

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSEPH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1883. NO. 281

SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $4.00, six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00. One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rate, or 10 cents per week.

The Philadelphia Times says the Mahone, Hutton and Gorham side-show company is to star with "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

James G. Blaine expects to be the nominee of the Republican party for President in 1884. He would make a lively canvass.

The bandit Aquero and his followers have left Cuba, it is said, with the acquiescence and perhaps assistance of the government.

Rev. Father Fulton, provincial of the Jesuits in the United States, and Rev. Father Brady arrived in Boston from Rome last week in the steamer Germania.

Col. Richard W. Thompson will deliver the oration at the unveiling of the statue of Senator Morton. The statue of bronze and seven feet high, arrived at Indianapolis, from Rome, Italy, last week.

Augusta Chronicle: The Railway Commission per ex-Governor Smith, wants protection from free passes. The people in part and the railways in mass want protection from Gov. Smith's Commission.

Five hundred Norwegians and Swedes from Illinois and Wisconsin, who came to this country as immigrants many years ago, left Chicago for New York last week to return to their native land. This is the second detachment.

Judge Charles Gayarre, a man of mark in Louisiana, finds himself, when well along in years, obliged to sell art treasures in the collection of which he spent much time and money. The pictures are oil paintings, bought mainly in Spain.

The Courier-Journal makes this charge: "Protection benefits one and cheats twenty," says Mr. Beecher; and then he goes and votes the Republican ticket. If there is a daisy blooming anywhere in the pulpit of America Henry is that flower.

The New York Journal has come to the conclusion that the only way John Kelly can harmonize with the Democracy is to be nominated for the Presidency. The Journal affects to believe that John could leave New York city with 70,000 majority.

Mr. Joseph F. Potter, United States consul at Crefeld, Prussia, reports in regard to the importation and sale of American goods in Germany that during the past year there has been a considerable increase in the sale of useful goods imported from the United States, notwithstanding the active opposition of German manufacturers.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 470 bales.

New moon to-morrow afternoon at 40 minutes past 1 o'clock.

Eggs were retailing at some of the stores to-day for 25 cents per dozen.

Bishop Northrop preached at Larrinburg on Sunday last and confirmed three persons.

The Charlotte Observer speaks of Hon. A. M. Waddell's presence in that city on Monday.

This is nice weather for Thanksgiving, and we trust that it may be enjoyed thankfully, temperately and happily.

There was only one case for the Mayor's consideration this morning, which was for disorderly conduct. A fine of $3 settled it.

The Postoffice will be closed to-morrow (Thanksgiving) from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Letter carriers will make one delivery only. Carrier's window open from 5 to 5:30 p.m.

As we are very patriotic people we propose a total suspension of the newspaper business to-morrow and hence no paper will be issued from this office on that day. We will take Thanksgiving in ours.

The influence of the fire alarm is demonstrated on the occasion of each fire which occurs in this city. The bell can only be heard on or very near the square on which it is located. In fact, the alarm bell is a complete failure and of no earthly use.

The handsome velvet and plush toilet and dressing cases which are on exhibition at the store of Dr. W. H. Green will be raffled off Friday night at 8 o'clock. Dr. Green has just received a new and elegant assortment of Xmas and holiday goods.

Nothing Lost.
The flat which was sunk on the opposite side of the river yesterday has been raised and brought over to this side, and is now made fast to the wharf at the foot of Chestnut street. The rosin with which she was loaded is yet on board of her, and the wood that floated off has all been saved.

Interesting Lecture.
Rev. F. W. E. Peschau will deliver his lecture entitled "The Cemetery of the Sea," in the hall of the Wilmington Library Association, on Friday night, Nov. 30th. It will be for the benefit of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, and the merits of the cause as well as of the lecturer should induce a large audience to attend.

Personal.
We understand that Rev. Dr. Patterson is expected to arrive here to-night and will probably spend some time, perhaps all of the holidays, with his friends in this city. He will be the guest at first of Hon. R. R. Bridges and is expected to assist to-morrow in the Thanksgiving services in either St. James' or John's church.

A Great Age.
To-day is the 77th anniversary of Mr. Luke B. Huggins' birthday and quite a number of his relatives, friends and acquaintances have called upon him during the day to pay their respects and offer their congratulations. It is a great age, but we trust that our venerable friend may be spared many years yet to enjoy life and its many blessings.

Exports Foreign.
Nor. barque Brazilian, Capt. Ugland, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 1,600 bales cotton, valued at $75,796, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co. Br. Schr. Mabel Darlinga, Capt. Ranger, cleared for Nassau, N. P. with 51,531 feet lumber and 101,500 shingles, valued at $1,482.57, shipped by Messrs. Parsley & Wiggins, making an aggregate of $77,278.57.

The Excursionists.
A dispatch from Mr. F. W. Clark, dated at Raleigh, states that the Northern excursionists are expected to leave Raleigh on Friday and Wednesday on Saturday. They will go to Shelby and we again suggest that some action be taken by our citizens towards inviting them to visit Wilmington and examine into some of the many advantages presented in this section of the State.

A Happy Event.

Capt. Hansen, of the Nor. barque Echo, was married to-day in Philadelphia, in honor of which happy event the Norwegian vessels in port were decorated from deck to trucks with flags. Capt. Hansen left here last Saturday night for Philadelphia, where his bride elect, a fair Norwegian girl who has resided in that city some years, was awaiting him. He will return in a few days and bring his newly made bride with him.

For Travellers.

In the time table issued by the Atlantic Coast Line, as spoken of by us yesterday, there is an excellent map of the various States through which the line passes, as also of the adjoining States. Florida, in especial, has an enlarged space, and the map of this State is probably just as good a one as that furnished by Colton's pocket edition. It is not generally known, by the way, that the Atlantic Coast Line, between New York and New Orleans, is seven hours shorter than any other route.

"Electra"

We have received the December number of the above-named Magazine, which is published by Miss Isabella M. Leyburn, at Louisville, Ky. It is intended as a "Belle Letter Monthly for Young People," and its matter is such as to subserve that purpose. The articles are interesting, entertaining and instructive and many of them of a high order of literary merit. Misses Annie Wilson and Isabella M. Leyburn are the editors. The subscription price is $2 per annum. Single copies 20 cents each.

A False Alarm.

Passers-by saw dense volumes of smoke issuing from St. John's Church, at a little after noon to-day, and promptly gave the alarm of fire. It was a false alarm, however, as the smoke issued from a pipe and was carried by currents of air in such a manner as to almost completely envelope the building. It appeared for a short time as if the church was all on fire in the interior and only gathering strength to burst through and work its destruction, but it was all smoke. The fire department was promptly on hand, but there was no use for its services.

The Argentine Republic.

Our thanks are due to Col. George Harris, Vice Consul of the Argentine Republic, for a copy of an official publication entitled, "The Argentine Republic as a field for European Emigration." It is a valuable work, containing much important information as to the climate, productions, industries and laws of the country, together with the wages paid to laborers and mechanics, and the religious and educational advantages afforded. A large and complete map of the Republic is appended, but, unfortunately for the general American reader, its explanations and names are in the Spanish language.

Theodore Thomas.

Mr. Seymour Locke arrived in the city last night and had a consultation with the manager of the Opera House regarding the appearance of the Thomas Orchestra in this city on the 6th of December next. It was concluded to push the matter and spare no pains to get them here if possible. Mr. Locke left a little after midnight to join the troupe at Lynchburg, Va., and Mr. Dyer went North this morning in the interest of the proposed concert. There is now but little doubt that they will come, by which means the music loving people of Wilmington will have an opportunity of hearing the largest and undoubtedly the best traveling orchestra in the world.

Criminal Court.

In the case of Edward McCabe, charged with perjury, which was on trial before this tribunal when our report closed yesterday, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Frank Wilkinson, charged with an assault and battery in two cases, was found not guilty. These cases arose from his putting a colored woman out of the cabin allotted to white passengers on the Minnehaha, last Summer. The jury were out but about five minutes, when they returned with the verdict. Peter Smith, carrying concealed weapons. Guilty. Judgment not yet pronounced. Monroe Turner, carrying concealed weapons. Guilty. Judgment not yet pronounced. F. H. Harriss, alias F. H. Cornell, larceny. Special verdict of guilty. Judgment not yet pronounced.

The Good Old Custom.

Among the few timehonored customs that have not been swept away by the cruel hand of war, is that of the gathering of invited guests at wedding parties, there to remain all night, and until after breakfast on the next morning, passing the hours in social pleasures and becoming festivities. This custom, we are glad to say, prevails in many localities, and we hope it may continue. A few evenings since there was one of these pleasant gatherings at the residence of Capt. G. F. Walker, in Pender county, to witness the marriage of his daughter, Miss Theodosia, to Mr. W. D. King, of Sampson county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Black and was witnessed by a large party of invited guests, among whom were representatives of Duplin, Sampson, New Hanover and Pender counties. The attendants upon the happy couple were Mr. James H. Colvin, with Miss Lillian Moore; Mr. Alonzo D. Currie, with Miss Mary Bordeaux; Mr. Edgar A. Moore, with Miss Mollie Currie; Mr. Willie A. Bordeaux, with Miss Mollie Murphy; Mr. Allmand Barbary, with Miss Lizzie Walker, and Mr. Lee Walker, with Miss Hettie Moore.

After the wedding ceremony the happy party sat down to a splendid supper prepared for the occasion, at which all did ample justice to the delicate viands spread before them. The appetite being satisfied dancing came next in order, which was kept up by some until sunrise next morning, while others, after a season of enjoyment, sought the repose and refreshment of sleep.

Messrs. M. Peterson, Haywood Peterson, and John C. Broadhurst, Jr., and Mrs. Julia King were assigned the duty of the reception and care of the guests, and were entirely successful in their efforts. The best of order and genial good humor prevailed. There was not a drop of intoxicating liquor furnished or drunk, and the guests returned to their respective homes bearing the most pleasant memories of the happy occasion with its many pleasing incidents.

WABASH, IND.—The Plain Dealer has this to say: "Undoubtedly the most meritorious remedy of the present day is St. Jacobs Oil. It has been proven an absolute cure for rheumatism and neuralgia."
