INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. R. MELTON—That Beef
WM. HAYS, Jr.—Prize Beef
HEINSBERGER—Standard Organs
WM. WEEKS—For Smithville Court
Howard Relief Fire Engine Company
C. W. YATES—Cheap Standard Works
MISS E. KARRER—Spring Hats and Bonnets
MUNDE BROS. & DEROSSET—Easter Cards
Report of the Committee of the First National Bank of Wilmington, N. C.

Spring goods are arriving freely now.
The Inferior Court of Duplin county is in session this week.

Hon. Walter L. Steele, of Rockingham, was in the city to day.

Mr. A. D. Black, of Kenansville, Duplin county, was in the city to day.

No more amusements at the Opera House until the 26th, to morrow week.

Ger. barque Louise Wichters, Ehmeke, hence, for Stettin, passed Dungeness March 15th.

Ex-Sheriff Black, who is now Principal of the Academy at Point Caswell, was in the city yesterday.

The freight and passenger traffic on all the railroads leading out of this city still continues immensely large.

The music for the occasion, especially the first two pieces, was excellent.

Burglary.

Miss Cornelia Padrick, who resides on Castle, between Front and Surry streets, was made the victim of a burglary last night. Her room was entered and the sum of $20 was taken from the pocket of her dress, which was hanging in the room. Miss Padrick knew nothing of her loss until this morning, when she discovered that the money was missing. The burglar effected an entrance into the room through a window in the rear and there is no clue as to his identity.

Young Mrs. Winthrop.

There was a fair audience at the Opera House last night to witness the above named play by the Madison Square Theatre Company, and those who did attend were gratified by the appearance of an excellent troupe in an exquisitely pathetic and interesting play. The characters were all impersonated with that ease, finish and attention to detail which make the play a realism. It was so well acted that it became—not a play, but a lesson, which thousands in this busy world of ours would do well to learn and put in practice.

The music for the occasion, especially the first two pieces, was excellent.

The City Hospital.

Some very much needed additions and improvements are now in progress at the City Hospital which, when completed, will add materially to the convenience of the establishment and to the comfort and welfare of the patients. A new ward, 65 feet long and 25 feet wide, is in course of construction, which will give room for 12 cots besides, two bathrooms, water closets &c. A piazza will be extended the length of the building and a more convenient dispensary and operating room will be fitted up.

These improvements will be of great utility and benefit, yet they will not answer all the requirements to make a perfect hospital, such as a city of Wilmington's importance should boast. The plans of those now in progress were prepared by Mr. James F. Post, who has the supervision of the work.

The Modern Age.

For April opens with an interesting story by Canivet, entitled "Sosthenes Barel." "A New View of Mormonism" is by an English Member of Parliament and gives the side of the case favorable to the Mormons. "The Story of a Genius" is concluded in this number, and proves it to be a most powerful and interesting piece of fiction. Mario, the great tenor, is agreeably written of in an article of some length. "Sentenced to Spitzbergen" is a thrilling story by Alarcon, the Spanish writer who is just becoming known in this country. "Banqueting: from a Reporter's Standpoint" is a gossipy description of public banquets in England.

The number contains two poems, one by Robert Browning and the other by R. D. Blackmore, the author of "Lorna Doone." The editorial departments are even better than usual, and the prizes are awarded for the second "Examination Papers," 20 Lafayette Place, New York City. $1.60 per annum.

Going North.

Mr. Julius Samson, who has been with us for several months past leaves here to-night for New York, where his family reside. Mr. Samson is resident in New York but spends his time alternately in that city and Wilmington. He will return here in the Summer.

Unavailable.

Unavailable matter, addressed as follows, remains in the Postoffice in this city:

Emperor Cobb, care Sam Chinnis, Fannie Hayner, 304 Duyard st.; Calvin Fletcher, care Luther McLain; Arthur Robeson, 1316 Wood st.; Miss Lue Chassour McNeil; La Southing, in care R. T. Davis, box 13.

Removed to Charlotte.

Mr. Walter Taliaferro, of this city, has removed to Charlotte, where he will enter into business for himself as a produce broker. He left last night for his new home. Mr. Taliaferro is a young gentleman of excellent business and social qualifications, and we commend him to the kind offices of the hospitable and enterprising Charlatte, along with our best wishes for his success.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning:

Robert Devose, a colored boy about twelve years of age, for throwing rocks in the street, was fined $4, in default of which he was sent below for 10 days.

James McNeill, colored, about thirteen years old, for larceny, was required to give a bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed.

Grand Concert.

A grand concert of vocal and instrumental music will be given at the Opera House by some of the amateur talent of this city sometime in the early part of April. The date is not yet fixed. The concert will be under the supervision and general direction of Mrs. M. P. Taylor, which is a guarantee that it will be a musical treat of rare excellence. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Wilmington Library Association, which, aside from the rich music, should be a sufficient incentive to draw a large audience.

Beautiful Beef.

A Michigan boy ate a bar of soap, drank a lot of cold soda and went to bed to cure his cold. The doctor had a hard time to pull him through, but the boy now says the next time he catches a cold he will use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

If you need a real good first class cooking stove, don't fail to see the Excelsior Penn, Zeb. Vance and New Emerald, besides others. They are to be found at factory prices at JACONI'S, who is the manufacturers' agent.

It is evident from the interest shown by a very respectable number of important counties in the State that this Exposition will be an affair of great importance to North Carolina and one in which the people of Wilmington should become deeply interested. Wilmington is the most important city in North Carolina and should be better known by her people. We have much to show that will be really attractive to the people of middle and western North Carolina, besides we should take pains to show to outsiders what our resources are.

A great exhibit from Wilmington will do more to promote a proper amount of public spirit among our citizens than any other means we can employ.

We hope the visit of Messrs Primrose and Fries, may result as we believe it will, in deepening the interest now beginning to be felt in this most important work.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

A fresh supply just received, and sold only from

HEINSBERGER'S,
Live Book and Music Store.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Are You in Want of Spring Clothing
of any Description?

IF SO DO NOT WASTE VALUABLE TIME BUT COME AT ONCE TO supply your wants from our Mammoth Stock. We will never deceive you. Every suit, garment or article that we carry is solid, perfect and durable. We will not keep or offer for sale goods of any class or in any line that we cannot honestly guarantee as well worth, in wear and tear, all that they cost you. We buy largely, but we buy judiciously. We buy to suit our trade, and our trade consists of all classes, and our prices sell our goods. When we say that we sell only Clothing equal to the finest custom-made work and that every garment sold is guaranteed to be exactly as represented or the money will be refunded, we mean just what we say, and every word of our guarantee can be depended upon as surely as a government bond, and that our prices are the lowest in the city, no body doubts, for instance, that we are now selling a beautiful, all wool suit at $8 really worth $12.50; all-wool Pants at $2 worth $3.50; a very good pair Pants at $1 worth $1.50. Finally, a man, however light his purse, will always be welcomed by

St. Patrick's Day.

Yesterday, as was noted in our paper, was duly celebrated here as St. Patrick's Day, and it is not too late to-day to publish a few interesting items relative to this patron saint which we gleam from an exchange:

The feast of St. Patrick, or St. Patrick's day, is observed with great reverence by the Irish people, he being the patron saint of the Emerald Isle, and the legendary accounts of the benefits bestowed on that land by him are interesting, and reverently cherished; among other good things done, he is credited with having banished snakes from that soil, and it is believed by some that Irish soil will prove fatal to the snake that may venture upon it even when brought across the water to snake productive America. And a story is told of a court of justice having submitted an important trial of ownership to an island, in dispute between an Irish claimant and a Scotch or Englishman, to the arbitration of snakes.

The difficulty of arriving at the fact as to whether the island was Irish territory or not was so great that a solution seemed improbable if not impossible.

Finally, the generous nature of the Hibernian exhibited itself in a proposition to have a number of snakes placed on the island and if they thrived and did well the land did not belong to Ireland and he would relinquish his claim. But if they sickened and died then his ownership was to be acknowledged.

The trial was made by consent of the court; the snakes, some three dozen in number, were placed on the island and in a very short time were all dead, and the Irishman's claim was never again disputed.

Another story is told that a ship crossing the ocean having on board a boa constrictor, with other reptiles and animals for a museum in this country, was blown near the Irish coast and the storm subsiding was left becalmed for some days before getting out to sea again. The huge snake became sick while there and by the time New York was reached, it was extinct and his appearance in the museum was only after the skin had received the careful touch of the taxidermist.

It is said that when St. Patrick first visited the Island as a missionary, he found the doctrine of the Holy Trinity the most difficult to be comprehended of all the Christian belief, and after various attempts, he plucked a sprig of three leaved clover and by this simple means illustrated the idea of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, as three in one, by the three leaves joined in the stem of the branch of clover, and thus explained to them that doctrine now held in high reverence by a large part of the Christian world and yet is confessedly one of difficult explanation.

Silver Plated Spoons, Forks and Knives of best quality, and at manufacturer's prices, can be found at JACONI'S Hardware Depot.
