THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1883. NO. 231

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

The international convention of prison reformers is in session in Louisville, Kentucky.

The Korean embassy were on Tuesday the guests of the city of New York and its merchants.

The hail storms of the last few days have seriously damaged the tobacco and corn crops of southern Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky.

Lyman Blair, president of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce, was killed at his residence, Tuesday evening, by the accidental discharge of his gun.

Ferdinand Mayer & Co., wholesale cloth dealers, New York, have failed, with liabilities estimated at $1,700,000; assets not yet known; preferred credits, $31,000.

Mr. Wendell Phillips can yet fling an adjective with the best of 'em. Hear him: "I distrust and despise the Republicans as hypocrites and time servers, as double dealers, as soulless carion masquerading in the grave clothes of their honored predecessors."

On Monday Anthony Comstock, escorted by a large posse of deputy sheriffs, went to the Brighton Beach (Coney Is) and race track where he made some arrests. He then went to West Brighton and raided the pool rooms there, making one or two arrests. Within half an hour after he left West Brighton the pool rooms were reopened.

Consul-General Merritt, of London, reports to the state department at Washington that he has investigated the alleged Bradford estate in Great Britain, which is reported to be awaiting the heirs of Gov. William Bradford, first Governor of Plymouth colony, and finds that there is no money in the bank of England to their credit.

David E. Aiken, the inspector of water meters, in New York, who was recently arrested for complicity in the frauds in the water register's bureau, on an indictment recently found against him by the grand jury in the third degree, in having fraudulently altered a book of record, was arraigned in court Monday. He pleaded not guilty, and was released on bail.

Counsel applied in the court of general sessions, New York, Monday, on behalf of Charles R. Beckwith, to have eleven indictments against the latter for embezzlement nolle prosequed. Beckwith was cashier for B. T. Babbitt, the soap manufacturer, and when in his employ swindled him out of about $200,000. He was tried on two indictments, convicted and sent to prison for ten years. His term has expired, and he was released.

At a Bowery museum in New York, on Wednesday night, the fat woman of the concern, a girl only sixteen years old, was married to a young man of twenty, the son of a butcher. The groom weighs 120 pounds and the bride 516. The scenes at the marriage were disgusting. The hall was filled with a shouting, yelling, blasphemous mob, and the marriage ceremony was performed by one Rev. Chas. E. Berger, an ex-army chaplain, who was both drunk and blasphemous. The groom claims that it was a love match.

The Democratic Convention of the First Congressional district will be held at Edenton on the 2nd day of October. The district is composed of 16 counties. The successful candidate must receive 149 votes. The total vote is 397, distributed as follows: Beaufort, 34; Camden, 13; Carteret, 20; Hertford, 19; Hyde, 16; Gates, 20; Martin, 28; Pamlico, 14; Pasquotank, 14; Perquimans, 15; Pitt, 45; Tyrrell, 8; Washington, 12; Dare, 6; Chowan, 13; Currituck, 20. This representation is based upon the Democratic strength as shown by the Jarvis-Buxton vote in 1880.

The Washington Post continues to deal Postmaster-General Gresham some well mented blows for his conduct in the case of the First National Bank of New Orleans, which is by his order restrained from receiving registered letters and money orders through the mails, because of its business relations with the Louisiana State Lottery Company. The Post is right. Mr. Gresham is himself a violator of the laws which he declares he is upholding. His attitude towards the Lottery Company is just assuming that of a personal enmity. He overlooks the fact that there is just as fine a field for the display of his official energies on Wall street. New York, as there is in New Orleans. But then Wall street has contributed liberally to uphold and sustain the party to which Mr. Gresham owes his official position, and then, nothing rash must be done with regard to Wall street.

Lookout for pickpockets to-morrow. Our weather clerk has handed in his resignation.

The circus tents will be pitched on Dickinson's Hill.

Col. Kenneth M. Murchison, of New York, is in the city.

The receipts of cotton at this port to day foot up 745 bales.

Miss Lillian Spencer is to appear in Goldsboro in the Creole October 6th.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot. Circus to-morrow, then comes Sunday, and then get ready to go to school on Monday.

Large crowds from the country are expected to be here to-morrow to see the Serkus.

Cotton sells from one-half to five eighths of a cent higher in Wilmington than in Raleigh.

Steamboatmen report a plenty of water in the Cape Fear, and excellent navigation in consequence.

Quite a large party is expected down on the John Dawson to night, the most of whom will stay to see the circus.

People from the country report that the waters are slowly slowly subsiding and the dry land begins to appear.

Messrs Morris Bear & Bros., of this city, were granted a drummer's license, at the State Treasury, on Wednesday.

There were a number of flat loads of wood in the docks this morning, from which good ash was retailing at 80 cents per load.

It is very easy to say that the mosquitoes must go, but we can vouch for the fact that they had not left at a late hour last night.

The bridge over the railroad, at Sixth street, has been completed and is now in good solid condition for either teams or pedestrians.

Messrs E. T. Boykin and J. D. Kerr, of Sampson county, are in the city today on business connected with their profession, the law.

The Wilmington Light Infantry was out on parade last night and did very well, but owing to the darkness the drill was not so successful as it otherwise would have been.

Mr. A. Shrier, of the firm of A. & J. Shrier, has returned from the second trip he has made this year to the Northern markets. His purchases are arriving freely by both rail and steamer.

We understand that the telegraph wires are up to within about two miles of Clinton, that the instruments are in place and that we'll soon hear thunder and see some of the effects of the lightning. Good.

Messrs W. E. Davis & Son caught over 400 fine large drumfish yesterday afternoon, and the catch will average 40 pounds to the fish, aggregating 16,000 pounds. It is said to be the largest haul of these fish on record.

Rev. R. W. Lide, of Dovesville, S. C., will preach in the First Baptist Church next Sunday morning and again at night. During his stay in the city he will be the guest of Mr. William Larkins, of the First National Bank.

Thanks to Mr. L. M. Long, the Secretary, for an invitation to attend the Fourteenth Annual Fair of the Roanoke and Tar River Agriculture Society, to be held at Weldon November 5-9. Hon. D. W. Voorhees, is expected to deliver the address.

The lunemen who are engaged in putting up the telephone poles and wires throughout the city are the objects of much curious attention and conversation as they pursue their perilous calling; but they don't seem to know or care what is said or thought concerning them.

New Engines.
At the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad machine shops in this city, workmen have just commenced putting up five new engines. Three of these will be for the W. C. & A Railroad and the other two for the W. & W. Railroad. The engines to be built will be of the same pattern and design as those already completed, and will be considerably larger than any heretofore in use upon either of the roads named.

Changing the Gauge.
A good many of the cars belonging to Sells Brothers' circus—in fact, all that could be spared—have been sent to the W. & W. machine shops, in this city, to have the tracks changed to the wider gauge, which will be necessary on all roads South of here. We saw the labor in progress this morning and the workmen made short work of changing the gauge of a pair of wheels; but there will be a good many of them to change before the job is completed.

The New Stamp.
A great many people seem to be telling that the old two-cent stamp will be just as good as the new one after October 1st, and that the three-cent stamp will pay postage on any class of mail matter then as well as ever. The Government will not begin to repudiate its paper. There appears some prospect that Canada will ultimately refuse to carry our letters under the two-cent rate, but the old rule of mutual delivery must be observed until further notice.

The Cut-off.
The Goldsboro Messenger says:—"Capt. A. J. Galloway, of the Atlantic Coast Line, returned to his home in this city last Wednesday, from his trip along the intended route of the Wilson and Florence Railroad. Capt. Galloway has secured the right of way over the lands lying between the two points in question, but as to when the road will be constructed, we are unable to inform our readers, as Capt. Galloway refuses to be interviewed on the subject.

Big Windows.
The mammoth French plate glasses for the windows of Messrs. Brown & Roddick's new store on Front street have arrived. The largest measure 11 feet 6 inches in height by 7 feet 10 inches in width, and are considerably larger than any in the city, and we doubt if there are any larger in the South, this side of New Orleans. Workmen were engaged to day in getting them inside the building and nipping them, and it will be assumed that the ponderous plates were handled with care to prevent breakage.

Theatrical.
The music-loving portion of our people have a rare treat in store for them. On the 18th of October next, Miss Minnie Hank, with her own selected company of artists, will give a grand operatic concert, in which she will give selections from the most celebrated operas in character and costume. She is one of the celebrities of the operatic stage whose acting and vocalization have stood the test of the most severe criticism in the large cities of this country as well as in Europe, and we may expect from her and her company such a musical treat as it has seldom if ever been the good fortune of our people to hear in Wilmington.

A Progressive House.
Among the many places on Market street where architectural changes, new paint, remodeling of stores, store fronts, &c., are giving new and neat appearances, we were constrained to notice the Live Book and Music Store of Mr. P. Heinsberger, yes. On approaching the store the eye, as well as other organs of sense, is immediately informed that paint is not a scarce article about his establishment. A glance inside the store is sufficient to see that everything is beginning to look new, and that it is being supplied with additional shelving and many other arrangements for the display of a large lot of school books, paintings, latest music and music books, and many new and pretty goods that are being received every day. He tells us that he expects next week, in addition to his present stock of musical instruments, a large lot of pianos and organs, which will certainly give his music department a most complete appearance.

We never knew a man to come to Wilmington for the purpose of seeing a circus; but there are quite a number in the city from the surrounding country whose business is of such a nature that they are reluctantly compelled to stay over until to-morrow, and they may drop into the show for a few minutes—just to see the animals.

Rice birds are fat but the prices are very high. Seppernong grapes are plentiful at 20 cents per peck.

The frame of the new blacksmith shop of Mr. P. H. Hayden is already erected and the work of completing the building is progressing favorably. It will probably be ready for use some time next week.

We saw some unusually fine new river oysters to-day at the Club Rooms of Mr. F. W. Ortman, on North Second Street. In a card in this issue Mr. Ortman invites our country cousins to drop in to-morrow and see them.

Mr. A. V. Horrell, at John Carroll's old stand, on Market street, is in receipt of a lot of those splendid Winberry oysters, the first of the season. He invites a call and a trial, in advertisement published in this issue.

The Sage is the title of a very handsome paper of 24 columns, the publication of which has just been begun in Fayetteville by Mr. Josiah Evans. It is published weekly, and we are glad to see the name of Mr. J. H. Myrover at the head as the Associate Editor. Success to it.

The Monroe Empire-Express says that John Robinson's advance agent has been in Monroe, making arrangements for the appearance there of the circus on the 20th of October. Are you sure of this, neighbor? We have heard nothing of this agent or this show at y where else in North Carolina this season.

Exports Foreign.
Schooner John S. Dewiler, Captain Mathis, cleared to day for Porto Rico, with 163,443 feet of lumber and 8,450 shingles, valued at $3,426.98, shipped by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming.

The Circus.
The circus will be the feature of the day to-morrow. It is said by those who have seen it to be a real good show and about the best that has visited this State in ten years, and the menagerie is called the largest that has ever been South. This is what our near-by contemporaries say. There will be two exhibitions to-morrow afternoon and night.

A Year with 13 Months.
This is a Jewish leap year and is remarkable for containing thirteen months with 383 days. The lateness of the Jewish holidays this fall is attributed to the peculiar and exceptional character of the year, for ordinarily the New Year celebration occurs prior to the middle of September, while this year—5643 according to the ancient reckoning—the holiday does not occur until the first day of October, not less than fifteen days subsequent to the date of its usual happening, and what is still more remarkable, twenty-eight days later in the Jewish calendar than last year's occurrence of the same festival, for that year contained but 355 days.

The celebrated 'Fish Brand Gills Twine is sold only at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Art Amateur.
The Art Amateur for October is a treasure for home art workers. Its designs include three for china painters (primroses for a vase, harebells for a plate and poppies for a plaque), three for embroidery—a letter case, a photograph frame and a bellows; a charming hawthorn panel for wood-carving, a dozen pleasing figures for sketching on linen and a multiplicity of monograms and jewelry designs. There are valuable articles on etching, drawing in red, and other art topics, with some good examples of crayon work; the Munich and Boston art exhibitions are reviewed and attractively illustrated; there are some excellent pictures of boule work and one of a remarkable Henri Deux cabinet inlaid with ivory, and many practical suggestions for home decoration and furnishing. Price, 35 cents; $4 a year. Montague Marks, publisher, 23 Union Square, New York.

Second Instalment of Fall and Winter Clothing.
We are receiving one of the largest and finest displays of Cassimere Suits, in Plain and Fancy Colors, in Cheviots, Worsted, Basket, Corkscrew, Diagonal, Tricot and Broadcloth, Suits $5, $7, $9, $11, $13, $15, $17 and up to $35. It will pay you to examine our Goods and Prices. A. & I. SHRIER, Reliable Clothiers, 114 Market st.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOB'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.
