The paper will be delivered by carriers, free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week.

Advertising rates low and liberal. Advertisers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mme. Janauschek is at Charlestown, Mass.

Mr. John Gilbert will, in November, begin his fifty-seventh year on the stage.

Ex-Senator Thurman is to take the stump in Ohio, speaking in Newark and Albany.

It is said that ex-Senator Conkling and Secretary Folger do not speak to each other.

Pere Hyacinthe and Mme. Loysen will sail for America on next Saturday in the Arizona.

The negotiations between the Vatican and France have reached a satisfactory conclusion.

By the death of Admiral Patton the number of surviving Trafalgar veterans is reduced to four.

The duke of Argyll will give a lecture on "Geology and the Deluge" in Glasgow on October 12th.

Lord Coleridge's salary is $40,000 a year, about four times as much as that of Chief Justice Waite.

Consuls of the United States in France report that wines are very extensively adulterated in that country.

Two State conventions of the Greenback labor party are called in Massachusetts, each repudiating the other.

Father Ryan says free schools were first established in Ireland, and then in Italy and France, although New England claimed that honor.

It is currently reported in journalistic circles in Philadelphia that Alexander McClure will soon sever his connection with the Philadelphia Times.

The Washington Post concludes that it is less important to have cheap whisky than to have cheap coal, cheap blankets and cheap underwear.

Mrs. Garfield pays no attention to attacks upon her dead husband's memory. She is still a close reader of many newspapers, but allows none of the criticisms to disturb her.

Ex-Governor Sprague refuses to obey the order of the State Court requiring him to give up possession of the mills and other property of the Quindneck Company. It remains to be seen whether one old shotgun can overawe all Rhode Island.

The New York Times, audacious Republican, is of this opinion: "Senator Mahone is said to have been warned by a special envoy from Washington that he must not 'press his assessment upon the employees of the Norfolk Navy-yard.' But if Mahone has 'directly or indirectly been concerned in such an assessment,' the only official envoy that should be sent to him is a United States marshal with a writ of arrest."

Our streets have been crowded with strangers to-day, who were drawn hither by the circus and its varied attractions.

The horses belonging to the circus are, with but very few exceptions, fine animals; much better than those that were here last year.

Swedish barque Berna, Capt. Nyberg, cleared to-day for Stettin, Germany, with 3,353 barrels of rosin, valued at $4,944, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1883. NO. 230

New moon to-morrow night at 40 minutes past 12 o'clock.

Mr. Frank Harrington, press agent for Sells Bros., circus, paid us a very pleasant visit this morning.

The steamer John Dawson will not leave until about 12 o'clock to night which will give those who wish to attend the circus to-night ample opportunity.

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church in this State will meet in this city on Wednesday, November 14th, and will continue in session throughout the week.

Larry Nixon, colored, was before the Mayor this morning, charged with disorderly conduct. The sentence of the Court was a fine of $3 or 10 days in the city prison. He went below.

The circus arrived here at about 5 o'clock this morning and was the object of much curious attention and comment by the lookers-on, as the wagons, horses and equipages were being unloaded from the cars.

A parrot escaped from a cage on Third street this morning and there was some difficulty in recapturing it. Whenever approached it would fly off and shriek out, "I want to go to the circus!" Fact.

One of the circus men was kicked this morning by a horse attached to a show wagon, on the corner of Third and Mulberry streets, but he was tough and after bathing the affected part with cold water he went to work again.

Series of Sermons. In St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, the pastor, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, will deliver a series of sermons on family life from the Bible standpoint. The first sermon of the series will be preached to-morrow morning, in English, on "The Position and Duties of the Husband and Father in the Household."

All Ready at Clinton.

A postal from Edwin W. Kerr, Esq., dated at Clinton, yesterday, conveys the gratifying intelligence that the wires have all been strung between Clinton and Warsaw, and that the office at the former place is furnished and ready for business. They are waiting now on the office at Warsaw which is not yet quite ready, otherwise messages could be sent there to day.

Mr. Kerr also tells us that the streams in Sampson county are all over their banks and that Sampson is a wet county at this time.

Judge Merrimon Appointed.

A special to the REVIEW, from Raleigh, says that Hon. A. S. Merrimon has been appointed a Justice of the Supreme Court, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Ruffin. We have no information as to whether Judge Merrimon will accept the position but we incline to the opinion that he will.

Gov. Jarvis has done well in this respect. Judge Merrimon, who is also an ex-Senator of the United States, is one of the most profound jurists in the State. Should he accept the position tendered him—and we trust that he will—the people at large will have cause to congratulate themselves on his accession.

Broken Into.

Some thief managed to gain an entrance to Mr. C. W. Yates' bookstore last night, but it is not yet known how much he succeeded in getting away with. The money drawer, which contained $3 or $4, was rifled of its contents, and probably some goods were taken. It is supposed that the thief gained an passage by secreting himself in the entrance leading to the dwelling over head, and after the store was closed removed the temporary door between the entrance and the store, which could be done without difficulty, as the door was placed there, without permanent fastenings, while the changes in the interior arrangements of the building are being effected. The scamp made his exit from the rear window. No clue has yet been discovered as to who was the thief, but it is to be hoped that he may be found out and punished to the full extent of the law.

Second Instalment of Fall and Winter Clothing.

We are receiving one of the largest and finest displays of Cassimere Suits, in Plain and Fancy Colors, in Cheviots, Worsted, Basket, Corkscrew, Diagonal, Trikot and Broadcloth. Run Over and Injured.

A little girl, about seven or eight years of age, daughter of Major C. P. Bolles, was run over and injured to-day at the corner of Third and Mulberry.—A horse attached to a cart became frightened at some of the circus wagons and dashed off, running over little Mary, who was in the middle of the street. Fortunately her injuries are but slight and her escape was almost miraculous.

The Grand Commandery.

The third annual convalee of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar of the State of North Carolina will meet in Charlotte on Tuesday, October 9th. Delegates and representatives will be present from Wilmington, Raleigh, Durham and Asheville, and it is expected that they will be the guests of Charlotte Commandery of that order.

Messrs. H. H. Munson Grand, Commander, J. C. Munds, Grand Secretary, W. W. Ailen and J. McD. French will attend from this city. Senator R. E. Withers, of Va., who is Grand Master of Knights Templars of the United States, has been invited and has signified his intention to be present if his other duties will permit.

A New Invention.

Mr. H. M. Bowden, of the First National Bank, has invented a much needed contrivance for use on buggies and other covered vehicles, to keep the rain, mist or rough winds from the faces and upper parts of the persons of those who may have occasion to ride on stormy, blustery days. It consists of an adjustable attachment to the top of the vehicle, which can be raised or lowered as occasion may demand and it is so contrived that any desired angle can be obtained. It is light, inexpensive and fully supplies a much wished for requirement. Mr. Bowden has secured a patent on his invention, and will soon have some of the articles manufactured and attached to carriages that will be on sale at Messrs. McDougall & Bowden's carriage establishment on North Front street.

Death of Mr. Sherwood.

Information was received here to-day of the death at Marion, S. C., yesterday morning, of Mr. Daniel Sherwood, formerly a resident of this city, at the advanced age of 92 years. Mr. Sherwood was, we understand, a native of New York, and first came to Wilmington, from Fayetteville, about the year 1820. He had been a large shoe dealer in the latter town, and he first opened a bookstore here, but afterwards kept a hotel. He was at one time a member of the State Legislature in 1831-'32, having been elected over his opponent, Mr. Jos. A. Hill, by but one vote. Mr. Sherwood also for a long time held a position in the Custom House here. He removed to South Carolina about twenty years ago, and ever since that time has been a confirmed invalid.

The remains will arrive here to-morrow morning and the funeral services will take place from Front street depot, at 9 o'clock, thence to Oakdale Cemetery.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The Circus.

Sells Brothers' Circus and Managerie exhibited this afternoon and will give another exhibition to-night. Their enormous tents are pitched on Dickinson's Hill, in the Northern portion of the city, and thither thousands have wended their way during the day. The company made the usual street parade this forenoon, much to the delight and amusement of the throng of lookers-on who lined the sidewalks of every street through which the imposing pageant passed. The procession was very long and very fine consisting of 42 cages, 110 horses, 9 elephants, 8 camels, 4 bands of music, a steam piano and other features to give interest and effect to the display. The performance under the canvass this afternoon was witnessed by thousands and the general expression seems to have been one of satisfaction. We cannot particularize as we go to press almost simultaneously with the close of the show but we saw enough of it to say that Sells Bros. carry out the advertised programme more scrupulously than any circus show that has visited Wilmington since the war.

Violent strains to the muscles, often result in rheumatism. Prof. C. O. Duplessis, manager of the Gymnasium, Chicago, Ill., says that St. Jacob's Oil is the infallible cure.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Carpets, Carpets, OIL CLOTHS, RUGS AND MATS!

A large assortment, carefully selected patterns, and we think CHEAPER than you can buy them in this or any other State; at all events we will give you the prices, you must judge.

R. M. MCINTIRE.

Free-will Offering.

At the First Baptist Church, corner Fifth and Campbell streets, to-morrow (Sunday) September 30th, 1883. The Rev. H. Dudley, from Newbern, N. C., will preach at 11 a. m. Rev. D. J. Saunders, of the Presbyterian church at 3 p. m. and the Rev. John Harper, of the Zion Methodist church at 8 p. m. The friends are respectfully invited to attend.

The Crops in Bladen.

We were pleased to receive a call to-day from our good friend and subscriber, Mr. A. H. Perry, of Jarvis, N. C. Mr. Perry tells us that the people of Bladen county, as a whole, have not been so unfortunate with their crops as some other localities. His estimate is that corn will fall short about 20 per cent and cotton about 35, making about four-fifths of a crop of corn and two-thirds of cotton.

New Carpets.

Capt R. M. McIntire has returned from the North and as usual his purchases were all of the newest and prettiest in design and fabric. He is making this year a specialty of carpets and has bought enough to fill to overflowing the large space at his command. He now has these on display and in this issue he invites all who are in need of such things to call and inspect the stock and get the prices.

Terrible Accident.

A colored man by the name of McKnight, a railroad hand, who was employed in shifting baggage at Front Street Depot, had his right arm crushed to the shoulder last night. After the arrival of the early night train he went to one side to take a nap while waiting for the late train and went to sleep with his arm across the track and it was run over by the shifting engine. He was conveyed to the Hospital where his arm will probably be amputated.

Magic and Ventriloquism.

Prof. Zera Semon commences a week's engagement at the Opera House on Monday evening next, during which he will give exhibitions in his wonderful feats of legerdemain, and also of his unapproachable ventriloquial powers. The professor is not a stranger to this city and his previous exhibitions here are well remembered by many of our citizens as among the very best entertainments of the kind ever presented to a Wilmington audience.

Clinton & Pt. Caswell R. R.

A meeting of the directors of the Clinton & Point Caswell Railroad Company was held at the Purcell House last evening.

Chief Engineer D. M. O'Hanlon made a full and very satisfactory report relative to the construction of the road.

After an investigation of the financial affairs of the company it was determined to proceed with the grading of the road; and the President was authorized to contract for the grading of ten additional miles of the roadway—five miles on each end.

The line crossing at Robinson's old bridge on Coharie river, Sampson county, was selected as the route, and the committee on Survey were instructed to have the entire line from Point Caswell located at once.

It was ordered that ten per cent. of the subscribed stock of the company be collected monthly, until the whole amount is paid in.

The auditing committee were instructed to issue a circular to the stockholders of the company monthly, showing its financial condition. This, at present, is good, and the outlook is very encouraging.
