The Macon Telegraph says that the present drouth is the longest known for many years. In portions of Southwestern Georgia the farmers who patronize steam mills not only haul their corn to the mills, but also barrels of water with which to fill the boilers to raise steam. All of the springs and branches are dried up, and, in many cases, the wells. There is much suffering among people and cattle.

Ex-Governor and Ex-U. S. Senator Theodore F. Randolph died on Wednes day morning at his home in Morris town, New Jersey. His death is attri buted to heart disease. We copy from the New York Sun:

Mr. Randolph was born in New Bruns wick, N. J., June 24,1826, received his education at the Rutgers Grammer he remained until 1850, when he return ed to New Jersey and took up his residence in Morristown in 1863. His early life was spent as a merchant in the coal and iron business, in which he accumulated considerable property. He was elected to the NewJersey Assem bly as a Democrat in 1860. In 1861 he was Chairman of the special committee on the Peace Congress, and was active during the war in furnishing relief to tamilies of volunteer soldiers. He was pired term in 1862, and was in the Sen ate again in 1865. At the close of his Gubernatorial

JAIL DELIVERY.

A Daring and Successful At-County Jail.

At about 8 o'clock this morning, the hour at which the prisoners in the County Jail are given their breakfasts, the jailer and his assistant went to per form that duty. The young assistant went up and unlocked the trap door to the room where those who have been sentenced for criminal offences are confined, while the jailer came along behind with the breakfast. As the former unlocked the trap he was knocked recovered as to be able to appear on the over the head with the heel of a boot by one of the prisoners, who, with his companions in confinement, immediately rushed down through the trap and grappled with the jailer, whom they overpowered and took from him his pistol and the keys to the several cells and turned the prisoners loose. There were eleven prisoners in all in the jail and seven of them made a rush for liberty, and as the other doors were for laying Belgian blocks on North opened it was but a moment before they were all in the yard, and making their escape over the wail in the rear of the jail. The alarm was given and the jailer's wife came to the rescue in season to capture Frank Cornell, a young white man hailing from New York, Bi's for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass who was awaiting trial for the larcenry &c. You can get all sizes and at the of a watch from a colored man at the Commercial Hotel. He had gotten partly over the wall when she caught him and drew him back and he is now safely confined in his cell to mourn over hopes blighted by a woman. Mr. J. H. Jones, whose stables is near by heard the alarm and ran to see what was the matter. As he got past the jail and obtained a good view of the yard he saw one of the colored prison- Madison Square Theatre, ers climbing over the wall and he hastened around into Fourth street just as the prisoner came out upon the sidewalk. The latter started to run. but tripped and fell, and before he recovered himself Mr. Jones was upon him and gave him a polite but emphatic in invitation to well the second before he at Dyers', commencing Monday. The former was convicted of embuzzlement and the latter of false pretence, and were sen tenced to four years each in the penitentiary. From this they appealed to the Supreme Court which at its recent 8 Bus. CHESTNUTS, in good condition. session confirmed the judgment of the Court below, and they were awaiting a resentence before being sent to Raleigh. They were both sentenced before the same term of Court and have been in jail since then about a year. The other three were from Pender County, and were in jail awaiting trial at the next term of the Criminal Court, They were Joe George, white, charged with perjury; Archie Pigford, colored carrying a concealed weapon, and William Nixon, also colored, larceny.

It was a bold attempt, and almost deserved success for its daring. That the act gave any possible hopes of sucwere dozens of people in close promity and the streets through which the escaping prisoners had to pass were being traversed by hundreds of citizens, and the wonder is that they were not all captured before they had proceeded two squares.
