THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1883. NO. 242

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Pierre Lorrillard is said to have sold his estate at Newport for $500,000.

The bank presidents of Boston on Monday passed resolutions in favor of a bankrupt law and recommended the Lowell bill.

Henry T. Wright, the former assistant postmaster of Racine, Wis., was sentenced to five years and one day imprisonment and a fine of $5,000.

The State Deaf and Dumb Institution was opened in Trenton, N. J., Tuesday, for the free education of needy deaf mutes from five to twenty-one years of age.

Minister Langston advises colored voters, in all reformatory matters, to take counsel with leading white men and support their views at the ballot box.

The authorities of the district of Huasteca, Mexico, have ordered every man to destroy one peck of locusts daily under penalty of a fine of a peck of corn.

A Republican caucus in Boston the other night solemnly declared by resolution that Mayor Palmer was "clay in the hands of the skeleton behind the door."

Chicago has industrial training schools, the result of private munificence. Baltimore has a school of technology as an adjunct of the public instruction.

Father Burke is to have an Irish national monument. At a meeting in Cork toward that end £250 were subscribed, Mr. Parnell being among the subscribers.

Information received at the marine hospital bureau from Mexico, states that at Mazatlan some 2,000 people are sick with yellow fever and other contagious diseases.

Mr. Parnell has paid off the mortgages on his property to the amount of $65,000 with the money raised for him, and the estate is believed to be now quite free from debt.

Col. Tom Ochiltree tells the people of France that in order to establish their republic on a firm basis they must "bust up all this order business, palace business, and nobility business."

The cost of the free mail delivery service for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1883, was $95,240 in Baltimore, $10,880 in Washington, $522,880 in New York, and $353,158 in Philadelphia.

It is stated, on what appears to be good authority, that France has, in one year, sold to England more chickens, in value, than the United States did beef and pork. France grows rich on diversified industry.

The Wisconsin State Medical Society, during its recent annual session, passed a resolution virtually declaring consumption to be an infectious disease, and urging the necessity of the proper isolation and disinfecting of those suffering from it.

Madame Modjeska, the distinguished actress, is confined to her rooms in Philadelphia, by nervous prostration, resulting from overwork. Her physicians say the illness is of a temporary character and that a brief rest is all that is required.

The St. Louis Republican hazards the prediction that "Mr. Randall will go into the Democratic caucus for the organization of the next Congress with a smaller vote than he has shown on the first ballot at any caucus since that which chose Kerr Speaker."

Dio Lewis makes this shrewd observation: "I have never met a man who was not confident he could take a hundred millions and use them most wisely. And yet we have not had a rich man in New York city, with the exception of Peter Cooper, of blessed memory, and, in a less degree, two or three others, who could use wisely even one million."

The Louisville Post gives advice to Kentucky that may be of use to other States. It says: "The empty-minded and uninformed blowers and blatherskites of the party have certainly had their day. The success they have met with has only inflated them the more, until they have learned to believe the State belongs to them. For God's sake let us hustle them aside and move on."

The will of the late Hugh J. Hastings, of New York, bequeaths to his brothers Richard and Robert $5,000 each, and to his brother William $2,500. To his nephew, John Hastings, son of his brother John, he gives 20 shares of the capital stock of the Commercial Advertiser Association, and to Hugh 10 shares, Schoolcraft 5, William 5, John, son of his brother Richard, 5 shares. All the rest of the real and personal estate is given to Mrs. Hastings or her heirs, absolutely. Chester A. Arthur is named among the executors.

The official vote in Ohio has not yet been announced. The New York World, however, estimates Hoadley's majority at 12,400. The prohibition vote will probably reach 10,000. The total vote of the State is estimated at 715,000—equal to the Presidential vote of 1880. This fact makes the Democratic victory overwhelming to the Republican leaders and utterly demoralizes them. They admit that Ohio will be Democratic in the Presidential year. The whole State government has been changed and the Democrats will possess all the offices. The Legislature stands: House, 59 Democrats, 44 Republicans; Senate, 20 Democrats and 13 Republicans.

The second amendment will receive about 300,000 votes and will probably be adopted unless the cities go strongly against it. The judicial amendment is carried beyond doubt. The first amendment will not get over 100,000 votes.—The prohibition vote is estimated at from 5,000 to 20,000, and the greenback vote at 2,000.

The New York World tells of a monstrosity now in that city on exhibition, which has recently been examined very carefully by a number of the most prominent physicians in the city. It says:

It is Victoria Fair, a negro child, eleven months old, born at Lounsbury, S. C., with four legs and four arms. Two of the legs and arms are perfectly normal, the other two sets of extremities protrude from its abdomen, about one inch below the navel. The arms are joined in one mass of flesh to the wrists, at which point they separate, and the hands, which are about one half the size of the normal hand, have the five fingers perfectly developed, finger-nails and all. The legs and feet are also properly shaped, but protrude in opposite lateral directions and twist themselves around the child's body. The little girl is in perfect health and laughed and played with its duplicate hands while being examined. The physicians say that while the abnormal limbs are now full of life, they will in the course of time draw up and shrink. The parents, who have come North with their peculiarly formed offspring, say that they have an elder child who is perfectly well formed.

Catholic Seminarian.
Mr. John Cusack, St. Mary's Theological Seminary, Baltimore, Md., says after having suffered months with pleuradinitis (rheumatism of the chest), and having tried everything medical talent could suggest, without relief, the pain-cure, St. Jacobs Oil, was recommended and it cure him.

Day's length 11 hours and 18 minutes.
The City Court room was barren of news to-day.

Ten carpenters are wanted at Burgaw. See ad.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOBI'S.

Branson's almanac promises rain for the next three days.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 25 minutes past 5 o'clock.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,855 bales.

There was one interment—an adult—in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

Bishop was to have played in Charlotte last night in "Strictly Business."

There were two interments in Oakdale Cemetery this week—one adult and one child.

There was considerable rain fell last night, and at times the wind blew with a good deal of force.

Venoror prophecies a "green and wet" Christmas. Let's look out now for dry weather and hard frosts.

The Register of Deeds issued two marriage licenses for white couples and one for a colored couple this week.

The North Carolina editors who have been to Boston will probably reach their homes to-night.

There were six interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, three of which were adults and three were children.

This is just the weather for malarial diseases to work upon, and strict regard should be had to the preservation of health.

There will be no regular services at the First Baptist Church to-morrow, but there will be Sunday school services as usual.

Mrs. S. J. Baker's Grand Millinery Opening will take place next Wednesday morning, continuing throughout the week. The ladies are all invited.

Lt. Hand, of the revenue cutter Colfax, has received a leave of absence for 30 days, during which he is enjoying himself among his many friends in the city.

In the absence of the Pastor, there will be services at the Second Presbyterian Church to-morrow at 7:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Mr. Peschau. None at 11 a. m.

The John Dawson, last night, brought down the last of those who during the week had been to the Association. She was late, and did not reach the city until after 7 o'clock.

The lighter Washington, which was sunk sometime since on the West side of the river, has been raised and is now fast to the wharf near where the disaster happened to her.

We are glad to learn that the graded schools of the city have been constantly increasing in the number of their pupils ever since they opened, on the 1st inst., until now they are full and crowded.

The cyclone which threatened this section of the Atlantic Coast yesterday, passed by without paying us a visit, and the storm signal no longer floats to warn us of an impending danger.

The pilot boat Uriah Timmons, which was sunk at Smithville, during the severe gale in September, has been raised and brought to the city and put upon the dry dock, where she will receive the necessary overhauling and repairs.

The bodies of the three colored persons who were drowned here Monday in the river opposite the city have all been found, the last one having been recovered last night. There was no inquest as such was thought to be unnecessary.

From the long list of vessels advertised as up for this port it would seem that our harbor will soon begin to put on a more lively appearance. There are 38 vessels—barques and brigs—now on the way to Wilmington, which is a goodly number.

The rooms of the Library Association present a real neat, cozy and inviting appearance, and have become quite a popular resort for our young people, who visit there to read the papers, magazines and books with which the shelves and tables are furnished.

Among the many improvements in progress in our city we notice that Market street is not a step behind. Magnificent plate glass windows have been put in the front of Taylor's Bazaar, No. 118, so that now it is one of the handsomest stores on the street.

The vicious practice of throwing rocks by the small bay has not been entirely done away with, for it may be seen upon nearly any of our streets at almost any hour of the day, and especially just after school hours when the pupils are returning home.

English Communion service will be held at 11 a. m. to-morrow, at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. There will be no service at night, as the pastor Rev. F. W. E. Paschau, will hold service in the Second Presbyterian Church, in the absence of the Rev. Mr. Payne, its pastor.

One of the handsomest dressing cases we have ever seen, probably the handsomest ever brought to Wilmington, is now exhibited by Messrs. Munds Bros. & DeRosset. It is plush covered and satin lined and the various implements in it are handsome and complete. It is well worth seeing.

Neat and attractive gas jets are being put in the front street depot, extending the entire length of the building, which will illuminate it much better than those heretofore used. The work is being performed under the supervision of Mr. John W. Reilly, Superintendent of the Wilmington Gas Light Co.

Cotton.
The receipts of cotton at this port from the 1st inst. to date foot up 13,622 bales, against 9,900 bales for the corresponding period last year, an increase of 3,722 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 21,318 bales, as against 19,319 bales to same date last year, an increase this year of 1,999 bales.

Copp's U. S. Salary List.
Gur many readers will welcome the solid information contained in the 160 pages of this recently-issued book. It is prepared by Henry N. Copp, a lawyer of Washington, D. C. All the Government salaries are given, from President Arthur's $50,000 to postmasters with $500, officials of the Treasury, Interior, War and Navy Departments, Custom Houses, postoffices, and full 20,000 federal offices arranged by States and Territories. Specimen examinations for admittance to the Civil Service throughout the country are added. The price of the book is only 35 cents.

Attractive.
We invite attention to the attractive half column advertisement of Col. J. J. Hedrick, as it appears in this issue. Col. Hedrick has but recently returned from the Northern markets, handsomely equipped with a supply of goods for the Fall and Winter trade. His rare taste and judgment in the selection of goods are well known to the people of this city and section and he has many fine bargains which he made in New York and of which he will make his customers the beneficiaries. His advertisement will be found pleasant reading matter.

A Handsome Case.
Mr. M. M. Katz has just received and placed in position in his large drygoods store on Market street a very handsome spool case, furnished by Belding Bros. & Co., the celebrated spool silk manufacturers. It is made of mahogany and chestnut and has a glass in the centre which opens and discloses a recess from top to bottom of the case and with drawers on each side, the upper rows of which have glass fronts. There are 38 of these drawers, each containing 6 dozen spool of silk, in all 228 dozen. There are besides 14 drawers for holding notions. The whole is 8 1/2 feet high including a clock which is to surmount it. It is certainly a handsome piece of work.

The Knights Templar.
Messrs H. H. Munson, James C. Munds and J. McD. French, the delegates from this city who were in attendance at the meeting of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar, in session at Charlotte this week, returned yesterday. The conclave adjourned on Thursday, and the session of that day was a short one. A resolution of thanks was tendered to Past Grand Commander H. H. Munson, for his able and efficient manner of presiding over the body. The report of the committee on returns of the subordinate commanderies was received. After passing resolutions of thanks to the Charlotte Commandery for their generous entertainment, and to the railroads for courtesies, the Grand Commandery adjourned to meet in Raleigh next October. The Journal-Observer says that the Knights made a good impression upon the people of Charlotte, all of whom would be glad to welcome them back again.

At the Opera House.
The theatrical season will be somewhat crowded within the next week, but the entertainments offered will be far above the average, and some of them will be given by the best talent in the country. On Thursday, the 18th inst., Miss Minnie Hawk, with her superb company of artists, will appear in opera. On Friday, the 19th, Mr. Frank Evans, with Mr. Frank Mordaunt, will present the comedy of "The Silent Man," and on the 20th the same company will give a matinee and night performance of the sensational drama of the "Slave of Guilt." Mr. Mordaunt will be well remembered, having appeared here in "Old Shipmates" last year. On Monday, the 22nd, Mr. John F. Ward, the celebrated Irish comedian, supported by Miss Mary Davenport, will appear in the Irish farce of "The Top o' the Mornin'." After this there will be no entertainment of the kind until the middle of November. It is not desirable to have prominent companies booked for appearances so near together, but the above were the only dates on which they could be secured for this season.

The Lucky Numbers.
At the regular monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, on Tuesday, the 9th inst., No. 33,899 drew the capital prize of $75,000; No. 24,429 drew $25,000; No. 59,990 drew $10,000; and Nos. 36,052, and 93,442 drew $6,000 each; Nos. 1,830, 21,228, 56,130, 67,268 and 83,654 drew $2,000 each; Nos. 2,886, 4,707, 10,603, 33,160, 39,010, 46,300, 67,417, 70,824 and 84,834 drew $1,000 each; Nos. 10,243, 10,796, 22,284, 23,262, 24,056, 33,591, 36,302, 44,881, 46,026, 46,335, 53,566, 57,425, 57,985, 53,452, 66,387, 68,364, 94,764, 96,667, 97,666 and 64,316 each drew $500.
