Candidates are tested as to their ability to write, their knowledge of mathematics, &c., and are then instructed as to the rights of passengers, the uses of different kinds of tickets, the situation of stations, &c.

The tea importers of the country are a good deal stirred up over the introduction of a bill in Congress prohibiting the importation of tea-dust. They argue that they have to pay for it with the tea they buy in China or Japan, that it is wholesome, and that any adulteration can easily be detected. But it may well be doubted if the sweepings of even pure tea can be a wholesome drink.

Some wonderful exhibitions of mesmerism have recently been given in Philadelphia by "Prof." Gustave Kennedy. One of his subjects when in a trance ate cayenne pepper of the strong kind, as if it had been sugar. His control over the sense of feeling was manifested also by sewing the tongue of a subject with an ordinary thread and needle to the upper lip, and stitching the cheeks.

Breakfast parties are the fashionable Lenten entertainments in New York, and are served at 11 o'clock by candle-light. All daylight is excluded, and guests, generally about twenty in number, are seated around four small tables five guests at each table, and the tables are placed sufficiently near for general conversation. Breakfast is served in courses, after which there may be music or any amusement suggested by the hostess.

The National Republican at Washington authoritatively denies that the President is prostituting his office and using the power and machinery of the Government to secure his re-nomination. "Neither the President nor any person by his authority or in his behalf has attempted in the slightest degree to influence the course of Government officials or to make use of them in manipulating conventions or selecting delegates," that paper says, and it adds: "If the choice of the Republican convention at Chicago shall fall upon him, he will be incomparably the stronger for not having attempted to capture it by the use of means which though fair enough as politics go would not be in harmony with his clear and dignified administration, and which would give his enemies something that they are now searching for in vain—an argument against him." This official utterance is significant as avowing that the President is a candidate for re-nomination, though he will not resort to any "undignified" means to secure it.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger (Protectionist) writes: The reunion of the Tilden and Tammany factions in this city is no longer a matter of conjecture or speculation, but a demonstrable fact, the full significance of which the managers of the party outside of New York will not fail to comprehend in its direct relations to the approaching National Convention. The Star, Mr. Kelly's organ, no longer hesitates to declare that the duty of the hour is the re-nomination of the old ticket; and it must be remembered that back of this declaration are the seventy thousand votes which the Tammany chief professes to control on this side of the Harlem River. This confirms the statement heretofore of your correspondent, that the tariff issue is to be thrown aside by the New York managers, and the old "fraud" cry substituted. It is in fact the culmination of negotiations that have been going on between Gramercy Park and the Fourteenth street Wigwam for weeks past, and it furnishes the key to the failure of certain Democratic leaders to keep their promise to Mr. Morrison that he should have a series of mass meetings at Cooper Institute to back up his tariff bill at Washington. The situation has changed since that bill was first hatched and since that promise was given. At that time Mr. Tilden was "simply an impossibility," and there was some prospect that the party in Congress could be united on a tariff for revenue only; now, the latter, without Mr. Randall's support, is seen to be out of the question, and as for the old gentleman of Gramercy Park, he is no longer an impossibility, but a strong probability, if not a fixed fact. Mr. Carlisle, Mr. Morrison, Mr. Hewitt, Mr. Beck, Mr. Pendleton, and all the other "favorite sons," that are supposed to be looking forward to the Chicago Convention with feelings of more or less personal interest, are doubtless very able men; but when it comes to sly political management, or running the machine, they are no match for the old foxes here when they choose to come together, as in this instance, to lay their plans for the future.

She—"And therein are appearances deceitful. He is not so fresh looking, but quite as fresh."—Boston Transcript. "Only think of it," exclaimed Mrs. Bullion, "that creature of Mahlistick actually threatens to sue me!" "Does he? Why, haven't you paid him for your portrait?" "No, I haven't, and what's more, I won't." "What, aren't you satisfied with it? It's a perfect likeness." "I know it. Isn't he awfully mean?"—Hawkeye.

Weston, according to lately received English exchanges, is working well up towards the two thousandth mile of his 5,000 mile tramp. The Queens of Society are among the staunchest advocates of beautifying SOZODONT, which communicates to the teeth the glistening whiteness of snow, arrests their decay, renders spongy and ulcerated gums healthy, and breath made offensive by defective teeth as sweet as honey suckle. Durham tobacco. It was neutral ground during the strife between Sherman and Johnston. Soldiers of both armies filled their pouches with the tobacco stored there, and, after the surrender, marched homeward. Soon orders came from East, West, North and South, for "more of that kind of tobacco." Then, ten men ran an unknown factory. Now it employs 800 men, uses the pink and pick of the Golden Belt, and the Durham Bull is the trademark of this the best tobacco in the world. Blackwell's still Durham Smoking Tobacco has the largest sale of any smoking tobacco in the world. Why? Simply because it is the best. All dealers have it. Trade-mark of the Bull.

Six months ago THE WORLD commenced its new career. Its growth has been unprecedented. Its wonderful advance in circulation, in advertising, in influence, in popularity, warrants the claim of a leading position in New York journalism. No expense or effort will be spared until THE WORLD is recognized as the GREATEST as well as the BRIGHTEST and CHEAPEST PAPER IN AMERICA. THE WORLD, as the leading Democratic newspaper in the country, knows no faction and recognizes no individual ambitions or aspirations aside from the general good of the party and the Republic. At the entrance of the new year the new WORLD desires to express its gratitude for the hearty welcome it has received and the magnificent success it has already achieved. Its welcome comes from the people. Its success is the work. They have endorsed its merits by more than trebling its circulation in six months, and by doubling its advertising.
