

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 1884.

Printed at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Some valuable points regarding the insulation of electric wires have been gained in connection with lighting the Brooklyn bridge.

The Indianapolis World, organ of the 10,000 colored men in Indiana who vote the Republican ticket, thus humbly petitions the bosses for representation.

The Freddy Gebhardt of England is about to dawn upon this benighted country, apropos to which glorious event the Brooklyn Eagle's New York correspondent says: When Lord Garmoye arrives the death knell of Freddy Gebhardt will be rung.

Mrs. Cora A. Slocum, for years the chief in New Orleans society and the leader in all good works, died in that city on Saturday.

It was very desirable to enact the Electoral Reform bill before another general election in the United Kingdom, but it is now rumored that Mr. Gladstone has decided to dissolve Parliament, perceiving that disquiet as to the Egyptian problem will induce the Tories to attack with increased and perhaps fatal vigor a measure which would operate so injuriously to them.

It is said of the Pope that he is in miserable health and in a nervous, excitable frame of mind, refusing to see any one but his favorite cardinals.

According to a Paris paper, Mrs. Mackay will hereafter have considerable difficulty in finding any French artist willing to paint her portrait.

Aprons are now worn by fashionable ladies every where except in the kitchen.

Four of the British guns used in the bombardment of Alexandria, says the New York Mail, could each send a shot weighing 1,700 pounds through twenty-seven inches of solid iron, at a distance of 500 yards.

many is undertaking a thorough torpedo equipment and is to build fifty torpedo boats, English critics remorselessly ridicule the American steel cruisers now in process of construction, and in theory and practice our naval system is wholly wrong.

Ayer's Hair Vigor stimulates the hair cells to healthy action, and promotes a vigorous growth. It contains all that can be supplied to make the natural hair beautiful and abundant.

Republican conventions were held in a number of counties of Pennsylvania last week to elect delegates to the Republican State Convention.

It is announced that Mrs. Frank Leslie, widow of the publisher, is engaged to the Marquis de Lenville, of France.

The Rev. Dr. A. B. Earle, the well known Baptist evangelist, has during his more than fifty years of service preached about 21,000 times.

Major B. F. Eakle will be general manager of the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs the coming season.

They should counteract the injurious effect of tobacco upon the teeth, with the sterling preservative and purifier, SOZODONT, which not only whitens the teeth and renders the gums healthy, but banishes from the teeth every objectionable odor.

Oscar is very much wicker than he was on hearing a report that he and his mother do not go into the best English society.

A correspondent in Russia says the Czar of late has grown ten years older. His birthdays must come with great rapidity.

Naples has quite a throng of English and American tourists now, attracted by the slight display of fireworks from Vesuvius.

There is said to be a coldness between the Queen and the Prince of Wales, family disturbances occur in the highest social circles.

Eight Years' Scrofula Cured. A valued correspondent, Albert Simpson, Esq., writing from Peoria, Ill. says: "Samaritan Nervine cured me of scrofula, after having suffered for eight years with the disease."

Chronic Costiveness Cured by Brandreth's Pills. BULLY BUTNO MILLS, ARIZONA TERR., Jan. 24, 1883.

Physicians Prescribe in Epilepsy. "I prescribe it in my practice," is the expression used by Dr. J. A. Patmore, of Riley, Ind. He referred to Samaritan Nervine, and further along says: "It cures epileptic fits."

MARCH MIRTH.

"A book publisher announces: 'In press—A Pretty Girl.' She is often in that pleasant predicament—and the work is to be continued next week.—Norristown Herald.

"Yes," said Fogg. "I've met many successes in life. That's the trouble, you know. The things a fellow meets are always going the other way."—Pittsburg Telegraph.

"I Climb to Rest" is the name of Lucy Larcom's latest poem. Whence the inference that her poetry does not pay enough to permit Miss Larcom to room on the parlor floor.—Rochester Express.

Amateur Tenor (just from Paris) "And have you never heard of Gounod's 'Crepuscule'?" Unmusical Young Lady "O dear! No; how dreadful. Is it anything like spinal meningitis?"—Life.

"Can you steer the mainmast down the forecabin stairs?" asked a sea captain of a new hand. "Yes, sir. I can if you will stand below and coil it up." The captain didn't catechise that man any more.—New Orleans Dem.
