AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla and other blood-purifying roots, combined with Iodide of Potassium and Iron, and is the safest, most reliable, and most economical blood-purifier that can be used. It invariably expels all blood poisons from the system, enriches and renews the blood, and restores its vitalizing power. It is the best known remedy for Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin, as also for all disorders caused by a thin and impoverished, or corrupted, condition of the blood, such as Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Gout, General Debility, and Scrofulous Catarrh.

LOCAL NEWS.

A Straw.

Peter Cooper once said: 'In all the towns where a newspaper is published. every man should advertise in it, even if nothing more than a card stating his name and the business he is engaged in. It does not only pay the advertiser, but it lets people at a distance know that the town you reside is in a prosperous community of business men. As the seed is sown so the fruit recompenses. Never pull down your sign while you expect to do business, for it often indientes that business is poor, and you are losing your grip, commercially speaking. The judicious advertiser will receive in return ten dollars for every one invested in the columns of a local paper."

Paralyzed.

About 8 o'clock on Saturday night, Owen Burney, the County Treasurer, started from his residence on McRae, between Walnut and Red Cross streets, to come down town. . When near the corner of Walnut, going towards Seventh street, he was suddenly stricken helpless and was assisted back to his home and a physician summoned, who at once pronounced it a case of paralysis. One entire side is completely paralyzed and helpless and the power of uttering intelligible words has gone.

We regret to learn that at last reports his condition was considered as very critical. The afflicted man has many friends here, among the whites as well as his own color, and universal regret is expressed.

A Waif.

5 o'clock' a box car at the Carolina intended for insertion in Saturday's Central Depot, which had just been issue, but was crowded out. The brought in with the freight train, was opened and found to contain a young white girl, only about 15 or 16 years old. She said that a colored man put her into the car at Rockingham but it is thought that she must have concealed herself in there and gone to sleep. Inquiring as to her identity revealed the fact that her name is Jennie Stanback. and that she is of feeble mind. She was thinly clad and complained of cold and hunger. She was tenderly cared for by the gentlemen at the depot and at 7 o'clock the poor waif was placed on the mail train and returned to her friends at Rockingham.

Major Stedman.

Some of our State exchanges are urging the claims of Major Chas. M. Stedman, of this city, for nomination as Lieutenant-Governor on the next State ticket. The Wilson Sentinel spoke first, we believe, and what was said by that paper was endorsed by the Clinton Caucasian, which says:

If a Western man is given the first place on the ticket, as now seems probable, the East certainly should have the second place, and Major C. M. Stedman will reflect honor upon any day be prepared to fill orders for SASH, Stedman will reflect honor upon any DOORS, BLANDS, BRACKETS, WOOD MOULDING, and ORNAMENTAL WOOD candidate. Let him be put into the WORK of all descriptions. We expect to race.

> The Wilson Mirror has also a word to say. Speaking of Maj. Stedman it

We know him; tormed his acquain. stood up with him on fields where danger tested the physique, the stamma and the manhood of men, and we never a single obligation. A gallant soldier, a true Democrat, a fine speaker, a courteous gentleman, he would contri to the ticket.

A Double Murder. On Saturday last, young Cash, the thon ofe notorious duelist, was at Cheraw, S. C. and was considerably under the influence of liquor. He was quite boisterous and offensive in his conduct and the town marshal, Stevenson by name, told him to desist or he would be arrested. To this Cash replied in a defiant manner, stating that the marshal could not arrest him, and, with the remark. "I'll see you later," walked off. He soon returned, however and passing the marshal asked the latter" what are looking at me for?" The marshal told Cash to go on about his such injuries that he died to-day. business as he wanted no trouble, when the young miscreant drew a pistol and cotton here for the week ending last shot the unsuspecting marshal through the body, killing him instantly. He then turned his weapon and aimed at day were 30,310 bales, against 40,727 to another person towards whom he had a the same date last year. -The comgrudge, but missed his mark and shot an offensive bystander, who also died soon after. The Intendant of the town then ordered the arrest of the double murderer, but, although there were nearly 200 people present, Cash delib diately forwarded by express to Rockerately mounted his horse and rode unconcerned'y away, without any one attempting to arrest or interfere with him in any manner. So far the subscriptions in this city for the relief of the sufferers by the cyclone last Tuesday amount to about $800 in all, and this amount will be still further increased.

A collection was made yesterday in St. James' church for the benefit of the sufferers by the recent cyclone and we understand that about $100 was contributed on that account.

Col. F. II. Cameron, Inspector General of the North Carolina State place of worship. Indeed, so often had Guard, is in the city to-day and the annual inspection of the Wilmington Light Infantry was to have taken place at the Armosy this afternoon.

The Government House.

Baker & Farron will appear at the Opera House in this city on Thursday night, in their celebrated play "The But hardly was the Alice out of sight Government House." There is no doubt as to the capacity of this troupe or the play they present and they will probably have a crowded house. The box sheet will open at Dyer's to-morrow morning. In speaking of this piece the Baltimore Herald says:

"The Goveenment House," a farcical comedy in three acts, was presented at instrument of carnage, still riugs out Albaugh's last night, in which Messrs. P. F. Baker and T. J. Farron, supported by an excellent company, scored a success. The fun on the stage was fast and furious and was heartily supplemented by frequent applause in the auditorium. A leature of the play was the many songs scattered through fine, rich voices and their Irish dialect is perfect. The other characters in the play were all that could be wished.

"The Honors of War."

There is an incident connected with the departure of the delegation from this city to the Mardi Gras at New Or-On last Saturday afternoon, about leans, on last Friday night, which was young gentlemen who were to go met at Mr. J. C. Munds' drug store, on Front street, and started for the depot in a body. As they passed Dr. Piglord's office, a few doors above, Guy Wright, with his fife and drum band, started out from the darkness and stepping in front of the erowd escorted them to the depot, to the tune of "Two little pigs and a bob-tailed sow." Arriving at the depot, the band were paraded on the platform the car in which travelers were seated and the "Dead March" was performed with thrilling effect. It was an ovation on the par of some demonstrative friends of the sight-seers. It was all taken in the best of good humor and as the train pulled out of the station those who were on the train promised their friends on the platform a demonstration of another kind on their return.

Mt. Airy News: Some of our readers will remember that during the latter part of the war. the Confederate Goternment made an effort to collect all public bells for the purpose of moulding cannon. The bells on the Methodist Church, in the town of Plymonth, N C. was a very large one and for years and years it had called the people to the it performed this service, and so often had it rung out the glad notes of mar riage day as well as the more mournful peals of the funeral knell that the ladies especially had learned to love it. So when the commission came one day and took it down there was sorow among the fair sex The little steamer Alice bore it away and the old bell was to be converted into an instrument of war.
