The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Speaker Carlisle receives the largest mail of any member of Congress. Mr.
Morrison, Mr. Randall and Perry Belmont follow in the order named.

Mr. Buckle, the new editor of the London Times, owes his appointment, it is said, to Oxford friendship with young Mr. Walter, a son of the proprietor.

New Orleans has just had a baby snow, with ninety-nine infants on exhibition. The first prize was won by a seven-months-old baby that weighed thirty-one pounds.

The Prince Wales has never been a success as an orator, though he is always ready to make a speech at a banquet. His rhetoric is peculiar. He speaks with a heavy guttural accent.

Senator Sherman's home is in Mansfield, Ohio, the town in which his wife was also a native. The Senator spends only a part of the Summer there, but his wife stays there at least six months in the year, and is quite popular among the townspeople.

Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge, one of the numerous orators locally labelled "the silver-tongued," is a leading candidate for the seat in Congress from the Ashland district—that of Henry Clay—soon to be left vacant by the promotion of Senator-elect Blackburn.

The Court has granted Lord Gar-moyle two weeks' additional time in which to prepare his defence in the case for damages for breach of promise of marriage brought against him by Miss Fortescue. Miss Fortescue is anxious for an early trial, in order to enable her to explain her position.

British Columbia is willing to receive the Chinese "for revenue only." The Dominion Government has just passed two bills, one of which imposes an import duty of $50 a head on each new coaster, while the other imposes a tax of $10 on every Chinese resident for the privilege of living there.

It is often said that England is a country without a proper appreciation of liberty. To this a contemporary replies that as a drunken club man has just thrown a glass of beer in the face of one of Queen Victoria's sons it must be apparent that freedom is getting along as well as could be expected.

Some time ago classes in carpentering were started in a Cleveland public school. A recent report made by the principal says that they have not interfered with the regular studies, and that the boys have not only developed a taste for hard work, but by their standing show that training the hands is an actual help in other school work.

An inter-State drill encampment is to be held in Houston, Texas, in May next, when $9,000 will be awarded in prizes to the best drilled companies.
The prizes for the infantry are, one of $5,000, another of $1,000, and the third of $500. The artillery will contest for prizes of $750 and $240, and $1,000 will be awarded to the best drilled zouave company.

A recent letter from Florida says that no doubts can be entertained as to the rapidity and permanence of new settlements in Florida. They are springing up as if by magic all over the length and breadth of the land, and prices are obtained for town lots which would appear almost fabulous in many of the old cities of the East. It is claimed, and perhaps not very erroneously, that the population of the State has nearly doubled since the census of 1880.

The Duke of Edinburgh recently played in a concert at Gibraltar for the benefit of the widow and children of a bandmaster who had belonged to the garrison. He executed Gounod's "Ave Maria" on the violin, being accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Cadwalader Adams, Miss Manners taking the vocal part. For an encore the Duke gave Bragha's "Serenade." The receipts proved a substantial benefit to the poor widow.

Clara Louise Kellogg is to receive $12,000 for singing twenty nights in Paris, $600 a night! No wonder she is in love with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the great remedy for coughs and colds, for what would she do without it, if she should be attacked suddenly by hoarseness?

THE DAILY REVIEW.

Vol. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 29, 1884. NO. 51

The trustees of Columbia College have permitted a young woman to enter one of its highest classes in astronomy, notwithstanding the policy of the institution against coeducation. The student is a graduate of Wellesley College and is able to assist in the work of the observatory and to study in text-books of a high grade. In the midst of loud discussion this young woman has quietly and successfully entered the citadel.

"Governor" Samuel Donaghey, a West Virginia character, has gone over to the majority. He was a Pennsylvanian, from Harrisburg, and in the forties was one of the best orators on the stump. His youth was full of promise, but at a political meeting West he was assailed and so badly hurt that his mind became unhinged. For many years he has been in the asylum at Weston, West Virginia. Of late he regained his reason, but he refused to leave the stone mansion to which he had become greatly attached.

land, praises St. Jacobs Oil for pains.

There were no tramps in the guard house last night.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 72 bales.

Schooner Wm H. Jones, Falkenburg cleared at Philadelphia, Feb. 27th, for this port.

Col. H. B. Short was registered at the Yarbboro House, in Raleigh, on Wednesday.

Schooner Alfreda S. Snare, Smith, cleared at Savannah Feb. 27th, for this port and sailed on the same day.

There was one case before the Mayor this morning, which was continued from yesterday. Judgment suspended.

Eggs are selling at 15 cents per dozen by the quantity in some of the stores today. They retail at 16½ cents per dozen.

There were nine interments in Oak Grove Cemetery during the month ending Feb. 29th, eight of which were adults and one child.

Venus and the moon "occulted" this forenoon but only those who were on the lookout for it with a strong telescope witnessed the interesting event.

The Sunday School of the First Baptist Church was never in a more flourishing condition than at present.
Last Sunday there were more than 300 pupils in attendance.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

If the weather this morning was the regular schedule for the 29th of February we shall have the glorious consolation of knowing that it will be four years before we shall be frozen up again on a like day.

The measles are prevailing quite extensively in Stump Sound township, Onslow county, the children in several families being now prostrated with that disease. As near as we can learn the sickness has been of a mild form, and no serious cases have been reported.

The Minnehaha.

This little steam yacht, whose career in the waters of the Cape Fear has been financially unfortunate, is now in the hands of United States Marshal Hill, she having been libelled in the U. S.
Court by Messrs. Conkling & Pardee, who hold the first mortgage upon her.
She will be sold to satisfy the mortgage.

Supreme Court.

In this Court, on Wednesday, the consideration of appeals from this district was resumed and the following were among those disposed of:

Florence V. Lawton et al vs. Norwood Giles et al., from New Hanover; argued by Russell & Ricard for plaintiffs, and George Davis for the defendants.

E. G. McDaniel, administrator, vs.
W. J. H. Bellamy et al., from New Hanover; continued under the rules.

F. J. Swann et al., vs. L. A. Hart et al from New Hanover: continued under the rules.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

Mere Rumors.

The Weldon News gives currency to a rumor, which has also been circulated on the streets of this city, that when Col. Bridgers takes charge of the Petersburg R. R. trains will be run through from Wilmington to Richmond, and that a stop for meals will be made at Rocky Mount; also, that the Atlantic Coast Line syndicate will build another bridge at Weldon, across the Roanoke, provided they cannot continue the existing arrangements with the Seaboard Road for the use of their bridge.

A Cold Bath.

Mr. Oscar Batton, who lives between here and Myrtle Grove Sound, came to market this morning with a horse and cart, and just after he had stopped at the New Market, the horse, which was a marsh pony, became frightened and ran away. He soon managed to get clear of all the cart except the shafts, and with these hanging at his heels he ran down and jumped into the dock near the fish market. It is presumed that the beast was so deeply mortified because he could not get clear of all the cart and harness that he determined upon suicide. He was extricated with considerable difficulty by Mr. Batton and others who went to his assistance.

The Government House.

There was a fair audience at the Opera House last night to witness the performance of the above named play, by Messrs. Baker & Farron and their company, and those who were present had a delightful entertainment—one of the most laughable presented here this season. It was such as to cause a continuous roar of laughter from the beginning to the fall of the curtain at the close of the last act. Messrs. Baker, in the Dutch character, and Farron, in the Irish, were inimitable and irresistible in their drollery. The support was generally good, although the negro character was considerably overdone.
With this exception the play was presented in first-rate style. The songs were good and well rendered and the orchestra music was exceptionally fine.

Look out for Him.

A man giving his name as John Henry Harrison called upon a merchant of this city a day or two since, and represented himself as one of the sufferers by the recent cyclone at Rockingham. He exposed his arm, which was badly bruised, as he said, from the effects of the storm. The merchant took pity upon him and gave him some money besides giving him a list of persons from whom the sufferer would probably obtain further assistance. He called upon another to whom he gave the name of J. H. Harris. It has since been ascertained that, whatever his right name maybe, he is a fraud and that the wounds and bruises on his arm were not caused by the cyclone, but by having been beaten by a man from whom he had stolen a pistol and afterwards pawned it. The same fellow has been seen drunk in the "Hollow" repeatedly. Look out for him.

Destructive Fire at Laurin- burg.

The thriving but unfortunate town of Laurinburg has again fallen the victim to a disastrous conflagration. At about 4 o'clock this morning the alarm was sounded. It came from the barroom of Messrs. Black & Shaffer, which in a few minutes was a mass of flames, and was soon totally destroyed, with all of its contents. The flames spread rapidly, and soon the stores of Messrs.
H. F. Northrop & Co., liquors; D. A.
McAllister, general merchandise; W.
W. Foy, general merchandise; L. A.
Monroe, general merchandise; Crouch & Bro., liquors; W. H. Jordan, harness shop, and L. A. Parker, groceries, with their contents, were a mass of flames.
Besides these, three small stores and three dwellings, the names of the owners and occupants of which we could not learn, were also destroyed. The railroad property was injured.

So rapidly did the flames spread that Mr. Samuel Shaffer, who was asleep in his store, was forced to escape through a window, falling twenty feet to the ground. He was also painfully but not seriously burned. No other casualties are reported.

The fire caught from a defective stove flue in Black & Shaffer's barroom.
The loss is roughly estimated at $15,- 000, mostly covered by insurance.

It has been three years this Winter, we think, since Laurinburg had its last disastrous fire and it really seems that the citizens of that town should be looking up some effective means of defence. One third of the cost of this fire would equip the town handsomely with a fire steamer and cisterns.

Personal.

We were glad to receive a visit this morning from our staunch friend, Mr.
R. E. Lee, of Laurinburg, who has been on a short visit to this section. He returns to-night and we are glad that his place of business escaped this morn-ing's terrible fire. He was just two doors below the scene.

Church Association.

Connected with the Society of the Front Street M. E. Church is the "Organ Fund Association," which was created for the three-fold purpose of obtaining funds with which to defray the expense of purchasing the new organ, for musical recreation and for the development of social and intellectual faculties among the members. Meetings of the Association are held weekly, and are numerous attended; vocal and instrumental music is rehearsed, essays upon various topics are read and the hours made to pass profitably and pleasantly along. It is an association which cannot be too highly commended and we wish that every religious denomination in the city had the same or a similar organization among their members. Some of them have, but we believe there are some which have not.

Death of Mr. Clowe.

We were very much grieved this forenoon to learn of the death last evening, after a lingering illness, of Mr. C.
R. Clowe, a highly esteemed resident of this city, and for many years past Master Car Builder at the railroad shops in this city. Mr. Clowe was born in Prince William county, West Virginia, and was very nearly 52 years of age.
He came to Wilmington in the year 1867 and in a very short time had attached to himself many sincere and earnest friends. He has been in failing health since early in last September and for two months past has been confined to his bed.

The funeral services will take place to-morrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock, from the residence.

N. A. Lewis, Administratrix of Council Simmons.
vs.
Allen Simmons and wife Catharine, Rufus Simmons and wife Sallie, Henry Simmons and wife Cassie, George Simmons, Arthur Murrill and wife, et al., heirs at law of Council Simmons, deceased.

It being made to appear to me, that the defendants Rufus Simmons and wife Sallie are necessary parties to this action, have property in this State, and are non residents, and can not after due diligence be found in this State, and that this action is begun to subject certain real estate described in the complaint in this cause to sale to pay the debts of the estate of said Council Simmons, Those, therefore, are to notify the said Rufus Simmons and wife Sallie, to be and appear at my office, in the city of Wilmington, on Monday, the 11th April, 1884, and answer or demur to the complaint this day filed, or judgment will be granted according to the prayer thereof.

S. VANAMRINGE,
Clerk Superior Court,
New Hanover County.

United States of America,

Eastern District of North Carolina.

WHEREAS, a libel has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of North Carolina, at Wilmington, in said District, the 18th day of February, 1884, by John B. Conkling and James B. Pardee, owners of the Steamer Minnehaha, libellants against the said Steamer Minnehaha, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and against James M. McGowan and wife Sarah J. Mc-Gowan, and against Frank Wilkinson, Master of said steamer, and against all other persons claiming an interest therein, alleging in substance that heretofore one Joseph Bisbee and James M. McGowan being indebted to one Oscar F. Earle, of Milford, New Haven county, Connecticut, the said Bisbee in order to secure the said indebtedness did execute and deliver to the said Earle a mortgage of the said steamer together with her appurtenances, and therefore, for value, the said Earle had sold and assigned the said indebtedness to the said libellants and had assigned also to them the said mortgage security, whereby they had become the legal owners of the said steamer, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and that the condition of the said mortgage had been broken by the said mortgagor whereby the libellants had become entitled to the possession of the said steamer with the power to sell the same by the terms of the said mortgage, and that the said Sarah J. McGowan claimed to have a second mortgage upon the said steamer from the said Bisbee to her to secure certain indebtedness due from him to her, and that she together with the said Wilkinson, were claiming to be entitled to the possession, held the said steamer and refused on demand to deliver her to said libellants. And praying process against said steamer, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and the same might be sold and the proceeds thereof be first appropriated to the payment of the said secured debt, and so as above assigned to, and belonging to libellants, together with costs, charges and expenses.

Now, in pursuance of the monition under the seal of the said Court to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said steamer, her tackle, apparel and furniture, or in any manner interested in the same, to be and appear before the said District Court, to be held for the Eastern District of North Carolina, at Wilmington, on the fourth Monday after the first of March next, then and there to interpose their claims and to make their allegations in that behalf.

Dated 29th day of February, 1884.
