THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1883.

NO. 247

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Monsieur Capel says that there is more immorality in the daily newspaper than anywhere else.

The Republican party of Ohio has been buried in a "Foraker" lot. The Angusta Chronicle fathers this.

Minnie Hauk and her husband were presented to President Arthur last Saturday by the German Minister.

Since the death of Marwood, the hangman, hundreds of his likenesses have been sold by photographers.

Graves are so thick in China that no railways can ever be built without a general overhauling of past generations.

The Republicans are now pinning all of their success next year on Democratic blunders. Let them chew the cod.

Antonius Anderledy, the new general of the Jesuits, spent several years in America, and became a priest in Green Bay.

George F. Slosson, the billiardist, is in Chicago, practicing for his game with Mr. Sexton, whom he will meet there on the 29th instant.

Mr. Frederick Gebhard may not be much of a man, but his horse, Eole, is a stayer. He won another race on Saturday, though heavily weighted.

Texas organized sixty eight new counties last year, making 200 in the State. The increase of her taxable property in the year was $130,000,000.

The Ohio election seems to have a good effect on Kentucky where the crops of corn and cowpeas and blue grass whiskey are said to be first-rate.

Within ten years, writes a Western man, thirty California millionaires have died and not one of them was distinguished in life for anything but his money.

Sergeant Jasper, the hero who figures in Revolutionary annals, is to have a monument at Savannah. Of the $10,000 required for the work $6, 887 have been subscribed.

The engrossing theme of house-hunting seems just at present to be an all-absorbing topic of interest in Washington City. Never before, we are told, has there been such a demand for eligible houses.

Mr. Abbey has just paid $16,000 for the New York custom house for ninety four boxes that contain the French costumes of the chorus and the ballet. The boxes average not less than four square feet each.

The entire number of pupils who are now studying German in the public schools of St. Louis is over 20,000, or more than half of the whole number of pupils. German in our public schools might not be amiss.

One of the most historic buildings in Paris has disappeared forever. The last stone of the Tuilleries has now been removed, leaving an uninterrupted view from the Place du Carroussel to the Arc de Triomphe.

General Hancock will stay where he is and have the South added to his department. General Schofield will take Sheridan's place as commander of the Military Division of the Missouri.
General Angur will replace Schofield in the Division of the Pacific.

Ik Marvel, whose "Reveries" we are all dreaming again, has a dozen children, and a charming home for them. But he is land poor, and has to do some work as an architect in order to make both ends meet. He is as delightful as his books, nevertheless.

Mlle. Van Randt, the American prima donna, who is turning the heads of Parisians, has accepted an engagement to sing in the New Opera House in New York next year. Her contract extends over a period of seven months for which she is to receive $150,000 and the expenses of four attendants.

Full returns from Ohio on the probi-tation amendment show that it was defeated, receiving 320,454 votes in a vote of 711,681. The law required that the amendment should receive a vote equal to a majority of all cast at the election. It only received 320,454, and so may be said to have failed of adoption by 35,387. This, however, was a very heavy vote for so radical a measure in a time of so much excitement, and its friends think that another year they will succeed.

Dr. Marion Sims has an international reputation, a hundred thousand dollar practice, a palace on Madison avenue, New York, and decorations enough to cover his body with medals and crosses.
He goes to Europe at frequent intervals to attend the crowned heads and to lecture before the royal medical societies. He is feted everywhere; but he is always the same modest, sensible, patriotic American. Dr. Sims is a South Carolinian, born in Lancaster county, a few miles from the spot which Andrew Jackson claimed as his birth-place. His splendid success has not obscured his old home. After the war, when food and medicine were scarce and disease plentiful, he sent his old neighbors one of his fees, $20,000, and his heart acknowledges their every claim for sympathy.

Cronly & Morris—For Sale
HEINBERGER—A New Arrival OPERA HOUSE—Acme Comedy Co MUNDY BROS. & DE ROSSET—Union Sets
W. H. GREEN—Segars, Tobacco and Cigarettes

Venor promises frost for to-morrow and Sunday.

Rain is needed and would be welcome now.

The News and Observer failed us again to-day.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,306 bales.

There was some superb beef in market yesterday and to-day.

Thanksgiving falls this year on the 29th and Christmas comes on Tuesday.

The turnpike was probably well lined with vehicles this afternoon. It has been beautiful weather for driving.

We understand that the display of meats to-morrow morning, in the New Market, will probably be the finest of the season.

The Frank Evans' Acme Comedy Company arrived here last night. They appear at the Opera House to-night in Joaquin, Miller's Comedy-Drama of the "Silent Man."

The atmosphere has been much warmer to-day and at 3 o'clock the thermometer in this office registered 73, which is only three degrees below Summer heat.

Dr. Fairfax Irvin, who has for two years past been in charge of the U. S. Marine Hospital here, has been ordered to Norfolk, and will be relieved here by Dr. C. T. Peckham.

City Court.

The first case for the Mayor's consideration this morning was that of Kitty King, colored, who was charged with disorderly conduct. A fine of $5 was imposed, but as she was minus the funds she was sent below for 20 days.

Horace Ford, colored, for throwing rocks, was sentenced to a fine of $5 or 20 days. He also went below.

Home Again.

Mr. Alex. Sprunt arrived home on the last night's train, after an absence from the city of four and a half months, which he has spent entirely in Scotland, his native land. He was a passenger on the Cunard steamship Pavonia, and reports that he had a very pleasant passage. We were glad to see him looking in much improved health.

Exports Foreign.

Nor. barque Skudsnær, Capt.
Kjeldsen, cleared to-day for Newcastle-on-Tyne, with 200 casks spirits turpentine and 3,290 barrels resin, valued at $11,600, shipped by Messrs. Alex.
Sprunt & Son. Schooner Robert Dority, Capt. Law, cleared for St. George, Grenada, with 106,455 feet lumber, 83, 850 shingles, 2 barrels tar and 2 barrels pitch, valued at $2,213.88, shipped by Messrs. Northrop and Cumming.

The Silent Man.

The Honston (Tex.) Post has the following to say in regard to the above named play, which is to be presented by the Frank Evans' Co., at the Opera House to-night and to-morrow afternoon (matinee) and night:

A large and appreciative audience greeted the old favorites, Frank Mor-dant and Libby Noxon, with a round of applause. They presented that most admirable four act comedy by Joaquin Miller, entitled the "Silent Man." The play is replete with beautiful passages, exciting scenes, perilous situations and glorious denouements, and the various parts were most admirably sustained by the company. Libby Noxon, Frank Evans and Frank Mordant were exceptionally good in their roles, and elicited frequent applause.

The Choice.

A party of our young men met on the night of the 17th inst., and organized La Choix Dancing Club. The following were the officers elected: President—W. N. Jacobs.
Vice President—W. R. Morrison.
Secretary and Treasurer—H. J. Gerken.

Governing Committee—W. J. Rosenthal, W. R. Morrison, W. N. Jacobs, J. W. Fleet and J. M. Donlan.

A Valuable Property.

Attention is invited to the advertisement elsewhere of a very valuable piece of property offered for sale by Messrs. Cronly & Morris. It is situated on the North side of Market street, between Front and Second, and has a dwelling with seven rooms upon it. It is almost in the very heart of the business quarters of the city, and some of these days a handsome iron-front store will be erected there.

Magisterial.

A few days since Jane Kelly, colored, obtained a warrant from one of our justices for the arrest of her husband, Henry Kelly, on the charge of slander.
The defendant was arrested, and his wife, the prosecutrix, testified against him as to the truth of the charges. After hearing all the testimony, the justice dismissed the case and assessed the prosecutrix with the costs, which the defendant, as the woman's husband, had to pay.

Ice Cool Soda.

Messrs. Mundy Bros. & DeRosset have just had put up in their drug store, on the N. E. corner of Market and Second streets, a new and elaborately ornamented Arctic Soda Fountain, which is without doubt one of the most elaborate in the South. It was made especially for them; is of richly variegated marble, hexagonal in shape, and is about six feet in height. At each angle of the hexagon is a bronze statue a foot high and the remainder of the finish is in highly polished nickel plate.

Surmounting the dome of the fountain are four gas jets and globes so arranged as to present when lighted an unique appearance. It adds materially to the looks of the otherwise very attractive store, and has been admired by hundreds who have seen it during the day.
It will be ready for use sometime in the early part of next week, and on the opening day, due notice of which will be given, the proprietors propose to treat the public to cool soda from this fountain.

Minnie Hauk.

One of the largest, most select and most cultivated audiences we ever saw in Wilmington assembled at the Opera House last night to listen to the justly celebrated Mme. Minnie Hauk and her unequaled troupe of artists. It was a rich musical feast to which our citizens had gathered and all were satisfied.— Mme. Hauk is certainly a most wonderful vocalist and richly deserves the high encomiums which have been everywhere lavished upon her. She carried the audience by storm in her first efforts, which were selections from Opera "Mignon," at the close of which the encores were so vociferous that she returned and sang a pleasant Scotch song, being her own accompanist. She at once won the hearts of her hearers, who were no less entranced by her rich vocalism than they were captivated by her grace of manners. At her second recall she sang "Way Down upon the Suwanee River," with such beautiful pathos that it might be called her most pleasing effort. Mlle. Sali, contralto, sung splendidly and is a painstaking and conscientious artist. She produced some of her tones with marvelous power and effect. Sig Monte-griffo, tenor, had a rich and powerful voice which had been carefully cultivated, although he had a few personal mannerisms which were not pleasant and somewhat marred the effect of his singing. Sig Pasqualis, baritone, has a wonderful voice, deep, pure, rich and resonant, and he holds it under wonderful control. His articulation, even in the most rapid passages, was without a blemish. Mr. Sternberg, pianist, was the best we have ever heard, which is saying a good deal. This embraces all the principal artists who appeared last night, and we have tried to speak of their efforts candidly and as they deserved. We feared, so many were the recalls, that there would necessarily be some "cutting" of the pieces, but the programme was carried out in its entirety. Nothing was left out. It was a rich entertainment, delighting all who had the good fortune to be present. We could say much more in praise of each artist, but want of space forbids.

Mayor Hall has returned from his visit to the State Agricultural Fair, at Raleigh, and presided at the City Court this morning.

The stealing of newspapers from the front yards and stoops of subscribers seems to be quite a flourishing industry, but it is slightly annoying to those who have their subscription to pay.

In the Swamps.

The great railroad contractor of South America, H. H. Meiggs, writes as follows:
LIMA, PERU.—"I wish to say of St.
Jacobs Oil, that I am completely satisfied with its use, that I procured a box of it. That I have used it with great satisfaction. It has accomplished wonders, and given great relief. It will always have my positive endorsement as a pain liberator."

To the Front to Stay.

RECENTLY A LETTER WAS RECEIVED at the Wilmington Post Office addressed simply "The Most Reliable Clothing House in Wilmington". It was delivered to us. We are too modest to claim for ourselves such distinction, but if any dozen well informed business men in this city were asked to name the most prominent house selling Clothing at the lowest price, there can be but little dout about the majority vote. How we got to the front is no mystery. The people know that we have built our success upon the broad and sure foundation of acceptable service and trustworthy methods. We keep only such goods as the public want and we never advertise a word about them that we cannot back up by facts in the store. Somehow the people naturally like to deal with us.
