

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $1.00; Six months, $2.00; Three months, $1.00; One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Sarah Bernhardt has had another theatrical ovation in Paris. John Sullivan is making a fortune at his bar. He takes in from $2,400 to $3,000 daily. Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague is worth about $250,000. She is not now an extravagant woman.

A "Georgia cotton prophet" named Cook, hailing from Albany, predicts that a 5,000,000 bale crop will not be made this year.

Hon. Robert M. McEane, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Maryland, is a man of great ability and experience in public affairs.

After the equinoctial storm, the New York Herald predicts comparatively mild weather, especially in the latter part of autumn and through the winter.

The English house of commons now consists of 629 members. Of these 335 are liberals, 241 conservatives, thirty radicals, and thirty-three moderate home-rulers.

The Emperor Francis Joseph, desiring to give a new proof of his friendship for King Milan of Serbia, has named an Austrian regiment of infantry after him.

The New York Herald thinks it would strengthen the Democratic ticket if Gen. Gordon, Gen. Hampton, Mr. Carlisle or Mr. Randolph Tucker could be nominated as Vice President.

The New York Times never was more prosperous than now, and yet its reduction in price has caused a sensation. The advertising is what pays principally at New York, one and two dollars a line being easily obtained, in cash.

The Baltimore Sun says: "There has been more capital sunk in this country in the daily newspaper than in any other business, and yet there are many more ready to engage therein and who think themselves competent to run a newspaper," as the saying is."

The wearing of rattlesnake skins as girdles is a new fashion set by wife of a chemist, who while at a picnic in the woods of Sullivan county, N. Y., boldly killed the reptile. She had the skin properly cured, retaining the head and its fourteen rattles, and now values her girdle at $250.

Caleb Stockwell, of London, Ont., was exceedingly surprised the other morning when Mrs. Stockwell presented him with two sons and two daughters, all new. Subsequently when asked what he'd got, he sorrowfully said, "Only two small pair." The little ones are thriving.

Judge Ruffin's resignation from the Supreme Bench will be universally regretted. He retires because of ill health and his resignation goes into effect at once. He is one of three men, all accomplished jurists, who have been doing the work of five at a salary entirely disproportionate to the duties of the position. Judge Ruffin has been on the bench but two years.

Colonel William L. Calhoun, who has been passing the summer at Tallulah Falls, Va., wears the watch, fob-chain and ring of his grandfather, the South Carolina statesman. The watch is of the old English style, and on it is the following inscription: "John Caldwell Calhoun. Born in South Carolina March 18, 1772, and died in Washington, D. C., March 31, 1850."

The New York Graphic, of the 17th, contains a very full and graphic report of the Oriole Celebration in Baltimore. The illustrations are very full and very extensive. Among others we notice a full page devoted to a description of the new and handsome quarters occupied by Messrs A. C. Meyer & Co., proprietors of the far-famed Dr. Bull's Syrup. The building is located at 176 and 178 Lombard street, and is seven stories high.

Peoria has only forty thousand inhabitants, but there is one respect in which it is the biggest city in the land. There is no other from which the government receives so large an amount of internal revenue. Thirteen immense distilleries make this the centre of whiskey manufacture. The tax is ninety cents a gallon. The largest distillery is under contract to send every drop of its product to France, to be used in the native wines of that vine-clad country.

Mr. G. Wood, agent for Zera Semon, is in the city to-day.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 888 bales.

Workmen have been busy to-day putting up telephone poles.

Mr. F. Campbell, of Sells Brothers' Circus, was in the city to-day.

You needn't expect good, settled weather until the moon changes.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

The inclement weather yesterday kept a good many from attending divine services at the several churches.

The News and Observer speaks of still more rains in the interior, and hence we think that there will probably be another good sized freshet in the river.

There were two cases of disorderly conduct before the Mayor this morning for which he imposed a fine of $5 in each case. The fines were paid and the parties discharged.

The latest agony is for the fashionable young lady to have a dog to match her dress. The mashed strawberry is easily accessible, but where is the mashed dog to come from?

The Grand Commandery Knights Templar for North Carolina, will meet in Charlotte on the second Tuesday in next month. Mr. H. H. Munson, of this city, is the Most Eminent Commander.

The fire companies are on parade this afternoon as we go to press, the occasion being the reception tendered Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company, but the report is too late for this issue.

The steamship Raleigh was delayed in Baltimore this trip two days longer than was expected on account of necessary repairs to her boiler, which was shifted in the severe gale which she encountered on her last passage.

Mr. F. A. Newbury's Commission and Wholesale House on Mulberry, between Water and Front streets, is advertised in this issue. Mr. Newbury is a driving business man and knowing the wants of the people will see that they are accommodated.

Some one who ought to be soundly whipped threw a rock through one of the plate-glass windows of Mr. P. Christ's confectionery establishment, causing damage that it will cost several dollars to repair. No one knows who did it, and probably no one ever will.

The Minnehaha had quite a large list of passengers this morning, among whom were lawyers, newspaper men, witnesses and others, having business with the court or with the people who will be apt to be drawn to Smithville this week from different portions of the county.

Exports Foreign.
Dan. barque Louise, Capt. Larsen, cleared to-day for Humacao, P. R., with 150,799 feet lumber, 66,650 shingles and 99 barrels rosin, valued at $3,576.43, shipped by Messrs E. Kidder & Son.

Busy Times
This seems to be a season of general repairs to fences, out buildings and dwellings throughout the city. Go wherever you will, there may be heard the sound of the hammer and saw and workmen have their hands full of employment. No sooner is one job completed than there are in demand for another, and if there are any carpenters in the city who are idle it is not because there is not any lack of employment for them.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOB'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

A Quick Passage.

The schooner C. H. Macomber, Capt. Rommill, which arrived here on Saturday last, made the run from Boston, Mass., to the bar at the mouth of the Cape Fear in 3 days and 7 hours, which is a remarkable quick trip—one of the quickest on record.

Poor Prospects.

Farmers from the surrounding country, arriving in the city, give gloomy accounts of the crops. What was not burned up and ruined by the long continued dry weather of July and August, has been drowned out by the excessive rains of September; so that there are fears that many of the farmers will have to economize closely to have enough to last them until another crop is made.

Southern Telegraph Company.

Mr. Jack Earnest, who was at one time an operator in the Western Union office in this city, and also at the office of the W. & W. and W. C. & A. Rail Roads, was here on Saturday, on business connected with the new Southern Telegraph line, of which he is to be the manager in this city. He says that the line will surely be built to this place, via the C. C. R. R., but that it will be three months, perhaps, before the wires will reach us. At present every energy of the construction force is being used to push forward the lines to Charleston, it being important that connection should be made with that city at an early day. We understand, from other sources, that the line will be built South from Norfolk along the dirt roads running through the counties of Gates, Hertford, Pitt, Martin, Lenoir, Duplin, Pender and New Hanover, and that some of the poles have already been delivered on this route.

Personal.

Mrs. S. J. Baker has returned from the Northern markets, after an absence of two weeks. She tells us she has bought a large and attractive stock of millinery goods, all of which she hopes to have displayed in a few days.

Messrs. C. W. Yates and E. Van Laer have also returned to the city after a purchase for his bookstore and Prof. Van Laer laid in a large stock of musical instruments for the new department which is to be added to Mr. Yates' business.

Mr. B. F. Penny, who has been to New York and Baltimore for the purchase of new goods, returned on Saturday night. While absent he paid a visit to some friends in Connecticut, and was accompanied on his return home by a young lady relative, who is on a visit to his family.

Mr. W. N. Jacobs has also returned to the city. He has been absent about two months on a trip to New York and other Northern cities and has already returned to his position in Mr. Katz's store.

The Perils of the Sea.

The schooner Alice Hearn, Captain Flanning, which has returned here in distress, is now at Messrs Northrop & Cumming's mill where she is discharging her cargo. Her captain reports that when off Cape Hatteras, at 11 o'clock on the 19th inst., he wore ship and stood off shore, the wind blowing a heavy gale from N. E. at the time. At 4 p. m., the same day, tried the pumps and found no more water than usual; at 8 p. m. tried the pumps again, when it was found that she had sprung a leak, and the men were kept at the pumps incessantly. At 1.30 on the morning of the 20th, wore ship again to the westward and ran in to make the land and smooth water, the pumps going all the time. At 2:30 o'clock she had settled so far in the water and rolled so heavily that the fastenings to the deck load were cut, and the latter washed overboard to relieve the vessel. At 9 a. m., on the 21st inst., the steamer Lone Star came alongside and took her in tow, (the schooner having 7 1/2 feet of water in her hold at the time,) and towed her up to the bar at the mouth of the Cape Fear, when she was taken in tow by the steaming Alpha and towed to the city. The Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine worked yesterday at pumping the schooner out, but unfortunately some of the steamer's machinery gave out, compelling her to desist until the damage could be repaired. At 2 o'clock, this afternoon, the schooner lacked only about 3 feet of being full to the decks with water. The extent of her damage cannot be ascertained until her cargo is discharged and she pumped out, which will be as soon as the work can be accomplished.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Another Steamship.

The Br. steamship Lykus, Captain Philliskirk, arrived this morning from New York, consigned to Mr. G. P. Mebane. The Lykus is an iron steamer of 1,776 tons, schooner-rigged, is 240 feet in length, 31 feet beam and 22 feet depth of hold. Her engine room is 34 feet long, in which she has two compound condensing engines, aggregating 140 horse power. She was built at Sunderland, Eng., in 1875, and like the Woodside, will load with cotton direct for Liverpool.

Found Dead.

Tom Durham, colored, was found dead yesterday morning in a house on what is known as the Prigge place. He had been working for Wm. Howe, colored, and had moved his quarters on Friday last, as those he had occupied were so leaky that they afforded him no protection. He was seen on Saturday by several colored people, who thought he was dying, but made no report of his condition, and nothing was known of it officially until he was found dead as above stated. Coroner Jacobs summoned a jury of inquest whose verdict was that the deceased came to his death by exposure and privation.

U. S. District Court.
