The storm signal was flying to-day. The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 64 bales.

Nor. barque Gunn, Hansen, from this port, arrived at Hamburg on the 18th inst.

Nor. barque Duen, Andersen, sailed for this port on the 11th inst, from Port Mahon.

Such frequent and vivid flashes of lightning as illumined the heavens last night have been seldom seen in this section at this season.

The Wilmington Light Infantry parade on the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m., instead of at 5 p. m. as has been incorrectly announced.

A called meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry was held last night at which it was decided to adopt the helmets recommended by the Adjutant General, but the matter of adopting the uniform complete was held for further consideration.

We have seen several copies of pictures in crayon work, enlarged from photographs which were really beautiful in appearance and finish.

The attention of our readers is invited to the advertisement in this issue of Mr. J. Elsbach, shirt manufacturer, on the North side of Market street, just West of Front.

Very Prudent. It was intended that the steamer North State should leave Smithville, for Georgia, yesterday morning, but when the time arrived which was fixed for her departure the approach of a gale was apparent and Capt. Paddison very wisely concluded to remain in the harbor.

City Court. One case of drunk and down was brought before the Mayor this morning which was discharged.

Thomas Morris, a tramp, who applied for lodging last night, this being the second time within a few weeks, was required to leave the city forth with.

Reuben Thompson, colored, charged with larceny, an account of which we published yesterday, was required to give a bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, failing in which he was committed.

Important Meeting. A special meeting of the Produce Exchange and other business men was held at the rooms of the former at 12:39 p. m. to-day, at which were Messrs. H. C. Stinson, J. A. Ashley and R. J. Dixon...

A committee, consisting of Messrs. C. P. Mebane, G. J. Boney, R. W. Hicks, J. A. Springer, to which Col. R. Moore was added, was appointed to see what amount could be raised to publish and distribute the work.

A committee was also appointed to revise the article on naval stores, &c., consisting of Messrs A. Martin, B. F. Hall and H. C. McQueen.

A committee was appointed to review the article on cotton, consisting of Messrs A. H. Groene, D. G. Worth and James Sprunt.

A committee was appointed to review the article on shipping, consisting of Messrs C. P. Mebane, E. Peschau and E. G. Barker.

The Anniversary.

In accordance with previous announcement the Howard Relief Fire Engine Co., No. 1, celebrated its 28th anniversary to-day. At 10 o'clock this morning the engine was taken out to the rear of the engine house and about an hour was devoted to practice, the water being taken from a hydrant in the yard and the hose led out to Dock street, thence to Fourth, up Fourth to Market street and up the latter street until 1,050 feet of hose were reeled off.

At 11 o'clock the company marched into the hall, where had already assembled a throng of beautiful ladies, besides a number of gentlemen, guests. Mr. John Oldenbittel presided as master of ceremonies and on the rostrum with him were Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, Mayor Hall, Capt. C. D. Myers, Chief of the Fire Department; Mr. A. Adrian, Foreman of Howard Relief; Mr. M. Rathjen, Assistant Foreman, and Capt. E. W. Manning, of Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Co., No. 1.

When the Company arrived in front of the rostrum it was brought to a halt when Mr. Oldenbittel made a few pleasant remarks of welcome and congratulation in which he stated that no death had occurred in the membership of the company during the last year, and at the conclusion of which ranks were broken and the members became seated. The regular programme marked out for the occasion was then introduced by music from Pasquall's band.

Then followed a vocal duet by Mrs. John Haar, Jr. and Mrs. F. C. Miller, one of the ladies being the accompanist on the piano. The piece was well rendered, both vocally and instrumentally, and was a fine selection. This was followed by an appropriate and impressive prayer by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau. Mayor Hall was then introduced who made a brief, but very appropriate speech, at the conclusion of which there was music by the band.

Capt. C. D. Myers was the next speaker and his effort was good, in parts quite humorous, and was received, as had been that of Mayor Hall, with applause. "The Last Kiss" a waltz for four hands, was then rendered by Mrs. F. C. Miller and Mrs. John Haar, Jr., with much taste and expression. (It is to be supposed that "The Last Kiss" would have considerable taste and a good deal of expression whether it is done in common, quick or waltz time.)

Rev. F. W. E. Peschau was the next speaker, and he prefaced his remarks by saying that he never had been a fire man, but a profane reporter suggested, sotto voce, that he had devoted his life to the effort to keep people out of the fire. His speech, however, was good, appropriate and well received by his hearers; and in this connection we must not omit to mention that all the speakers paid a tender and glowing tribute to the ladies present, and one at least expressed the hope that all the dear creatures who were unmarried would avail themselves of the leap year privilege, and go forth conquering and to conquer until all the millwaded old bachelors had been made captives and trained to work double in the matrimonial harness.

Several other very able speeches would have been delivered, but the speakers were not fully prepared. The next on the programme was a song and chorus entitled "God Bless Our Noble Firemen," composed for the occasion by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau. This was rendered by Messrs. John Haar, Jr., and F. C. Miller and their wives in fine time and voice. The piece was dedicated to Mr. A. Adrian, foreman of the company, and we know of no one upon whom such an honor could be more appropriately conferred.

Next in order, although not on the published programme, was the presentation to Mr. A. Adrian of the song dedicated to him, of which we have spoken. The presentation was made by Mr. Oldenbittel in a few well-timed remarks and was appropriately responded to by the recipient. A silver speaking trumpet was then presented by Mr. Oldenbittel to Mr. M. Rathjen, 1st Assistant Foreman, and another to Dr. F. C. Miller, 2nd Assistant Foreman, both of which were gratefully received and appropriately acknowledged in brief speeches by the recipients.

The benediction was then pronounced and the company with their guests adjourned to the floor below to partake of a bountiful collation which had been prepared, and of which all partook with a hearty relish. Hunger being appeased and the appetite satisfied, the party soon began to leave for their several homes or different avocations, to meet again to-night at Germania Hall where many of them will indulge in the merry dance for a few happy hours.

The occasion was throughout a complete success and there was neither rude mirth nor unpleasant jar to disturb the innocent hour of the celebration. The committee had worked assiduously and successfully in perfecting the arrangements and every feature of the day was a pleasant surprise, for which they deserve much credit.

Entertainment, Literary and Musical.

An entertainment was given last evening at Rankin Hall, by the Young People's Association of St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran Church, and in every way it was a signal success. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, many being unable to get seats, and were compelled to stand. The programme was well arranged and fully carried out. Mr. C. W. Polvogt, President of the Y. P. Association delivered a neat and well prepared address of welcome in English, which was well received and reflected much credit upon that young gentleman.

After music by the orchestra Miss Katie Fridemann delivered an address of welcome in German. There was then singing by the association after which Miss Katie Bremer read an essay on Woman's Influence, which was received with hearty applause. Miss Louise Glameyer rendered, with excellent effect, a beautiful poem in German.

Miss Lillie Rulfs then recited a beautiful poem in English on the Pilgrim Fathers.

Mr. H. F. Otten made an excellent impression upon the audience by the manner in which he delivered an oration upon the famous and unfortunate Joan of Arc. This was followed by various addresses and by instrumental music by the orchestra.

The second part of the programme was opened by dialogues, one between Messrs. J. H. Rehder and E. Schulken, Jr., which was in German, and the other, in English, entitled Lord Dundreary's Visit, in which the parts were sustained by Messrs. C. W. Polvogt, as Lord Dundreary, Mr. H. F. Otten and Misses Katie Ganzer and Caroline Baker. This was the amusing piece of the evening and kept the audience in laughter throughout its rendition. This was followed by a duet, entitled O'er the Hill, and charmingly sung by Misses Lizzie Groten and Mary Blomme.

The address of thanks by Miss Annie Bremer, which was the last of the evening, was delivered in a natural and distinct manner and elicited much appearance. The music, furnished by Messrs. Smithdeal, Ortmann, Schloss and Greenwald, was as usual excellent. The violin solo by Prof. Smithdeal was superb and fully up to any that we ever heard and the cornet solo, by Mr. Schloss, was equal to the efforts of many of the professionals who have performed here. Miss Ulrich accompanied on the piano, in a precise manner, all the songs of the evening.

The Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire last night, which was sounded about 11:40 o'clock, came in the midst of the severe storm which was prevailing at that time and caused the hearts of all who heard it to beat with apprehension. A sudden glare lit up the entire city and then it was seen that the flames were located on the river, and men made up their minds for a fierce fight as they hastily struggled into their clothes. Happily, these fears were allayed when it was found that the fire was located on the West side of the river and that the flames were there confined to a pile of rosin dross in the rear of Mr. A. Martin's distillery, on the South side of the causeway, on Eagles' Island. The fire department were promptly on hand, but owing to the fierce wind which prevailed it was some time before an engine could be taken across the river, and then only the Little Giant was sent. The fire was happily confined to the yard where it originated and the loss is but slight.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

During the Quiet THAT NOW PREVAILS WE WILL OFFER CARPETS AT TELLING PRICES. Ladies' and Children's Wraps! Would you secure a bargain, if so you may find it at these headquarters.

Personal.

Dr. J. M. Hartsfield, who has for some time past been Assistant Physician at the Western Insane Asylum, at Morganton, has returned to the city. He has resigned the position he held at Morganton and may locate in Wilmington for the practice of his profession.

A Good Cause.

Rev. F. W. E. Peschau will lecture at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church at 8 o'clock to-morrow (Thursday) night on the recent terrible floods in the West, at the conclusion of which a contribution will be taken up for the relief of the sufferers.

Opera House.

A rather small audience greeted Prof. Caughy last night in his second and last appearance here. The entertainment was a really delightful one and those who accompanied the lecturer on his journey to London were amply repaid in the slight outlay they had made for the trip.

Adjutant General's Report.

The report of Adjutant General Johnstone Jones, for the past year, is distributed among the State Guard. It shows that there were in the Guard December 31st, 1883, twenty-five companies of infantry and a company of cavalry. The force is formed into two brigades and five regiments or battalions. The force numbers 962 men. The report says: "This is a large falling off from 1882. The decrease was caused by the disbandment of feeble companies. The companies that remain, classed as effective (21), all stand upon a solid basis and may be relied upon in any emergency."

A Terrific Storm.

The wind which blew so fiercely last night was but a zephyr in comparison to the reports of its violence received here from other points. Accurate information is not to be had yet as the wires were down to-day in various directions. Passengers who arrived here this morning on the Carolina Central train tell us that the gale was the perfectly fearful on the upper end of road. It seems to have had its centre about Monroe. Between that place and Charlotte, early in the night, a heavy hail storm passed over the line of the road and some of the stones which fell measured nearly an inch in diameter. The wires were blown down in many places and in one instance they fell across the track and were cut by the train. It is reported that a colored boy at Roekingham was killed by the hail.

At Rocky Mount, on the W. & W. R. R., it seems there was another storm centre. It is said that there has been much devastation at that place and it is reported that a number of buildings among them two churches, were blown down by the gale and that two children were killed. Other disasters to property are reported above and below that point but no further loss of life, so far as we have been able to learn.

To the South of us the storm was also very severe. At Darlington, S. C., it is said that six persons were killed and that a distillery, mill and stable were destroyed.

From the Signal Office here we learn that the most of the storm was inland. The wind blew here at the rate of 31 miles an hour and at Fort Macon at 45 miles an hour.

CLEVELAND, OHIO—Chief Supt. Schmitt, of the Police Force, recommends St. Jacobs Oil for the cure of pain.
