The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

The two sons of Tom Hughes reside permanently at the Rugby Colony, in Tennessee.

Mrs. Frederick H. Prince, of Boston, received a $100,000 check among her wedding presents.

Dr. Herman Kerr, a celebrated statistician, says that the annual mortality from intemperance in Great Britain is 40,500.

William H. Huribert was "best" man at the recent marriage in Paris of Mr. W. H. Russell, the famous war correspondent.

Delegate Raymond, of Dakota, is less than forty years old. His farm has 5,- 000 acres. In Washington he lives handsomely.

Mme. Greville, the novelist, whose pictures of Russian life have given her place in French literature, intends to visit America next Autumn.

Judge Danne, of Tallahassee, recently made a count by the Pope, owns 164,000 acres in Hernando county, Florida, and has formed a large Catholic colony.

The colored people are "out" with Secretary Lincoln because he failed to respond to a call to appoint a colored minister from Maryland regimental chaplain in the army.

General Thomas L. Rosser, lately of the Northern Pacific road, intends to sail from New York on the 20th instant for Nicaragua. He will go as the engineer of the Nicaraguan Canal Company.

The Boston Post would have the campaign fought on the principles of the two parties, and suggests Edmunds as the standard bearer of the Republicans, and Bayard as the leader of the Democrats.

The Methodist ministers of the Ohio Conference have voted to sign a pledge of abstinence from opium and tobacco.
It is not assumed that many, if any, of the clergymen are given to indulgence in opium, but there are a number who decline to give up tobacco.

An Illinois gentleman calculates that President Arthur will have 362 votes in the Republican National Convention.
This estimate includes the Southern vote entire and 60 of the 72 votes of New York State. Even if this proves correct, he would lack about 40 votes of a nomination.

At Norfolk, in England, a fortnight ago, there was a wedding at which the officiating clergyman was a gentleman ninety-six years of age. He has held the living he now holds for seventy-one years. It is believed that this tenure of a parish is unequalled for length in the history of the English church.

The venerable Rev. Mr. David Winters of Dayton, Ohio, on Thursday last married his four thousand nine hundred and eightieth couple, and after the ceremony wished the bride as much happiness as had been the lot of her good father and not less estimable grandfather, at whose weddings he had the pleasure of officiating.

Cat breeding is being taken up activ-ly in England, not only for the comfortable cloak linings its fur affords, but as an article of food, the fecundity, quick growth, and really palatable properties of our familiar hearth-rug friend pointing out a staple resource.
The remembrance of this and the present activity in the cat market are suggestive.

Victor Hugo entered upon his 83rd year on February 26th. The French Government struck a medal in his honor, the presentation of which was the feature of the celebration. In the post's house, in the avenue called after his name, crowds of his friends and admirers flocked to pay him homage.— His drawing-room was filled with choice flowers sent from all parts of the country.

There has been an enormous increase of late years in the consumption of drugs used in nervous affections! In the Central Hospital pharmacy of Paris the amount of bromide of potassium sold in 1855 was but three kilos; in 1870 it had increased to 389 kilos; in 1875 to 730 kilos, and for the past ten years had increased all over Paris in like proportions. Quinine, morphine and bromide are said to be the three great popular "drugs of civilization."

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, MARCH 17, 1884. NO. 65

A Runaway.
John Boyle O'Reilly, Robert Grant,
"J. S. of Dale," John T. Wheelwright and Geo. Parsons Lathrop, as it is reported in the Harvard Herald, are going to write a novel together and they have already sold what they shall produce for $5 000.

In the Woods.
Although there was quite a raw wind blowing, it was comparatively sunny and pleasant yesterday. Many of our people took a trip the Sound in the afternoon, and the outside of the city were thronged with young people, who were searching for yellow jessamine and trailing arbutus.

Personal.
Mr. J. B. Chesnut, of Savannah, brother of our friend, Mr. George Chesnut, of this city, has been here and to his native Sampson county home on a brief visit to his relatives and friends.
He is in a prosperous and lucrative business in Savannah, and the ducats are pouring into his coffers. He left for that city last night.

Duplin County Items.
Rev. W. M. Kennedy, of Warsaw, Duplin county, was in the city to-day and gave us the pleasure of a call this afternoon. He represents the condition of Warsaw High School as excellent.
The people of his section are intensely excited over the phosphate interest which has recently been developed, and are prospecting and making new discoveries of deposits almost daily.

The State Exposition.
A private telegram was received here to-day stating that Messrs W. S. Primrose, president, and H. E. Fries, secretary, of the North Carolina State Exposition, would arrive in the city to morrow morning to talk with our people and try to awaken a more active interest in that noble and worthy enterprise.
They will be accompanied by Mr. S. G.
Worth, State Superintendent of Fisheries.

Body Recovered.
The body of the sailor who was drowned during the night of the storm was recovered this afternoon. It had drifted down the river and lodged in the paddles of one of the wheels of the steamer Waccamaw, which lies nearly opposite the foot of Dock street. It was towed to this side of the river where a coroner's inquest was held and a verdict of accidental drowning was returned by the jury after which it was taken away for interment. It was shockingly disfigured.

New Music.
Messrs. Ditson & Co., of Boston, send us eight fine pieces of music.— Their titles and prices are:
Angelus. (30 cts.) Song by F. Bott-Golden Love. (35 cts.) Song by Wel-lings. Going to Market. (35 cts.) Song by Diehl. Gentle Faces (30 cts.) Song by Bonheur. Till the Roses Wake Again. (30 cts.) Song by Christie. Romance for Piano. (40 cts.) by J. K.
Paine. The Bat. Polka Caprice. (35 cts.) by W. G. Smith. Reiter Gallop.
Violin and Piano. (40 cts.) by Winner.

At Richmond College.
Rev. Dr. Pritchard, who has been preaching in Richmond, Va., during the last week, assisting Rev. Dr. Hawthorne in a series of meetings, addressed the students of Richmond College on Wednesday last. The address was of marked force and ability, as might have been expected, interspersed with appropriate anecdotes, keen wit and felicitous hits. It was an earnest effort and made a profound impression upon his hearers.
He urged upon them the need of an excellent education and the supreme importance of "getting the best of all wisdom, even the wisdom which cometh down from above."

Hibernian Association.
The Hibernian Association, of this city, celebrated the 18th anniversary of their organization to-day by marching from their hall to St. Thomas' Church, where divine services were held appropriate to the Association and the occasion. After the services were concluded, they returned to their hall and proceeded to the election of officers to serve for the ensuing year with the following result: President—F. H. Darby.
Vice President—D. O'Connor.
Hon. Vice President—James Reilly.
Treasurer—L. Brown.
Secretary—Jas. Corbett.
Ass't Secretary—Wm. Sheehan.
The Association decided to give a grand ball on the night of Eastern Monday.

This has been a dull day for news gathering.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 98 bales.

There was a large attendance at the various churches yesterday.

The "Young Mrs. Winthrop" Company arrived here yesterday and registered at the Purcell House.

The elders, deacons and ushers recently elected by the Second Presbyterian church were duly installed last night.

The Ideas of March have passed and the most severe weather of the Winter may be presumed to have passed also.

The next entertainment at the Opera House, after to night, will be given by the Rentz-Santley Troupe, on the 26th inst.

We noticed that some of the dry goods stores were decorated in emerald green this morning as a token of respect to St. Patrick's Day.

We are requested to say that services at St. James' church will be suspended on account of repairs until 11 a. m., of Friday, March 21.

Knights of Honor.
Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock. Full attendance desired. It.

The measles are prevailing quite extensively in the city, and we learn that they are afflicting the people all along the line of the railroad between here and Weldon.

Dan. barque Margarita, Funder, cleared to-day for Hamburg with 2,937 barrels rosin, valued at $4,509.90, shipped by Messrs. DeRosset & Co.

A postal note for two dollars, payable in New York, was bought at the Postoffice in this city on Nov. 28th. The purchaser is requested to call at the Postoffice for information.

Rachel Kelly, colored, was before the Mayor this morning, charged with disorderly conduct. She was found guilty and a fine of $5 was imposed, in default of which she was sent below for 30 days.

There was the usual gathering at the corner of Front and Market streets this afternoon. The people began to collect soon after 1 o'clock and the throng continued to swell until there were several hundreds in attendance.

We have received from Mr. P.
Heinsberger a beautiful song and chorus entitled "Come to my Arms, Norah Darling," composed and sung by Mr.
Charles Konollman, the popular vocalist. It is not difficult, but has a very pleasing melody well suited to the words. Price 35 cents.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Are You in Want of Spring Clothing of any Description?

IF SO DO NOT WASTE VALUABLE TIME BUT COME AT ONCE TO supply your wants from our Mammoth Stock. We will never deceive you. Every suit, garment or article that we carry is solid, perfect and durable. We will not keep or offer for sale goods of any class or in any line that we cannot honestly guarantee as well worth, in wear and tear, all that they cost you. We buy largely, but we buy judiciously. We buy to suit our trade, and our trade consists of all classes; and our prices sell our goods. When we say that we sell only Clothing equal to the finest custom-made work and that every garment sold is guaranteed to be exactly as represented or the money will be refunded, we mean just what we say, and every word of our guarantee can be depended upon as surely as a government bond, and that our prices are the lowest in the city, no body doubts, for instance, that we are now selling a beautiful, all wool suit at $8 really worth $12.50; all-wool Pants at $2 worth $3.50; a very good pair Pants at $1 worth $1.50. Finally, a man, however light his purse, will always be welcomed by

Make a Move.

Whatever may be the real merits of the "doctress" who holds forth every afternoon in Market street, between Front and Water, one thing is very certain, the presence of the crowds that gather there is a serious drawback to the merchants who do business on both sides of that thoroughfare. We understand that a petition was prepared on Saturday and sent to the city authorities, asking for an abatement of the nuisance to the merchants, but so far it has met with no response.

The authorities should take into consideration the fact that these merchants have to pay a license tax for the privilege of conducting their business in peace and quiet without let or hindrance, and that they are entitled to demand of them the protection which they have petitioned for. There are plenty of other localities where the woman and the brass band may hold forth without disturbing the course of trade; or, she can "hire a hall" and hold forth at her own pleasure.

For the West.

Our clever neighbors of the Clinton Caucasian have proved themselves on more than one occasion to be the good friends and well wishers of our city.—We have on previous occasions quoted some of their sayings to prove this and we herewith give to our readers an interesting clipping from the last issue of that paper:

It is announced that this road will be completed to Greensboro by April 1st. It is also being rapidly extended from Fayetteville into South Carolina. This is well. The South Carolina extension will be an important feeder for the line. But the most important part of the whole system still remains untouched—the gap from Fayetteville to Wilmington. Until that gap is finished the road can never be more than an important local road, simply because it is folly to expect, in this day of cheap and rapid transportation, for any considerable quantity of freight and travel to be drawn from the West to Fayetteville and either stop there or be transported by river steamboats, (if it is wet weather) to Wilmington. If the gap shall be filled up, then, instead of being a mere local road, it will at once become the nucleus of a great State system, which, like the nerves of the body, will permeate the whole country. Fayetteville will be a great distributing center, and the fine port of Wilmington which can easily be made equal to any on the Atlantic seaboard, will team with busy life. The flags of every nation will deck and beautify the historic waters of the noble Cape Fear, and Wilmington will reach out its arms of commerce, not only to Western North Carolina, but across the Blue Ridge and Alleghenies to the fertile regions of Tennessee and the broad and favored domains of the Father of Waters. The beautiful State of Franklin, the daughter of North Carolina, once ours in political dependence, will again be bound to us by iron chains of commerce. Wilmington can then compete with her great sisters North and South for the foreign traffic of the Western States. By all means let Wilmington awake, let the whole country awake to the importance of this work.

Dr. M. C. Miller comes to the front to-day in a new advertisement. He has a full stock of pure drugs and fancy goods, which are to be sold at close prices, and will also display a beautiful line of Easter cards.

Silver Plated Spoons, Forks and Knives of best quality, and at manufacturer's prices, can be found at Jacob's Hardware Depot.
