THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1883. NO. 243

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Senator Gibson, of Louisiana, will leave England for home on the 20th of this month.

At Lexington, Ky., last week, Hinda Rose trotted a mile in 2.19, the best three-year-old time on record.

Lord Lorne has shipped two genuine American buffaloes from the wild West to his country place in Scotland.

Representative DeZendorf of Virginia, says the Troy Times, was twenty-five years a carpenter in the village of Lansingburg, N. Y.

The Maid of the Mist ran the rapids of Niagara river last Wednesday. She passed through the rapids safely, remaining in the whirlpool ten minutes.

Mobile has quarantined Pensacola upon the advice of Alabama State health officer Cochran. Dr. Cochran pronounced the cases of August 22 yellow fever.

Plans were filed in New York last week for the new cotton exchange. The structure will be on Beaver, William and Pearl streets, will be eight stories high and will cost $530,000.

A convention of delegates from the Irish and Irish-American associations of Delaware has been called to meet at Wilmington, Oct. 18; "for the purpose of better organization to advance the common cause of Ireland."

Four girls have been employed in a barber shop near Wall street, New York, and having learned the art of shaving and hair-dressing, are now constantly busy plying the razors and brushes to masculine faces and heads.

The deposits in the savings banks of California on the 1st of July last were $56,507,163, an increase of more than $3,000,000 within a year. The number of depositors January 1, was 74,250, about one in twelve of the population.

A party of Eastern men have lately bought 18,000 acres in Eastern Oregon, not far from Walla Walla, Washington Territory, the price being $170,000, of which $10,000 was paid down and the remainder is to be paid in three and six months.

Christopher Columbus is now to be honored as a Frenchman. Deacon Martin Casanova, in Calvi, Corsica, finds that the great discoverer, was born in Calvi, and as Corsica is now a part of France, Columbus is by implication a Frenchman.

The Board of Trade building now being erected in Chicago will have a main hall 147 by 163 feet in area and 80 feet high. It is claimed that it will be the largest room in the world without pillars to support the roof. The tower will be 303 feet high.

They tried to smuggle opium into San Francisco by hiding it in ordinary blocks of wood hollowed out. The blocks were placed under a gangway, so as to support it, and mislead the Custom House officers; but a protruding screw exposed the fraud.

The Catholic Diocese of Portland, comprising Maine and New Hampshire, is about to be divided in two, because of the increase in the population. Maine is to be known as the Diocese of Portland, and New Hampshire is to be called the Diocese of Manchester.

The Pennsylvania railroad officials deny the statement made in a Harrisburg paper that the company had purchased for $10,000,000 Vanderbilt's Harrisburg and Western railroad charter in order to defeat the consummation of the Philadelphia and Reading company's proposed trunk to the West.

The Marquis of Lansdowne is expected to arrive in Quebec on the 20th instant. He will probably be sworn in as Governor-General at the citadel on Monday, the 22d, and will reach Ottawa on the following day. The Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise are expected to sail for England on the day on which Lord Lansdowne arrives.

The San Francisco Call says that in New York at this very time perhaps one-half of the daily newspapers published in that city are used to mislead the people. Some are published to advance the interests of men who live by office. Others are run by individuals who flourish and grow rich by misleading the mass of the people. The probability is that the people support those New York newspapers best that mislead them most.

Col. Chas. R. Jones has again become proprietor of the Charlotte Journal Observer, and it will hereafter be published under the old title of Observer, dropping the Journal part of it. It is evident that "King Charlie has come to his own again." The paper has always been a good newspaper, no matter under what name or what proprietorship it was published. and Col. Jones knows how to maintain its excellent reputation in this respect. It is to be hoped that the genial Wade Harris will continue to preside over the local department.

Full moon to-morrow morning at 31 minutes past 1 o'clock.
The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,900 bales.

Mayor Hall is absent from the city and Alderman Dudley is the Mayor pro tem.

The changeable, coquettish weather continues, much to the annoyance of poor mortals.

Dr. Charles S. Lesene, formerly Assistant Surgeon in the 18th N. C. regiment, was in the city to-day.

Some of the apple trees in the city and in the country around are in full bloom for the second time this year.

A new postoffice has been established at Edgewood, in Robeson county, of which L. B. Love is the postmaster.

The sale of reserved seats for the Minnie Hauk Opera troupe will begin at Dyer's at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

There is a cape jessamine bush in a garden in this city which has borne three distinct crops of blooms this year.

Knights of Honor.
Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired. It.

Norwegian barque Ganger Rolf, Capt Ronenborg, cleared to-day for Newcaston-Tyne, with 2,780 barrels rosine, valued at $4,200, shipped by Messrs Alex. Sprunt & Son.

We understand that Mrs. Morrison has leased the old Walker building, on Market street, recently occupied by Mrs. Moore, and will reopen her boarding house there in a few days.

There was a large congregation at Masonboro Baptist Church yesterday, many having been drawn thither to listen to the eloquent Sunday School address which was delivered by Capt. J. S. Allen, of Raleigh.

In response to an invitation from Capt. J. M. McGowan, of the Old North State house, two of the REVIEW staff partook of a delightful oyster lunch at that house to-day. They were the Horne oysters from New River and were fat and delicious.

Personal.
Major Chas. M. Stedman and Mrs. Stedman have returned to the city after an absence of several months in Europe, during which they travelled extensively all over Great Britain and the Continent. The Major is looking remarkably well and we are glad to learn that Mrs. Stedman's health has also been greatly improved since she left Wilmington.

City Court.
Mayor pro tem Dudley presided at the City Court this morning and disposed of the cases as follows:
Fannie Gore, disorderly conduct, discharged.
Caroline and Mary Frank, sisters and colored, for disorderly conduct, and being very abusive to the officers, were fined $10 each, but as neither could pay they were both sent below for 30 days.
George Hays, colored, disorderly conduct, was fined $3, which he paid.
George Pittilo, disorderly conduct, was fined $5 which he paid.

The great pain cure, St. Jacobs Oil, is the wonder of the century. It conquers pain.

The Eclipse To-night.
The eclipse of the moon is booked for to-night and it will be visible here provided the weather will clear up sufficiently to admit of a view. Following are the phases of the eclipse: Moon enters penumbra, 25 minutes past 11 o'clock; enters shadow 43 minutes past 12; leaves shadow 35 minutes past 2.

Death of an Octogenarian.
Mr. George W. Crapon died at Smithville yesterday at the great age of about 88 years. He had been in feeble health for some weeks previous to his death, from which it was impossible for one of his advanced age to rally. The deceased was very much respected by all who knew him, and during his long life bore the reputation of being a good citizen, a kind and peaceable neighbor and an upright man. He was the father of Mr. George M. Crapon, of this city, who has gone to Smithville to attend the obsequies of his revered parent.

One of the Outrages.
On Wednesday, the 3d inst., while Mr. T. B. Robeson, who lives near Tar Heel, Bladen county, was attempting to drive some hogs out of his field, he was assaulted by a colored man, who first attempted to shoot him, but finding the weapon missed fire, struck him over the head with the butt of the gun, knocking him down and causing the blood to gush from his mouth, nose and ears. The hogs belonged to the colored man, but were deprecatory upon Mr. Robeson's property, and the assault was entirely unprovoked. It was murderous in its intent and we are glad to learn that the colored man has been arrested and is now in jail awaiting his trial before the proper tribunal.

Sermon to Young Men.
Rev. F. H. Wood preached a discourse to young men at the Front Street Church last night, and we deeply regret that the house was not crowded to its utmost capacity to hear it. His text was the 9th verse of the 119th Psalm, and consumed an hour of time in the delivery of the sermon. While we could not agree fully with all of the speaker's postulates, we listened with much interest to the many truthful while he uttered. His subject, although ostensibly addressed to young men, was one of importance to the young of the gentler sex, and was also food for grave reflection on the part of those who had passed beyond the meridian of life to that age when the mind naturally reverts to those who are to come after them and occupy their places in the rough actualities of life. He stated many important truths—some of which were lamentably and fearfully alarming—and the profound attention he received was evidence that they made a deep impression upon the minds of his hearers.

Joint Meeting.
There was a joint meeting of the Board of Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of New Hanover County held at the Court House at 10:30 a m to-day. Upon calling the list of Justices, Dr. W. W. Harris being in the chair, 22 answered to their names, which constituted a quorum. Of the County Commissioners there were present H. A. Bagg, Chairman, and Messrs. B. G. Worth, Roger Moore, J. A. Montgomery and T. A. Pearce, making a quorum of that Board. The meeting being duly organized, Chairman Bagg stated the object of the meeting to be the purchase of the land formerly belonging to the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, which it became necessary for the County to own in order to preserve their right of way. The land in question was donated to the Association in fee simple, but is now the property of Col. F. W. Kerchner. In further explanation Chairman Bagg submitted the following letter for the consideration of the Board:

Mr. H. A. Bagg, Chairman Board of County Commissioners, New Hanover County.
DEAR SIR—I offer you the plot of land opposite the County Poor House for $1,000, or I will sell you any part the County may desire at $15 per acre, you having the same surveyed at your expense. I will let this proposition remain open for fifteen days from this date.

Respectfully yours,
F. W. KERCHNER.
Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 10, 1883.
The letter having been read and commented upon, it was moved,
That the County Commissioners be authorized to purchase, for one thousand dollars ($1,000), the tract of land deeded to the Cape Fear Agricultural Association by the county of New Hanover, and now owned by Col. F. W. Kerchner.

Motion adopted and meeting adjourned.

The rooms of the Library Association will hereafter be kept open daily (Sundays excepted) from 9 a m until 10 p m for the accommodation of visitors. This object, which the Association have long desired, has been made possible by the appointment of Mr. H. Parsley as assistant librarian.

The Minnie Hauk Concert.
The fashionable event of the season will be the first appearance in this city, Oct. 18th of the renowned prima donna soprano, Madame Minnie Hauk, supported by an efficient corps of artists who have appeared, in Europe and America, in all the larger cities, to immense and fashionable audiences. Mlle. Pauline Sali, Contralto; Sig. Augustino Montegriffo, tenor; Sig. Vincenzo De Pasqualis, baritone; Sig. Comincio Gnarro and Mr. Constatin Sternberg, pianist and composer, are celebrated and well known artists. Madame Hauk has sung and played the title roles in a large number of operas and her impersonations have elicited the highest encomiums of the composer themselves. Our music loving people appear to appreciate the coming of this fine company and will fill the Opera House next Thursday night. The sale of seats will begin at Dyer's Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock; reserved tickets will be sold from the window on Princess street.

A Bad Young Man.
There was quite an excitement on Market and Front streets for a few moments this afternoon, caused by the attempted escape from an officer of a young man who was charged with stealing a watch from Richard Hunter, colored. The young man, who is a stranger in the city, registered at the Commercial Hotel as F. H. Cornell, of New York, but before Justice Hill, he stated that his name was F. H. Harris. It seems that after getting the watch he tried to persuade a young man who roomed with him to take it and dispose of it, which the latter declined to do. When pointed out to the officers this afternoon he attempted to escape by running, and in the race he dropped the watch which was picked up by one of Capt. T. J. Southerland's drivers. When arrested he was taken before Justice Hill for examination and in default of a justified bond in sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, was committed to jail.

A $115.00 Organ for $49.75.
This was the unparalleled offer made by Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ Manufacturer, in our paper a short time since, he has instructed us to reinsert it and give those who failed to accept former offer another opportunity. We think this organ needs no further recommendation. It

MARRIED.
