

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30 1883. NO. 283

THIS PAPER published every evening. Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, Editor and Proprietor.

SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: Year $1.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00. One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington. Mr. Cape is going to Washington to remain a month, as Mr. Corcoran's guest. H. J. Ramsdell, correspondent, is writing a book of Washington reminiscences.

The San Francisco Call thinks that ex Senator Thurman, as a Democratic Presidential nominee, could carry Ohio, California, Indiana and Nevada. These, with the Solid South, would elect him, without New York. In the bright autumnal days the temptation to comfortable exposure yields its fruit in a most pernicious cough and irritation of the throat. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup stands unrivaled as a remedy for throat and lung diseases. 25 cents a bottle.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the past two days foot up 2,078 bales. We regret to learn that Mr. James W. King is confined to his house seriously sick. Yesterday was a beautiful day for Thanksgiving, and the usual enjoyment prevailed. There were quite a number of flat loads of wood in the docks this morning which was offered for sale at reasonable rates. There were a good many visitors at the Sound yesterday, although not so many as on some occasions. Old folks now usually retire for the night at 21 o'clock, younger people at 22 o'clock and courtiers folks at 23 o'clock.

Ex-Governor Stephenson was reported to be in a dying condition at his residence, Parkersburg, West Va., Sunday night. The collection taken yesterday at the joint services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church amounted to $70.26, which was a very creditable showing. Capt. R. M. McIntire calls attention in this issue to his large, varied and elegant assortment of dry goods which he is selling at very reasonable figures. That the people of Wilmington were pretty generally on their good behavior on Thanksgiving day is evidenced by the fact that there were no cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning.

Capt. F. M. James desires through the REVIEW to express his thanks to the citizens of Wilmington for their generous contributions to the poor and destitute on Thanksgiving Day. The woods were full of hunters yesterday and they were all successful in getting home safely. We hear of no great slaughter of birds, but a few were shot and several seriously wounded. The barque Sarah Doe, Capt. Merryman, cleared to-day for Bristol, Eng., with 1,050 casks spirits, turpentine and 3,811 barrels rosin, valued at $22,763; shipped by Messrs Paterson, Downing & Co.

Mr. W. M. Hays, Jr., announces in this issue that he has removed to stall No. 4, in the New Market where he will be happy to wait upon his old customers and an unlimited number of new ones. Mr. A. H. Morris, at Teachey's Depot, in Duplin county, has shipped within the last 12 months 4,000 packages of his hog cholera medicine, 400 bales of dogtongue and 20,000 pounds of roots and herbs.

A the auction sale of boots, shoes &c., by order of the assignee, which is advertised in another column, good opportunities are offered of securing desirable bargains, and the sale will undoubtedly be liberally patronized.

At a recent meeting of the Seaside Park Improvement Company the old board of officers were re-elected to serve for the ensuing year, as follows: President—Pembroke Jones. Secretary and Treasury—James M. Forshae.

There was a large congregation in attendance at the joint services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church yesterday. Rev. Dr. Pritchard, pastor of the First Baptist Church, preached the sermon and it was entirely appropriate to the occasion, and of much power.

Mr. Richard McCabe is building a sharpie at Capt. Skinner's yard, in the Southern part of the city, which when completed he will take to Bull River, S. C., where he will engage in the fishing business. The boat will be 45 feet long, 9 feet wide and will draw 8 1/2 inches of water without her masts.

The Lecture To Night.
We trust that there will be a large audience at the rooms of the Wilmington Library Association to-night to hear Rev. F. W. E. Peschau's lecture, "The Cemetery of the Sea." It will be delivered for the benefit of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, and with a splendid lecture and such a worthy object there should be no lack of hearers.

Election of Officers.
At the regular monthly meeting of St. John's Lodge, A. F. & A. M., held at St. John's Hall last evening, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:
W. M.—Eugene S. Martin.
S. W.—John W. Perdew.
J. W.—Alfred Carpenter.
Treasurer—F. G. Robinson.
Secretary—James I. Metts.

Personal.
Rev. Dr. Patterson arrived on Wednesday night, from the North. He was met at the depot by a number of friends, who were glad to welcome him here once more. At the request of Rev. Dr. Carmichael he preached yesterday morning in St. John's Church to a congregation unusually large for Thanksgiving Day, and is expected to preach on Sunday morning in St. James' Church. His visit here will not be a lengthy one, and Dr. Carmichael has tendered him a reception to-morrow morning at the Rectory of St. John's Church, where he will be pleased to welcome his friends.

The Rajah.
The success of this merry comedy at the Madison Square Theatre this summer has been something phenomenal. We believe very few people have a clear understanding of the meaning of the word "Rajah" It is literally an East Indian word, meaning an absolute monarch or potentate. As applied in Mr. Young's play, however, it has a different meaning. "Harold Wynoot" received the appellation from his associates while living in India, from his indolent air as well as his indifference to his surroundings or happenings in any way. In this manner he became known as "The Rajah," which cognomen even clung to him when he resided in England in after years. The original cast and scenery of this remarkable play will be seen here on Dec. 13th.

A Narrow Escape.
Mr. James W. Jackson, of the firm of Jackson & Bell, had a very narrow escape from a fearful accident on Wednesday evening. He was engaged about one of the printing presses, which was working off a form, when his right arm was caught in the rollers and drawn clear to the shoulder. Fortunately the press was running at a low rate of speed at the time with a small amount of power and a rather loose belt so that the strain on his arm stopped the machinery. He was extricated as quickly as possible from his painful and perilous position, when it was found that no bones were broken. Had the press been running at its usual speed with its full power, it would have torn the arm from the shoulder, and probably resulted in death. Mr. Jackson was able to be at the office this morning, but he was suffering considerable pain from the "tight squeeze" his arm had received, and well he might, for it was an ugly looking bruise.

A Rough Experience.
Two prominent Railroad officials had rather a lugubrious experience at Aiken, S. C., a few days since. At first they were under the surveillance of the police as suspicious characters, and after their identity and position were established they started to walk to Graniteville, the next station North on the C. C. & A. Railroad. It was after dark, and when near the latter point and while they were crossing a long trestle, they saw, to their horror, what appeared to be the headlight of an approaching engine. There was no escape except by jumping from the trestle and that would result almost certainly in instant death. Their fears were relieved, however, in a few moments by the discovery that the light was merely a signal at the station to notify an expected train to stop there. It is not to be presumed that these Railroad officials will have very pleasant memories of Aiken and its vicinity.

A Celestial Doctor.
Dr. Long Hon. Nam, Chinese physician, of San Francisco, Cal., was cured of rheumatism by the great pain-conquerer, St. Jacobs Oil, and says it is a wonderful remedy. The celebrated "Fish Brand Pills," Twine is sold only at Jacou's Hard ware Depot.
