Oxford Torchlight: The storm in Granville last week was a very severe one, and did great damage to the crops of corn and tobacco, whipping the fod-der into shreds, blowing down the stalks and breaking and bruising the tobacco crop most seriously. But the soaking rain, so badly needed was a great set off to this damage.

Greensboro Workman: A postal from Rev. T. T. Ferree says his father, who lives in Randolph county, has found a valuable gold mine on his farm. Found one piece of gold weighing 17 pennyweights, and it has created considerable excitement. -- Our latest advices are that the diphtheria continue to rage in Orange county. There were seven interments at Chestnut Ridge the act as to have it fall overboard. during the past week—four on Monday and three atterwards. A friend writes The Czarina and the Nihilists. -"I am going to see an afflicted family, whose last remaining child is very ill with diphtheria." All accounts agree that the disease is in its most malignant form.

Journal-Observer: Dr. R. H. Chapman, who is so well known in Charlotte, is prostrated with a spinal affection at Asheville, and cannot use his left side.

— The city graded schools opened yesterday morning with eight hundred the room the man withdrew. The and torty scholars in attendance on the first roll call, about two hundred more than attended the opening last year. In the primary department of the white school, Prof. Mitchell has fifty new scholars. —Col. He also tells us of a large rattlesnake, killed by John E. and John J. Jarman, some time ago, with eleven rattles, and a cat squirrel inside of him. —A friend at Cypress Creek, Jones county, writes us that Ignatius Brock, a boy of fifteen summers, and a son of the famous hunter, Isaac Brock, was out hunting near the Onslow county line on Thursday when the dogs jumped a bear, driving him to his stand. Nace, though a good distance from the other hunters, stood his ground and fired upon the stood his ground and fired upon the bear twice, crippling him in one leg. The dogs then crowded him so close he took to a tree. Nace followed up and poured in two more rounds which brought Bruin to the ground, When the other hunters came up he was sithad taken the track of another and left.

News and Observer: A turntable fifty-five feet in the clear, is being built has traveled extensively in the past three weeks informs us that cotton known. prospects as judged by a view from the roads are worse than in thirty years.

The drought in Western North Carolina surpasses belief. The dust in Asheville "lays over" anything we know here, even during fair week.

Lt Joseph B Batchelor, Jr. 24th U S Infantry, arrived here on Sunday from Fort Supply, Indian Territory. He is assigned to duty as instructor of military tactics at Bingham school and will go tactics at Bingham school, and will go there soon, as his duty begins Oct. 1.

At the Centennial graded school there were yesterday present 593 pupils, which is certainly a good showing for the second week of the term. In the lowest grade there were 148, which is 60 more than last year. The enrollment | Should be Read at Every Fireside in Eaestern is apt to reach over 700 ere many weeks hardly a town on any of the lines which is not improving and building up. The conductors on five of the largest lines of rail in the State say that on those lines every town is improving.

Last Monday morning, at Cary, William Roundla, a Canadian, was cut by Sidney Castleberry. After lingering nearly a week Roundla died last Sunday. The physician who attended day. The physician who attended Roundla had little hope of his recovery from the first. Castleberry is in jail here. He is a young man, only 21 years of age. —Asheville is the most thorof age. —Asheville is the most thorof age. FRESH FISH TO ALL points or age. —Asheville is the most thoroughly cosmopolitan place in the South. There's not another like it. There is the queerest blending of the old and the new imaginable. The old Asheville, the Asheville of the stage coach days, mingles oddly with the modern town. Houses are going up like magic; the whole place is on a boom. It is the Chicago of North Carolina. #### Domestic Joys.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., September 17.— Senator David Davis, and wife, upon their return home from North Carolina, will visit the East for several weeks and in November will go to Washington to stay during the greater portion of the winter.

Mr. Davis assured Mr. Lawrence Weldon recently that he was out of politics and would devote the remainder of his life to domestic joys.

Judge Mayo's Suicide.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.—Additional particulars of Judge Mayo's suicide say that while the steamer was off Point Lookout he got out of the window of reached him in time to snatch him back to a position of safety. When he found his attempt frustrated Judge Mayo placed a revolver to his temple and pulled the trigger, lodging a ball in the centre of his brain. Death was in-stantaneous. It is supposed that he in-tended to shoot himself and wanted to so arrange his body before committing
