Schooner Anthea, Godfrey, from New York for this port, sailed from Delaware Breakwater February 10th.

We have had showers for two consecutive mornings, after which it has cleared off and become pleasant.

The condition of Mr. C. N. Collins, the wounded engineer, continues to improve and it is thought that he is now convalescent.

Samuel Merrick and Elias Smith, both colored and both charged with disorderly conduct, were brought before the Mayor this morning, who imposed a fine of $3 in each case for the offense.

The question arises, are the palmetto trees recently set out in front of the Opera House palmetto trees after all, or are they merely palmetto shrubs? We may be wrong but we incline to the latter opinion.

The folks at Taylor's Bazaar tell us that the lot of cheap gloves advertised by them a few issues since in the REVIEW have already been sold out. So much for advertising in the REVIEW. Mr. Taylor has another attractive ad. in this issue.

Personal.
Mr. J. R. McCann, brother of Mr. J. M. McCann, at the Signal Office, arrived in the city this morning with the W. J. Scanlan troupe, of which he is a member.

Dinner Up Among the Clouds.
WHITE MOUNTAINS, N. H.—A. T. Barron, of the renowned Twin Mountain House and Faban House, who employs one hundred and fifty horses, accords his preference to St. Jacobs Oil over all other medicines, as a cure for pain in man or beast.

Art Entertainment.
Of the entertainment to be given at the Opera House on the nights of the 18th and 19th inst., the Cumberland (Md.) Daily Times says:
The art entertainment given at the Academy of Music last night by Mr. Caughy, in the interest of the Kingsley M. E. Church, of this city, was witnessed by a large audience. The views were very fine, and the instrument was managed with skillful promptness, producing admirable effects in scene changes.

The New Diocese.
Three of the five members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of East Carolina met here yesterday. Those were Rev. J. C. Huske, D. D., of Fayetteville, chairman of the committee, Rev. T. M. Ambler, of Wilmington, and Dr. A. J. DeRosset, of Wilmington, secretary of the committee.

The meeting was for the purpose of receiving, officially, the replies which had been received from the standing committee of other dioceses relative to Dr. Watson's election as Bishop of the new diocese. These replies were from 34 out of the 48 dioceses in the United States and all were in the affirmative, thus making two more than the necessary two-thirds. The next step by the committee was to send off the credentials of the bishop-elect to the venerable Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, the Presiding Bishop of the Church in the United States, and Bishop Smith will submit it to the other bishops. When their approval is obtained (of which there is no doubt) and Bishop Smith is again heard from the necessary steps will be taken towards Dr. Watson's consecration. At one time it was thought that this would take place next month but it is now probable that it will not be until April, perhaps early in the month.

Silver Plated Spoons, Forks and Knives of best quality, and at manufacturer's prices, can be found at Jacob's Hardware Depot.
Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

Wonderful!

It is wonderful how the fast mail schedule on the Atlantic Coast Line annihilates space and distance. A man may now take breakfast in New York (a very early breakfast though) dinner in Richmond and supper in Wilmington. But something that seems more wonderful still than this is the fact that a few days since a party in this city received a letter at breakfast time that was dated and written in Charleston on the same day—that is, it was written after 12 o'clock at night and sent off by the midnight train from Charleston.

The City Hospital.

We took occasion a day or two since to visit the City Hospital, and regretted that we had not been there before. The situation is the best that could possibly have been secured within the city limits, the grounds are spacious, for the convenience and use of convalescents and there is about the entire establishment an air of comfortable retirement especially adapted to the sick. The buildings are roomy, but quite a number of alterations are needed to make them as convenient and comfortable as is desirable. These changes will soon be effected, and then the city hospital will be the equal of any of its kind.

Railroad Tickets.

A new kind of railroad tickets has been brought into use by some of the leading roads of the North and there is a fair prospect that it will be generally adopted, as the system works well and has received the endorsement of passengers, agents and travellers. The system is best explained by taking the Grand Trunk road as an example.—That road prints a book of tickets containing 1,000 or 500 or 50 tickets on a page, each ticket good for one mile.—These tickets are smaller than postage stamps, twenty on a sheet, and perforated. You can buy two, twenty or a thousand of them at a fixed rate and the company is bound to accept one of them for every mile you travel on that road. You are not required to tell the ticket seller where you intend to go, but secure tickets for one hundred miles, or a thousand miles, or twenty miles, or two miles, just as you may desire, and give the conductor enough of the squares to carry you to your destination. There is no such thing as lay-over tickets or trouble in getting tickets changed, or loss on through tickets not used, and the road is duly protected from scalpers.

The N. C. Insane Asylum.

The dividing line established according to law, between the North Carolina Insane Asylum at Raleigh, and the Western North Carolina Insane Asylum at Morganton, runs from the Virginia line south with the western boundary lines of Rockingham, Guilford, Randolph, Montgomery and Richmond counties to the South Carolina line. All applications from counties west of said line are to be made to the Western Asylum. Dr. Grissom informs us that the following rules have been adopted by the board of directors of the North Carolina Insane Asylum: (1.) All applications now on file to be renewed under the new act of the General Assembly and recorded as received, stating name, date, county and what disposition is made of the same, and the correspondent of the applicant notified. (2.) All admissions to be made in the interest of the institution, merits of the case and the protection of society. (3.) Acute cases, with good prospects of cure, to be admitted promptly on application, making room by discharge, if necessary, of some comparatively harmless and incurable case, from the same or some other county. (4.) All applications to be referred to the board of directors or executive committee, with such information pertaining to the same as may be of service to said committee in deciding as to the admission of the case. Such admission is to be regulated, as far as practicable, by the population, in such manner as to equalize the benefits of the institution among the various counties. (5.) Each admission or rejection of an applicant to be a matter of record in a special book, and signed by two or more members of said board or committee. (6.) No patient need be brought to the asylum without previous notice of acceptance by the board of directors or executive committee. The press of the State is asked to copy this announcement.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

English cart horses are being purchased on American account.

The Duke of Sutherland's son and heir, aged 33, is engaged to a daughter of Lord Rosslyn, aged 16.

Governor Sherman of Iowa, to a Chicago reporter: "As regards the Presidency, I think Iowa favors Blaine."

Mr. Henry George has already been nicknamed by the wits of the English press. He is called "George the Fifth."

Count Nariski, the ruined gambler who blew out his brains at Monte Carlo recently, lost 100,000 francs in a single night.

Prince Albert Victor, son of the Prince of Wales, though a very nice young man, is thought by his fellow students at Cambridge to be a dullard.

The Empress of Austria's health is in a very unsatisfactory condition. She will leave Vienna shortly for Mentone, or some other place on the Riviera, where she will stay till April.

A violinist named Ondrjczek, from Prague, is creating a sensation in the musical circles of Vienna. He is said to approach Paganini more than any other violinist that has appeared.

For two months after the recent death of the Queen of Madagascar the people were forbidden to wear hats, carry umbrellas, or to plait the hair. Building and weaving were also interdicted.

The following articles are both clippings from the News and Observer. The first is part of a local article speaking of a visit Gov. Jarvis recently made to the Western part of the State and the second is from the editorial columns:

The Governor says that the town of Asheville is on a high tide of prosperity and glorying in a tobacco "boom" of unexampled proportions. The prices realized are exceedingly large. A Mr. Green, of Buncombe, sold the tobacco from an acre and an eighth of land (carefully measured) for $510.90. The town of Marshall and in fact all Madison county are full of tobacco and the people flush with money. Maj. Rollins told him that his tobacco crop would sell at from $35,000 to $40,000. Tobacco is coming in from as far westward as Swain county. It is of fine quality and is eagerly sought for.

When doctors differ, who shall agree? Mr. W. S. Ball writes to the Winston Republican urging that the internal revenue tax as well as system shall be abolished, because the government does not need the money and because the system is so corrupting and demoralizing. The Winston Republican editorially says that the repeal or modification of the system is impracticable. And yet we predict that the next Republican platform in this State will contain, like the platform of the Democrats, a demand for the repeal of the internal revenue system. If it could be put to a vote not one white man in a hundred in this State would vote to retain it.

Take either separately or together these articles are pregnant with food for thought. It is evident that the State of North Carolina will be at some day not very far in the future almost one vast tobacco field. It has been demonstrated of late years that the weed can be grown anywhere in the limits of the State except in sandy soil. Stiff lands that is part clay and part sand, will grow as large and luxuriant a plant as the red clay soil. This has been demonstrated. It stands to reason, then, that tobacco is the great crop of the future for this State and in this view of the case the removal of the obnoxious revenue restrictions as to its manufacture and sale are questions of vital issue to all North Carolinians, irrespective of party affiliations. Capt. Ashe's estimate as to an overwhelming preponderance in favor of a repeal of the internal revenue system may be extravagant but there is no doubt that it would prove an immensely popular measure if carried to the polls. If the Democrats do not do this the Republicans will and if we reject and they take up this issue they will defeat us as sure as the sun shines. Those who argue for the retention of this tax are not the real friends of the party or the people.

The Publishers of the Richmond, Va. Enquirer, heartily recommend Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and say: "It has been tried in our office and composing room, and has cured our city editor of a very bad case of bronchitis."
Interesting to Fishermen: The celebrated "Fish" Brand Gilling thread is sold only at JACOBS. He is the Importer's Agent.
