North Carolina 4 per cent bonds are quoted in New York at 82 cents on the dollar.
 The L'Arioso Pleasure Club have their German at Germania Hall this evening.

We have been blessed with tip-top North Carolina weather to-day, for which we hope everyone is duly thankful.

There is plenty of mud and slosh everywhere now, but for pure, unadulterated, well-mixed mud, Chestnut street, between Second and Third, will take the cake.

The children, happy under the influence of the genial sun, were in the streets in crowds this afternoon and added to the cheerfulness which almost everywhere prevailed.

Albert Green, colored, was before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct, but at the request of the defendant the hearing in the case was postponed until Thursday, the 31st inst.

"Twelfth Night," with Modjeska, tomorrow night and "A Bunch of Keys" on Thursday night, after which there is no engagement at the Opera House until Feb. 7th, when Bartley Campbell's celebrated play of "The White Slave" will be presented.

Our thanks are due to an esteemed correspondent and subscriber for an account of the recent festival at Burgaw, in aid of the Presbyterian Church of that town. He had, however, been anticipated by a friend who was present and our report published before his letter reached us.

Exports Foreign.
 Nor. barquentine Ruina, Lundegaard, cleared to-day for Rotterdam with 1823 barrels of rosie, valued at $3,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son. Schr. D B Everett, Melain, cleared for Barbadoes, W. I., with 128 3/4 feet of lumber and 157,000 shingles, valued at $3,281.05, shipped by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming; making an aggregate value of exports for the day of $6,881.05.

Minnie Hawk.
 This superb vocalist, with her company, will attend the New Orleans Mardi Gras, and will pass through Goldsboro for that city on or about Feb. 12th. An effort is being made to have them stop and give an entertainment at Goldsboro and we hope, that our friends in the latter city may be successful for they would enjoy a rare musical treat. And why may we not get her to come again to Wilmington? She would receive a reception from our music-loving people, equal if not superior to the corpal greeting extended by our people on the occasion of her recent visit here. We hope an effort will be made to secure her for a night at the Opera House, providing it may not interfere with other attractions which will occupy the boards at that time.

A Stingy Man.
 Here is an item, which we clip from the Statesville Landmark, which is not only interesting in itself, but which betrays the fact of the continued existence of one whom many of our readers once knew well and whom all esteemed, and who we thought had long since passed over the river:

Mr. J. N. Andrews was making some change in the Landmark office, a few days ago, and fished out of his purse one-half of one of those big old copper cent pieces and told the history of it. Before the war, when he was a colporteur and lived in Wilmington, he offered, one day, to sell a man a book the price of which was 65 cents. The man wanted it for 60 cents but Mr. Andrews would not come down. Finally the bargainer offered him 63 cents for it and Mr. Andrews told him he could have it at that if he would make the change. The fellow paid him 63 cents and then got a cold chisel and cut a copper cent in two, giving one half of it to the colporteur; and keeping the other half—the larger half, by the way—for himself. Mr. Andrews has held on to his half ever since and always will.

A Great Traveller.
 BALTIMORE, Md.—Hon. George Colton, Police Commissioner, writes:—Wherever I have travelled, in England, France, Germany, Egypt or the Holy Land, St. Jacobs Oil is recognized as a blessing to humanity.

Dr. Milburn at Burgaw.

We understand that Rev. Dr. Milburn will lecture at Burgaw on next Saturday and Monday. Subjects: "What a Blind Man Saw in England" for Saturday and either "Stonewall Jackson" or "Aaron Burr" on Monday. The lectures will take place during the day, beginning at 12 o'clock. Full houses on both occasions are confidently expected.

Superior Court.

In the case of J. I. Metts vs. W. P. Oldham, which was on trial when our report closed yesterday, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant.

A Distinguished Visitor.

Hon. John P. Linton, of Pennsylvania, Supreme Chancellor of the Order of Knights of Pythias, is expected to arrive in this city on Thursday morning next. Stonewall Lodge, No. 1, and Germania Lodge, No. 4, K. of P., of this city, have appointed a committee, consisting of five from each Lodge, to make preparations for his reception here, and they will hold a joint meeting to-night for the purpose of perfecting the arrangements. He will remain here during the day and will be the guest of the Order while here. Hence he will go to Charleston, S. C., leaving here on Friday morning to meet his appointment there on Saturday next.

Distinguished Strangers.

Hon. R. T. Lincoln, Secretary of War, accompanied by Genis. Wright and Park and Col. Craighill, of the Engineer Department of the U. S. Army, arrived in the city this morning from Washington. They were met at the depot by Capt. Pennypacker, Sheriff Manning, and Hon. A. H. VanBokkelen, who conducted the distinguished party to the U. S. Steamer Woodbury, which was in waiting at the railroad wharf to receive them, and proceeded directly down the river on a tour of inspection of the works on the lower Cape Fear and at the bar. They are expected to return to-night and proceed on to night's train to Washington, making no stop in the city.

A Prosperous Life Insurance Company.

The attention of our readers is directed to the annual statement of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, presented in another column. This great institution now has assets amounting to $101,148,248.25, and a surplus of more than $12,000,000. It paid on policies last year $13,959,360.51, a considerable portion of which went directly to widows and orphans, in many instances redeeming houses from absolute desolation. The Mutual differs from most other Life Companies in that it never encourages speculation in insurance, and never solicits the insured to take a larger policy than he can afford to carry. It does believe in moderate policies, however, and its aim is to persuade business men to set apart a small share of their profits yearly to provide for their families in the event of death or financial disaster. The report will repay perusal.

Salt for Medicine.

The Shaker Manifesto has the following: "Half a teaspoonful of common table salt dissolved in a little cold water and drank, will instantly relieve heartburn or dyspepsia. If taken every morning before breakfast, increasing the quantity gradually to a teaspoonful to a glass of water, it will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia, if at the same time due attention is paid to the diet. There is no better remedy than the above for constipation; no better gargle for sore throat. It is equal to chlorate of potash, and is entirely safe. It may be used as often as desired, and if a little is swallowed each time it will have a beneficial effect on the throat by cleansing it and allaying the irritation. In doses of one to four teaspoonfuls in half a pint to a pint of water it acts promptly as an emetic, and in cases of poisoning it is always at hand. It is an excellent remedy for bites and stings of insects. It is a valuable astringent for hemorrhages, particularly for bleeding after the extraction of a tooth. It has both cleansing and healing properties. It is, therefore, a most excellent application for superficial ulceration."

We Feel Thankful!

That our efforts to place before our patrons the best goods for the least money are appreciated!

OUR GREAT SUCCESS

We attribute largely to the splendid bargains we have been and still are able to give our customers. It appears that our extremely low prices have caused the impression that there is something mysterious about our system of doing business. A few words will clear away the mystery. We sell low because our system of buying enables us to procure the largest bulk of goods lower than can be manufactured; next, the low expense in proportion to the vast amount of business we do allows us to sell at a very small trifling above what the goods cost. Our system is very simple, and these words explain all. We wish the public to understand that we do not advertise goods in a fictitious way, telling you that our goods are worth double what we ask for them; but we claim what we do and do what we claim; and we do most decidedly claim that the goods we are offering are below the prices asked elsewhere. If you purchase any goods from us and don't find that they are in every particular as represented, bring them back and we will refund the money.

OUR OVERCOATS

We can suit all and offer bargains that cannot be had elsewhere; in order to rush them off quickly, we have cut down prices to the lowest point. At these reduced prices it will pay to buy them for next Winter's wear. Call at once at
