ures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest home file circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

There are 34,000 deaf mutes in the United States, or one out of every 1,500 people.

Mr. Jefferson, the actor, buys all the blooded cattle he can find for his New Iberia (La.) farm.

In five months the amount of silk exported to the United States from Lyons fell off $1,000,000.

W. W. Corcoran's handwriting is small and legible. He is 85, but still attends personally to his business.

The drill for the artesian well at the shops of the Winchester Arms Company in New Haven, Conn., has stuck fast at the depth of 2,000 feet.

In the four years between 1879-83 there were 107 condemnations in England and only 51 executions. Capital punishment is going out of fashion.

The three most valuable pearl necklaces in America are owned in Gotham and are valued at $100,000, $30,000 and $23,000 respectively.

Mayor Carter Harrison to a Chicago reporter: "I think it is all bosh about Blaine not wanting the Presidency. He fell down in front of a church before and now he is jumping on whiskey."

The warm weather played havoc with the shipments of turkey from the West for the New York markets.— Eleven tons were seized and confiscated there on Friday as unfit for food.

Not many months ago, the London Times spoke of Pennsylvania as being in Philadelphia. In its comments upon the defeat of General Butler, it refers to him as the Governor of Pennsylvania.

That the Princess Louise of Wales and the Duke of Portland are to be married is pure fiction. The young Princess is not yet 16 and she will not be formally introduced into society for another 18 months.

Prince Bismarck has now ordered all the publications of the Imperial Statistical Office to be printed in German type. These are much circulated in other countries, and the order causes great annoyance.

Three bankrupt laws have been enacted and repealed since the adoption of the Constitution. The first was passed in 1800 and repealed in 1803, the second became a law in 1841 and was repealed in 1843, and the third was passed in 1867 and repealed in 1878. All three were more or less defective.

The Chatanooga music lovers had to guarantee Theodore Thomas and his orchestra $1,500 to secure a performance in that village, and the receipts failed to pay out by $550. Norfolk made a like guarantee and fell short in the receipts nearly $300. Minstrel shows have crowded houses.

Gen. Grant some time since bought two thousand shares of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad at par, on the advice of Mr. Victor Newcombe. The stock declined to 88, involving a loss of say $24,000. Mr. Newcombe sent word to return the stock to him, and he gave his check for the full amount of the investment.

The pretender Edmond Naundorff, who claimed to be a grandson of Louis XVI, and on the death of the Comte de Chambord issued a manifesto signed "Prince Charles Edmond de Bourbon," died recently at Breda, in Holland, in great poverty. He leaves a widow and four children, who evidently intend to keep up the game, having informed the world of the demise of "Monsieur le frere du roi Charles X."

The Carnival of Winter Sports, which attracted so many strangers to Montreal last winter, is to be repeated this winter, commencing on the 4th of February. New toboggan hills will be prepared, a beautiful ice palace erected, and torchlight processions, moonlight tramps, skating masquerades, curling games, horse racing on the river, a carnival ball and other attractions will be given during an entire week.

The retention of any waste matter in the system produces injury. The collection of "phlegm" or diseased mucus in time of cold or throat affection should be promptly removed. Dr.
Bull's Cough Syrup does it more quickly and effectually than any other cough syrup made.

R. M. MCINTIRE—From Seashore to the Mountains

Day's length 9 hours and 48 minutes.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 339 bales.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 47 minutes past 4 o'clock.

The condition of Mr. J. W. King was somewhat improved this morning.

There were two interments in Belle vue Cemetery this week, both children.

Mr. Adam G. Latta, formerly of this city, but now of Savannah, Ga., is in the city on a brief visit to relatives and friends.

There were four interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, one of which was an adult and three were children.

The Register of Deeds issued five marriage licenses this week, two of which were for white and three for colored couples.

Rev. T. Page Ricard will preach at the Front Street M. E. Church tomorrow at 11 a. m. and Rev. F. A.
Bishop at 7 1/2 p. m.

Rev. W. M. Kennedy was in the city to-day en route for Masonboro, where he will preach to-morrow at 11 a. m., and again at night.

There were three interments in Oak dale Cemetery this week, all children and aged respectively one day, one month and one year.

The collections throughout the State on Thanksgiving Day, for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum at Oxford amounted to $1,215.

Mr. A. W. Rivenbark has a new advertisement in this issue, which shows that he is alive and is well supplied with the good things of this world that he will dispose of at reasonable figures.

The German given by the L'Arioso Pleasure Club, in Germania Hall, last night, complimentary to the young ladies visiting the city, was well attended and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

There is unmailable matter in the Postoffice here addressed to Mary Ann Louis, care of Lee Gore, Bladen county; Peter Davis, care of Capt. Smith & Co., and a postal beginning "Dear Mother" and signed "Marry."

The steamer Pussport made a round trip from Smithville and return to day for the accommodation of the people of that seaside town who desired to come up to the city. Quite a number availed themselves of the opportunity. She arrived here at about 10 o'clock this forenoon and left again at 3:30 this afternoon.

Xmas Goods.

Mrs. Kate C. Wines is just in receipt of a beautiful assortment of millinery and Christmas goods to which special attention is invited. The ladies are reminded of this fact and they will find there many new and pretty articles for the holiday season and at reasonable prices.

Superior Court.

The attention of the Court is still engaged in the trial of the Swann cases, and we are informed that they will probably not be concluded until Monday night. The array of counsel is large and the importance of the interests involved is great, in consequence of which a good deal of time will necessarily be consumed in the arguments.

City Court.

The Mayor had a busy time this morning and disposed of the following cases:

George Johnson, colored, disorderly conduct, $5 or 30 days. He paid.

Julius Potter, colored, disorderly conduct, $5 or 30 days. He went below.

Guilford Malloy, colored, disorderly conduct, 20 days in the city prison.

John Colville, colored, disorderly conduct, $3 or 20 days. He went below.

Alice Hall, colored, and an old offender, disorderly conduct, $5 or 20 days.
She went below.

Martha Hankins, colored, disorderly conduct, $3 or 20 days. She paid the fine.

One man, for failure to pay his license tax, settled for the same and was discharged.

Adjourned.

The meeting of the Visitors of the Ladies Benevolent Society which was held at Hook & Ladder Hall on Tuesday last, was adjourned to meet again at the same hour and place on Tuesday next, the 11th inst.

Dr. Taylor.

We learn from the Laurinburg Enterprise that Rev. J. B. Taylor, D. D., formerly Pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city, will serve the Baptist congregation of Laurinburg next year. He will also have charge of the churches at Shoe Heel and Spring Hill.
The congregations of these churches are, indeed, to be congratulated.

Home Again.

The colored men who migrate from this State to South Carolina and Georgia every year to work in the turpentine forests are beginning to return to their homes here to pass the Christmas holidays and spend their hard earned money among their friends in the "Old North State." Quite a number of these migratory beings were in the city to-day on their way to their homes in Duplin, Sampson and Wayne counties.

The Black Dwarf.

Undoubtedly the spectacular event of the season will occur next Tuesday night, the 11th inst., at the Opera House when the Black Dwarf will be presented. The play is similar in plot to the Black Crook, except that the objectionable features that were introduced in that spectacle have been eliminated from The Black Dwarf, making it an interesting play, in which the skill of the painter and machinist have been taxed to their utmost in giving effect to the story as represented on the stage.

The Methodist Ministers.

Rev. T. Page Ricard is in the city and will preach in Fifth Street Church to-morrow morning. This will not be his last sermon as he will remain here a week longer, by special request, and will preach his last sermon on Sunday next. Rev. F. H. Wood is not here and we understand that there will be no preaching in that church to-morrow.
Mr. Wood is expected to return to the city next week and will preach his farewell sermon on the following Sunday.

Oh, the Bells!

One of those "happy events" which all young folks talk about and think about and dream about occurred last Wednesday night, at Kenansville. It was the marriage of Mr. W. H. Gilbert, of Greenville, N. C., to Miss Anna E. Millard, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, the daughter of Mr.
D. E. Millard. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, Rev. Dr. Sprunt officiating.— The groom is the eldest son of our good friend Dr. W. J. Gilbert, formerly of this city, but for many years past a resident of Fremont, in Wayne county.

Literary Exercises.

The Young Men's Hebrew Association of this city held a very pleasant meeting at Germania Hall last night. The proceedings were made interesting by literary exercises and vocal and instrumental music, rendered by some of our best talent. Of the ladies who participated and aided materially in the entertainment of the occasion, Mrs.
Kahnweiler was the vocalist and Mrs.
Dryfoos gave a recitation, both rendered with exquisite taste and pathos.
There was reading by Mr. J. I. Macks and a harmonious sketch by Mr. Joe Hart, while Mr. I. Greenwald gave an excellent selection on the piano.

We are glad to know that the Association is in a prosperous condition and that a deep interest in its success prevails among all its members.

A False Alarm.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning the people residing in the vicinity of Walnut and North Second streets were aroused by cries of murder uttered by some one on the sidewalk, who was evidently making his way up Walnut street as the same cries were heard at about the same time on the corner of the latter and North Third street. The person making the alarm then turned towards Market street and changed his cries from "murder" to "police," which he continued to shout until taken in charge by a policeman. He proved to be a colored man, well known in the city, and claimed that some one was in pursuit to kill him. He was taken to the guard house, but it was a considerable time and with a good deal of difficulty that he was convinced that his life was not in peril. He had been drinking heavily for some time and it was a case of "James preserves," vulgarily called jim jams.

The English Sparrows.

We have a very pleasant note from Mr. R. C. Taylor, formerly the Superintendent of the National Cemetery in this city, but who, as our readers are aware, has been recently promoted to the charge of the Cemetery at Fort Scott, Kansas. As Mr. Taylor made many warm friends here during his residence among us who will be glad to hear a word from him, we take the liberty of publishing here a portion of his letter:

I see in your issue of the DAILY RE-VIEW, Nov. 27th, a paragraph stating that the English sparrows have arrived in Wilmington in large numbers. I claim the honor of first having introduced them in your vicinity, having had a shipment to me from Washington, three years ago, of 10 of these birds.
They increase very rapidly, and from my experience and all the information that I have been able to glean, they will prove a blessing to the market gardeners of your vicinity in a few years.
Whenever you see the gentle little fellows hopping about over your streets, think of me kindly.

This is the most delightful climate I have yet seen. Chills and fevers are unknown here.

GOUVERNEUR, N. Y.—The Herald says, as a friend to its patrons, it is with pleasure that it can recommend as a radical cure for all rheumatic affections, the wonderful remedy St. Jacobs Oil.
It cures pain.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOB'S Hardware Depot

MARRIED.

GILBERT—MILLARD—in Kenansville, N.
C. on the 5th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. Jas. M. Sprunt, D. D., Mr. W. H. GILBERT, of Greenville, N. C., to Miss ANNA E. daughter of Mr. D. E. Millard, of Kenansville.
