GEO. E. FRENCH & SONS—A Timely Suggestion

We gain this month 57 minutes of daylight.

The price of eggs still continues at 30 cents per dozen.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 144 bales.

There were no cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning.

Tolerably good ash wood could be bought from the flats to-day at $3 per cord.

Steamboatmen report that there is plenty of water in the Cape Fear, but that it is subsiding slowly.

This month has five Fridays, contrary to its usual custom, there being a day added to the month this year.

The brisk breeze of yesterday afternoon and the early hours of last night, blew up a rain for this morning.

Schrs. Lizac B. Morse, Hall, and Sylvanus G. Haskell, Haskell, sailed from Perth Amboy, Jan. 30th, for this port.

The rock throwing nuisance seems to be unabated, and it will probably continue until some one will be seriously injured.

Nor. barque Telemach, Anderson, cleared to-day for London with 4,605 barrels of rosin, valued at $8,500 shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son.

Bartley Campbell's play of "The White Slave" is the next attraction at the Opera House. It will be presented here on the night of Thursday, the 7th inst.

There is unmailable matter in the Postoffice in this city addressed to Mrs. Rebecca Read, Wayne county, N. C. and a plaid woollen shawl addressed to Eliza Grand.

After a few light showers early this morning, the sun came out beautifully and dried up the mud so that people could walk the streets with comfort; and they very generally improved the opportunity.

We met a man on our streets yesterday whom we had not seen for a number of years. When asked how he had prospered, he said that he had been "fortunate" in some things and "unfortunate" in others, and we guess it was so.

In connection with the new arrangements and enlargement of the Hotel Brunswick at Smithville, there is talk of having a new steamer schedule to carry down passengers at night and bring them back in the morning for the accommodation of our business men whose families resort to the seaside during the hot months.

Cotton.
The receipts of cotton at this port for the month ended Jan. 31st, foot up 6,577 bales, as against 13,921 bales for Jan. 1883; a decrease of 7,344 bales.—The receipts for the crop year to date foot up 82,529 bales as against 104,510 bales to same date last year, a decrease this year of 20,981 bales.

Superior Court.
The case of Rebecca Ann Hobbs, T. E. Hobbs and A. J. Deal et als vs. John E. Wood, E. F. Wood and Sophia M. Blossom et als, was given to the jury at about 8 o'clock last night and a verdict had not been returned when our report closed this afternoon, the jury having been out all night and all day. This morning the motion docket was taken up and disposed of, after which the Court adjourned.

A Pleasant Time.
The pupils of Smithville Academy held an entertainment at the Court House in that town last night which was a very enjoyable and interesting affair. It was under the management of Prof. W. J. Scroggs, the principal of the academy, and consisted of dialogues, speeches and vocal and instrumental music, in each of which the pupils acquitted themselves very creditably.—The hall was crowded with parents and friends of the pupils and by the citizens generally, who were much pleased with the entertainment.

A Frightful Collision.
NEW YORK.—The valuable trotting horse, "Jim Sands," was run into in a race, sustaining severe bruises, and lameness. His owner, Mr. Noble Thompson, of the well known Stables, 1333 Broadway, states that he placed the animal under the care of a veterinary surgeon, who in three months failed to benefit him. Treatment with St. Jacobs Oil, was then begun, and the horse not only entirely recovered but was enabled to trot mile heats in 2:11. Mr. Thompson regards the Oil, as the pain-cure of the age.

Good Prices.

Peanuts are booming and the farmers of Pender county and others interested in the growth of this important farm product are as happy as they can be.—Prices have been quite low and last season's crop was rather short, which causes have had a depressing effect upon the planters, but the present rise has made them exceedingly good natured, and we rejoice with them in their prosperity and hope for them an abundance of success in the future.

The Supreme Chancellor

Hon. John P. Linton, of Pennsylvania, Supreme Chancellor of the order of Knights of Pythias, arrived in the city yesterday morning and was met at the depot by several members of the two lodges of the Order of this city. He was entertained by Mr. Thomas D. Meares and during the day was taken to the Sound. Last night a sociable was held at Germania Hall at which he was an honored guest, and in which both lodges participated. The distinguished Knight left this morning for Florence, S. C., but before leaving expressed himself as much delighted with our climate and people.

Death of a Good Man.

We are pained to learn of the death of Richard C. Holmes, Esq., which occurred at his residence in Clinton, Sampson county, on the 28th ult. Mr. Holmes was 82 years of age and for many years was one of the leading citizens, and one whose prominence and influence were felt and appreciated throughout the entire county. He was for many years chairman of the County Court, and in later years he was one of the Justices of the Peace. He and his wife had lived together 60 years, the widow surviving him. In all the relations of life Mr. Holmes was a man of undoubted integrity and sterling worth and as such had the entire confidence of all who had the good fortune to share in his acquaintance. A good man has departed.

Literary.

The January and February number (combined) of the Southern Historical Society Papers has been received and is one of the best and most interesting we have seen of that valuable magazine. The subjects treated are as follows: "Campaigns of General Bragg," by Maj. Sykes; "Letters from Fort Sumter," by Lieut. Ireddell Jones; "Organization of the Army of Northern Virginia, August 31st 1864;" "A Northern Opinion of Grant's Generalship;" "Diary of Rev. J. G. Law;" "Flag Presentation to the Washington Artillery—Judge Roman;" "Reminiscences of the Last Campaign of the Army of Tennessee," by Rev. F. D. Stephenson; "Capture of the Confederate Steamer Florida," by the U. S. Steamer Wachusett—Report of Lt. T. K. Porter;" "Correction as to the Composition of Reynolds' Brigade—Correspondence between Maj. Sykes and Governor Porter;" "Story of the Arkansas," by George W. Gilt, besides a large number of other papers of importance as matters of history.

Bunch of Keys.

There was not, we are sorry to say, a large audience at the Opera House last night, but those who were present had lots of fun in witnessing the performance of the above side-splitting farce. The play was designed simply to make fun and laughter and as such the authors achieved success, and the management were no less fortunate in the selection of a company in every way suited to its proper performance. Miss Flora Moore, the leading lady, is a most superb soubrette actress and carried her part with a vim and spirit which made the house ring with uproarious laughter. Her support was all that could be desired, and Mr. W. C. Crosbil, as Littleton Snags, was excellent and did his full share in keeping the house convulsed with laughter. The singing was very fine and the dancing was good. If there is any merit in good, healthy, innocent fun, the "Bunch of Keys" Company deserve unlimited patronage. We hope they will visit our city again, when we feel confident that they will have a good house.

Correction.

We learn from Mr. J. Sternberger, whose store caught fire on Wednesday night, that he closed up at about 9 o'clock, and not at about 11 o'clock, as we stated yesterday. He was in bed at 10 o'clock. We probably misunderstood our informant, in the haste of making up our report.

Fatal Accident.

A friend and subscriber at Florence, S. C. informs us that on Saturday last, Mr. Joseph Weeks, son of Mr. B. C. Weeks, of Piney Grove township, Sampson county, N. C., and his cousin, Mr. James Carr, were out gunning near Florence, when the gun of the latter was accidentally discharged, the entire load entering the body of Weeks, just above the right hip, from the effects of which he died in about 12 hours. His remains were brought to North Carolina for interment in his native county.

Personal.

Mr. Geo. N. Harris, of the Wadesboro Times, is in the city to-day.

Mr. Henry A. London, of the Chatham Record, arrived in the city this morning, via the C. C. R. R., on a very brief business visit.

We were glad to shake hands this morning with our good friend, Thos. A. Darby Esq., who is here with his family on a brief visit. He intended stopping here for a week but is unexpectedly obliged to leave to-night for New York.

Rev. Dr. Milburn came down last night on the C. C. R. R. from Shoe Heel. He lectured in Lumberton on Wednesday and at Shoe Heel on Thursday and goes hence to Burgaw, where he will lecture to-morrow, preach on Sunday and lecture again on Monday.

Capt. John T. Patrick, State Immigration Agent also arrived, here this morning. He comes to Wilmington to make some arrangements in regard to the arrival of the Scotch crofters. They sailed from Liverpool on the 20th inst. Capt. Patrick tells us, and they have not yet arrived in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stevenson returned this morning from Charlotte where they had been to consult Dr. Graham in reference to Mr. Stevenson's eyes. We are glad to know that he was materially benefited by the visit and trust that the afflicted member may soon be entirely restored.

Our reporter was misinformed as to the proposed removal of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Gleaves from this city with the intention of returning to England and we regret the erroneous statement. Mrs. Gleaves hopes to pay a visit to her relatives in England and will probably remain with them two or three months, but Mr. Gleaves will remain here, and we are glad to state that they have no idea of removing their place of residence from Wilmington.

Interesting to Fishermen: The celebrated "Fish" Brand Gilling thread is sold only at JACONET'S. He is the Importer's Agent.

New Cigar Factory.
Mr. I. Hirschberg, the well-known cigar maker of this city, has opened a factory for the manufacture of cigars on the third floor of the Merchison block, on North Front street. He has now five hands at work and has recently returned from New York where he engaged as many more, who will be here next week, and made large and carefully selected purchases of material. He tells us that he already has orders ahead.

If you need a real good first class cooking stove, don't fail to see the Excelsior Penn., Zeb. Vance and New Emerald, besides others. They are to be found at factory prices at JACONET'S, who is the manufacturers' agent.
