presses itself as to the nomination in the First Congressional District: T. G. Skinner, of Perquimans, is agentleman well known in Eastern North Carolina, and is universally popular. When we state that he can poll more votes, perhaps, than any man in the district, we feel we do not put it too strong. He is plain, practical and unassuming. He has strong friends among all classes. He was not a candidate for the nomination; but the convention, recognizing his true worth and unflinching zeal in behalf of the party turned intuitively to him as its choice. We feel confident was induced to try Hop Bitters. I used another did so change my nerves that that its action will be ratified by the people at the polls on the 20th of next month. GORHAM, N. H., July 14, 1879. GENTS-Whoever you are, I don't know; but I thank the Lord and feel grateful to you to know that in this world of adulterated medicines there is one compound that proves and does all it advertises to do, and more. Four years ago I had a slight shock of palsy, which unnerved me to such an extent that the least excitement would make me shake like the ague. Last May I they are now as steady as they ever were. It used to take both hands to write, but now my good right hand writes this. Now, if you continue to manufacture as honest and good an ar-TIM BURCH.
