The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,143 bales.

Wood is in demand here now and sells readily at good prices.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOBI'S.

We do not care to be considered prevaricative when we assert that we have received 1884 calendars.

Hon. Daniel L. Russell and Major Chas. M. Stedman are in Raleigh in attendance on the Supreme Court.

Mr. F. W. McKee, Advance Agent for Haverly's Mastodon Minstrels, is in the City today, and gave us the pleasure of a call this afternoon.

Mendelssohn was the composer of the music entitled "Songs without Words," and they rank among the best of the compositions of that great musical genius.

The steamer River Queen, plying between this city and Bannerman's Bridge, is to be equipped with the Kahnweiler cord jackets and life preservers.

Just two months to Christmas and one month and two days to Thanksgiving. The old gobblers are beginning to take the highest limbs of the trees for roosting.

A new platform has been laid in the Front street depot which is considerably wider than the old one, and it has been lowered until it is on a level with the track.

There was a sudden spurt yesterday in the coal and wood trade which was not by any means displeasing to the dealers. One house claims to have sold ninety tons of coal during the day.

There were a few coots in the market this morning, but 40 cents per dozen was the price asked for them, which was considerably higher than our financial wings would permit us to soar.

There were some indications of fair weather this morning and the sun struggled to get through the clouds, which it succeeded in doing for a while, but the wind kept provokingly persistent at the Northeast until old "Sol" gave up in despair.

Young man, paste the following pithy advice in your hat and every time you start to go out in the street read it and remember the truth of its teaching:

If you have made a mistake or committed a sin get away from it as fast as ever you can, for the old proverb says and truly, "He that falls in the dirt, the longer he lies there the dirtier he is."

One of our mercantile friends, who went to the Sound a few days since on a fishing excursion, and was remarkably successful in catching bluefish, caught something more than he bargained for. He had a pair of shoes somewhat too large and those got packed with sand, and as a consequence he has been kept home for several days with sore feet.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Delayed.

It was expected that the British steamship Cardis Bay would clear today, but owing to an accident to some of the machinery of the Compress, she was not able to get all her cargo in season, and she will not leave until tomorrow.

Trade Review.

The Augusta Chronicle and Constitutionalist exhibits always the most wonderful enterprise. Every year it issues a magnificent Trade Review, and that which it has gotten out this Fall, the fifth of the series, is superior to any of its predecessors. It is printed in magazine shape, on heavy book paper and presents in all 36 pages, full of beautiful illustrations and descriptions of Augusta and its business enterprises. The publication is not only indicative of the energy of the proprietors of the paper but of the enterprise of the merchants of Augusta.

Cured Six Years Ago.

"It has been 6 years since I was cured of fits," says Mr. W. Ford, of Wirt, Jefferson Co., Ind. "Samaritan Nervine did it." And it always will, reader. $1.50, at druggists.

Painful Accident.

This forenoon Robert Pickens, a colored young man, was assisting in loading a safe upon a dray at the office of Messrs. W. E. Davis & Son, when by some accident it slipped and caught his leg against the casing of the door. The safe was removed as quickly as possible and the young man released from his painful position. The limb was badly bruised, but fortunately no bones were broken. It will probably be a number of days before he will be able to walk without inconvenience and pain.

The Colored Fair.

The Fifth Annual Exhibition of the North Carolina Industrial Association will be held in Raleigh November 12-17. The opening address will be delivered by Gov. Jarvis, November 13; the annual oration by D. A. Straker, of South Carolina, Wednesday, November 14, address by Senator Vance, Thursday, November 15, and ex-Judge Buxton will address the Fair on Thursday, the 15th. One thousand dollars in premiums will be awarded to owners of stock, producers and others. Fare two cents a mile each way on all the railroads.

Weather Proverbs.

We have received from Mr. Haney, the Signal Observer at this point, a copy of a very neat publication, just issued by the War Department, entitled Weather Proverbs. It was prepared under the direction of Gen. Hazen, Chief Signal Officer, by Lt. Dunwoody, his assistant, of the 4th Artillery. It presents many interesting points relative to that popular theme, the weather, and a unique and valuable feature of the work is the publication of a large number of popular weather proverbs, taken from all climes and from all ages.

Another Train.

On Sunday next, the night train on the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. and the corresponding day train on the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R., will be added to the schedule of those roads. The train from the former road, going North, will leave Wilmington at 12:30 a m and arrive at Weldon at 6:30 a m and coming South it will leave Weldon at 1:05 a m and arrive at Wilmington at 7 a m. On the W. C. & A. road the morning train will leave Wilmington at 7:20 a m arriving at Florence at 11:40 a m. Returning, leave Florence at 7:40 p m and arrive at Wilmington at 12 p m. There is, we believe, no change in the schedule of other trains.

Supreme Court.

In this Court, on Tuesday, the following cases from this district were called and disposed of:

M. A. Patterson et al. vs. Silas Bass, from Duplin; argued by D. J. Devane for the defendant; no counsel for the plaintiffs.

C. H. Wessell & wife vs. Martin Rathjen and wife, from New Hanover; argued by MacRae & Strange for the plaintiffs; and Junius Davis (by brief) and E. S. Martin for the defendants.

The only cases now remaining for argument from this district are the following:

Starkey McDaniel vs. Susan King et al., from Jones; and

Bank of New Hanover vs. J. R. Blossom et al., from New Hanover.

Wonderful Cotton.

Last Fall Mr. O. O. Vollers, of Point Caswell, sent to us the most wonderful cotton boll we had ever seen. It was raised by Mr. Owen Savage, of Pender county, and contained 13 cells of a beautiful staple all of the cells being fully open. We placed it on exhibition at the Produce Exchange, where it was seen and admired by hundreds. This morning Mr. Vollers sent us another boll which is an improvement on the other, remarkable as the first was. This has 18 cells, all open and bearing well. It was raised by the same man Mr. Savage, and we understand from one who saw it that Mr. Savage has another boll which contains 17 cells. It is the most remarkable product of the plant we have ever seen or heard of. It has been placed on exhibition at the Produce Exchange where it may be seen by all who are interested in the subject, and after a few days it will be taken charge of by a prominent planter in Columbus county, to whom we have transferred it, who will next season carefully cultivate the seed taken from it. Mr. Savage, the gentleman who raised this cotton, is certainly making a wonderful progress in the improvement of his seed. He has made two wonderful steps forward and we hope that he will continue to advance in the same direction.

North Water Street.

It is expected that the work of paving North Water street will be commenced before many days. The work will be thorough, the pavement of the best and most substantial kind, and when completed it will be one of the best thoroughfares in the city. It is now the very worst, and, as it is one of our most business streets where heavy teams and drays are continually passing, there is plenty room for improvement.

About Peanuts.

A friend of ours, a prominent farmer in Pender county, on the coast, claims that our information, published yesterday, relative to the good outlook for peanuts in Pender county is incorrect and says that in his section at least the crop will prove almost a complete failure. Our information was from a very authentic source and was furnished as coming from a planter in the interior of the county who makes lots of peanuts himself. So it would seem that the crop in Pender county is both good and bad and our readers may take their choice and rejoice or despond. We give it up.

Carolina Pine.

Much has been said, and undoubtedly with entire justice, of the fine display of North Carolina woods at the Boston Exposition, but we doubt if it excels, in beauty or variety of appearance, the wood work in the office of Messrs Alex Sprunt & Son, in this city. Our attention was called to the matter incidentally to-day and we were astonished. The work in question is entirely of North Carolina pitch pine, which was sawed and planed in this city, yet it presents the appearance of being composed of many different kinds of wood. What is more surprising there has not been a drop of paint of any kind applied to it, but it has been simply varnished over. Of course the wood was from carefully selected timber, but it seems almost impossible that such variety in color and appearance could be obtained from any one kind of wood. It is well worth a visit to see it.

City Court.

The first case for the Mayor's consideration this morning was that of Jerry Wiggs, colored, for disorderly conduct. A fine of $3 was imposed, in default of which the defendant was sent below for 20 days.

Robert Johnson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was the next case. The testimony in his case showed that while Capt. James Knight, Master of Transportation of the W. & W. R. R., was walking along Front street yesterday morning, and when between Chestnut and Mulberry streets, he was accosted by the defendant, who showered upon him all sorts of offensive and threatening language in a demand for satisfaction for an alleged insult of the previous night. For this outrageous conduct Capt. Knight had Johnson arrested. At the trial this morning Johnson was obstreperous and defiant, and had to be several times reminded that he was in a court of justice. The testimony of Capt. Knight was fully corroborated, not only by the witnesses for the prosecution, but by the witnesses for the defence. The judgment of the Court was that the defendant pay a fine of $25 or be imprisoned for 30 days. He went below.

Telegraphic.

The Southern Telegraph Company seem to be pushing their lines through the South with much vigor. We see it stated in some of our exchanges that their poles are up for about half the distance between Columbia, S. C., and Augusta, Ga., and the manager of construction says that by the middle of November the latter city will be in telegraphic communication over the new Southern wires with Charleston, Savannah, Columbia, Charlotte, Atlanta, Columbus and all the neighboring cities, and that the wires of the company will permeate the entire South. Whether the lines of this company will be extended to Wilmington or not is a question that has not yet been solved. The company has made efforts in this direction both by the way of the Wilmington & Weldon and the Carolina Central roads, but no definite result has yet been determined upon. It is more than probable that their wires will come here at no distant day, and we hear that the company has sought for rates of freight for delivering poles on the roads.

The celebrated "Fish Brand" Gillist Twine is sold only at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

DIED.

LEMMERMAN—In this city, this morning, Mrs. MELVINA LEMMERMAN, wife of Capt. Henry T. Lemmerman, aged 39 years, 10 months and 25 days.

The funeral will take place to-morrow (Friday) morning, at 10 o'clock, from the residence on Princess, between Sixth and Seventh streets. Friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend.
