El Mahdi, the false prophet, is gaining ground, and the revolt is spreading northward.

The capital required to build the proposed ship canal to Manchester, England, is $8,000,000.

The government of China has ordered the construction of two more torpedo boats at Stettin, Germany.

It is promised that the ice palace to be built at Montreal for the carnival this winter shall be larger than that built last season.

According to advices received in Paris from Saigon, Bac Ninh will not be attacked by the French until General Miot, with reinforcements, has arrived in Tonquin.

A hurricane occurred on the Mexican coast on November 4, which entirely destroyed the town of Altata at the port of that name. Not a house remained standing, and vessels and launches at anchor suffered severely.

The Washington Star declares that "it looks now very much as if Hon. Henry B. Payne will succeed Senator Pendleton. This would be another triumph for Mr. John E. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer."

The boundary dispute between Brazil and French Guinea is to be submitted to arbitration. Brazil, it is said, has chosen the Emperor of Germany as its representative, while France has selected President Arthur.

Mrs. Anna Iron, whose home when a girl was in Bucks county, Pa., was the young woman who buckled the sword of Gen. Houston around that veteran just before the battle of San Jacinto. Her death in Bryan, Texas, was an occurrence of a few days ago.

The Paris correspondent of the London Post states that the French government propose to sell the state railways. It is believed that the Rothschilds, in behalf of certain great railway companies, have offered the government 490,000,000 francs for the lines.

Beside Jablonski, who took part in the murder of Lieut. Col. Sudelkain and his nephew, in St. Petersburg, two men who actually committed the murder have been arrested. Important papers relating to the nihilists have been found at the late residence of Lieut. Col. Sudelkain.

The Mexican government has declared forfeited the concession made to Gen. Grant for a submarine cable connecting Mexico, the United States and Central America, for non-fulfillment of the terms of the concession, no work having been done.

The Epiratu Santo mine in the Isthmus of Darien, which gave millions to the Spaniards, and which was lost for many years, has been rediscovered by a prospecting party sent out by a company. The new owners of the property expect to reap millions from it.

Discussing the Presidential preferences of Ulysses, the Philadelphia Times remarks that "as the country is not asking General Grant what he will do so much as it once did, it may turn out that neither Logan, Arthur, nor the people care whom he is for or whom he is against."

Senator Fair, of Nevada, sent a draft for $5,000 as a Christmas gift to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of San Francisco, Cal. Mr. James C. Flood gave the Catholic Female Orphan Asylum of the same city $1,000, and St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, San Rafael, $1,000, as Christmas gifts.

A musical festival on an extensive scale is projected for Richmond, Va., to take place the first week in May. It is proposed to have a number of great singers, Theodore Thomas's orchestra and a local chorus of 300. If the festival takes place, a share of the proceeds will be given to the Lee Monument Association.

Saturday afternoon a party of seven, six of whom were ex-army officers and the other a well known architect and bridge builder, left New York via the Pennsylvania Railroad for San Francisco, on their way to China. It is understood that these gentlemen have entered the Chinese military service, and that each has in his possession his commission.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 106 bales.

The coldest weather during the last 48 hours was at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, when the thermometer indicated 9 degrees above zero.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank will be held at their banking house in this city, to-morrow morning. The Board of Directors of this Bank have recently declared a dividend of 3 1/2 per cent, payable on and after to-morrow.

Mr. H. S. Taylor, agent for Mr. Joseph Jefferson, is in the city to-day making arrangements for the appearance of that distinguished comedian on Monday next. He gave us the pleasure of a call this forenoon, and we found him an agreeable gentleman, and we would be glad to have him "come again."

Masonic.

The North Carolina Grand Lodge F. & A. M., will convene at Raleigh to-morrow (Tuesday) at 7:30 p. m. Those of the fraternity who will attend from this city, so far as we can learn, are Messrs C. H. Robinson and John W. Perdw, of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, who expect to leave here to-morrow morning.

A Critical Situation.

On Saturday night a colored woman by the name of Mary —, who had worked during the day for Mr. George Honnet, started to go to her home on Thirteenth and Market streets, but had proceeded only a short distance, when, being thinly clad, she was overcome by the cold and leaned against a lamp post, unable to go further. She was discovered and a policeman was called, who assisted her home. Had she remained a short time longer before she was found she would undoubtedly have frozen to death.

Exports Foreign.

Br. steamship Woodside, Jenkins, cleared to-day for Liverpool for 5,020 bales cotton, valued at $226,258, shipped by Messrs D. R. Murchison & Co. Nor. barque Cortez, Aamondsen, cleared to-day for London with 500 casks spirits turpentine and 3,101 barrels rosin, valued at $10,697, shipped by Messrs Paterson, Downing & Co. Br. Sohr. City of Nassau, Kelley, cleared for Nassau, N. P., with 124 barrels flour, 5 boxes meat, 6 terces shoulders, 15 tubs butter, 10 cases lard, 23,566 feet lumber and 35,000 shingles, valued at $1,673 37, shipped by Mr. J. R. Turrentine, making a total value of the shipments $248,698 37.

A Distressing Time.

A number of passengers who were en route from Smithville to Wilmington on Saturday afternoon, on the steamer Minnehaha, had a very disagreeable experience. The boat got ashore near Big Island, in the midst of the blinding snow storm, and there remained until the tide lifted her. There were several gentleman passengers and a lady with several children and the sufferings of the party were very great for a time. There was nothing to eat on board and no wood with which to keep up a fire in the stove, other than barely enough to get up steam, with which to come on to the city. In this extremity the gentlemen divested themselves of their overcoats and with them covered the lady and the children and the ice-box and some articles of furniture were cut up and used for fuel. The party remained there all night and it was a distressing occasion but it was happily relieved when the boat floated with the tide and steam was gotten up and the party brought to the city in safety, arriving here about 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Four Lives Saved.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup relieved four of my children of a most alarming attack of Whooping Cough, from which their throats and necks became so swollen as to prevent them from swallowing. Nothing would give them even temporary relief, until this Syrup was tried. One bottle, in one night, saved their lives. I verily believe.

GEO. W. EARTH, Captain of Police, Baltimore, Md.

City Court.

Alice Hall, colored, who figures prominently in police circles, was before the Mayor this morning, charged with disorderly conduct on Saturday night and was fined $3 for the offense.

Fanny Goro, an old offender, but who has been in her good behavior for some time past, got on the war path Saturday night and was taken in by the police. This morning she was fined $3 for disorderly conduct.

The Missionary Meeting.

In consequence of the very inclement weather there was not as large a congregation present in St. John's Church last night, at the joint missionary meeting held there on that occasion, as was expected when the arrangement was made. The proceedings were, however, very interesting. Rev. Dr. Watson, Bishop-elect of the new diocese, was the principal speaker. His remarks conveyed to his hearers a great deal of information relative to the new diocese, the field for labor and work which is to be prosecuted in that field, and it is needless to say that his remarks were received with the most intense interest by the congregation. Rev. Mr. Ambler of St. Paul's, preached a sermon and Dr. Carmichael, who was suffering from a cold, spoke very briefly.

A Bear Hunter.

Portland (Oreg.) Telegram: Bill Doy, the great bear hunter, had a terrific encounter with a bear and was badly hurt. St. Jacobs Oil gave instant relief.

The Weather!

Please do not say a word to us about the weather. It has evidently been reconstructed on a Northern basis, and we don't like it, but are obliged to accept it, with a left-handed blessing. A few of our neighbors say that it has often been colder in Wilmington than the weather we have had since Saturday night, and we are entirely willing they should think so, but in our opinion it has been colder during the last 48 hours than it has been since Columbus discovered America, and we are bound to stick to this opinion until we get thawed out. This "spell" of weather was introduced to us on Saturday afternoon by the "Beautiful Snow," and it began to grow colder about 5 o'clock on that evening with increasing intensity all through the night. Yesterday morning everything was frozen. During the day it thawed some in Southern exposures where the influence of the bright sun reached, but in shaded places and Northern exposures there was not a particle of thaw, and in fact it froze all day. The cold was such that very few ventured out to attend Divine service, and the churches were comparatively empty. Fortunately there was but little wind, or the weather would have been unbearable. During last night it moderated a little, but this morning was not warm enough for fans and ice cream. The cold came so sudden and unexpected that we fear there has been much of suffering among a great many. It has been terribly cold, and it would not be strange if some were caught unprepared for such inclement weather, although we hope that nothing of a serious nature has befallen the dwellers in our Southland.

This weather is unfortunate, inasmuch as it has put our reputation in jeopardy. We have been telling the people of the North very pleasant things about the mildness and salubrity of our climate, when in fact one needs to put on an overcoat and gloves to drink a cup of coffee.

Joseph Jefferson

This celebrated comedian, one of Wilmington's greatest favorites, will appear at the Opera House in this city on the night of Monday, the 14th inst. The play will be the "Rivals" in which Mr. Jefferson will appear as Bob Acres. Of the play and the cast the Philadelphia Ledger says:

Sheridan's famous play of "The Rivals" was the attraction at Arch Street last night and the fact that two such artists as Mr. Joseph Jefferson and Mrs. John Drew were included in the cast proved a powerful attraction. Mrs. Drew appeared as Mrs. Malaprop. Mr. Jefferson as Bob Acres. Mr. Frederick Robinson as Sir Anthony Absolute, Mr. R. S. Downing as Captain Absolute, Mr. Chas. Plunkett as Sir Lucius O'Trigger, Miss Rosa Rand as Lydia Languish, H. F. Taylor as Falkland, Mr. Thomas Jefferson as Fag, Mr. P. Shelley as David, and Miss Lillie Lee as Lucy. The play was admirably presented, the principal features being the capital acting of Mr. Jefferson in the celebrated challenge and duel scenes, and the quaint orthographical eccentricities perpetrated by Mrs. Drew as Mrs. Malaprop. The Sir Lucius of Waverly and the Lydia of Miss Rand were also admirable performances, while all the minor parts were well sustained.
