarah.

A venturesome Englishman has just crossed the English Channel on an apparatus which he can use as a tricycle on the land and a boat on the sea.

Colonel Prejevalsky, the well known traveler in Central Asia who has just published another volume of his explorations, is about to start for a second long journey into Tibet.

A resolution to purchase a portrait of Gov. Millidge and place it in the State Capitol recently failed of a constitutional majority in the Georgia House of Representatives.

The uncollected writings of Thackeray are announced as included in the new Smith & Elder edition. The edition will contain his earlier contributions to Punch, Fraser's and other magazines.

The increased cultivation and drainage of the land at the West has diminished the prevalence of malaria to such an extent that not more than a fifth as much quinine is sold as was disposed of a few years ago.

Recently deprecates both the condition of Mr. Hoadly's health, which takes him so far from the scene of action, and the bitter factional strife that have arisen in Hamilton and Cuyahoga counties. It is known that he regrets the necessity for Judge Hoadly's absence from headquarters and fears that it may be construed and be made to work to the disadvantage of the Democratic party. It is believed that Mr. Randall has advised the return of Judge Hoadly at the earliest moment that his health will permit, and there is no doubt but the suggestion will be promptly complied with.

Edgar Johnson, the law partner of Judge Hoadly and his personal friend for twenty years, who is here in company with him, says: "The Democrats are absolutely certain to carry Hampton county by six thousand majority. Judge Hoadly's presence in Ohio is not necessary to the successful issue of his party, and it is even not important that speeches should be made in the campaign." Mr. Johnson instanced the contest in Ohio two years ago when, he said, out of respect to Garfield, no political speeches were made by either party, and the result was not affected in anywise thereby.

A novel innovation on the walking match was made last Monday in Chicago in the way of stair-climbing. It is thus told:

An innovation was made here to-day in the walking-match line in the attempt of William Kitzig, a laborer, thirty-two years old, to mount a flight of forty-five steps 300 times in ten hours for a wager. Kitzig began the task at 7:45 this morning and made the trip 100 times in the first hour and a half, and at 12:30 had climbed the stairway 175 times, when he stopped for dinner, showing signs of fatigue. After completing the meal and taking a short rest he resumed the task, showing considerable evidence of weariness. At 3 o'clock it was evident that he could not go on without stimulants. He then began drinking Rhine wine, which he kept up during the afternoon. As its effects permeated his system he revived. His legs began to swing automatically, and he completed the 300th ascent and won the wager, with nineteen minutes to spare. A large crowd congregated toward the close, and the police were compelled to clear the street. It is estimated that Kitzig travelled over eight miles of steps in performing the task.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 109 bales.

It is much warmer to-day. At 3 o'clock the thermometer in this office registered 83 degrees.

The steamer Bladen, which has been on the Dry Dock for repairs, has come off and resumed her regular trips today.

There is a continued dullness at the City Court room, no cases having been brought for the Mayor's consideration for several days.

E. F. Martin secured subscriptions in Charlotte for the benefit of his railroad project to the amount of $750, part of which was paid in cash.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOB'S.

In our report of sales of cotton yesterday we wrote 250 bales, but by accident the amount appeared as but 25 bales. Mistakes will happen.

Ex-Sheriff Bland Wallace, of Duplin county, was in the city to-day, and he reports the storm as having been very severe at Kenansville, where he resides.

Steamboatmen report that there were heavy rains in the upper Cape Fear section, but that there were no damaging winds. They report a rise of 12 feet in the river when they left Fayetteville yesterday.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOB'S Hardware Dept. †

Mr. L. Simpson, of Long Creek, Pender county, was in the city to-day and he says that the fodder in his section is about all gathered. That which was not pulled by hand before the storm set in, has all been stripped off by the gale.

"Where is the Raleigh?" and "Where is the Benefactor?" are questions which have been more frequently asked on the streets to-day than any other. Since the safe arrival of the Regulator, relieving the anxiety of mind, so far as she was concerned, the whereabouts and conditions of the first named two steamers very naturally become subjects of solicitude.

Not Only For Man.
Horsemen, turfmen, stablemen all use St. Jacobs Oil in horse ailments. It kills pain.

Safe in Port.

The steamship Regulator, Capt. Doane, from New York, arrived at her wharf in this city a little before 9 o'clock this morning. The news of her arrival was an incentive for hundreds to visit the wharf when she made fast—some to meet expected friends and others to see how the ship, her officers and crew appeared after passing through the terrible ordeal of the recent almost unprecedented ocean tempest. All were astonished to see her presenting her usual appearance, and had it not been for a rent in the outer jib no stranger to the fact would have imagined that she had just encountered one of the most fearful and long continued storms that has visited this coast within the memory of any one now living.

The Regulator left New York on Saturday afternoon and had pleasant weather until 4 o'clock on Monday morning where she encountered a gale from N. N. E., which gradually hauled to S. S. W. and lasted until 9 p. m. on Tuesday, when it began to abate, having continued in its fury 41 hours. She kept on her way until 11 o'clock Monday night when she was hove to with the wind under her mainsail, and continued in that position until 12 o'clock Tuesday night—three hours after the gale began to abate—when she was again put on her course for the light ship on Fry's Shoals although there was a very heavy sea running. During the entire 25 hours that she was hove to the wind, the mainsail never started a stitch, but successfully resisted all the force of the tempest. Capt. Doane, to whom we are under many obligations for the facts which constitute the foregoing narrative, states that he ran down to where the lights should have been and made the buoy which is moored near her position, but, alas! no light ship was to be seen, although the horizon was scanned through powerful glasses for a distance of a dozen miles. This fact gives rise to the painful anxiety for the safety of the ship and those on board. Capt. Doane saw no land after he sunk the Highlands of Navesink until he made Bald Head yesterday, and he states that this was the hardest and longest continued tempest of his many years of sea-going experience. The Regulator is an excellent seaboat and Capt. Doane is a skillful navigator, and to those two virtues may be accredited the safety of the ship, cargo, and the lives of those on board.

Not so Bad as Expected.

It now appears that the loss to Messrs W. E. Davis & Son, from the effects of the storm, to their fishing industry at Zuke's Island, will not be near so large as was at first expected, and it is now thought that $400 will cover the entire amount of damage. All the nets and two boats have been saved and many of the terrapins have been recovered. The entire amount of loss consists, aside from the terrapins, in 3 fish houses, 25 barrels of mullets and about 30 sacks of salt. The terrapins are being continually recovered, so that it is impossible now to tell accurately what the loss on their account will prove to be. The business, which was interrupted by the severity of the gale, has been resumed and the fishermen are plying their vocation to-day as though nothing had happened.

Level Headed.

We heard a good one this morning of a colored man, which is too rich to be lost and which goes to prove that one at least of the colored race is not lacking in wit. He went, a day or two ago, into one of our city grocery stores and wanted some matches. The grocer showed him some of the ordinary parlor matches, the price of which was five cents per box. These the colored man declined to purchase, stating that he wanted some of those new fashioned matches which were sold at one cent per box, as they were more economical than the others. When told that the other kind were just as cheap as those he was in quest of the colored man retorted:

"You don't un'tan' dis ting, boss. Yer see when a neighbor comes to borrow two or tree matches, der new kin's no good 'less dey borrow de box. If dey can borrow your kin' dey can keep borrowin', but de kin' I want's no good widout de box, and dat is whar de save comes in."

It Will Pay

Exports Foreign.

Schooner Jennie Beasley, Captain Smith, cleared to-day for Kingston, Jamaica, with 162,556 feet lumber and 107,250 shingles, valued at $2,657.72, shipped by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming.

Personal.

Mr. Thos. B. Harris, Secretary of the Champion Compress Company, who has been on a visit to the Boston Exposition, has returned to the city. While in Boston he shook hands with Gov. Butler, took a squirt at Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, of England, hobbled with Gov. Jarvis, and had a good time generally.

Northward.

Miss E. Karrer left here yesterday morning for New York where she goes to lay in her Fall stock of millinery and fancy goods. She will be absent a week or ten days and will utilize the time to the utmost in visiting all of the most fashionable art emporiums in the city and purchasing her stock. The goods will begin to arrive in a few days.

Photographic Card.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. L. Winner, photographic artist, as it appears in this issue. Mr. Winner has located in the New Market, on South Front street, where he is prepared to do all kinds of work entrusted to him with skill and dispatch. He has had many years' experience in the business, in other cities North of Wilmington, and turns out excellent work. He showed us, this morning, some photographs taken by him fifteen years ago, and they appeared as fresh and complete as if taken yesterday. He solicits a call and a trial.

September Moon.

The September moon falls on the 16th (Sunday) at 57 minutes after 4 o'clock in the evening. The new moon of the 1st was in conjunction with Uranus on the 2d and with Mercury on the 3rd. The full moon of the 16th is very near Neptune on the 20th, passing 10 seconds North. On the 21st she is in conjunction with Saturn, being 1 deg. 14 seconds South. In some portions of the Southern Hemisphere Saturn is occultated, making his sixth occultation during the year, but the beautiful phenomena has not once been visible from our American points of observation. On the 24th the waning moon pays her respects to Mars, on the 25th to Jupiter, and on the 30th to Uranus for the second time.

The Regulator brought on from New York.

This trip, several barrels of Bartlett pears, which the dealers here will retail at 25 cents a dozen or $3 a bushel. They are small and inferior to the Bartlett pears grown in North Carolina, but there are none of the latter in market here.
