No City Court to-day.
There is a big difference between organizing a club and encountering one. Scuppernon grapes were in plentiful supply this morning at 20 cents a peck. The man with the most bait doesn't always catch the greatest number of fish. Some men are so lacking in hospitality that they will not even entertain an idea. There is an unmailable letter in the Postoffice addressed to Messrs. Schoo-veling, Daley & Co.

Col. Wharton J. Green, Congressman elect from this District, has contributed $250 to the Confederate Home fund. The Messenger says that Mr. R. H. McKoy, of this city, and family, are in Goldsboro on a visit to Capt. A. J. Galloway. Mrs. E. A. Lumsden returned from the North last night. She will communicate with the ladies in a few days through the columns of the REVIEW.

Thanks to Mr. G. W. Lawrence, the Secretary, for an invitation to the 21st Annual Fair of the Cumberland County Agricultural Association, to be held at Fayetteville November 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th. The Goldsboro Messenger says:—Messrs Empie Styron & Co., of Wilmington, have rented the opera house corner store, and will shortly open a full line of notions and household goods on the 5, 10, 25 and 99 cents counter plan. Mr. Styron has gone North to purchase his goods. If you want to see a handsome chair drop in at Mr. Craft's furniture rooms and he will show it to you. It is a rocking-chair, with a black walnut frame, and the seat and back containing a beautiful representation of Bartholdi's statue of the Goddess of Liberty as it will appear when erected in New York harbor.

Personal.
Hon. A. M. Waddell is in the city to-day. He is just from Wrightsville, where he has been spending a few weeks, and where he has left Mrs. and Miss Waddell. He goes hence to Charlotte to-night on matters of business and may locate permanently in that city.

A Pertinent Inquiry.
"I say! Mr. Cronly, how—how—how's Ohio and Iowa gone?" sung out George Howland yesterday morning as Mr. Cronly was entertaining half a dozen bids for an article of household economy, up at auction. The crowd turned, stared and laughed, but Mr. Cronly was equal to the occasion. "If you will call around about 3 o'clock this afternoon, I may be able to inform you," he replied, and the sale went on, and George went out.

Girls, Listen to This!
Clara Belle, the bright New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer and other journals, says:—"Why do unshapely girls wear Jerseys? Blessed if I can tell you. There ought to be a law against it. This very day I saw a living skeleton showing herself in a stockinet waist, which revealed every bone in her body. Not only could the joints be located with the naked eye, but from hips to vertebrae the articulation was perfectly visible. She would have been useful as an illustration to use in teaching a class in anatomy—the embryo doctors must put up with unpleasant sights, I suppose—but as a fashionable and voluntary exhibit she was incomprehensible."

The Dixie Fair.
The fifth annual fair of the Dixie Agricultural Association, to be held at Wadesboro on November 13th to 16th, will surpass, it is said, any former fair of that association. There will be a convention of Northern born citizens of this State on Thursday of fair week to take steps towards inducing Northern capital and enterprise to come to the State. This work will be under the control of V. A. Vollman, Esq., of Ansonville, N. C., formerly a citizen of Pennsylvania. All Northern born citizens of this State are requested to send him their addresses.

Take Up Arms.
TOLEDO, OHIO—Mr. H. Arms, the prominent liveryman of Chicago, and this city, says that St. Jacobs Oil is superior to anything he ever used for curing pain in man or beast in an experience of twenty years. A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

From Holly Shelter.
Messrs. Jno. H. Masburn, Gilson and D. J. Powell, of Holly Shelter, Pender county who are in the city to-day, tell us that the rule of the season in regard to crops will hold good as regards their section as well as others; corn and cotton, potatoes and peas, will all fall short probably one half. There is but little cotton however made in that section.

Not So Bad.
Apropos of nothing, here is a good one on a worthy friend of ours, a rail road official in this city. Speaking, a few days since, of some one who had offended him he remarked: "He ought to be kicked by a jackass and I'd like to be the one to do it." He was made aware, by the laugh which followed, how badly he had mixed himself up with a mule.

A Snatch Thief.
A few nights ago as Eliza Finch, the proprietress of a house on Nutt street, was waiting on some customers, handing them cigars across the counter, one of them (one of the cigars, not one of the customers) fell to the floor and as she stooped to pick it up her pocket book, containing $11 in money and papers, fell and before she could put her hands on it a colored man who was standing near grabbed it and made for the door and succeeded in effecting his escape. The man was a stranger, and not even his name is known, and it is probable that the book and its contents will never be recovered.

Knights Templar.
From yesterday's issue of the Journal-Observer we gather the following report of the first day's proceedings of the Third Annual Conclave of the Grand Encampment, Knights Templar: The third annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of North Carolina was convened in the asylum of Charlotte Commandery No. 2, Tuesday evening. The following named grand officers were present: Sir H H Munson, R E Grand Com; Sir Eugene Grissom as V E Dept Grand Com. Sir G H King, E Grand Gen'l. Sir Chas R Jones, as E Grand Capt Gen'l. Sir O F Gregory as E Grand Prelate. Sir C W Alexander as V E Grand Sen Warden. Sir F H Glover, E Grand Jun Warden. Sir Wm Simpson, E Grand Treas. Sir Jas C Munds, E Grand Recorder. Sir S D Wait, E Grand Stand. Bear-er. Sir A J Blair, E Grand Sword Bear-er. Sir J A Portner as Grand Warden. Sir C C Smith as E Grand Sentinel. The Grand Commandery was opened in ample and knightly form. On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with, (they having been published.) Sir Knights A. G. Brenizer, W. R. Cox and James C. Munds were appointed a committee on credentials. Upon the report of which committee the Grand Commander announced that a quorum was present, and pronounced the Grand Commandery ready for business. It was officially announced that M. E. Robert E. Withers, Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States, was in the city, and a committee consisting of Sirs Grissom, Brenizer and Blair, acting under an escort under command of Sir Chas. R. Jones, was directed to wait on that officer and escort him to the asylum, where he was received with the honors due his official position. Grand Commander Munson then read his annual address, which was referred to an appropriate committee. M. E. R. E. Withers then addressed the Grand Commandery at some length in regard to the esoteric work of the order. The following committees were announced: Credentials and Returns—Sirs A. G. Brenizer, W. R. Cox and J. C. Munds. Address of R. E. Grand Commander—Sirs O. F. Gregory, D. W. Blair and A. J. Blair. Warrants and Dispensations—Sirs A. J. Blair, J. W. Blackwell and S. D. Wait. Finance—Sirs A. G. Brenizer, F. H. Glover and J. McD. French. Appeals and Grievances—Sirs O. F. Gregory, J. A. Porter and — Hunt. On Place of Next Annual Conclave—Sirs A. J. Blair, Eugene Grissom and Chas. R. Jones.

Somewhat Sickly.
Dr. Potter, City Superintendent of Health, tells us that there is a good deal of sickness here now, mostly of a malarial nature and more prevalent in the suburbs among the colored people, than in other localities. This, be it understood, is about the worst season of the year for us, and great care will be necessary, as to the exposure of the person to the night air, until after frost. Those early risers who are compelled to be abroad before the sun has risen are also cautioned to exercise great care.

For the Young Ladies.
The ladies say that the Fall styles this year are just lovelier than ever, and from some of the styles already noticed on the streets, we judge that they are correct. Terra cotta brown and gold brown are the most fashionable shades. Dresses trimmed in velvet and plush of shades to match, with kilt skirts and cutaway jackets make a nobby suit. In head wear, the jockey cap, trimmed with leather bands, is all the go. The Jersey bonnet is also very fashionable. And to cap all, when a young lady comes out wearing orange kids, she is just too lovely to look at.

Magistrate's Court.
Gilbert Hadley, colored, was before Justice Millis to-day, charged with assault and battery on Sarah Robinson and was also arraigned on a peace warrant. He was committed for a hearing to-morrow morning. Justice Hill disposed of the following cases: M. Dorrin, charged with peddling through the county without first having taken out a license, was held in a bond of $50 for his appearance until Tuesday next. Edwin Young was arraigned on the same charge, and his case was likewise postponed until Tuesday next.

European Steamers.
British steamship Carbis Bar, Capt. Spray, arrived here this morning from Liverpool consigned to Messrs. E. Paschau & Westerman. She is near the size of the predecessors and is a handsome steamship of 1,538 tonsburthen. With her arrival there were three European steamers in this port at the same time, which is the first time in the history of the place that such a thing has been known. The fleet was reduced to two, however, by the departure this afternoon of the S. S. Woodside, Capt. Jenkins, which was the first to arrive. She carries out an enormous cargo, no less than 5,030 bales of cotton, valued at $249,304, all of which was shipped by one house, Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co. She sails for Liverpool and will probably go to sea this afternoon.

The Operatic Season.
The next appearance at the Opera House is that of the Minnie Hauk troupe, on Thursday next, the 18th. It will be an event of great interest to the people of our city. In this connection we will state that a Southern Amateur Circuit has been organized in New York, composed of the Minnie Hauk troupe, the Theo. Thomas Opera Company, the Chicago Ideal Company, the Joseffy Concert Company, the Boston Concert Company, the Eichberg Concert Company and the Boston Ideal Operatic Company. These are to visit the principal cities of the South and the possible dates for Wilmington are from October 18th to April 9th. But these companies will not visit Wilmington unless there is a guarantee of the house. It will be necessary for those who are willing to take one or more seats to make the fact known so that it may be ascertained if

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington. Mount Jefferson Davis is the highest peak in Nevada. Its altitude is 13,075 feet.

All the wooden nutmegs come from Connecticut, but Maine furnishes all the sardines. Boston attends to the slingers. Certain fastidious citizens of Memphis wish the telegraph and telephone poles to be painted some bright and fashionable color.

Mr. West, the British minister, spent the Summer in Washington, and left that city only when he joined the recent Villard expedition. The excruciatingly moral Chicago Times sincerely hopes that Mr. Gebhard and Mrs. Langtry will not corrupt the virtuous Parisians.

A hundred thousand Japanese are engaged in the preparation of bamboo mats for sale to outside barbarians. Thus they bamboozle us. A St. Louis girl ran away from home rather than learn music. She probably knew what the neighbors would think of her while she was practicing.

St. Francis de Sales had a tender heart. "What better way" he asked "to deal with those who in blindness or ignorance malign us or fall short of the truth? We should deal with them as with the fallen child whom we raise tenderly by the hand." Peter Hayden is mentioned as "one of the most interesting" millionaires in New York. He is worth $10,000,000, is eighty years old and is the father of a fine boy of two years of age.

A horse thief arrested in Western Maryland states that an organized band of robbers is operating on the borders of the state, and have an exchange with the south and southwest. Twenty three counties in Texas neglected to make any returns at all to the Secretary of State of the votes cast upon the constitutional amendments which were submitted to the people and ratified in August last.

The New Providence Exchange on Saturday opened bids for a loan of $125,000 in notes of the Exchange running one year. The Corn Exchange Bank of New York offered to lend the money at the low rate of 2.70 per cent., and their offer was accepted. The little Connecticut town of Stamford comes up as a place in New England where the color line is drawn. A restaurant there labels one of its tables in a dark corner "Colored People's Table," and negroes are allowed to eat at no other place in the restaurant.

Secretary of War Lincoln is to take the stump in Massachusetts against Butler. Senators Frye and Hale, of Maine, and Hawley, of Connecticut, are also announced to take part in the Massachusetts canvass. With all this Butler is serene, and expresses himself confident of reelection. The number of years that a student has to spend at a medical institution before obtaining a degree is: In Sweden 10; Norway, 8; Denmark, 7; Belgium, Holland, Italy, and Switzerland, 6; Russia, Portugal, Austria, and Hungary, 5; France, England, and Canada, 4; United States, 3 or 2; Spain, 2.

The ravages of yellow fever along the northwestern coast of California and in Central America are said to be fearful. At Mazatlan every house, according to the reports, is a hospital. There are no signs of abatement, except in the towns where the fever is burning itself out for want of material. The New York woman suffrage party's county committee Saturday adopted resolutions expressing satisfaction "in the signal rebuke administered by the Episcopal church to Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix in his overwhelming rejection as a candidate for assistant bishop, and the election over his head of the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Potter, a known friend of coeducation and woman suffrage." Dr. Dix is to be congratulated.
