circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Gor. Knott has designated October 13 as the day for the execution of Ellis Craft, who was twice found guilty of the murder of the Gibbons children at Ashland, Ky.

The new postal notes are deemed a failure in Chicago. The banks have refused to accept them as checks or drafts on account of the mistakes of the postmaster sending.

The New York Tammany Harmony Committee of twenty-four appointed a sub-committee of six to confer with Irving Hall and the county Democracy in the interest of harmony.

The German Lutheran Theological Seminary, in St. Louis, known as Concordia College, was dedicated last Sunday. It is the highest institution of learning in the Lutheran Church.

Messrs. Moody, McGranahan and Whittle, the evangelists, leave America on October 2 for Ireland, where they contemplate carrying on an active missionary campaign in the South of the island.

According to the Italian papers there were at least seven millionaires killed in the earthquake at Isehia. Among them was the actor, Signor Bonadio, and his wife, who have left a fortune of five million lire.

Bishop Becker, of Delaware, sailed for Rome last week and it is understood in Catholic circles that when he reaches Rome he will be made an Archbishop and will take part in the deliberations of the conference called by the Pope.

There was a tidal wave in the harbor of St. Thomas on August 27, the water receding from the shore three times. A sharp earthquake shock was felt at ten o'clock on the following night. On August 30 two shocks were felt almost simultaneously.

Discipline in the Annamese army is illustrated by a story at Hue of an officer who had a ditch dug and filled the bottom with swords and pikes stuck into the ground, point upward.
His men were then told to fling themselves into the ditch. Only one man obeyed. He rushed in, and the swords and pikes collapsed before him. They had been held by the most slender of threads.

During a rehearsal at Colville's Four teenth Street Theatre, New York, Monday, in the play of "Othello," a bridge, on which Mr. Frederick Prince and a number of supernumeraries were standing, gave way. Mr. Prince had his ankle dislocated, and Mrs. Ann De Forest several ribs fractured. Kate Burns, August Nelson, J. W. Bradley, Thos. Monahan and Thos. Ryan were also injured.

Mr. Blaine has repudiated the interview ascribed to him last Monday, wherein he is reported to have looked upon Butler as the flourishing presidential candidate. He said that his views were just the reverse of those ascribed to him in the alleged interview. He did not even believe that Butler could be re-elected Governor of Massachusetts. He got in a word, as a matter of course, as to the Republican prospects in the next campaign.
He thought that the party would be stronger in the next election than they were eight years previous.

The chief topic of conversation on our streets for a week or more has been Gov. Holden and his change of political base. For our own part we don't think the game is worth the candle.—Clinton Caucasian.

Precisely, Mr. Holden's defection from the Republican party means the loss of but one vote to that party and if he votes with the Democrats it means but one more vote for that ticket. That is, so far as his individual influence at the polls is concerned. Our only fear is that there may be a squabble in the next Legislature over an attempt to remove his political disabilities, notwithstanding the fact that the verdict of the court of impeachment was final and irrevocable.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

YATES—School Books
American Legion of Honor HEINBERGER—School Books
F. C. MILLER—Florida Water, &c TAYLOR'S BAZAAR—Grand Opening OPERA HOUSE—Only A Farmer's Daughter
W. H. GREEN—Wholesale and Retail Druggist

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 237 bales.

Fanny McDonald, colored, disorderly conduct; $5 or 20 days—went below.

Clarendon Council, No. 67, A. L. of Honor, will meet to-night, at 8 o'clock.

It was hot and oppressive early this morning, but copious showers soon cooled the atmosphere, though it made bad weather for pedestrians.

Between 9 o'clock a.m. and 3 o'clock p.m. to-day the rainfall in this city was 4.76 inches and since 3 o'clock it is probable that another inch has fallen.

Miss Karrer will remain North for perhaps three weeks, instead of a week or ten days, as stated by us yesterday.
It will require nearly a month to purchase the unusually large stock which she will purchase this Fall, which will be shipped as fast as it is bought.

A new lock for mail pouches will go into use simultaneously with the new two-cent letter postage stamp on Oct.
1. Fifty thousand keys have been sent out to postmasters and other persons authorized to have them. They were sent in separate registered envelopes, and every one of them reached its destination. Two hundred thousand of the new locks have been distributed.
They are of corrugated steel, and are lighter and are said to be stronger than those now in use.

Taylor's Bazaar.

Taylor's Bazaar will open formally on Monday next, as per announcement in this issue. The handsome store occupied by Mr. Taylor (Hahn's old stand) has been filled from top to bottom with new and pretty things, which already attract much attention. The ladies will be out in force to see them next week.

Mr. A. H. Simpson of the American Hosiery Company, New York, says that the great pain-reliever, St. Jacobs Oil, cured him of rheumatism in the knee by a few applications.

For Philadelphia.

The steam yacht Passport, Capt.
Harper, left here a little after noon today for Philadelphia, where the vessel is to undergo a thorough overhauling and repairing at some of the ship yards in that city. She expects to be absent from our waters about six weeks, when she will return with a brand new boiler and in every way as good as new.

Tuesday Night.

The Opera House will be open for the first time this season on next Tuesday night, on which occasion "Only a Farmer's Daughter" will be presented.
This play has had a phenomenal success everywhere, having been presented over 1,500 times to crowded houses. The company come well recommended and will give a fine entertainment. The box sheet will be open at Dyer's to-morrow morning.

Offishal.

The fishing business at Masonboro Sound and other fisheries along our coast has become an important and in most instances a profitable industry. A short time since we mentioned the fact of an enormous haul of mullets at Masonboro on the grounds owned by Mr. James A. Hewlett, of Wrightsville. We now learn that a few days ago 150 bunches of drumfish were caught on the same grounds at one haul.

The Lightship Safe.

We are happy to announce that the Frying Pan Sheels lightship, which drifted from her moorings during the recent storm, has been found, and it may be presumed that all her crew are safe. She was seen yesterday afternoon off Myrtle Grove Sound, when the revenue cutter Colfax was at once notified of her whereabouts. The latter vessel left sometime before daylight this morning to go to the assistance of the lightship, and at 9 o'clock this morning was seen with the latter in tow, headed towards the mouth of the Cape Fear. Both vessels are probably safely inside at the time of this writing.

The Raleigh.

The steamship Raleigh, Capt. Littlefield from Baltimore, arrived and made fast at Lord's wharf at about 1 o'clock this morning. She left Baltimore at 6 p. m. on Saturday, the 8th inst., with pleasant weather, which continued until she passed Cape Hatteras on Sunday at 7 p. m. when it commenced blowing a gale from the N. E. which increased in fury until at 1 a. m. on Monday it was blowing a hurricane, the barometer standing at 29.60. At noon on Monday she was off Frying Pan lightship, the barometer having fallen to 29.02. Capt.
Littlefield then concluded to run clear of the storm center and headed the steamer S. E. for that purpose and ran until 8 o'clock that evening when she made a heavy roll which started her boiler and broke her blow and feed pipe connections, and carried away her smoke stack, leaving about one half of it on deck, which was secured. The breaking of the pipes caused the water to run into the vessel, instead of into the boilers, and made it necessary to put out the fires, cut the connections and batter down the ends of the pipes in order to keep the ship from filling. In consequence of this accident the ship lost her steerage and came to the wind, and for a time was virtually at the mercy of the waves, or, as Capt. Littlefield expressed it, "she did as she pleased." At midnight the barometer stood at 29, the wind veering from towards the North, but in half an hour afterwards, or at 12:30 on Tuesday morning, the barometer began to rise. At 4 o'clock on Tuesday morning the wind hauled around to the S. W., the weather moderated, and the ship headed N. N. W., under sail for the land. The men were immediately put to work to clearing up the wreck and on Thursday morning had got ready and gotten up steam again. The Raleigh was at this time off Cape Lookout, but as soon as steam was gotten up she was hauled to the Southward and crossed the bar at Bald Head at 6 o'clock yesterday evening and came up to the city, arriving as we have already stated. Capt. Littlefield states that it rained incessantly, and in torrents during the entire continuance of the storm.

By the arrival of the Raleigh another source of anxiety and alarm is dispelled, and attention and solicitude are now concentrated upon the Benefactor, which, at the time of this writing, had not been heard from since she left on Saturday last. We think there is no ground for serious apprehension at present. Captain Tribon left, well knowing that a severe storm was approaching, and knowing from experience of the treachery of September storms on our coast, like a skillful navigator made a good offing, and was probably far to the Eastward of the storm centre, whence it may take him two or three days (and perhaps longer) to return.
The Benefactor is a good sea boat, is not cumbered with lofty top hamper, and we feel no fears for her safety.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOBI'S.

From Waccamaw.

Col. H. B. Short, was in the city today and stated that the storm must have been much more severe in his section than it was here. He says that while the reports from here indicated a maximum velocity of wind of 39 miles per hour, he is confident that it blew at the rate of 60 miles per hour at Flemington. He also says that the damage to him and others in his vicinity will be serious, the worst of which will be occasioned by water. The swamps are full and his large force of hands are compelled to be idle in consequence, with no probability of being able to resume work for one or two weeks. His corn, cotton and other farm products were all beaten down by the wind and are now covered by water, where they will have to remain for several days, which will prove their ruin. When the first of his hands from the swamp put in an appearance, the Colonel asked what he left for, to which the colored man made reply:

"Well, it blowed so I did not know what to do, but just then there came a gust that twisted off a cypress that was eight feet through and took it right up over the tree tops, and I concluded it was no place for me; so I left in a hurry."

The Modern Age.

Draw-poker, from the scientific point of view, is the subject of an entertaining article by Richard A. Proctor, in The Modern Age for October. The same number contains "Balwer, Macready and 'Richelieu,'" by the Earl of Lytton (Owen Meredith); a detailed account of the deliberations between the author of "Richelieu" and the creator of the part, drawn principally from the correspondence between the actor and the dramatist. "Eurikloia, the Greek Girl," is a powerful story of Bulgarian life, from the German of Schneegans, and "The Ordeal," is an entertaining yachting sketch. "Ranch Life in the West," shows that kind of existence is not altogether couleur de rose. The poetry and other articles in this issue are all good. $1.60 per annum, Modern Age Publishing Co., New York City.

The Benefactor Safe.

By a dispatch received here this morning it is known that the steamship Benefactor is safe. She was signalled off Sandy Hook to-day, at 9 o'clock, passing up to New York. The Benefactor left here last Saturday forenoon, about 10 o'clock, and as nothing had been heard as to her whereabouts, some serious fears were entertained as to her safety, although much confidence has been reposed in the well known skill and discretion of Capt. Tribon, who is an old and tried seaman and a skillful navigator. He was advised before leaving port that the storm was brewing, but concluded to sail, remarking that he would get well out to sea, 500 miles or more, and thus escape the fury of the gale, which was expected to rage along the coast. We presume that this was the course adopted by him, and that, having passed the longitude of the storm, he may have had a rough and tedious passage but not a dangerous one. The announcement of the safe arrival of the steamer at New York will, however, be received with great relief.

It Rained.

About 9 o'clock this morning we were visited by gentle showers which continued at intervals until about 11 o'clock when it began to pour down in torrents and for an hour or more the rainfall was a perfect deluge. Market street was quickly one sheet of water, far upon the sidewalk and in some places into stores. There was fully three inches of water on the floor of Mrs. S. J. Baker's establishment, and there was considerable in two or three other places of business in her immediate vicinity. The flood was so great that there was between two and three feet of water on the floor of Messrs.
Hart, Bailey & Co's Machine Works, forcing the workmen to suspend labor for the day. The streets were badly washed in many places and the overflowed sidewalks were filled with mud, which the gutters could not carry off.
There were frequent and copious showers through the afternoon, but none so heavy as that we have just mentioned. Fortunately, the showers were unaccompanied by high winds, or the damage would have been severe.

The celebrated Fish Brand Gills Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
