THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1883. NO. 262

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Copel was given a reception in Chicago last week.

Benjamin Fitch, the New York philanthropist, is thought to be dying.

Mme. Patti was expected to arrive at New York from Europe yesterday.

"Old Tippecanoe" Harrison's tomb, at North Bend, Ohio, is unkept and crumbling.

General Butler was reported dead on last Tuesday night. He was a lively corpse next day.

The Galveston News says: Just imagine Butler and Mahone pooling their issues and flirting with the public from the same balcony.

If it were not for the surplus revenue, the Republican Cincinnati Gazette suggests that a tariff on opera singers, actors and actresses would be a good thing.

A late letter from Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, dated Paris, says that he will visit Germany, Italy and Spain before returning home, and that he will not be back until next Spring.

Open confessions are said to be good for the soul. The Chicago News, candid Republican, prints this: "October doesn't appear to be our month, and we are afraid November is going the same way. The country evidently is in need of some sort of a liver regulator or tonic."

The receipts of cotton at this port to-

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Oysters are not very fat as yet. A good rain would help to make them more palatable.

The latest telegraphic election news can be seen at the Reading Room of the Parcell House to-night.

Presbyterian Synod will be held in the First Presbyterian Church in this city, commencing on Wednesday, the 14th inst.

There was a slight fall of rain this forenoon but the clouds passed over and probably visited some other more favored locality.

Unavailable matter remains in the Postoffice, in this city, addressed as follows: Miss Chloe Davis, 196 S.
Portland ave; Lizzie Minter, Al'goods, N C.

Dr. Walter C. Murphy, of Pender county, passed through the city to-day with a span of beautiful gray horses for the Fayetteville Fair. He left on the steamer at 2 o'clock.

On Thursday night Alvin Joslin will appear at the Opera House, after which there will be no performance there until the nights of the 15th and 16th inst., when the World Company will appear.

Read the excellent showing made by the Thames & Mersey Marine Insurance Company, as comprised in the statement published elsewhere in this issue.
Mr. W. J. Gordon, of this city, is the general agent of the company.

The Firemen.

The Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company, (colored) celebrated the 12th anniversary of their organization this afternoon, by a parade and a trial practice of their engine from Market Dock.
It is a fine body of men and they perform efficient work in our fire department whenever called upon.

Lost Overboard.

Capt. Moore, of the schooner Albert H. Wale, the arrival of which was noticed in our marine news column, reports that when off Hatteras on the 30th of October, Samuel Carr, a colored seaman, fell overboard from the ruizen topmast while furling the topsail and was drowned. A boat was lowered and every effort made to save him, but he sank before help could reach him. He was from Antigua, West Indies.

The city is overrun with tramps and we warn the people to be on their guard. There were seven of these worthless loafers accommodated with lodging at the guard house last night.

There was only one trifling case before the Mayor this morning, which was that of Sam Larkins, colored, for disorderly conduct at the theatre last night. The sentence of the Court was 3 days in the city prison.

Mayor Hall has consented to deliver an address before Banneker Library Association, at their room on Princes, between Front and Second streets, next Thursday night, at 8 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

Delegates to Convention.

At a meeting of the First Baptist Church held last night, the following were elected delegates to the State Convention which will assemble at Edenton on the 14th inst: Rev. Dr. T. H.
Pritchard, Messrs. W. P. Oldham, George R. French, James W Collins, J.
W. Taylor, D. L. Gore, B. I. Gore and H. C. Evans. The delegates were instructed to use their efforts to have the next annual Convention held in Wilmington.

In a New Role.

We notice in one of our Augusta, Ga., exchanges that Mr. F. M. Burbeck, formerly of the Madison Square Theatre Co., and a Wilmington favorite, essayed with entire success the leading part in Harry Laey's "Planter's Wife" Co. Mr. Burbeck will be well remembered as having appeared here as Pillatus Green in Hazel Kirke, and as Esterbrook in Esmeralda, in both of which he made a decided hit in this city.

Stricken with Paralysis.

Mr. Richard Meadows, the driver for the Hook and Ladder Co., who was hurt last week, had been confined to the house since in consequence until yesterday, when he returned to his work. He was present at a meeting of the Company last night, and after the business was concluded and the members dispersed he attempted to rise from his seat, but was unable to do so. He called to his wife, who was near by, when she ran to his assistance, and in attempting again to rise with her help, he fell, stricken with paralysis. He was conveyed to the house and to bed as quickly as possible and a physician was sent for, who did all in his power for the sufferer. At last accounts he was as comfortable as could be expected, although considered in an extremely critical condition.

Our Strategists.

The above-named play was presented by the Haverly Comedy Co., at the Opera House last night, and it was the best performance we have seen this season. It was a farcical comedy in every sense, full of the most unique and ridiculous situations and with a dialogue in which there was not a single suggestive innuendo, as is too frequently the case in the comedies of modern days. There was not a poor actor in the entire company, but all were first rate in their respective parts. The leading character of Jack Rutledge, the Strategist, by Mr. Henry B. Bell, was irresistibly funny and his impersonations of the two old men were inimitable, and deceived the audience as to his real identity on several occasions.
His was a piece of consummate acting.
Messrs. Henry Lindur, as McGrath, Howard, and T. H. McGrath, as Arthur Rutledge, were both excellent.
Mr. Will H. Bray, as Sergeant Gumbleton, was first rate and his imitation of the colored waiter's song was one of the best we ever heard, and convulsed the house with shouts of uncontrollable laughter. The other males in the cast were good in their respective parts.
Miss Katie Gilbert, as Nellie Howard, was superb and did some splendid acting. Miss Marie Bate, as Mrs. Major Howard, performed her part to perfection, as did also Miss Millie Warren, as Araminta, although the latter was suffering severely from a cold. It is impossible in a short newspaper paragraph to do justice to the play or the actors, but for any one who desires to enjoy the best and purest of fun in large doses, we prescribe a visit to the "Strategists." The music, by Messrs. Smithdeal and Greenwald, was very good, the first medley being especially fine.

Mr. Henry F. Slater, of Raleigh, a gentleman who comes to our city with excellent recommendations, will open a dancing school for misses and masters in Germania Hall, on Thursday afternoon.

The same committee recommended 13th line down to the word "any" in the 17th line and insert the following: "Nor shall it be lawful for any huckster to sell or offer for sale any of the above named articles at any place except in the public markets." Adopted.

On motion of Alderman Dudley the ber 14th free of cost, it being wanted for benevolent purposes.

On motion of Alderman Bear, it was resolved that the Board of Audit and Finance be requested to concur in an appropriation of $18.25 to cover expenses of Mayor Hall to Charleston in the interest of the city.

On motion of Alderman Chadbourn, an appropriation of $25 was made to purchase the flagstaff from the State Fruit Growers Association.

On motion of Alderman Chadbourn, it was ordered that the Board of Audit and Finance be requested to increase the compensation of the Overseer of the Streets to $50 per month.

On motion of Alderman Boney it was resolved that the Mayor be instructed to notify the Wilmington Gaslight and the Clarendon Water Works Comon Front street for making and laying pipe be replaced in as good a condition as before, on or before the 20th of November, 1883, or the City Attorney will be instructed to institute suit at the next term of the Superior Court against said companies for damages for violation of their contracts with the city.

Front Street Market House, was referred to the committee on Markets with power to act.

A communication was read from the
