

Eastport, Me., tried the standard time, but the villagers made a fuss, and the selectmen yielded and went back to the old time on Sunday.

Arkansas coal is being offered for home use. It is a new experiment. The high price of wood is inducing the people to look on all sides for cheaper fuel.

A party of Englishmen in Colorado shot fifty antelopes, of which they did not even take the heads, because the heads as specimens were not fine enough.

The four buildings for the World's Industrial Cotton Exposition in New Orleans are to have 1,000,000 square feet of exhibition space, and are to cost in the aggregate only $225,000.

Mr. Capel intends to linger as the guest of Mrs. Turnure, in New York, until after Christmas. He will lecture there three, his topics being "Marriage," "Divorce" and "Family."

They have recently figured up in Paris what it cost to indulge in a short war with Germany, and the amount is started at 8 milliards and 356 millions of francs or, say $1,660,000,000.

Mrs. Langtry, while in Louisville, mourned the loss of her favorite King Charles spaniel, carried off by some dog fancier. It was the gift of a friend, and she offered a reward of twenty-five dollars for its return.

George Washington's autograph at the sale of the library of the late Joseph J. Cooke, of Providence, R. I., fetched $10, that of Roger Williams $40, Thomas Jefferson's $4 and that of George IV $72.

Mr. Arthur has given up his residence at the Soldiers' Home and is fully installed in the White House for the winter. It is expected that Mrs. McElroy and other relatives will spend the holiday season at the White House.

E. S. Martin, the former business manager of the Boston Ideal Opera Company, who was defeated by Miss Ober of Boston, in a civil suit in Cleveland last week, has become insane through business troubles and too much liquor.

The German army horse buying commission have this year bought in 449 markets 7,054 horses, at an average of $170. The highest paid was $350; the lowest $75. Six thousand six hundred and thirteen are three year olds; the rest older.

Gen. George A. Washburn, of Hartford, Conn., has been obliged to remove to Aiken, S. C., for the benefit of his health. He was major of the 16th Connecticut Regiment at Sharpsburg, and received many serious wounds in that battle, from which he has been a sufferer ever since.

Mr. Fair, of Nevada, is put down as the wealthiest man in the United States Senate. His riches aggregate $18,000,000; those of Mr. Miller, of California, $4,000,000; Mr. Sawyer, of Wisconsin, $7,000,000; Mr. Brown, of Georgia, $5,000,000; Mr. Palmer, of Michigan, $7,500,000; Mr. Sabin, of Minnesota, $2,000,000, and so on.

The fall expedition of the American Colonization Society sailed from New York for Liberia on the 1st instant. It comprised select emigrants, mostly in families, from Massachusetts, Virginia, North Carolina, Mississippi, Arkansas, Illinois, Kansas and Nebraska, the adult males including two ordained ministers and farmers and carpenters.

On November 20 a fine branch of lilac was gathered in a garden at steep Hill, in the Isle of Jersey. On the same tree were many other branches in full flower. The apple and pear trees were also in blossom, and ripe strawberries were plucked which had grown in the open air. "The fact," says the Debats, "is miraculous in the latitude of Normandy."

Peter Shinkle, of Covington, Ky., who is over ninety years old, has commenced a suit against Amos Shinkle, his millionaire son, for services as collector and superintendent during the last thirty-five years. He values his services at $75 a month, which makes a total of $30,600. On this he has credits of about $12,000, and sues for the remainder, with interest from the time the various sums of which it is made up became due.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1883.

NO. 291

Two small children from Ireland arrived safely in Fauquier county, Va., last week, having traveled all the way unattended. The place of their destination was written on cards which were sewn to the shoulders of their clothing.

Alderman Bandheur tells a reporter for the Denver News the most prodigious of all the Colorado mining stories. The alderman says that after he had drilled to the depth of 433 feet with a drill 26 inches in diameter, the drill dropped with such momentum as to snap the steel wire cable, and that when he descended to get the drill he landed on the floor of a cave about 75 feet in height, 2,000 yards in length, and 200 yards in width. Around him were large rocks worn smooth by the action of waves, and there were bones of whales and other monsters of the deep; but even more numerous than these were chunks of almost priceless ambergris. The story is recited as solemn truth.

Our Army and Navy; our Police and Fire Departments; our prominent men and women on land and on sea, declare that nothing equals St. Jacobs Oil, the conqueror of pain.

Business is brisk, but news items are very scarce to-day.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 700 bales.

Cornelius Harnett Council No. 231 Royal Arcanum, meets to-night at 8 o'clock.

From present appearances Santa Claus will have his hands full this year.

Pender Superior Court will convene in one week from to-day and will be the last Court in this circuit.

Rev. T. Page Ricard preached at the Fifth Street M. E. Church yesterday to a large congregation and the services were impressive and affecting.

The Br. Steamship Woodside, which was here some time ago and loaded cotton for Liverpool, was reported outside this morning and is expected up to-night.

Brig Havana, Capt. Reed, cleared to-day for Ponce, P. R., with 242,777 feet lumber and 45,000 shingles, valued at $4,071.68, shipped by Messrs Northrop & Cumming.

The Rajah.
The presentation of this brilliant comedy at the Opera House on Thursday, the 16th inst., promises to be the chief amusement event of the season. The interest is heightened by the fact that "The Rajah" is to be enacted here by the regular Madison Square home company, and will be embellished by scenery made in duplicate of the original and painted by the same artists.

City Court.
Stephen Freeman, colored, was before the Mayor this morning on a charge of disorderly conduct, and was fined $5 for the offence, which he paid.

Candace Dunstary, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined $5, in default of which she was sent below for 30 days.

Boneset Christiansen, a seaman, for disorderly conduct, was fined $5, which he paid.

Insane.
Sheriff Ward, of Pender county, was in the city to-day. He brought with him a white woman by the name of Lucretia Rebecca Eilers, of Lincoln township, in that county, who has been adjudged insane and was turned over by Sheriff Ward to Mr. Savage, Superintendent of the Poor House, who will care for her at the Insane Department of that institution. The patient is about 35 years of age and is unmarried. She is not violent and has lucid intervals.

The Black Dwarf.
This spectacular drama will be presented at the Opera House in this city to-morrow night. The scenery carried by the company is new, and was produced by one of the best artists in the country. The costumes are new and tasty. Interspersing the performance are many things of a decidedly mirth-provoking character.

List of Delegates.
The Convention of the New Episcopal diocese in this State assembles in Newbern on Wednesday, the 12th inst. We reprint herewith the list of delegates, entire, from this city:
St. JAMES'.
Delegates—Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Col. J. G. Burr, A. H. VanBokkelen, Wm. Calder.
Alternates—R. E. Calder, J. H. Boatwright, Dr. Thos. F. Wood, J. C. Munds.

St. JOHN'S.
Delegates—Col. S. L. Fremont, Chas. D. Myers, W. H. Green, Berry Gleaves.
Alternates—John E. Lipplitt, M. P. Taylor, O. P. Meares, Jr., Josh T. James.

St. PAUL'S.
Delegates—DuBrunt Cutlar, R. E. Heide, F. H. Mitchell, Wm. H. Bernard.
Alternates—R. G. Rankin, H. E. Burr, W. G. McKee, R. B. Wood, Sr.

St. MARK'S.
Delegates—J. C. Norwood, J. H. Davis, H. D. Sampson, Samuel Reid.
Alternates—J. D. Sampson, Thos. Stewart, John O. Nixon, Valentine Howe.

The Magazine.
The December number of the Magazine of American History has been received, and like all of its predecessors, is a most valuable work. An interesting paper in the present number is "Christmas Time in Old Virginia," by John Esten Cooke. Then we have "Holidays in Early Louisiana," by Norman McF. Walker; "Christmas Tide in Canada," by John Reside, F. R. S. C.; "Christmas Season in Dutch New York," by Mrs. Martha J. Lamb; "A Huron Historical Legend," by Horatio Hale, M. A.; "Col. David Crockett, of Tennessee," by Gen. Marcus J. Wright, and a large amount of original and instructive matter.

We have received the November number of the North Carolina Medical Journal, which is fully equal in point of merit and medical information to any of its predecessors. There are a great number of subjects treated and all are of importance to the non-professional as well as the professional world. A very important feature of the present number is a paper upon "Insanity in the Colored Race," contributed by Dr. J. D. Roberts, of Goldsboro, N. C. Dr. Roberts is Superintendent of the Asylum for the colored insane at that place, and his opinions are of importance from having been confirmed by continual observation among that unfortunate class of people.

The Sampson Fair.
The Annual Fair of the Sampson County Agricultural Association commenced at Clinton, on Wednesday, the 5th instant, although but little was done on that day further than to make entries of stock, farm products &c., &c. On Thursday, the 6th, the Fair was formally opened by the President of the Association, Col. J. K. Pigford. On Friday, the Chief Marshal, Mr. J. T. Murphy, with his assistants and accompanied by the military, under Capt. Faison, escorted Gov. Jarvis to the grounds, where he was introduced to the audience by President Pigford. The Governor then addressed the assembled multitude in a sensible, straightforward, practical speech, which was listened to with profound attention and interest.

The Fair closed on Saturday night after one of the most successful exhibitions of its kind ever held in that county. There was a large attendance each day, and good order was generally observed. There was a ball on Thursday night and another on Friday night, both of which were well attended and greatly enjoyed. The harpers, of this city, furnished the music for the dancing. The success of the Fair was greatly due to the untiring efforts of President Pigford, Chief Marshal Murphy and Treasurer Beaman, who left no means unemployd to make it all that could be desired. There were a great many strangers present from the surrounding country to whom the people of Sampson extended that cordial hospitality for which they are proverbial, and which was highly appreciated by the visitors.
