Mr. Nye, the funny editor of Laramie, W. T., has a $20,000 libel suit to joke about.

Sir Frederick Goldsmid, the African explorer, has arrived in Lisbon from Loanda.

Mrs. Caroline C. Moore has given as a Christmas present to Buffalo charities $10,000 in money.

Henry Ward Beecher having abolished hell in theology to his own satisfaction, now proposes to abolish protection in politics.

Illinois politicians will go for Logan for President in order that they may more efficiently go for his seat in the Senate, which will be vacant in 1885. They all want to be Senators.

Mr. Longfellow is corrected for saying "In the world a man must be either autil or hammer" by the Christian Advocate, on the ground that lots of men are nothing but bellows.

Mr. Keene played "Julius Caesar" in Macon, Ga. the other night and during the performance the "supes" struck for more pay. Then Cassius, after waiting a good while for the soldiers, went on and killed himself.

The Prince of Wales sent his eldest son off to Cambridge because he fell in love with beautiful Miss Chamberlain. The Prince believes in protection for home industries, and will not tolerate anything like competition in his field of labor.

Dr. Peabody, in his article in the Atlantic Monthly on the "Study of Greek," gives Charles Francis Adams, Jr., a queer job in the ribs. Mr. Peabody holds that the only "failure" that can be conceived of in the history of the Adams family "is their failure to become a race of hereditary monarchs."

Clement A. Evans, one of the most versatile of Georgians, is to become President of the new Cotton Compress Company at Augusta. No general ever fought harder than Mr. Evans, and he was a successful clergyman also, but Apptomax ended his fighting and he has quit the pulpit because of ill health.

The Philadelphia Record holds that "the business men of the country do not care to rap which party passes laws for the reduction of taxation. But they want the taxes reduced by such process as shall afford the greatest relief to the pockets of the people, and this thing they will take measures to bring about."

The claims of some Virginia "loyalists" for crops and timber destroyed during the war, which were referred to the Attorney General by the Treasury Department, have been returned to that department with the endorsement that they cannot be paid until certain questions have been decided by the Supreme Court.

The observatory on the summit of Ben Nevis is now in full working order, and the manager and his assistants are comfortably housed for the winter. The last of the stores were conveyed to the top of the mountain with the utmost difficulty, through snow which in some places was fourteen feet deep.

The Pope has created Archbishop Gibbons delegate apostolic to preside at the Catholic Council to be held in Baltimore in November, 1884. The report that Mgr. Seppiacci is to go out to America to preside at the National Council is, therefore, incorrect. Archbishop Gibbons will virtually, though not nominally, hold the rank of Papal legate.

Several hundred gentlemen attended Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt's art reception. Mr. Vanderbilt and Dr. Webb, his son-in-law, received the guests. The more recent additions to the collection of paintings consist of some fifteen oil paintings and five water colors, the former, in the main, works of great importance.

An impression prevail in Catholic circles that Dr. Francis Silas Chatard, bishop of Vincennes, Indiana, will be made archbishop of Philadelphia within the next six months. He was for many years rector of the American college at Rome, and is said to be the most scholarly clergyman of his church in the United States.

Organizer of Victory. General Rufus Ingalls, Quartermaster General, considers St. Jacobs Oil the best pain-cure for sprains and bruises ever used.

Mr. W. R. Morrison, of Illinois, has Presidential aspirations. His State is safe for from 40,000 to 50,000 Republican majority.

Gen. Longstreet has no more success in wrestling with cotton futures than with the Democratic party. Judgment of $4,500 against him, in "a fictitious purchase and sale of cotton through a broker" was one of his Christmas gifts.

Good time now to swear off again. The old year has but three days more of life left.

The pop of the fire-cracker is no longer heard in the land.

There was no case before the City Court this morning.

We hear of several business changes in contemplation for the new year.

Clarendon Council, No. 67, A. L. of Honor, will meet to-night, at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Bridemaids must now dress all in one color, pale rose being the favorite hue.

Gloves in shades of brown and tan are worn now with all sorts of dresses.

The marriage bell is now displaced for the floral umbrella at fashionable marriages.

There was quite a gale of wind last night, and the thermometer fell rapidly after midnight.

Christmas is a good thing in its way but there are a great many sins committed in its name.

The storm signal was continued up during the night and the way the wind blew was a caution to many.

Steamboatmen report a rise of about four feet in the Cape Fear when they left Fayetteville yesterday morning and the water still slowly on the increase.

Under the bracing atmosphere of today the mud of yesterday, which made the streets almost impassable, has been rapidly dried up and good walking is now possible.

There are less strange faces to be seen on the streets than there were a few days ago, many who came to pass Christmas with relatives having returned to their homes.

The sale of selected bananas will be continued to-morrow at Mr. John R. Turrentine's office. This fruit is beautiful, fully ripe and sold to day at what we consider low prices.

"As the days begin to lengthen the cold begins to strengthen." It is an old adage, but it has been well verified this year, for, although the days are not perceptibly longer, they are perceptibly colder.

The Union Meeting of the Eastern Baptist Association was held at Warsaw, Duplin county, to-day. Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of the First Baptist Church in this city, left on this morning's train to be in attendance.

Three white and one colored tramps applied at police headquarters last night for lodgings. They were accommodated and sent on their wanderings this morning, with a caution to obtain work or leave the city within 24 hours.

Col. T. C. Tryon, representing the Alice Oates Opera Company, paid us a pleasant call this morning. He is a clever gentleman as might be presumed, for, although a native of Mississippi, he is a lineal descendant of the old family of Tryons, of North Carolina.

Every one has a will and a mind to think for himself, yet many will go about hacking and coughing until a friend recommends Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for that cough.

A Runaway.

On Wednesday morning the horse of Mr. A. C. Wessell, which was attached to a buggy in which was a young girl and a little child, got frightened at something and started to run, but before it fairly got under headway a colored barber by the name of Nash jumped from the sidewalk and stopped the animal. It was fortunate that he was present at the time, as undoubtedly his prompt action saved the team and its occupants from a serious accident.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at J. A. Conr's Hardware Depot

There was but little doing among the brokers on the wharf to-day.

Who has seen the new comet? We have tried but could not come it.

The receipts of spirits turpentine have been very light during the past week, but resin has arrived in good quantity.

The sale of Jamaica bananas, by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, will be continued to-morrow morning at the Custom House wharf.

The red sky in the afternoon still continues as an attractive feature of the closing day. It is peculiarly appropriate to the Christmas tide.

Ger brig Hermann Friedrich, Niejahr, cleared to-day for Amsterdam with 1,125 bales cotton, valued at $51,000, shipped by Messrs Alex Sprunt & Son.

The regular Christmas Free Festival at the St. James Mission House in this city takes place this afternoon and many young hearts will be made happy thereby.

Electra.

The January number of Electra, the magazine issued at Louisville, Ky., and designed especially for young people, is at hand. The number opens the new year in excellent style and with a very attractive table of contents. It is edited by ladies and is one of the best publications of the day to be placed before the young of both sexes. Published at Louisville, Ky., at $2 a year.

The Wadesboro Times.

Mr. George N. Harris, of this city, has accepted a position on the staff of the Wadesboro Times, of which Mr. R. H. Cowan is the editor and proprietor, and will hereafter be known as the Associate Editor of the paper. He will take hold on Tuesday next, January 1st, and will shortly remove his family to Wadesboro. Some marked improvements are to be made in the Times, which is already the best newspaper published in the Pee Dee section.

Lake Waccamaw.

Col. H. B. Short, of Lake Waccamaw (nee Flemington) was in the city to-day and gave us the pleasure of a call. He informs us that the name of the town of Flemington has been changed to Lake Waccamaw, and the name of the postoffice and railroad station has also been changed to correspond to the name of the town. This we think is right and proper, and we have often wondered that a town lying right alongside such a beautiful sheet of water should not have received the same name.

Improved Order of Red Men.

At a regular meeting held by Cherokee Tribe, No. 9, the following chiefs were elected for the ensuing year: V. P.—H. H. Wabse. S.—George W. Mitchell. S. S.—Charles Craig. J. S.—O. H. Kennedy, C. of R.—George Zeigler. K. of W.—J. D. H. Klender. The above chiefs, together with the appointed chiefs, will be installed on the Sleep of the Second Sun, Cold Moon, G. S. D., 393, by V. G. Inchoonee George Zeigler, with the assistance of P. S. S., James J. Dray.

Alice Oates

Regarding this noted actress and her company, who are to appear at the Opera House in this city on Monday and Tuesday nights next in the historical burlesque entitled "The Field of the Cloth of Gold," and "Conrad, the Corsair," the Richmond State, of a recent date, says:—

The Alice Oates Opera Bouffe Company filled the Richmond Theatre last night to its utmost capacity. Mrs. Oates is supported by a well selected company, all of whom are artists in their particular line. The Earl Darnley of Mrs. Oates was rendered with that dash and vivacity which have made her so famous. Miss Adele Leonard, late of the Hiss Opera Company, as Lady Constance de Grey, was repeatedly on cord, as was also the dancing of Miss Mabel Mortimer. The Swiss warblings, by Madame Alvinia Heynoid, of the Germania Theatre, New York, was received with great delight. The King Henry of Mr. Henry Lindley was a splendid piece of comedy acting, as was also the Francis 1st. of Spain, by Mr. Robert Van Osten. The Queen Katharine, of Mr. Frank Drew, was irresistibly laughable. The other characters were well represented.

Church, which is the first of the new conference year. Dr. Bobbitt is the brother-in-law of Mr. Geo. H. Kelly, of this city, and will, we presume, be his guest while in the city.
