The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 152 bales.

This month has five Tuesdays, five Wednesdays and five Thursdays.

There was a band of music parading the streets last night until a very late hour.

Capt. Walter Coney, formerly of this city, but now of Savannah, arrived here last night on a visit of a few days to relatives and friends.

How our opinion do change as we grow older. In our youth we thought that the stuffing was the best part of a turkey, but now we think that the turkey is the best part of the stuffing. This idea suggested itself to ye local as he was stuffing himself with turkey.

Marriage Licenses.

The Register of Deeds issued 193 marriage licenses during the year ended December 31st, 1883, of which 73 were for white and 120 for colored couples; as against 217 in 1882, of which 81 were for white and 136 for colored couples.

Blooded Stock.

Five blooded horses, one of which it is said has a record of 2.11, passed through here this morning for Thomasville, Ga., where they are sent "for the benefit of their health." The car in which they travel is very comfortably furnished and is padded so that the animals will not be injured in transit. The groom who accompanied them says that the five horses are worth $250,000, but this must be received cum grano salis.

Exports Foreign.

Nor. barque Kerdelia, Petterson, cleared to day for London with 3,785 barrels of rosin, valued at $7,525, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co. Nor. barque Candace, Johannessen, cleared for Fiume, Austria, with 3,610 barrels of rosin, valued at $4,696, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co. Schr. Mary Lord, Lord, cleared for Ponce, P. R., with 283,320 feet of lumber, valued at $3,966.48, shipped by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming; making an aggregate of $16,187.48.

Interments in 1883.

The following have been the interments in the different cemeteries during the year ended Dec. 31st, 1883: Oakdale—67 adults and 30 children, total, 97; Bellevue—21 adults and 23 children, total, 44; Pine Forest—118 adults and 110 children, total, 228, making a grand total of 206 adult, and 162 children; grand aggregate, 368. This does not include the interments in St. Thomas' Cemetery nor those in the Pauper Cemetery, but the entire total will not much, if at all, exceed 400 during the year. This, reckoning the population at 20,000, is 20 to the thousand or one death during the year to every fifty inhabitants. This is a gross estimate, of course, as many of the above recorded deaths were still-born infants.

A Grave Charge.

A young colored man was arrested this morning and taken before U. S. Commissioner McQuigg, on the charge of robbing the U. S. Mails. He was bound over in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the District Court. He gave the bond and was discharged from custody. Some two months ago a check for $25 was sent by a gentleman in this city to B. Altman & Co., in New York. It failed to reach its destination but a few days ago the draft was presented to Altman & Co. by another house in New York, who had just received it from "John Spindell" of Wilmington. Altman & Co. refused to endorse the draft and the matter was at once placed in the hands of the Post-office authorities. The letter which accompanied the check was returned to Wilmington and the case was worked up by Special Agent W. F. Crawford. The handwriting is alleged to be that of the defendant, and hence his arrest.

The young man who is charged with this very grave offence was some few months ago a clerk in the Postoffice here. His family are respectable colored people and stand well in the community, and it is out of regard for them that we yield to the requests which have been made of us and do not, at this time, publish the name.

It always does its duty, says Hon. Wm. F. Cody, (Buffalo Bill), of St. Jacobs Oil. It cures pain.

Point Caswell Ball.

The ball at Point Caswell, which came off, as per announcement, on the 17th ult., was a complete success in every particular. There was a large attendance of old and young and of both sexes. Ladies were present from Bladen, Duplin, Sampson and Pender counties and the gallant young gentlemen vied with each other in showing them the courtesies due their charms and the occasion. The managers were Messrs. O. O. Vollers, Walter Gaylor, James H. Colvin, Colon Moore and W. E. Black, to whose untiring exertions the success of the ball was in a great measure attributed.

Missionary Meeting.

We understand that the several congregations of the Episcopal Church in this city will unite in a meeting in behalf of Missions in the new Diocese of East Carolina, to be held in St. John's Church next Sunday night, January 6th, being the Feast of the Epiphany. The Rectors of St. James', St. Paul's and St. John's will address the meeting, and we trust that the attendance will be full from each Parish and that a zeal may be quickened, which is so necessary to the success of the new Diocese. Wilmington is the strong point of Episcopal influence and wealth in East Carolina, and the Bishop elect should be made to feel that he is to have hearty and substantial support from the Church here. The public are invited.

Conrad the Corsair.

There was a small audience at the Opera House last night, but those who were present had lots of fun. The burlesque was rather stale and insipid, but its dullness was relieved by the introduction of songs, dances and funny sayings which made the entertainment pass off agreeably. The singing of Mrs. Oates and Miss Leonard was excellent and their duets were rendered charmingly. The comic singing of Mr. Henry Lindley was irresistibly laughable, and his appearance was always greeted with rounds of applause. The company was accompanied by their own pianist, who could execute rapidly and make more noise than we ever heard produced from a piano, but who played without a thought of expression, shading or phrasing.

Harbor Master's Report.

During the month of December the arrivals of vessels at this port were as follows: American—steamers, 7—aggregating 5,159 tons; barque, 1—312 tons; schooners, 15—3,767 tons; total, 23 vessels, aggregating 9,238 tons. Foreign—steamer, 1—1,771 tons; barques, 18—7,328 tons; brigs, 2—551 tons; schooners, 2—138 tons; total, 23 vessels, aggregating 9,788 tons; grand total, 46 vessels, aggregating 19,026 tons.

ARRIVALS FOR THE YEAR.

During the year ended December 31st, 1883, the number of vessels arriving at this port was as follows: American—steamers, 69, aggregating 55,575 tons; barques, 6—2,167 tons; brigs, 7—2,249 tons; schooners, 163—42,522 tons; total 244 vessels, aggregating 102,513 tons.

Foreign—steamers, 4, aggregating 6,356 tons; barques, 144—55,938 tons; brigs, 40—10,976 tons; schooners, 9—969 tons; total, 197 vessels, aggregating 74,239 tons, a grand total of 441 vessels, with a grand aggregate of 176,752 tons.

Police Report.

The police made 60 arrests during the month of December just closed, for the following offenses: Affray, 3 white males; 6 colored males, 2 colored females. Committing a nuisance, 1 white male. Disorderly conduct, 5 white males; 20 colored males; 5 colored females. Drunk and down, 6 white males. Failing to list poll tax, 1 white male. Failure to pay license tax, 3 white males, 6 colored males. Fast driving, 1 colored male. Firing a pistol on the street, 1 colored male.

Nationality of prisoners—American, white, 16; colored, 41, Norwegian 1; German, 2.

Applied for lodging, 27 white males; 14 colored males.

Places of business found open at night, 14.

Court fines collected for the month, $56.75. Pound fees, $19.85.

ARRESTS FOR THE YEAR.

During the year just closed there were 518 arrests by the police of the city, for various offences, of which 215 were white and 303 colored; as against 494 for 1882, of which 196 were white and 298 were colored.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the month of December, just closed, foot up 14,923 bales, as against 25,149 bales in December 1882, a decrease this December of 10,226 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 76,952 bales, as against 90,589 bales to same date last year, a decrease this year of 13,637 bales.

A Contemptible Wretch.

At about 7 o'clock last Saturday night, Mr. John Smith, a blind man, who lives on Ann, between Sixth and Seventh streets, with his wife and daughter, went to supper in the rear of the house, leaving the front door unfastened. After eating her supper, the daughter came out of the dining room and found the door open. She closed and locked it and went into the yard in rear of the house, but returned in a few moments to find the door again open. This, as a matter of course, aroused suspicion, and a search up stairs showed that several trunks and boxes had been broken open, from one of which had been taken $90, that Mr. Smith had been saving for a sacred purpose, and from another $30, which the daughter had earned by industry with her needle. The scoundrel took nothing but the money, but the loss of that was a cruel misfortune to the unfortunate and afflicted old man. We hope that the thief may be detected, convicted and punished to the extent of the penalty prescribed by law.

"Lives of great men always remind us that we are all subject to die," says an exchange, but never cough yourself away as long as you can raise 25 cents for a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.
