WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15th, 1880. -Having been a sufferer for a long time from nervous prostration and general debility, I was advised to try Hop Bitters. I have taken one bottle, and I have been rapidly getting better ever since, and I think it the best medicine I ever used. I am now gaining strength and appetite, which was all gone, and I was in despair until I tried your Bitters. I am now well, able to go about and do my own work. Before taking it, I was completely prostrated.

Collection of Cats.

In 1839 there came to Hawkinsville from Charleston, S. C., two well-dress ed gentlemen. One of them was very stingy and close, the other was the reverse, liberal and free with his money and the greatest lover of fun I had eyer Two weeks before Christmas he caused to be printed a number of handbills as follows:

WANTED-200 CATS TO EXPORT TO London, as the rats are about to undermine the great city. I want them delivered here on Christmas day.

From all points of the compass came negroes with sacks and wallets of cats. They hung them on the shade treses, on fences, in fact, look where you might, and a sack of cats greeted you. Fifty cents for grown cats, twenty five cents tor half-grown and ten cents for kittens had been offered. The bad boys about town (myself one of them) began, at a the cats. Of course a great many dogs were in town, and the fur flew. About II o'clock an old man, named Barney Williams, living near Hartford, came across the river with an ox cart, minus the body, but an eight by ten long, square basket, filled with cats of all ages, colors, sexes and sizes. He stopped in front of Bos hanon's Hotel. After a short search he found the man who wanted the cats, who appeared very anxious to secure the lot and, trying to peer into the basket, he cut the rope holding the quilt covering to the basket and out flew the cats, about forty. They went pell-mell under the houses, into the bushes and every conceivable place to hide. The old man Williams was very Sufferers from Youthful Imprudence borhood. NEW YORK, 1884. About sixty million coples of THE SUN have cone out of our establishment during the past welve months. If you were to paste end to end all the col-umns of all THE SUNS printed and sold last year you would get a continuous strip of interesting information, common sense wisdom, sound doctrire, and sane wit, long enough to reach from Printing House square to the top of Mount Copernicus in the moon, then back to Printing House square, and then three-quar ters of the way back to the moon again. But THE SUN is Written for the inhabitants of the earth; this same strip of intelligence would girdle the globe twenty seven or tweny-eight times. If every buyer of a copy of THE SUS during the past year has spent only one hour over it, and if his wife or his grandfather has spent another hour, this newspaper in 1883 has afforded the human race thirteen thousand years of steady reading, night and day.

It is only by little calculations like these that you can form any idea of the circulation of the most popular of American newspapers, or of its influence on the opinions and actions of American men and women. THE SUN is, and will continue to be, a news paper which tells the truth without fear of consequences, which gets at the facts no mater how much the process costs, which pre sents the news of all the world without waste of words and in the most readable shape, which is working with all its heart for the cause of honest government, and which there fore believes that the Republican party must Lord, 1884.
