NO. 38

There were no cases before the City Court this morning; no tramps applied cleared at Baltimore Feb. 12th for this for lodgings at pelice headquarters last port. night and the guard house has not a solitary boarder. Verily an atmosphere of gloom pervades the precincts of the City Hall,

The surest, quickest pain-cure known is St. Jacobs Oil.

The off shore storm signal was flying to-day, which indicates that the wind is coming from the westward. It will be as cold as blue blazes between now and to-morrow morning. We don't know just how cold blue blazes is, but it will be very cold, and don't you for-

This is St. Valentine's day, and we hope that the police will be on a sharp lookout for the young chaps who take the occasion to throw rocks at people's houses at night. It is an intolerable nuisance and ought to be abated and the guilty parties summarily and severely dealt with.

A Runaway.

A horse attached to a dray became frightened while standing near the foot of Princess street just after noon today, and ran around into North Water street, thence to Chestnut and up the bigamy! February 21st has been fixed upon latter to near the postoffice, where he for the election to fill the two vacancies | was secured. He ran at full speed and, in the Academie Francaise. V. de Laprade, and corner at the foot of Princess street is which had been given to the jury when that M. De Lesseps will be the success- always nearly blockaded, without doing our report closed yesterday a verdict of any harm to anything.

Property Recovered.

A paper of new boots were found yesterday in the yard of Mr E Peschau, on the Corner of Fifth and Mulbery streets, where they had evidently been thrown by some person who did not care to have them longer in possession. They were turned over to the chief of police and by the latter to Messrs. W. J. & B.F. Penny, who identified them as raid made upon their store. There is no further clue as to who stole them or who threw them where they were

Serious Accident and Narrow Escape.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon Mr. Alexander Johnson, Jr., one of our best citizens, was engaged in counting casks of spirits turpentine at his yard on the west side of the riverwhen one of the casks upon which he was standing tipped and threw him to the ground; two of the casks following and falling upon him fastened him there face downwards. One of the casks rested upon his shoulders and the back of his head, while the other stood endwise partially upon him and partially against the other casks. Mr. W. H. Yopp and a colored man were engaged in the office a few feet distant and heard the casks fall, but thought nothing of it until in a moment they heard a groan, when they rushed out to find Mr. Johnson in the situation we have described. They extracted the unfortunate man from his tearful position as quickly as strong arms and willing hands would permit, and took him into the office to ascertain it possible the extent of his injuries and to free him from the dirt and dust with which he was covered, at the same time sending with all possible dispatch for a physician. It was then thought, however, home and he was brought across the river by Mr. Eugene S. Maffit, whose boat, fortunately, was near at hand,

Which?

We hear of the case of a colored man charged with bigamy before the Criminal Court, but which has not yet been tried. In explanation of the offence the man states that he don't know whether it was a "sardine" (ordained) minister or a"locust"(local) preacher that performed his last nearriage ceremony, but if it was a "sardine" minister he wasn't a

Bank of New Hanover.

The stockholders of the Bank of New Hanover held their regular annual meeting at their banking house in this a pair stolen from them in the recent city at noon to-day, which was organ ized by calling Mr. H. C. McQueen to the Chair, with Mr. S. D. Wallace as Secretary. Messrs. Isaac Bates and S. D. Wallace were appointed to verify proxies, and these gentleman reported 6.710 shares represented of which 1.803 were in person and 4.907 by proxy, A vote was then had for a Board of Directors which resulted in the election of the following: Messrs. C. M. Stedman, G. W. Williams, W. I. Gore, D. MacRae. John W. Atkinson. E. B. Borden, Isaac Bates, R. R. Bridgers, J. A. Leak, H. Vollers and F. Rhienstein-a re-election of the former Board.

> Immediately after the meeting of the stockholders had adjourned a meeting of the Board of Directors was held and the following officers were all re-elect-

President-Isaac Bates. Vice President-G. W. Williams. Cashier-S. D. Wallace. Asst. Cashier-W. L. Smith, Jr. Clerk-B. G. Empie.

Friend and Foe.

It is to be regretted that there was not a larger audience at the Opera House last night to witness the rendytion of the above entitled drama by Mr. W. J. Scanlan, supported by Mr. W. H. Powers' dramatic company. The performance gave universal satisfaction and the play, by Bartley Campbell, was one of the best of that well known aubest to convey Mr. Johnson to his thor's productions. Mr. Scanlan, as Carrol Moore, the hero of the piece, was all that could be desired in the role and is fairly entitled to the reputation of and conveyed as tenderly as possible being an excellent Irish comedian. He to his residence, on the corner of Sixth has a sweet melodious voice, and his and Walnut streets, and surgical aid singing was (as it deserved to be) rapwas summoned to his relief. He was turously encored. Miss Florine Arnold, Some of our Nimrods went across very badly bruised about the head, as Andrea, was excellent and bids fair the river vesterday on a gunning expe- shoulders and breast, but no bones to build for herself a name among the dition and made a great slaughter were broken, and unless he suffered best of actresses. Mr. J. R. McCann, ong the rabbits, but an old coon some internal injury, (of which there as Pierre Fontaine, was also first rate moved harmlessly and complacently, is no evidence) he will probably recover in his role while the remainder of the company, with one or two exceptions, did very well. The play, while not being profound in plot, is quite interesting, and was performed smoothly and without any hitch to mar its effects. If it should be played here again by the same company there would undoubtedly be a crowded house to greet its per NEW CROP CUBA MOLASSES. formance.
