The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Ex-Gov. Morton, of Nebraska, wants to start a new party.

Oscar Wilde will wear at his wedding an overcoat made from a crazy quilt.

Henry Ward Beecher says four-fifths of the inhabitants of heaven are women.

Gen. Sherman has been made post commander of a newly-organized grand army post in St. Louis.

It is authoritatively reported that Mary Anderson is to be married to the duke of Portland. The prospective bridegroom possesses marvelous wealth and great estates. Many denies it.

The Houston Post, speaking of the "fifteen Mormon missionaries" soon to be sent to Texas to make converts, quietly advises to "send no men that cannot be permanently spared."

John E. Owens, "Solon Shingle" of other days, has just finished a disastrous engagement. He appeared in a new play called "Cooke's Corners," which is without merit. He will close his travelling tour temporarily, and he will go to New York.

"The ideal drink is a light bitter beer containing just enough alcohol to preserve the liquid." This is all the Medical Times knows about the subject. But the Savannah News says: The ideal drink in America is double proof alcohol with just enough bitters in it to justify the giving of it a first class high sounding name.

The last collective audience of American bishops with the Pope was held on Tuesday. The result of the conference will be kept secret until after the archbishops have held a council with their colleagues of the American episcopate. Two councils are to be held in Baltimore. The first will take place early in the coming year, and the other, which will be a great plenary council, in October or November. When a general episcopal deliverance will be issued to American Catholics.

Washington Star: "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country," the latest illustration being the Rev. John Jasper, whose fame in Europe is said, in a Richmond letter, to be greater than any Southern man since the war. His memorable sermon was published in French and discussed in the London clubs; and when Mr. Matthew Arnold was in Richmond he expressed his particular desire to hear the celebrated divine. All of which fails to prove, however, that "desundo move."

The Bartholdi statue is now entirely finished and will soon be ready for shipment to New York but as long as there is no pedestal upon which to place it nor money enough in hand to pay for the pedestal, there need be no hurry about its transmission. Thus far only means enough have been raised to lay the foundation for the pedestal, and the fund is still nearly $200,000 short. The delay in providing for the reception of Bartholdi's noble gift amounts to almost a personal discourtesy, but fortunately for the credit of the rich men of Gotham, the good natured sculptor does not look at it in that light.

Let these Things be Considered
Thousands of men die every day who could be saved. Prejudice is mainly to blame for this loss of life. If it were believed that the sum of disease may certainly be reduced by physic, much would be gained. And yet the proposition is very simple; if you take out daily more impurities than is daily generated, you will soon be rid of impurities. The effect of this wise practice is soon seen in Biliousness, Liver and Kidney troubles. But it is equally of value in head and brain affections; in Pleurisy, Pneumonia, Apoplexy and Paralysis.

In chronic and acute Rheumatism, and in all affections of the bowels, this principle soon relieves and cures, when the medicine used is BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Yes, when all other means and medicine have failed to relieve from pain, these pills have cured, by taking impurities from the bowels and blood, and thousands of men and women now place BRANDRETH'S PILLS among the blessings of mankind.

No pleasure is comparable to the standing upon the vantage ground of truth.

The storm signal was flying to-day.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 292 bales.

After the noise, confusion and bustle of Christmas, the streets were dull and deserted to-day.

This is horrible weather in which to climb out of the tangles of a little too much Christmas.

More money has been spent here for fireworks this Christmas than has been the case in many years.

Sheriff Manning treated the prisoners in the County jail to a fine Christmas dinner, which was duly enjoyed.

From this until after New Year's is a time when freight handlers on the different railroads have comparatively little to do.

Messrs. Cronly & Morris will sell a lot of fine bananas at the Custom House wharf to-morrow morning.

Capt. Savage gave the inmates of the County Poor House a good substantial Christmas dinner of poultry, pudding, pies &c which was heartily enjoyed.

David Price, colored, was before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct, but upon the payment of a fine of $3 he was released from custody.

Railroad men report that Christmas was a remarkably quiet day all along their respective routes, and steamboatmen make a similar report regarding the Cape Fear section.

Christmas passed off with much less disturbance, occasioned by drunkenness, than usual, although there was much more noise in fireworks than we have ever heard here before.

Persons whose lands have been sold for taxes and bid off to the State have only four days more in which to redeem the same, as the law authorizing the redemption expires January 1, 1884.

In the hurry of winding up work on Christmas Eve some few errors crept into our columns which were mostly unimportant, it is true, but yet unpleasant to us, and one article was entirely overlooked.

A good many of our citizens closed their Christmas pleasures yesterday by going out gunning, and as far as we can learn they all returned in due season, without accident themselves, and with but little damage to the game. Somehow or other, game is always scarce during the holiday season.

There was considerable thunder and lightning at an early hour this morning but it was a good distance to the North of us, and there was only a slight sprinkle of rain here, although it began to rain quite freely in about two hours afterwards, when we were visited by more thunder and lightning.

Benevolence.

The President of the Ladies' Benevolent Association takes this method to acknowledge the receipt of the following donations on Christmas Eve: Mr. A. B. L., $32.70; Mr. D. L. G., $2; Mr. E. E. B., $5; Mr. F. W. K., 2 boxes tea; Mr. A. D. W., 2 baskets of packages with groceries for the use of the needy. Thanks to them all!

The components of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup are daily prescribed by the ablest physicians, whose success is due to the specific influence of these components. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, skillfully prepared for immediate use, is for sale by all druggists.

The New Agent.

Mr. H. G. Smallbones has been appointed Agent at this port for the N.Y. & Wilmington Steamship Line, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. T. E. Bond. The selection of Mr. Smallbones is an eminently wise one. He is an excellent business man and possesses, in a high degree, the esteem and confidence of the entire community, which he has won for himself by his close application to business and the courtesy and consideration which has been always manifest in his intercourse with others. He has been for thirteen years in the employ of the company, at the office here, and is thoroughly at home in all the details of the business.

Alice Oates

In speaking of the Alice Oates' Troupe the Harrisburg, Pa., Patriot says:

The opera house was packed last night to see Alice Oates and her company in the historical burlesque, "The Field of the Cloth of Gold." To say that the audience was pleased would not do the company just credit; in fact they were delighted. From the rise to the fall of the curtain there was one universal manifestation of approval. As a whole the performance was a decided success.

Played Out.

The appearance of the "kooners" on our streets used to be a noted feature of the Christmas of long ago, and was hailed with delight by young and old. It has now degenerated, however, until on Tuesday it was composed of two colored men dressed in women's clothing, followed by a dozen boys and girls as they wandered through the streets. If this last display cannot be improved upon, we think the "kooners" had better be reckoned as things of the past, and should cease altogether in the future.

The German.

The German at Germania Hall last night was pronounced one of the very best ever given in Wilmington. There was a large party of ladies and gentlemen present to enjoy the occasion, the dancing was elegant and there was nothing to mar the pleasures of the hour. The music, four pieces, was obtained in Richmond, Va., and was superb. After the dancing had ceased the band serenaded a number of our citizens who willingly deprived themselves of sleep to listen to the delightful strains.

For Charitable Purposes.

The Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church will hold a Festival at the City Hall to-morrow night, at which a supper will be given to the children of the school and to their invited guests. Nearly all the pupils will be dressed in the "Kate Greenaway" style, which will be a unique feature of the occasion. The ladies of the school will have for sale oysters, ice cream and coffee, the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of the poor of the Society.

The Last.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia, wife of Mr. W. M. Hays, who died suddenly on Monday, took place from his residence on Seventh, between Mulberry and Walnut streets, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Hull, of the Fifth Street M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of the First Baptist Church, officiated. There was a large assemblage of relatives and friends to pay the last sad tribute to the departed, and the funeral ceremonies were very pathetic and impressive. The age of the deceased was 50 years, 6 months and 1 day.

Christmas.

Christmas was observed this year in about the usual manner by our citizens. Business was generally suspended. Appropriate religious services were held in the Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches, all of which were beautifully and profusely decorated. The weather was unfavorable for outdoor exercise, yet a good many ventured out to call upon relatives and friends and pass the compliments of the season. The children were all remembered by good old "Santa Claus," and many of the older folk were the recipients of tokens of affectionate remembrance. There was an unusual amount of noise from fireworks, but aside from that there was very little disturbance to mar the festivities of the day.

Personal.

Mr. Jesse Wilder, formerly of this city, but now one of the most prominent citizens of Brunswick, Ga. is here on a brief Christmas visit.

Mr. Theo. G. Eger, of New York, Freight Agent of the New York and Wilmington S. S. Line, is in the city to-day on business connected with the change in the Agency of the Company by the resignation of Mr. Bond and the appointment of Mr. Smallbones.

Mr. E. A. Keith, of Norfolk, Mr. Jno. C. James, of Richmond, Freight Agent of the Richmond & Petersburg R. R., Mr. R. H. Cowan, of the Wadsworth Times, and also First Assistant Disbursing Clerk of the House of Representatives, Mr. Chas. E. French, formerly of this city but now of Minneapolis, Mr. Henry M. Cowan, Teller in the State Treasury at Raleigh, Mr. A. H. Kelly, of West Point, and Mr. R. C. Cantwell, of Conwayboro, S. C., are among those who have been in the city during the week.

R. M. MCINTIRE.

CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS.

At a little after dark last night, the wife of Col. D. Klein, on Tenth, between Mulberry and Walnut streets, came out of the kitchen and started to enter the house, when a pistol was discharged, the ball of which struck her in the throat near the carotid artery. She ran into the house screaming that she was shot, when Mr. Hodges, who rents a room in the house, went out to see if he could ascertain who fired the pistol. A colored man by the name of Philpot, who lives next door, stated that he came out of his house with a pistol in his hand and acknowledged that it was his pistol which did the shooting, but that it was discharged accidentally. Medical attendance was summoned to Mrs. Klein's relief, who pronounced the wound not dangerous, it being merely a slight flesh wound. The ball has not yet been removed, although it can be felt at any time as it lies just under the skin of her neck.

WORTHILY BESTOWED.

Mr. T. M. Emerson, of this city, General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, has also, we are pleased to learn, been appointed to the same position on the Georgetown & Lanes R. R., a new road, about 40 miles in length, which runs from Georgetown to Lanes, where it connects with the North Eastern R. R. Mr. A. J. Twiggs is the President of the new road.

Mr. Emerson will, we understand, accept this position as it will not interfere with the duties of his present office. The compliment is a very handsome one and one which is certainly most worthily bestowed. Mr. Emerson will manage the freight and passenger business on nine roads, located in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina.

At the Western Asylum.

It is Dr. J. M. Hartsfield of whom we spoke in our last issue, instead of Mr. Hartsfield, which the type made for by the substitution of one letter. Dr. Hartsfield is the son of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. A. A. Hartsfield, and fills the responsible position of Assistant Surgeon at the Western Insane Asylum at Morganton, of which Dr. P. L. Murphy, also formerly of this city, is the Superintendent. Both of these gentlemen, we are happy to say, are friends and subscribers to the DAILY REVIEW.
