The Galveston News is of opinion that Governor Butler may take heart of hope. Every mail reveals further evidence that the cranks are numerous enough to constitute a large third party. No man is better fitted than Mr. Butler to unite them under his bunting.

The sleighing carnival was inaugurated at New York Sunday, and there was a mixture of queer equipages with stylish turnouts. The turnout which excited most comment during the day was that driven by U. S. Grant, Jr. He drove three handsome Arabians, harnessed abreast, and attached to a sleigh of Russian pattern. It was a novelty, and every one turned to watch the gracefully moving grays as they moved handsomely and swiftly along.

The astronomer of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle has finally made up his mind about the cause of the red sunsets, or rather after sunsets. He abandons the meteoric ("cosmic dust") theory as unsatisfactory, and throws the responsibility for the curious and beautiful phenomenon on the enduring sun. The season has been remarkable for sun-storms, he says, and these have actually decomposed the vapors in the upper air, if not the air itself, thereby "producing" a stratum which reflects the sunlight to a high degree.

Having been troubled with a very bad Cough for about two years and having tried almost every cough mixture that was ever made, I have found none that has given me such great relief as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and I earnestly recommend it to all afflicted. BENJ. F. DUGAN, 14 Park Pl., N. Y.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1883. NO. 308

Is Col Wharton J. Green correctly represented when it is said he favors abolishing the tax on whiskey and tobacco? We do not believe he will vote for any such bill as Seale's. We will see.—Morning Star.

Possibly Col. Green will support the admirable bill introduced by Gen. Cox, a synopsis of which we published yesterday and possibly, also, Col. Green is old enough to exercise a little mature judgment for himself in this matter. The people of North Carolina want the odious revenue system abridged or abolished and Col. Green will but do his duty to his constituency if he supports Gen. Cox's bill.

The steam yacht Louise has been put upon the line between this city and Smithville as a freight and passenger boat and will make round trips daily, leaving Smithville at 8 a. m. and Wilmington at 2 p. m.

There is a foolish rumor current on the streets that Miss E. Karrer has made, or is about to make, an assignment. This has annoyed that lady very much and she desires us to say here that there is not the slightest foundation for it and that there is no danger, whatever, of any such thing taking place.

New Year's Ball. Germania Lodge, No. 4, K. of P., will give a grand New Year's Ball at Germania Hall on next Monday night, and it promises to prove an exceptionally pleasant affair. Messrs C. Von Kampen, Marcus Bear, John Gieschen, Jno. Oldenbittel and Jno. W. Gerdis form the committee of arrangements.

Another Steamer. The steamship Vidette has been put on the line between this city and Baltimore, in connection with the Raleigh, and the two will alternate so as to have a weekly line between the two cities. It is gratifying to know that this new enterprise has proved so successful as to call for additional freighting capacity, and we have no doubt that, as the advantages of the line become more fully demonstrated, there will be still further additions demanded.

The Wrong Sort. Last night a valuable horse, belonging to one of the young business men of this city, by some means or other got loose on Front street and went up very quietly to the bulletin board in front of Messrs. Dyers, upon which there was a picture of Alice Oates, and broke down the post upon which it was suspended. It is presumed that the animal was tempted by the name of Oates as suggestive of a good supper, but became disgusted with the kind displayed, and showed his resentment by tearing the picture down so that other horses might not be cheated in like manner.

Personal. Prof. M. C. S. Nobles has returned to the city, having passed the holidays with his friends and relatives at Selma. We acknowledge the pleasure of a call this morning from Capt. Guilford L. Dudley, Private Secretary to Gov. Jarvis, who has been spending the holidays here. We were glad to see him looking so well.

Mr. S. H. Morton, who has been confined to the house for a week past with a rheumatic attack, has, we are glad to see, so far recovered as to be able to ride out to day and attend to some business.

Messrs. W. Crawford, of the house of Simpson, Crawford & Simpson, of New York, Alexander McIsaac and Wm. Lumb, of Boston, are in the city and are the guests of Mr. Wilkin Roddick, of the firm of Brown & Roddick.

Literary. The Magazine of American History for January, 1884, is replete with instruction and is without a rival in its special domain. The number opens with an article from the pen of Mrs. Martha J. Lamb, the editor, entitled, "The Van Rensselaer Manor," superbly illustrated with sketches of the manor house in its palmy days, together with portraits of members of the Van Rensselaer family. Among other contributions are: "The Beginnings of the New England Society of New York," with portraits of its first president and first secretary, by Woolsey Rogers Hopkins; "The Poll Tax in Maryland," by L. V. Wilhelm; "History of the Location of Our National Capital," by Davis Brodhead; The Fourth Chapter of the "Private Intelligence Papers," which are creating so much interest throughout the country, under the editorship of Edward F. DeLancy; and four letters from the family correspondence of Washington, showing how carefully our first President looked after the wardrobe as well as the matrimonial affairs of his niece. Publication office, 30 Lafayette Place, New York City.

A Lucky Oil Speculation. CHICAGO, ILL.—Mr. Peter Van Schaack, one of the leading citizens of Chicago, and a member of the famous "Old Salamander" wholesale, Drug House of Van Schaack, Stevenson & Co., informed a Tribune reporter that a large number of his personal friends, as well as scores of representative men throughout the Northwest, with whom he had conversed upon the subject, had found St. Jacobs Oil a pain-curing and healing remedy of wonderful efficacy. He referred the reporter to prominent members of the City Government, who praised it most highly.

Days length 9 hours and 44 minutes. New moon this morning at 45 minutes past 7 o'clock.

There were no interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 55 minutes past 4 o'clock.

There were seven interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, all adults.

To-day is the anniversary of Mr. Gladstone's birth. He is 74 years old to-day.

Steamboatmen report a rise of five feet in the Cape Fear river at Fayetteville.

There were three interments in Oakdale Cemetery this week, two adults and one child.

This is good solid winter weather, neither too cold for comfort nor too warm for health.

There were no New River oysters in market to-day, an unusual occurrence at this time of year.

The markets were bountifully supplied with all kinds of meats of a good quality this morning.

We are glad to know that Mr. James E. Willson has so far recovered as to be able to be on the streets to-day.

There was a dearth of news at the City Hall this morning. No Court, no traps and no confusion of any sort.

The Register or Deeds issued eight marriage licences this week, three of which were for white and five for colored couples.

The Produce Exchange will be closed for business on Monday and Tuesday next, the members having so voted at their meeting to-day.

Nor. barque Maury, Olsen, cleared to day for Liverpool with 1,887 bales of cotton, valued at $86,203, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the First National Bank of Wilmington will be held at their banking house, in this city, on next Tuesday week, January 8th.

It bids fair to be pleasant weather to-morrow and there will be no good excuse for staying away from church. Sickness and laziness will be the only reasonable excuse that could be offered.

The Sunday School Supper which was given at the City Hall last night, by the children of the First Presbyterian Church was, we are glad to learn, a success in every particular. There was a large attendance, and the children enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content.

Through the courtesy of Rev. F. W. E. Paschou, we have received a copy of a sermon upon "The Personal Relations of Life," preached by him before the graduating class of 1883 of the Marion (Va.) Female College. It was an appropriate discourse for the occasion, replete with good teaching, practical advice and religious sentiment. It is for sale at Heinsberger's.

The Alice Oates Comic Opera. Company will appear in this city on Monday and Tuesday nights next. The Company is composed of a large number of specialty artists of a high order of merit, and the performance promise to be immensely laughable. Of course there will be a crowded house to see Mrs. Oates, who is no stranger to a Wilmington audience, and her splendid company.
