The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

GOVERNOR BUTLER.

Republicans Working Like Beavers to Deter Him from Seeking Re-election.

BOSTON, September 16.—The sensation of the day in political circles has been the revival of the story that Governor Butler will be a candidate for re-election. The Republican papers are full of gossip based on the assumption that Butler will not run, and the talk of the street is that the Governor is alarmed by the statement of the large sums of money the "sains" propose to put into the campaign to beat him. General Butler is rich, but does not like to spend his money, and it is hard to induce him to put his thousands against the tens of thousands the Republicans threaten to expend.

The Democrats have a strong organization and if Butler runs it will be tested to its utmost; but it will take money to maintain it. The Republicans will have on the stump an army of distinguished men, many of whom take little part in an ordinary campaign and it will be hard to find Democratic orators to meet them. But the persistent clamor of his followers and his own fear that withdrawal will be construed into an acknowledgment of defeat is likely to force the General into the field. With the Presidential bee buzzing in his bonnet he will not want to acknowledge defeat till he is forced to do so.

The ostentatious letter from Charles Francis Adams, Jr., announcing that he cannot allow his name to go before the Republican State Convention is ridiculed mercilessly, as it is known that there was not the slightest prospect of his receiving any considerable number of votes.

CLEARING HOUSE RE PORTS.

Large Gains in the South and a Decrease in the East.

BOSTON, September 16.—Special despatches to the Post from twenty eight leading clearing houses in the United States give the clearances for the week ending yesterday, and the statement is decidedly unfavorable when compared with that of last week and with that of the corresponding week of last year. The aggregate of clearings for the week is $9,874,529.62, against $10,147,320.36 last week. Compared with last year, the clearings show a falling off of 228 per cent., against a decrease of only 4 per cent. last week.

Outside of New York the clearings show a decrease of 6 per cent. The Eastern trade centres all show a decrease or a very light gain. The losses at the great manufacturing centres is due in a great measure to the effect of the long-continued drought which has curtailed operations at such points as Lowell, Lawrence and Springfield. The Southern cities continue to show very large gains, due to a healthy and legitimate expansion of trade in that section. The only cities in the entire list that show any gain whatever are St. Louis Baltimore, San Francisco, New Orleans, Louisville, Kansas City, Hartford, Peoria, Memphis, Lowell and Syracuse.

Bicycle Carnival.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 16.—This will be the greatest week in Springfield's history, for the grand carnival of the bicyclists will begin here on the 18th and continue three days. The meet will be in Hamden Park, and on each day numerous races for handsome prizes will take place. For one race alone a cup valued at $5,000 is offered.

Bicyclists from all over the world have arrived—a half a dozen from England; one from Australia and one from Japan. Every city in this country and Canada is represented by bicyclists and tricyclists. Inside the park is a pretty scene. Five thousand tents for the accommodation of visitors have been put up. The track has been arranged for the races and everything is complete. Fred Jenkins, Secretary of the League of American Wheelmen, will be referee, he has been here several days arranging for the event. For the amateur races G. M. Hendee, of the Springfield Bicycle Club, is the favorite, but as Mr. "Doodie" Robinson, the next fastest man in England to Cortis, has arrived, it is believed by some that Hendee will not be victorious. In the professional races "Jack" Prince, of Boston, John Keen and R. James, England, are the stars. During the "carnival" all the business houses will close and the whole city will be decorated with bunting.

Baltimore Invites Coleridge.

BALTIMORE, September 16.—A meeting of the Baltimore Bar Association was held yesterday to arrange for inviting Lord Chief Justice Coleridge to visit this city during his stay in America. Mr. Hatrope was called to the chair. After a short debate on the best means to entertain the Chief Justice it was determined to give a dinner in his honor and the temporary president was instructed to confer with the President of the association and appoint a committee to invite Justice Coleridge and his traveling companions to a dinner to be given him by the association at any time that may prove convenient for him. The committee was instructed to invite the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Federal, State and city judiciary and Attorney General of the United States to attend the dinner.

Father Riordan Consecrated.

CHICAGO, September 16.—The consecration of Rev. Father Patrick Riordan as Coadjutor Bishop to Archbishop Alamy of San Francisco, took place at St. James' Cathedral Church to-day. The ceremonies were participated in by an archbishop, thirteen bishops and a large number of priests from various parts of the West. Long before the ceremonies were begun the great edifice was packed with people. Archbishop Feehan, of the Chicago Diocese, acted as consecrator, assisted by Bishops Ireland and Chatard. The sermon was preached by Bishop J. L. Spalding, of Peoria.

China and France.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—It is reported that China and France may submit the differences between them to the joint mediation of England and the United States.

M. Waddington, the French Ambassador to Great Britain, on his second visit to Earl Granville, the British Foreign Secretary, last week, met the Marquis Tseng, the Chinese Ambassador. M. Waddington started for Paris on Saturday.

Two transports, now loading at Marseilles, with troops for Tonquin, have been ordered to hasten their departure, as General Bouet makes urgent demands for aid.

Protection of Canton.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The Standard's correspondent at Hong Kong reports that there are now seven Chinese gunboats moored alongside of the English and French men-of-war opposite the foreign concession at Canton. Placards were posted on the walls of Canton on Saturday threatening destruction to all European property if the government decides that indemnity shall be paid for the damage done to the property of Europeans during the recent riots.
