

The Daily Review.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1883

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

STATE NEWS.

Wilson Mirror: Mr. W. E. Farmer, the efficient railroad agent at this place informs us that from September 1st, 82, to September 1st, '83 there were shipped 23,159 bales of cotton, 125 have been shipped since the 1st.

Newbern Journal: Rev. C. C. Price, the great colored orator of North Carolina, and bride are in the city. We learn that he leaves this morning for Brooklyn, N. Y., for the purpose of filling Beecher's pulpit next Sunday.

Greensboro Workman: Mr. Caldwell will bring up 25 car loads of hickory timber from the line of the University Branch road for McMabon's spoke and handle factory, to-day. The Young Men's Christian Association of this city will be represented in the Convention at Hickory, which begins to-day, by Prof. G. M. Smith, who will start on the trip to-night.

Edenton Enquirer: On Sunday morning of last week, Dr. H. C. Willey, of Gates county, requested his wife to make him some quinine pills. She got a bottle from the shelf and made the pills. Dr. Willey took five of them, and finding the effect peculiar for quinine, examined the bottle and found his wife had mistaken the morphine bottle for the quinine. He at once prescribed antidotes for himself, and the neighbors were summoned. It was with great difficulty that life was preserved.

Chatham Record: Mr. William S. Thompkins of this county, killed an eagle, a few days ago, that measured seven and a half feet from tip to tip.

On last Monday the large two-story dwelling occupied by Mr. E. D. Patterson near Lockville, was entirely consumed by fire, which originated from a spark from the chimney catching the roof. The day was very windy and the flames spread with great rapidity. Most of the furniture was saved. This was one of the best dwellings in the county, having been the former residence of Dr. R. K. Smith.

Clinton Caucasian: Prof. A. L. Phillips is preparing a complete map of Sampson county showing all important streams, public roads and the township boundaries. The map will be published this fall. There is a veritable centennial in Sampson county in the person of Abram Hobbs, who lives on the plantation of Mrs. Joseph Darden, in Hall's township. He was born in 1780 and is therefore 103 years old. The proof is as satisfactory as a record of his birth. Major J. M. Moseley is our informant. The Major's father was born in 1790 and the Major heard him state frequently that Abram was just 10 years older than himself.

Fayetteville Observer: Messrs. Tolar & Poe now have their new brick yard, a short distance south-east of the fair grounds, in full operation; and, with improved machinery for pressing the brick, capable of turning out from 14,000 to 18,000 brick per day. Mr. S. C. Godwin of this county, living about 8 miles from town on the old river road, has shown us a sample of sorghum of his own production, the best we have seen. Mr. Godwin made 550 gallons of sorghum from a planting of 4 acres. Two months ago Mr. J. A. P. Robertson, living on the east side of Cape Fear, had 35 fine sheep, for one alone of which he had been offered $10. Since that time the dogs have made two raids upon them, and his flock is now reduced to 5.

Journal-Observer: A congregational meeting was held at Davidson College on Monday evening, when the committee appointed to solicit subscription reported that they had raised three thousand and five hundred dollars in the village alone. A building committee was elected and the work of putting up the new church will begin at once. At 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening, Mr. George G. Shannonhouse, a well known and popular conductor of the Carolina Central railroad, was united in marriage, in this city, to Miss Willie Moore, a young lady who stands in high favor and esteem with this community. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Cheshire, pastor of the Episcopal church. The happy couple left on the evening train on the Carolina Central road, for Baltimore and Boston, to attend the Oriole and the Exposition.

The Night Watch. New York.—Mr. Charles T. Hollis, of the New York Club Stables, says that he is night-watchman, and one night was attacked by rheumatism so acute he could only get down stairs on his hands and knees. St. Jacob's Oil was applied twice. After this he took his watch again the next night, cured.
