Newbern Journal: General M. W. Ransom and General A. M. Scales will deliver addresses at several points in the State during the next month in aid of the Pender Monument Fund. -- Mr. Allen Johnson, of Pitt county, called to see us on Wednesday and informed us that Mr. J. J. B. Cox's barn and stables, together with about one hundred barrels of corn, forty bushels of wheat, all farming utensil and four bales of cotton, were burned on Wednesday night of last week. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

Fayetteville Observer: On Friday morning last, about 8 o'clock, the dwelling house of Mr A H Slocumb, situated on Dick street, caught fire from a spark talling on the root. In a few! minutes the entire roof was eovered with flames. The colored fire company and the hook and ladder company gath ered promptly, but it was too late to save the house, everything being so dry Much of the furniture was saved. Last Friday the handsome country residence belonging to Mr John M Hodges, known as Linden Hill, was consumed by fire. The fire is supposed to have caught from a spark light lenza, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Ining on the roof. Morganton Mountaineer: In the fields just above Flemming's Ford, on the Catawba River, which have been in cultivation for more than a hundred years, quantities of broken Indian pottery may be found at this day. From fragments which we have seen we would suppose that these vessels were large, probably containing several gallons and the outsides were curiously marked in various patterns and covered with hieroglyphics. —A distressing accident occurred in Icard township, in this county, near the residence of Mr. Warlick, last Thursday night. A man named Mike Cline and his wife went to the woods for shingle blocks, leaving a little four year old girl and a COON TO BE ISSUED—6th Ecition—17th child still younger at home to take care of the house. On their return they were horrified to find their little girl in the yard dead, her clothing consumed, and
