EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID:
One year $4.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00; One month, 35 cents.
The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week.
Advertisements will report any and all fallacies to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest home file circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Captain Merry, in command of the tall ship, is critically ill on board that vessel.

Hans Makart has turned from painting to architecture, and is in Vienna designing a Gothic cathedral that is to cost $8,000,000.

There is one swinging sign to every one hundred inhabitants in Philadelphia, and a vigorous war has begun against these nuisances, agitating the city.

Nathaniel Locke, the father of "Petroleum V. Nasby," served in the war of 1812, in the Mexican war and in the recent civil war. He is more than ninety but still strong and active.

A cargo of 500 tons of American wheat has just arrived at Soube, in Bohemia. It is the first importation of the kind in the history of Austria, but it will by no means be the last.

The Democratic National Committee is assured by the Chicago Herald that the next President of the United States will be nominated in that city. But "doubtful things are very uncertain."

The Khedive of Egypt says he will resign if England does not send troops into the Sudan. It will be the part of discretion for him to do so if the False Prophet is permitted to move on Cairo.

Mr. Mackay and Mr. Flood, the bonanza men, are said by the Galveston News to have bought the Lufjota Mines for $450,000. The mines are eighty miles south-west of Tucson, Arizona.

The Manitobans think they have scared the other Canadians by their talk of secession, so that their grievances will be satisfactorily adjusted.— The boundary dispute with Ontario is to be brought to an equitable end.

A disease resembling hydrophobia has broken among cattle near Houston and other parts of Texas. The victims bellow, foam at the mouth and roam over the prairie with head in the air, destroying everything in their power.

A wonderfully well-preserved man is Lord Shaftesbury. At Oxford recently he attended the meeting of a society of which he was an active member half a century ago, and seemed to have lost little if any of his youthful energy and enthusiasm.

Mr. A. Oakley Hall, once mayor of New York, then actor, lawyer, journalist, dramatist, &c., is going to reside in London as the head of the New York Herald's news bureau. He will become a solicitor in London after seven years' apprenticeship.

Hubert Herkimer proposes to build a whole house with his own hands, assisted by his father, without even the help of a bricklayer. The interior of the house where he now lives is remarkable for the hand carving of its decorations which is entirely by his own and his father's hands.

Speaker Carlisle is said by the Hamilton (Ohio) News once to have challenged an exasperating litigant to fight a duel. The latter accepted promptly, and, as was his right, selected the place and weapons, which he chose to be, respectively, Boston Common and clappingboards. Mr. Carlisle let the matter drop.

The Cairo correspondent of the Daily News tells the story of Hicks Pasha's death. He says that further native accounts of the battle between El Mahdi's forces and those of Hicks Pasha state that Hicks Pasha's hands were first cut off and that he was afterwards cut to pieces. Three thousand men of Hicks Pasha's army were taken prisoners.— The accounts also say that two Europeans and twelve Egyptians who were trying to reach Khartoum by the way of Darfour have not yet arrived. They have probably lost their way. It is believed from the descriptions given of the two Europeans that they are Mr. Edmund O'Donovan, correspondent of the London Daily News, and Mr. Frank Vizetelly, of the London Graphic.

When a lecturer has worked the ladies of his audience so near to the weeping point that they have gotten out their handkerchiefs, and then suddenly changes his tone and speaks of the merits of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, he is bound to rouse a feeling of indignation.

The celebrated "Fish Brand Gills," Twine is sold only at JACOB'S HARD-WARE DEPOT.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 457 bales.

Rev. Dr. Yates is expected to arrive here on Friday night and to preach at the Front Street M. E. Church next Sunday.

Mr. D. B. Nicholson, of the Clinton Caucasian, was in the city to-day and gave us the pleasure of a call this afternoon.

There is a good supply of turkeys and other poultry in the Market, which are being offered at quite reasonable rates for this season of the year.

Norwegian barque Troas, Brager, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 2,350 bales of cotton, valued at $108,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son.

We learn that the condition of Mr.
J. W. King seems a little more favorable, although his improvement is so very slow that it is almost imperceptible.

After Saturday next, the 22nd current, which is the shortest day in the year, the days will begin to lengthen, and will continue to gradually grow longer until the 22nd of June next.

Taylor's Bazaar is an attractive place for the ladies and the display of goods there is very fine and appropriate to the season. The stock is large and in almost endless variety, so that all tastes may be suited.

We have received the annual report of the Chief Signal Officer of the Army, for 1883. It is a small pamphlet of 24 pages and is interesting as showing the labors of this department of the government service.

The Social Hop to be given Friday evening at the Rechabite Tent Rooms on Third street, opposite City Hall, we are satisfied will be a success, socially.
Messrs. Wm. H. Register and W. F.
Burch are on the committee.

Rev. Frank H. Wood, having been absent on a visit to relatives since Conference, has returned to the city. He expects to leave here on Friday for his new field of labor at Fayetteville, and will carry with him the best wishes of many warm and earnest friends.

Mrs. M. Bernard has opened her restaurant for ladies and gentlemen over the store of Messrs. Giles & Murchison, in the rooms recently occupied as offices by the C. C. R. R. Co. She will adopt the European plan and will provide her guests with the best market affords at reasonable rates.

On Her Travels.
The revenue steamer J. B. Hawley, Lt. Brian commanding, put in here today for coal. She has been stationed at Buffalo, N. Y., whence she came via the Erie Canal and Hudson river to New York, and thence the Ocean route to this city. She is bound for Mobile, where she will hereafter be stationed. She is a nice little craft of about 30 tons, but looks as if she might be a good sea boat.

The Festival.
There was a large attendance at the Festival at the City Hall last night, given by the ladies of the Front Street M. E. Church, and many of the articles on exhibition and sale were disposed of. Those having the Festival in charge were untiring in their efforts to make the evening a pleasant one to visitors, a task in which they were entirely successful. The Festival will be held again to-night, and will be an excellent place to spend a pleasant hour or two and a little money.

The Work Completed.
Mr. Jacob S. Allen, of Raleigh, the contractor for building the new court house at Burgaw, Pender county, was in the city to-day. He has completed his task and the building was formally sundered to, and accepted, by the authorities of Pender yesterday, and he was discharged from further accountability in the matter. While sojourning at Burgaw Mr. Allen has made a host of friends to whom he has become warmly attached and from whom he parts with many regrets. His work was entirely satisfactory to all concerned, which was cause for mutual gratification.

Announcement for 1884

Dio Lewis's Monthly will keep step with the most ambitious and vital of our large magazines. It will be illustrated whenever the subjects demand such aid, but its peculiar feature, as heretofore, will consist of an able, earnest and determined discussion of sanitary and social questions. Those who have read the past issues of this magazine will need no assurance of the unglazed vehemence of its work. It leaves no room to doubt its meaning or purpose. Dr.
Lewis will contribute to each issue papers on hygienic themes whose value even earnest people will find it difficult to exaggerate, while nearly a hundred writers known to the public will contribute papers on living subjects.

Although among the largest and most beautiful of our magazines, it is only $2.25 per year, or 25 cents a number.
For sale by all newsdealers.

Pender for the State Exposit- tion.

In accordance with a request published a few days since in the REVIEW, the people of Pender county assembled in the Court House at Burgaw last evening to take action with reference to the State Exposition which is to be held at Baleigh during next Fall. Maj. C. W.
McClammy presided and Mr. R. K.
Bryan, Jr., acted as secretary. Speeches were made by Daniel Shaw, Esq., Dr.
Satchwell, Rev. W. M. Kennedy, Mr.
J. D. Murphy and others in support of the enterprise, and Drs. W. C. Murphy and G. F. Lucas, and Messrs. D. Shaw J. T. Foy, C. C. Woodcock, Robert Durham, R. P. Paddison, J. H. Moore and D. J. Corbett, representing their respective townships, were delegated to collect specimens for the exhibition and solicit voluntary subscriptions in support of this State Enterprise. The meeting was entirely harmonious and very enthusiastic, and we have no doubt that Pender will make a grand display at the exhibition.

"I am Strictly Business."

Of course every one will want to go and see Mr. C. B. Bishop to-morrow night, and have a hearty laugh at his irresistibly mirthful hits and acts. He has recently appeared in Richmond, Va., and of the play and Mr. Bishop's acting the Dispatch, of that city, says:
A fine house welcomed Mr. C. B.
Bishop at the Richmond Theatre last night, and every one was ready to admit they had spent a pleasant evening.
The new play, "Strictly Business," was presented, and the leading character, P. P. Philkins, was assumed by Mr.
Bishop. He is funny beyond doubt in his impersonation of an American drummer abroad, and the happiness of his hits was incontestably proven in the laughter and plaudits of the intelligent and critical audience present. One of the best of the many good things said by Mr. Bishop is the inimitable biographical history of Ruggles' canned goods, which is given by Philkins while on his voyage to the capital of Russia—in an attempt to secure the interest of the Princess Vera in behalf of his wares.

Richard III.

There was a good attendance, at the Opera House last night to witness the performance of Richard III., by Mr.
Thomas W. Keene, who took the title role, and his company. Among the audience we saw quite a number who had been favored with opportunities of seeing this play as presented by some of the best actors of the country, and who were in consequence the more competent to criticize last night's performance justly. There were those present who had seen the Richard III. of Forrest and the elder Booth, who stood unrivalled in this difficult character, besides having seen it attempted by would-be tragedians who had not the intelligence to comprehend the intricate parts nor the talent to give it a proper interpretation.— In some respects Mr. Keene's Richard was equal to any we have ever seen, and in every respect it was very superior acting. It was evident that he had grasped the character in all its hideousness, and his few faults were vocal, which might be accounted for by the fact that he was suffering from a severe cold at the time. The support was remarkably good, and especially so with all the female characters, and as the whole play was excellently well rendered, as was evidenced by the fact that the cultured audience were profoundly attentive and interested and manifested their approval by frequent bursts of applause.

City Court.

The first case for the Mayor's consideration this morning was that of James Westley, colored, charged with disorderly conduct. From the testimony it appeared that he was a bad boy, having entered a house and behaved so badly that he was ejected, after which he threw rocks at the house, and finally laid in wait at the gate for an opportunity to throw rocks at the woman who had ejected him. He had a big rock in his pocket when arrested. He was fined $10 for the offense, in default of which he was sent below for 30 days.

The next case was Dave Mallette, colored, an old offender, and a very hard case. He was drunk and disorderly (a frequent complaint with him) in the vicinity of the New Hanover Bank and when asked to desist and leave he became very profane and abusive. He was fined $10, but as the money was not forthcoming, he was sent below for 30 days.

DIED.

WESTBROOK—This morning, Dec 19 1883, at 5.30 o'clock at Rocky Point, of pneumonia, Mr. ANDREW J. WESTBROOK, in the 67th year of his age.
The funeral will take place to-morrow, (Thursday) at 12 o'clock, M., at Union Church, Pender county. Friends are invited to attend.
