Ex-Senator D. I.. Yulee, of Fernandina, is said to be the richest citizen of Florida, his wealth being estimated at $3,000,000.

The Queen has made Aifred Tennyson, the poet laureate of England, a baron. The title of baron in England is the lowest grade of rank in the house of lords, and is the rank of nobility between a viscount and a baronet.

In order to get a first-rate Oregon pine mast for a New York yacht, the tent. owners of the vessel have had to send for it to London. The question now is whether Oregon pine imported from London must pay duty.

Lord Overstone died in London last week worth $60,000,000. A correspondent says he would walk a mile to save a penny, and was exceedingly pompous and prosy. Col. Lloyd Lindsay, who married his daughter, is very unpopular. Mrs. Lindsay is now richer than the Queen.

The treasurer of Connecticut has just placed $1,000,000 of the 34 per cent. bonds of the State in one of the savings banks at a premium of 8.85 per cent. This is the best showing ever made for the credit of the State on low-rate bonds and shows a firm faith in the solidity of Connecticut bonds.

Of 324 bankers, merchants, lawyers and traders buttonholed by the New York Times nearly one-third-105-had read the President's message through and 30 had read portions of it. Those who had not read it numbered 189, but nearly one half of these, or 88, intended to read it at their earliest leisure. Five had read the newspaper criticisms .-This leaves 96 who probably will not read it at all.

In the absence of Secretary Folger French. and Assistant Secretary Assistant Secretary New is acting as secretary of the treasury. Secretary Folger is suffering from an attack of billousness. Judge French is suffering from a slight attack of rheumatism, and another high official is threatened with the mullygrubs.

The Princess Dolgorouki has aban_ doned her intended stay during the winter in the hotel in Paris recently purchased by her, and has left for Ber lin on her way to St. Petersburg. She will reside there with her three children until the end of January. She is at tended by a numerous suite and a large establishment of servants.

Mr. Rogers, the missing Lewis county, N. J., treasurer, was seen at Norwood last Saturday, and went east from there. Being of an excitable temperament it is believed that he became insane, because he could not make his books balance. He thought he owed the county $4,000, when the county owed him $17.

Richmond Dispatch: There are 300 coupon cases pending in the hustings court of Richmond involving an aggregate'snm of about $25,000. As soon as they are reached in their order they will be tried, and, as it is very easy to prove the coupons' genuineness, judgment will be given against the state, and they will be received into the treasury and the money heretofore paid in their stead refunded. Here in Richmond the pro cess of paying taxes in coupons is easy, expeditious, and cheap, and most of the large tax-payers are availing themselves of the means the Riddleberger bill thus affords them to pay their dues to the State at not a great deal more than half price. &

The Delegates.

In the report of the proceedings of the new Episcopal diocese, held Newbern, as published on the fourth page of this issue, we omit the list of lay delegates who responded. The following were present from this city and responded to their names:

St. James'-Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Col. James G. Burr and Messrs A. H. Van Bokkelen and Wm, Calder.

St. John's-Col. S. L. Frement. St. Mark's-J. H. Davis and J. The Rajah.

There was a good audience at the Opera House last night to witness the Templar, No. 1., held a meeting on the It had never before been presented to a following result: Wilmington audience, and our people were somewhat in the dark as to the len. plot, but took it for granted that it was good, from the fact that it was to be presented by a troupe which had given us "Hazel Kirke," "Esmeralda" and "Young Mrs. Winthrop." The "Rajah" proved equal to any of its predecessors, and in scenic display better. The company was excellent and it would be almost invidious to institute comparisons. Of course some parts were more prominent than others, but each part was well taken and sustained. The more important parts were as follows: Harold Wyncot, "The Rajah," by Mr. H. M. Pitt, who acted the part of a brave, i ndolent, chivalrous, noble-hearted lover to perfection. Gladys Wyncot, his ward, by Miss Kittie Deaves, an lady with considerable mischief in her composition, was exquisitely done .latter was especially good, and his difficult part was rendered in the best possible manner. > Change Your Timepiece. We notice in the New York World, the same time as heretofore, but those which arrive or leave after noon will be reckoned under the new time table. What has been reckoned as 1 o'clock. p. m., becomes 13 o'clock and so on. Consequently the train which has been leaving here at 8 p. m., will now leave at 20 o'clock. It will require but little mental arithmetic to master the new order of time as the day will begin at midnight and the hours will be reckoned right on to 24, without regard to fore. noon or afternoon. Lovers, who have heretofore thought that 10 o'clock p. m. was a modest hour in which to separate for the night, may now, enjoy, each other's company until 22 o'clock with just as much propriety and, we hope, satisfaction. Supper time, which has heretofore been at 7 p. m. will now be changed to 19 o'clock, by which time it may safely be presumed that every healthy person will have a sharp appetite. It is understood that other roads will issue schedules, made up with the new systems as a standard, with a view of securing its general adoption, or giving it such a thorough test as to determine its merits.
