The Daily Review has the largest iona fide circulation, of any newspaper ublished, in the city of Wilmington.

Sir Moses Montefiore, on his 99th birthday, blessed the Prince of Wales.

Ex. Detective W. P. Wood is convinced that Booth, when he killed Lincoln, was of unsound mind.

The small cotton crop of this year may prove a blessing to the planter and manufacturer alike, next year.

Secretary Folger has decided that lower seeds are hot to be classed under the provision for garden seeds and that they are exempt from duty.

Men of all classes combined to reelect Seth Low, Mayor of Brooklyn, because he had been a model officer. neglecting his own business for the public good.

Carr, who ran as a Republican for Secretary of State, in New York, seems to have been as much to all men as the law allows. He announced himself as "an Irishman by descent, a Catholic in religion and a German in sympath y."

Mr. Blaine is said to have lost a large part of his fortune in Northern Pacific Railway stock. Fifty Washington forthcoming book is valued at $100 000. inst.

The Chicago Tribune says: "Cotton goods are moving to consumers slowly the world over. All the great manufacturing centres of England and France report trade staguant. The great cotton crop of last year, however, placed material in their hands at low prices, and manufacturers ought to be able to proceed at a moderate pace without loss."

Escalais, the new tenor, who has sprung into fame by his singing in "William Tell" at the Grand Opera, Paris, is said to be phenomenally ugly. He is about five feet tall, round as barrel, with a fat, unmeaning face and hair that stands like bristles all over his head. He is a native of Provence.

Dispatchs from Turin report that M Kossuth is dying. The Hungarian patriot has passed his eighty-first year and has been breaking down physicially for some time. He has lived for over twenty years in the strictest privacy, devoting himself chiefly to scientific studies. His physicians say that his death may occur at any moment.

The Richmond Dispatch says: "Ninetenths of the Democrats of Virginia believe in a tariff incidentally protective. They are not free traders. They hold to the doctrine taught in the Democratic platform of the three States of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia. But in the second place, we would much rather abolish the internal revenue taxes than any taxes we pay in the shape of a tariff."

Over one hundred people of Clacksmas Co., Oregon, were cured by the great pain-conqueror, St. Jacobs Oil, ot all sorts of painful ailments, says the Portland, Oregon, Telegram.

The Magazines.

Swinton's Story Teller is the tittle of choice weekly magazine which has reached us, the feature of which is the publication of complete stories in each number. The number before us is the fourth and its success seems already to have been established on a sure basis. It is a pleasant publication and is sure to meet with favor everywhere. Published year in this vicinity. He has also at 20 Lafayette Place, New York, at $4 a year.

magazine published at Louisville, Ky,, an excellent issue and after a careful survey of its contents we can most cordially commend the publication to our young readers, especially the young ladies among them. There is much in it to instruct as well as- to interest and amuse. The number before us has for Tasso at the Court of Ferrara reciting his poem of Jerusalem Delivered.

The November number of Dio Lewis' new Monthly is also at hand It is, It is printed on thick book paper, in large, clear type, and presents 120 pages of reading matter, selected from almost every topic of household interest. The table of contents, which we have carefully scanned, is an excellent one. A portrait of George T. Angell, the Massachusetts philanthropist, is the frontispiece of the work. It is edited by Dio Lewis and published by Frank Seaman, 68-71 Bible House, New York at $2.50 a year.

Week of Prayer. The Week of Prayer for Young Men commences to-morrow. This week of prayer will be observed throughout the world, by arrangement through the medium of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Associa-Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity tion. Mr. Cephas Brainerd, the chair man of the committee, in his letter requesting us to make the announcement in these columns, gives some re markable statistics of the progress of the Young Men's Christian Association's work. The number of associations in various countries is now over 2,400. The International Committee of the United States and Dominion of Canada reports statistics for 1883 of the Produce Exchange, routine busiof 737 asssociations, of which 679 have ness was transacted and the following REAUTIFUL an aggregate membership of 52,376. Special efforts on behalf of the 60,000 college students, the 100,000 commercial travelers, the 500,000 German-speaking young men, the 500,000 colored young men and the 1,000,000 railroad men of North America are made by the International Committee with gratitying Robinson. The lady's elegant dressing case which has been on exhibition at the drug store of Messrs Munds Bros. & DeRosset for a week or two past, men tion of which has been made by us, was dale Cemetery this week, one adult and disposed of by raffle last night. Mr. N. B. Rankin was the lucky man to win the prize.

Down and Out.

Mr. Geo. M. Carr has disposed of his interest in the Scotland Neck Commonwealth to Mr. Geo. M. Newell, and of the late Gov. Thomas Bragg. He has stepped down and out. We are glad to know that he will not long remain inactive, but wil. soon again enter the journalistic field. His address, for the present, is Rose Hill, Duplin county

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port from the 1st inst., to date, toot up 7,369 pers of fish and oysters and solicit a bales, as against 10,067 bales for corresponding period last year, a decrease of 2,698 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 48,385 bales, as agaist 46,179 bales to same date last year, an increase this year of 2,206

Exports Foreign.

British barque Empress of India, Capt. Richards, cleared yesterday for Amsterdam with 904 bales of cotton, valued at $45,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son. German barque Sirene, Capt. Collies, cleared to-day for Falmouth, Eng., for orders, with 2,107 bales of cotton, valued at $100,709, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co., the two cargoes making an aggregate amounting to $145,709.

Second Crop.

Mr. James O. Ormsby, Overseer on Col. Jno. W. Atkinson's plantation, four miles from the city, brought to us this morning an apple as big as a marble, growing on the branch, as a specimon of the second crop of that fruit this showed us a peach blossom from the same orchard on which a young peach The November number of Electra, a had formed. With a few more weeks of such weather as we have had of late and edited by ladies, is before us. It is we may look for a second crop of nearly all kinds of fruit.

Not Yet.

At this writing none of the prisoners who escaped from the county jail yesterday morning have been captured, although the three Pender prisoners were seen last night going towards Burgaw. a frontispiece a beautiful steel print of They were travelling very fast and were wet with a profuse perspiration when seen. The indications are that they were making for some of their old haunts in Yender where they expect perhaps, the best of the series yet issued. to find concealment and protection. Nothing has been heard from the two from this county, and as they are already under a sentence of four years each in the penitentiary, it is probable that they will make extra exertions and take extra precautions to avoid the officers of the law.

Dust to Dust! We are pained to chronicle the de cease of Dr. J. S. Robinson, which occurred at his home at Elizabethtown, Bladen county, yesterday. Dr. Robinson was about 46 years of age and was a native of Elizabethtown, where he has always lived, except for a short time immediately after the war, when he resided in this city, and was associ ated with Dr. W. J. Love in the practice of medicine. He leaves a wife. but no children. His remains will be brought to this city for interment in Oakdale Cemetery. The obsequies will be conducted with Masonic honors, he having been an honored member of that Military Matters.

Some important changes are soon to be made in the armory of the Wilmington Light Infantry, among which cases will be made so that every member of the corps will have a case for his own especial use. The organization now numbers about 50 members, and it is desirable to have the number increased to 75 good men who will take an in terest in the company and work for its efficiency and excellence.

Reorganized. A few years ago a military company was organized at Kenansville, Duplin County, which was known as the Duplin Rifles. From some cause or other, after a brief existence, interest in the corps ceased and it became almost a thing of the past. Recently a number of the young people of Warsaw, in the same county, have taken an interest in the matter and have been quite successful in their attempt at its resuscita. tion until it is now in a flourishing condition and bids fair to be a fixture in the county with the last named town as its headquarters. Capt. J. W. Hunter is its commander. There is plenty of good material in Duplin for an excellent military organization and we hope that the present effort to maintain and encourage a military spirit there will meet with entire success. -

Esmeralda.

This charming domestic drama will be presented at the Opera House on the night of Wednesday, the 14th inst., and the box sheet will be opened at Dyer's on Monday morning. In speaking of Ladies and Gentlemen's Merino Underwear, this play, the Boston Globe says:

"Esmeralda" is certainly a charming play. With such a company of interpreters as that sent hither by the Madison Square management, and such a beautiful and ornate setting as that which, transported from the New York theatre, was presented at the Park last evening, a drama with far few claims upon attention would secure success.

We regret very much to learn of the death of Mr. Joseph Hale, eldest son of Mr. E. J Hale, Jr., of the Fayetteville Observer, which occurred yesterday, of typhoid fever.

The funeral services of the late Dr J. S ROBINSON will take place at St. John's Church, at 3.30 o'clock, p. m., Sunday, Nov. 11, 1883. Friends of the family are invited.
