

Alexander Kirkpatrick, having lived ninety-eight years in Scotland, lauded last Tuesday at Castle Garden.

Mr. Mahone is on his knees looking for the lost key to the situation, is the way the Philadelphia Times expresses it.

Two Mormon missionaries in Mississippi have been arrested for vagrancy. They have plenty of money, and a test case will be made of the affair.

The News-Journal, of Cincinnati, advocates changing the laws of Ohio so that the elections shall be held in November, as they are in other States.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Republicans should brace themselves for next week's shock. We learn that it will be quite severe in this section of North America."

Escalaia is a new Paris tenor, with a surpassingly fine voice and great skill in using it; but alas, he is so short and fat as to be ridiculous in the heroic roles of grand opera.

The young men who pattern after Conkling, remarks the Chicago Herald will make a mistake. He is useful as an illustration of what a gentleman's manners ought not to be.

Vennor, the meteorological wizard, predicts a cold snap, beginning the first week of November. The 6th, the New York Times thinks, promises to be a cold and cheerless day for the Republicans.

Charles Dambmann, the young New York millionaire who recently paid Maurice Grau $3,000 for the engagement of Mlle. Nixau, the singer, is with Mlle. Nixau at Las Vegas, N. M., "living in grand style."

General Hancock chatted with animation to a reporter last week. "I am almost well," the General said, "and will be at my office in a day or two for the first time in several weeks. No, there will be no important changes consequent upon General Sherman's retirement."

Three years ago about twenty rich men of Dayton, Ohio, invested largely at Fargo. The boom set in, and they bought more and held for a rise. One year ago these investments were valued at several millions, and will now be sold at a loss. Such is the far Western boom.

George Munro, who has discontinued his cheap reprint of the Fortnightly, Contemporary and Nineteenth Century, is reported to have lost $20,000 thereby. Those publications, able as they are, are so exclusively occupied with British topics as to be of small interest to most Americans.

Pursuant to a call a number of influential Germans, including representatives of the brewing interest in Rochester, assembled Tuesday night and passed resolutions asking the German element of Rochester to support the democratic ticket in the coming election, except Hon. J. H. Maynard, their candidate for secretary of state.

The New York Times, Republican, throws this to the breeze: "Governor Cameron of Virginia, has announced that he will not support the Republican party unless it fully accepts 'Read-juster' ideas. Holders of United States bonds, of which $24,028,783 are owned by savings banks, will regard Mr. Cameron's support as very dear at any such price."

Serious troubles are feared for tomorrow in Virginia. A riot has already occurred at Danville and it is but the legitimate outcome of the teachings of Mahone and Cameron. The trouble took place in Danville last Saturday afternoon and the result is that three negroes are dead and four are seriously wounded while three white men are badly wounded. The account of the affair, as published in the New York Herald, shows that the negroes, incited by the incendiary harangue of a white Mahonite, were the aggressors and that the whites acted on the defensive.

Out of the Jaws. TOLEDO, OHIO.—The Express says: A prominent, who was at the point of death from what the physicians pronounced kidney and spine trouble, has been cured by St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-killer.

There are a great many very beautiful flowers in bloom in Oakdale.

Mrs. E. A. Lumsden will have her Grand Millinery Opening this week.—See ad. elsewhere.

The County Commissioners were in session this afternoon, but the report was too late for this issue.

The Haverley "Strategists" troupe arrived here last night and will appear at the Opera House to-night.

An important meeting of the Mexican veterans will be held on Wednesday evening in Col. Cantwell's office.

The matrimonial market is flat and dull. A Piety Hill young lady says it is the pokiest time for courting she ever saw.

Knights of Honor.
Carolina Lodge No. 431. Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired.

Anderson Walker, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.50 by the Mayor this morning. He paid the fine and was released from custody.

Col. Waddell was to have spoken at Greenville on Saturday. He was booked for Falkland to-day and Farmville to-morrow, all in Pitt county.

There will be a Pound Party at St. James' Home to-day from 3 to 9 p. m. Those who cannot send their donations there may send them to the Rectory, 311 Market street.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard arrived in the city on Saturday night, and preached at the First Church yesterday, morning and night. Large audiences were present on both occasions.

Fish and Oysters.
The fish and oyster season has begun in earnest and quantities of each are brought into this market. Messrs. W. E. Davis & Son have two oyster boats plying regularly between this city and the oyster grounds at Lockwood's Folly, and are prepared to deliver oysters fresh from the shell as they are called for.

Fast Mail?
A gentlemen doing business in this city received a letter this morning from New York which was mailed in that city on the 26th of September last. It is about 600 miles from New York to Wilmington and the letter was about 40 days on its passage, which gives 15 miles of travel per day.

The same gentleman, on the 30th of October, received a letter which was mailed at Tokio, Japan, on the 5th of October. The distance from Tokio to Wilmington is about 8,000 miles and the time consumed in traveling that distance was about 25 days, or an average of 320 miles per day.

Sudden Death.
Mr. James M. Westbrook, of the firm of Westbrook Bros., at Rocky Point, Pender county, died this morning of malarial pneumonia. He was taken sick on Tuesday night last, but it was not thought that his condition was at all critical until Saturday when he grew rapidly worse until his death. The deceased was about 40 years of age and leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. He was a man of strict integrity, honest in his dealings with his fellow men, a kind-hearted neighbor and a genial hearted companion and friend, and his death will be severely felt throughout Pender county.

A Lucky Nimrod.

One of our business men went out this morning to try his luck as a sportsman and was entirely successful. He bagged eleven nice ducks and was absent from home about two hours. He shot thirteen but secured only the number named, as he could not find the others. This may be called a very good and profitable morning's work, especially as it did not in the least interfere with his regular business of the day.

Alvin Joslin.

This troupe, who are booked for the Opera House in this city on Thursday night, appeared in Charlotte last Saturday. They paraded during the forenoon with their celebrated $10,000 brass band and the Observer speaks thuswise of the performance at night:

In our opinion, the best amusement of the season was given at the Opera House last night by Mr. Chas. L. Davis and his excellent company in the play of "Alvin Joslin." Mr. Davis, as a matter of course, is the central figure in the whole play. He is an ingenious actor and his comicallities are of the sort that cannot fail to amuse. He is very ably supported and in the composition of his company a good deal of real talent is recognized. The play itself is interesting, and the $10,000 worth of diamonds and the fine music were sideshows. "Alvin Joslin" is good throughout and all agree that Mr. Davis and his company deserve good houses wherever they go.

Extracted Honey.

Our thanks are due to Mr. Gerrit Walker, of Middle Sound, for a jar of beautiful extracted honey. The term extracted is not well understood, except among the bee-keeping fraternity. Most outsiders think that all liquid honey is strained honey, and a good many of them, remembering to have seen when young the modus operandi of obtaining it, and becoming disgusted with it have remained so ever since. We will there fore explain for the benefit of our readers how extracted honey is obtained: A honey extractor is a horizontal disk put into rotary motion by a wheel. Upon the edge of the disk are eight small perpendicular posts surmounted by a wire sieve, and thus forming on the disk an octagon. If you now hang the uncapped combs, with their frames upon these posts on the inner side of the wire octagon and put the disk in motion the combs will be emptied in one or two minutes, when the honey is caught in a circular tin can surrounding the disk and drawn off at the bottom. When the honey is thus extracted the combs are returned to the hives, and the bees begin at once to fill them again. I will be seen that by this mode the honey obtained is perfectly pure and clean just as the bees gather it from the flowers, without being mixed, as strained honey necessarily is, with bee bread, particles of wax, and very often accidental impurities not necessary to mention. Mr. Walker owns the only extractor in this county and puts his honey up in half gallon jars. We tried some of it on buckwheat cakes and—well, this is not an advertisement.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

DIED.

WESTBROOK—At Rocky Point, N. C., this morning, of malarial pneumonia, J. M. WESTBROOK, aged 39 years.

"Truth is Stronger than Fiction!"
THE OLD ADAGE SAYS "THE PROOF of the pudding is in the eating of it." The proof that one's method of doing business is good, is not what he says, but in what he does; not what he advertises, but in what he performs; not in what he claims, but in the results. Business success gained by fair, uniform and honorable dealing with patrons, by selling good goods at the lowest prices, by conducting the business to the mutual benefit of both buyer and seller, is a true success. We have been in business in this city fourteen years and by fair dealing have been successful in gaining one of the largest Clothing trades in this city.
